Music Personalities

—By Thurstan Moore—

ERNEST TUBB

Ernest Tubb is one of the most celebrated stars of country music and speaks with a real Texas drawl. Tall, lean, Ernest Tubb was born in the Lone Star State in 1914. He was chosen by Mrs. Jimmie Rodgers as the successor in the music field to her late husband, the immortal "Singing Brakeman." It is with Jimmie Rodgers' famous guitar that Ernest Tubb makes his fine Decca recordings.

Tubb is now celebrating his 15th year with the Decca Recording Company and has sold millions of phonograph records and has made personal appearances in nearly every city of the United States and Canada. He will appear at Verana Lake Ranch, Verana, Ky., on Memorial Day, May 30, and is looking forward to seeing his many fans in this part of the country.

Ernest Tubb's long list of accomplishments include several national "hit" recordings; he is star of the famous Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, and appears regularly on the Grand Ole Opry TV and radio shows, plus heading his own radio show, broadcast direct from the Ernest Tubb Record Shop in Nashville. He has been recipient of many awards and titles; however, none have ever changed his sincerity and his deep loyalty to his legion of fans.

Ernest and his lovely wife and fine children reside in a comfortable home in Nashville, and his favorite sport is playing golf. We'll look forward to seeing you at Verona Lake Ranch, and if you want more stories of your favorite stars, drop us a post card at Verona, Ky.

Bass Delivery to Farm Ponds

Delivery of bass to farm ponds started May 8, in the Ninth and Fifth Districts, according to a report from Frankfort. A fair production of bass fry has been reported at the two hatcheries and they will be moved out as fast as possible to approximately 4,200 farm ponds.

Deliveries will be made on Central Standard Time in all counties except those living in the Eastern Time Belt. Farmers are to be notified of the date and site of deliveries and they are asked to be on hand promptly to obtain their quota of fish.

HE MERITS RENOMINATION, ELECTION

Voters of the Fifth District should have no difficulty in deciding for whom to vote in the race for Congressman in the Democratic primary on Tuesday, May 29.

Rep. Brent Spence, who has served this district so well for 13 terms in Congress and is seeking renomination and election for the 14th time, has a record of service for northern Kentucky and the nation that would occupy the greater part of this page if it were all described.

The Kentucky Post endorses the candidacy of Rep. Spence. We believe that citizens of the district will give him a larger vote of confidence at the polls on primary day. His every succeeding term in Congress and his faithful record of service to the people at home whom he represents, should call for a great outpouring of his constituents on May 29 to return him to Congress.

Congressman Spence, as most persons know, has consistently proved he is a hard working, capable and sincere representative of the people in Washington. As chairman of the powerful Committee on Banking and Currency, he has served and is serving today in piloting through the House legislation that affects the welfare of every man, woman and child not only here, but across the nation. It is because of his seniority that he is entitled to fill this important responsibility.

Looking back through the years, one remembers the important aid which Rep. Spence has given in obtaining flood walls for cities, legislation guaranteeing deposits in banks and building associations, higher tobacco prices and favorable legislation for farmers, laws to give small business a chance, aid in keeping the Veterans Hospital at Ft. Thomas, valued assistance in establishing our local airport and helping since in its upbuilding, housing projects for our local area to provide low-rent tenancy, piloting of legislation for purification of the Ohio river, a labor record above reproach and a faithful worker for laws to help the laboring man, these and a host of other accomplishments could be listed to the credit of our veteran congressman.

In fact, when one scans the record of this venerable public servant, he must conclude that if the people of the Fifth District failed to support him handsomely at the polls on May 29, they would be turning their backs on one of the great assets they have in the national Congress. Truth is their wholehearted support should be a measure of gratitude for the loyal and capable service Rep. Spence has given.

Less than a month ago, we observed Rep. Spence at work in Washington, at hearings of his Banking and Currency Committee and on the floor of the House sponsoring the law to prevent bank holding companies from gobbling up small banks. We must say that he pursued his duties far more vigorously and effectively due to his long experience, than many a younger man, very much his junior in Congress.

The Kentucky Post believes that the Democratic voters of the Fifth District will show the same fine intelligence in voting for Mr. Spence on May 29 that they have in the past and will renominate him for their representative in Congress for another term, counting themselves fortunate to have this veteran as their spokesman in Washington.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Joe Schodler is home from the hospitol and tells me she is feeling just fine.

Bob Mathis of Camp Hungry, Tom Brumback of Independence, and the writer made a fishing trip to Woolper Creek Saturday. Included in our catch of about nine pounds was a three-pound catfish caught by Bob and a two-pound carp by the writer. They were biting good in the backwater from the Ohio.

Tobacco plant beds are looking fine and plants are pretty thick in most beds, in fact the writer had to pull up quite a bunch of them while wedding the bed as they were too thick.

We are sorry to lose our good neighbors, Chas. Hoose and family, who have sold their home on the corner of Harris Pike and Taylor Mill and will move shortly, back to the scene of his boyhood days in Fort Thomas. We envy him in a way as it has always been our ambition to spend our last years at the scene of our childhod in Robbit Hash, Ky., where fishing in the Ohio, and hunting in the hills is the best in this part of the state.

Accidents were numerous on both Decoursey and Taylor Mill pikes over the week-end, nine people were injured, fortunately none seriously.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

The Piner Homemakers are completing 25 years of home demonstration work. They are winding up their 25th year with a veriety of activities On May 4, the club held a display at the Piner school auditorium. May 11, the regular meeting was held at the home of Mrs Amos Lunsford. May 15, was set as a special work day for cafe curtains and May 24, they are planning a lesson on reconditioning picture frames.

Mrs. Leslie Smith led the devotional and planned the program for the May meeting. Mrs. Malcolm Oliver gave notes on exterior beautification with emphasis on lown core and shrub pruning. Mrs. Willis Streine and Mrs. Fred McMillian gave readings and Mrs. Roy Tomlin gave a book review on "Letters to Mrs. Slotopor," by Irving Stone. Mrs. Chester Mullins gave the lesson on home freezing, demonstroting the newest methods in preparations and packaging.

ROOT DEVELOPMENT FACTORS IMPORTANT

Root development is most importont in plant growth—in many coses root oreos exceed the size of the above-ground plant—and core should be token to give roots a chance to develop.

So says George A. Morlowe, Jr., U. K Extension horticulturist. Morlowe noted thot beon roots will go down about two feet, early tomotoes, from five to seven feet, and lote tomotoes as much as 12 feet in sondy loam soil.

For thot reason, in preparing for garden planting, o loose, deep seedbed should be prpared about 10 inches down and o compost added if possible, Marlowe says.

Some garden plants' roots will toke up 75 cubic feet of space during a normol growing seoson. So, unless root development is recognized os an important factor and the deep seedbeds ore prepared, planting procedures may be wosted.

LET'S CONTINUE KENTUCKY'S LEADERSHIP IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE

Earle C. Clements is a man who is—and always has been—deeply interested in and responsive to all Kentuckians. His life is dedicated to you, the people.

Today Earle C. Clements is applying to all Kentuckians for high position — that of being re-elected as U.S. Senator. He knows the problems ahead. He realizes that constant, untiring effort is needed to serve the interests of Kentuckians. He is fully aware of his grave responsibilities.

Now it is up to YOU, the people, to decide if this man has the experience, the appreciation of Kentucky's needs, the character and the national standing to best serve you.

Selection of men for position of high responsibility should be left only to the PEOPLE for decision. Therefore, the qualifications of Earle C. Clements are briefly presented here so that you may study the record.

The Qualifications of EARLE C. CLEMENTS • APPLICANT

Years of broad experience — Earle Clements has served the people of Kentucky on every government level: LOCAL... as sheriff, county clerk and county judge of Union County. STATE... as State Senator and Governor. FEDERAL... as U.S. Representative and U.S. Senator.

HE UNDERSTANDS AGRICULTURAL PROBLEMS
Earle Clements has been close to the farmer and his problems all his life. The farmer does not have a truer or more helpful friend. Earle Clements is the leading spokesman for the tobacco grower in the U.S. Senate. It was he who led the successful fight to restore the 15 per cent tobacco acreage cut ordered by Secretary Benson.

HE WORKS FOR EDUCATION
During his term as Governor, the Common School Fund was increased 56.6 per cent, and the Equalization Fund was raised 119.9 per cent. As U.S. Senator, he is the sponsor of bills to provide federal funds for school construction and to raise teachers' salaries.

HE FIGHTS FOR GOOD ROADS
Earle Clements started his fight for good roads as county judge, and continued it as Governor and Senator. He started Kentucky's expanded rural roads program. As Senator, he is pushing increased federal aid for state roads and city projects as well as for the interstate system of highways.

HE LOOKS OUT FOR LABOR
Men and women who work for a living have a real friend in Earle Clements. Both in Congress and as Governor, he has opposed punitive legislation against labor. His record has won official endorsement.

HE KNOWS THE IMPORTANCE OF WELFARE AND SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS
These programs have a strong supporter in Earle Clements. While he was Governor, vast improvements were made for child welfare, mental health, state institutions. Old age pensions were raised 59 per cent.

HE CONSTANTLY PROMOTES KENTUCKY'S DEVELOPMENT
He has provided important leadership for the economic development of our state. The Agriculture and Industrial Development Board was created and the state's tourist promotion and Park Development program were started while he was Governor. Kentucky needs him in the Senate to help advance its economic welfare.

HE'S A LEADER IN CONSERVATION AND FLOOD CONTROL
Kentucky made great advances in soil conservation, flood control, forestry, pollution abatement and wildlife conservation under Earle Clements as Governor. As U.S. Senator, he has been effective in getting flood control and water development projects for our state, and was, with the late Senator Barkley, the sponsor of new legislation to develop the small watersheds.

HE HAS HELPED DEVELOP ELECTRICAL POWER FOR KENTUCKY
Earle Clements believes Kentucky needs more electric power to promote industry and serve rural and city people. As Governor, he developed friendly working relationships between public and private power groups. In Congress and as Governor, he has always been a consistent supporter of REA.

THERE IS THE RECORD. YOU DECIDE IF YOU WANT AS YOUR SENATOR A MAN WHO GETS THINGS DONE —AGGRESSIVELY, QUIETLY, SUCCESSFULLY AND WITHOUT BROKEN PROMISES. CONSIDER SERIOUSLY A MAN WHO IS FOR THE PEOPLE.

There will be an old fashioned box social, sponsored by the Ladies of the Lake, held at the Latonia Lakes Club House, at 8 p. m., Saturday, May 26. Each lady is to bring a box lunch for two people. Anyone bringing children should bring a lunch for them. There will be a prize for the prettiest box. The public is invited.

Do you need a permanent wave? If you do, then come to the Taylor Mill Fire House at 8 p. m., May 31. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Taylor Mill Fire Department is cooperating with Proctor and Gamble's Consumer Research program. They will give a Lilt home permanent kit to each lady who comes. The lady must agree to either give herself the permonent or have someone give it to her within a week. At the end of a week she will return to have her permanent wave inspected. She must return again in seven weeks to have her hair inspected again. The Ladies Auxiliary will greatly appreciate all who will come and cooperate in this project.

Miss Edith Bunce of the Isle of Wight, England, was guest of honor at the May meeting of the Oak Ridge Homemakers Club, which was held at the home of Mrs. Rolph Bauer on East 21st St., Covington. Miss Bunce is a District Nurse and Midwife on the Isle of Wight. She is a member of the Wroxall Women's Institute, which corresponds to the Homemakers Clubs in this country. She is in this country on a three months visit to her sister, Miss Olive Bunce, who is a nurse and midwife with the Frontier Nursing Service in Perry county, Kentucky. She spent th week of May 13 with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tallent, Lipscomb Road. Mrs. E. C. Harris honored her with a luncheon May 17 at her home on Lipscomb Road. Other luncheon guests were Mrs. W. C. Tallent and Mrs. L. E. Thompson. Mrs. Tollent and Mrs. W. O. Mitchell drove Miss Bunce to Lexington and Winchester, May 18, where they visited the University of Kentucky and other points of interest.

There were 195 at Sunday School at Oak Ridge Baptist Church last Sunday. This broke the previous attendance record of 194 and was five more than were present Easter Sunday. Let's all continue to be in the Lord's House on Sunday.

Misses Sylvia Williams, Mary Bird, Diane Hoffman, Molly Boird, Sharon Works, Donna McNabb, Juanita Kemper and Corolyn Glass attended the G. A. coronation at Madison Avenue Baptist Church, Sunday night. They also attended the regional G. A. rally at Walton Baptist Church, Saturday.

The final P.T.A. meeting of the present school yeor wos held at Taylor Mill School, May 21. Mrs. Audrey Stone installed the new officers: President, Mrs. Robert White; vice president, Mrs. Thurston Moore; secretory, Mrs. W. A. Martin; treasurer, Bruce Clark. The devotional was led by Rev. George Miller, followed by the salute to the flag. The P.T.A. voted to purchase a loud speoker system for the school. The Mother Singers of Taylor Mill School and Kenton Elementary School, led by Miss Minerva Riggs, presented three beautiful selections. R. C. Hinsdale, principal of Simon Kenton High School, spoke on the efforts being made to help the new seventh grade pupils in their orientation and adjustment to life at the high school. Mrs. Smith's room won the room prize. There was a lovely exhibit of lamps made in the 4-H Club electrical project by pupils of the fifth and sixth grades, led by Mrs. Oscar Hastings. Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. Wesley Hall and the sixth grade mothers.

Middle Age and Beyond

By Dr G. C. Donohoo

Our body machinery runs night and day from birth to death. No matter how perfect it was to begin with or how we take care of it, certain ports are opt to show the effects of wear and tear during middle age and beyond. This is one reason why an annual examination by a Chiropractor is particularly important for people over 45. If we know what our limitations are, we can learn how to adjust our ways of living in order to avoid overstepping them.

For women who are undergoing the naturol physiological changes which usually begin between the ages of 40 and 50, a thorough Chiropractic examinoton is advisable.

Certain diseases usually do not oppeor until later life and then develop slowly. Hardening of the arteries, chronic kidney disease, and extreme nervousness may gain headway in the body before a person is aware that something is wrong. If the trouble is detected in its early stages, an individual, by following his Chiropractor's instructions, may be able to continue to work and to enjoy life for many years to come.

Modern Chiropractors meet the problem of disease of illness through the physicol and mechonical approach, rother than through the chemicol or drug opproach. Under modern Chiropractic the technique is plainless. Frail, sick, aged and even infonts ore cared for without pain. Its record is the alleviation of suffering, and restoration of health is most gratifying.

(One of o series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, who has offices in Walton and Florence. Phone AT 3-5371.)

Dedication Service May 27

Dedication services for the Community Pentecostal Church of God, located on Taylor Mill Road, Whites Tower, Kenton county, will be held Sunday, May 27, from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. The Rev. O. B. Mullins, formerly of this area, will preach the dedicatory sermon. Rev. Ellis Rowland is pastor of this new church.

The history of the church has a very colorful background, and follows:

"During July, 1954, the Full Gospel Assembly Church of Newport, Ky., held a tent revival at Nicholson, Ky. The Lord dealt with several hearts and showed them a need for a Full Gospel Church in this community.

"After weeks of prayer and seeking of God's will, on Saturday evening, October 23, 1954, Bro. and Sister Dee S. Gadd called a prayer meeting in their farm home. Forty people turned out, all desiring to establish a church. Being unable to find an empty building, they decided to begin having services in a small two-room house on the Gadd farm.

"On November 6, 1954, the first service was held and approximately 30 people attended. On November 7, 1954 the first Sunday School was held, with Bro. Ben McGuire as superintendent. The attendance at all services increased and on January 1, 1955, we moved into a large barn, which the men had converted into a suitable place of worship.

"In may of 1955 the church body purchased two lots from Ralph Howard on the corner of Harris Road and Taylor Mill Pike. During the summer a group of men built the church basement that is being dedicated to the Lord, Sunday, May 27, 1956.

"In September, 1955, the Lord sent us a pastor and his family. Rev. and Mrs. Ellis Rowland, formerly of the Full Gospel Assembly of Newport.

"Since Rev. Rowland has been pastoring the church, it has grown and we had 88 in Sunday School, on May 20, 1956. We truly thank our Lord and Saviour for a vision of 'fields white unto harvest'. We preach and practice the Full Gospel. We have no creed but Christ, no book but the Bible, and no membership but a Fellowship.

"The trustees of the Community Pentecostal Church of God are: G. T. Dyer, Verona, Walker Bullock, Walton, Ben McGuire, Latonia, Dee S. Gadd is moderator, and Rev. Ellis Rowland, pastor."

CLEAN WATER CALLED BEST BURLEY STARTER

Plenty of clean water is just as effective, in the long run, as any so-called "starter solution" so for tested at the University of Kentucky Experiment Station for transplanting burley tobacco, says Charles E. Bortner, agronomist.

"The question is raised each spring as to the value of starter solutions," he says. "Various materials have been tested in replicated tests in this state and in other states. Results indicate that probably the best starter solution available is plenty of clean water."

In some of the tests there was an early response to the use of starter materials in setter water but this response did not last through the season. When the crop was harvested and stripped, the treated plots gave no greater returns in yield, or dollars per acre, than the untreated plots. Plant growth promoting substances applied in setter water also have been tested but without beneficial results.

"A deep, fertile and well drained soil properly fertilized prior to setting should produce a rapidly growing, quick-maturing crop. If the soil does not have good depth or is poorly drained, or is low in fertility, or has been improperly fertilized, the use of a small amount of fertilizer in the setter water will not make up for the inherent faults of the soil or for improper fertilization," Mr. Bortner says.

FEDERAL LAND BANK LOANS

FEDERAL LAND BANK LOANS—

The LONG term and LOW interest rate of a Federal Land Bank loan makes is stand out among all farm real estate loans available today.

LONG term means you'll have 20, 33, 34½ or even 40 years to repay. And, there's no penalty for paying ahead of schedule.

LOW interest rate means your 4% interest rate can never go higher during the life of your loan. Dividends, as paid, have the net effect of reducing this even further for you get back part of what you pay in as interest.

Come in now and learn about the LONG term and LOW interest features of a FEDERAL LAND BANK LOAN.

Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER

Today, the average home uses 3 times as much electricity as it did 15 years ago. That's why 4 out of 5 homes now suffer from low HOUSEPOWER. This is true even of brand new homes. Here are the conditions that cause you to have low HOUSEPOWER:

1. Inadequate electrical service entrance. To overcome this basic cause of low HOUSEPOWER, you should have service entrance capacity of at least 100 amperes. This requires 3-wire service from the street.

2. Overloaded circuits. Too many appliances on one circuit overload it and none of them get enough power. Motors may even burn out. If the overload is too great, the fuse will blow or circuit-breaker trip. You should have enough branch circuits to distribute enough electricity to all appliances.

3. Insufficient outlets. Some homeowners use extension cords and "octopus" outlets (2- and 3-way plugs), or plug into lighting outlets. Such practices are unsightly, inconvenient, and may be dangerous. Rearranging furniture doesn't help. The only safe solution is to add more circuits and outlets.

These are the symptoms of low HOUSEPOWER: lights dimming when appliances are turned on; blown fuses or tripped circuit-breakers; TV picture shrinking when other appliances are turned on; appliances working inefficiently or taking too long to heat up.

If any of these symptoms are present in your home call your electric company, electrician or electrical contractor for a wiring check-up. If added wiring is necessary, your electrician or electrical contractor will do the job quickly, neatly, economically. It often takes less than a day. Remember, full HOUSEPOWER increases the value of your home.

GETS HOME AGENT JOB

Miss Helen Horton

Miss Helen Horton, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Walter Horton, Walton, Route 2, has been appointed Home Demonstration Agent in training, beginning June 1, in Hart county. She will work with Miss Jones, Home Demonstration Agent, according to an announcement from Miss Alda Henning, Acting State Leader of Home Demonstration Agents of Kentucky.

Miss Horton has been interested in home demonstration work for some time. For 1½ years she was secretary in the Boone County Extension office before entering college. Last summer she was Apprentice Home Demonstration Agent in Boone county, under the guidance of Miss Nancy Guilfoil, Boone County Home Agent.

On May 31, Miss Horton will be one of 190 students to receive the Bachelor degree at Western Kentucky State College at Bowling Green. She will receive the BS degree in home economics.

While at Western she not only was an honor student scholastically, but also found time for participation in various campus and church clubs and activities.

Military Policeman In Europe

Pfc. Shirley C. Huff, 18, son of Mr and Mrs. Herman V. Huff, Route 1, Crittenden, is assigned to the European Communications Zone in France.

Huff, a military policeman in the 34th Military Police Platoon, entered the Army in November, 1954, and arrived in Europe in April of 1955. He completed basic training at Ft. Knox. Huff attended Grant County High School.

Oak Island Homemakers

Eight members attended the May meeting of the Oak Island Homemakers club, which was called to order by Mrs. Art Steeley, president. The devotional, led by Mrs. Cecil Northcutt, consisted of reading Proverbs 7.8. She also read a poem, Mother and Recipe For A Home.

Miss Byerly attended the meeting and discussed what other clubs had done, projects the past six years. A project for next year, the club chose guide posts. Margaret Wainscott also gave a lesson on picture frames. The club sponsored a special work evening for young homemakers on Friday, May 4, and 11 lamps were completed in the course of the evening. May 8, an exhibit observing National Home Demonstration Week was held, and the following projects exhibited: The Three Meals, Decorating Cakes, Lamps, Baskets, Cafe Curtains, Hand Paintings, and Rug Making.

Further entertainment was added to the program with the showing of the Walt Disney film, 'Natures Half Acre.' Refreshments were served, and an enjoyable evening was had by all.

PIANO RECITAL, SAT'DAY

Mrs. Thomas Strittmatter will present her pupils in a piano recital on Saturday, May 26, at 2:00 p. m., at the Walton public school. Those who are to participate in the program are as follows:

Burlington Rd. Homemakers

Mrs. Louisa Edrington was hostess to the Burlington Road Homemakers Club for the May meeting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lafe Miller, Belleview.

A lesson on lamp shades was given and election of officers held. Mrs. Alfred Becker was elected president; Mrs. R. M. Lucas, vice president; Mrs. Chas. Riehemann, secretary-treasurer.

Members who responded to roll call: Mrs. Arthur Ammon, Mrs. Joe Northcutt, Mrs. Lester Muff, Mrs. Charles Ricer, Mrs. Alfred Becker, Mrs. Chas. Riehemann, Mrs. Harry Whaley, Mrs. John Kyle, Mrs. A. B. Smoot, Mrs. Robert Ammon, Mrs. Joe Dringenberg, Mrs. Anna McMullen, Mrs. William Tupman, Mrs. Robert Eastman, and Mrs. Louisa Edrington. Mrs. Ruby Schriva was a guest.

There will be a picnic for the club at the home of the president, Mrs. A. B. Smoot, on Old Toll Road, Florence, on June 14.

Sending Spirit

Lesson for May 27, 1956

IF THE Descending Spirit is the story of the second chapter of Acts, the thirteenth tells part of the story of the Sending Spirit. People may be very much interested in the Descending Spirit but not enough in the Sending Spirit. People today like Simon of Samaria in olden times, want the Holy Spirit to descend into their hearts — but for the wrong reasons, sometimes. We want the Spirit to help us do what we want to do, to accomplish our plans, to make us persuasive and popular personalities. But the Spirit of God, although everybody's aid, is nobody's aide. The aide to a general is just the General's right arm, his tongue — whatever the General wants done, the aide is there to see it done. The Holy Spirit is no aide!

Dr. Foreman

God Can Break Up Good Plans

The church at Antioch was going strong when the Holy Spirit broke into their plans. We don't know how the Spirit spoke to them, nor how they were sure it was the Spirit. But one thing is pretty certain; they must have had plans which the Sending Spirit broke up. Barnabas and Saul were what we would call today Associate Pastors of that big city congregation. They had been together there only a year, and that is a short pastorate. Very likely Saul and Barnabas both, along with the church, had plans of one kind and another afoot — good plans, evangelistic, sacrificial. But the Spirit said No. The Spirit had other plans. The church must set aside Barnabas and Saul, cut them off from their growing, successful work in the First Church of Antioch, and send them out as missionaries. They must go to parts unknown, to places not nearly so important as Antioch, to the backwoods perhaps. They must go out and endanger their lives, far from the peaceful busy streets of Antioch. The Holy Spirit has often come to men in disturbing ways. He often breaks up our best plans. The thing to remember is that God knows better than we do. God's Spirit never breaks up a good plan unless it is for the sake of his better one.

The Spirit Through the Church

The way the Spirit operated there in Antioch is instructive. The Spirit called Saul and Barnabas; also the Spirit spoke to the church. The command was given: Separate Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them. And the church obediently "laid its hands on" these two leaders and sent them out. The Sending Spirit often works in this way. Most missionaries today are selected and sent out by mission boards of some kind. The boards will not, if they know it, send any one to a mission field who has no sense of being called by the Spirit. But on the other hand, even if a young man feels the Spirit has called him, if in the Board's judgment he will not make a good missionary, they will not accept and send him. This is all in the wisdom of God. It gives a missionary today, and it gave Saul and Barnabas back yonder, a strong "lift" to know that the church is backing them up, praying for them, wishing them well, ready to send reinforcements if they fall by the wayside. Sometimes the only way a call of the Spirit comes to a man or woman is through the church. Older Christians ought to realize their responsibilities here.

The Church Through Men

God does not call all men to be missionaries. But he does call every Christian man, woman and child to be missionary. That is, missionary in heart and purpose. The church that is not sending and supporting missionaries, directly or indirectly, by themselves or through a board of missions, the church that is not out there on the firing line through its representatives, the church that doesn't even know there is a firing line, the church that spends all its money and all its interest on itself —such a church is not even a cousin of the kind of church we read of in the early days, like the Church at Antioch. The selfish congregation is contributing to the death of the church; the sending church is contributing to its life—its own and the life of the Christian fellowship around the world.

A cross—a hundred crosses—marking the graves of men who died in the service of their country. But why a cross?

Is this the symbol of our gratitude for the sacrifice they made for us? It is not!

Is this the emblem of democracy and freedom in whose cause they laid down their lives? It is not!

But this is the symbol of a crucified and risen Christ. The One who unfolded for mankind the truth of God's love, the truth out of which democracy, freedom, and sacrifice have come.

The cross on a soldier's grave is a call to us —a call to the living to fill our churches. It is a call to serve with eager and sacrificial devotion the Lord whose Truth men have died to preserve.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone

AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE

KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

RAIN — MADE TO ORDER. This month we are picking strawberries, planting corn and setting tobacco. How much we will harvest, nobody can tell —maybe a bumper crop—maybe not. Much will depend on the supply of water—the rainfall between May and August. No risk on the farm compares with that of the weather. About the only way to lessen the risk of drought is by the use of artificial irrigation. Irrigation is gaining rapidly in Kentucky, but not fast enough. Since 1949 the number of farms in the state using irrigation has increased from 67 to 1226. The acreage covered by such systems now amounts to 23,000 acres or about 28 times more than in 1949. It seems to me that if Kentucky is ever to participate in producing small fruits and vegetables for shipping or processing the industry will have to be developed in areas where irrigation on a large scale is practical. Marketing and processing groups cannot operate long in areas where the volume and quality of the harvest is subject to the uncertainties of the weather. The problem is of enough importance to the state that the efforts of all agricultural agencies should be concentrated in developing an area where suitable soil and water is found and where the local people are interested.

PRODUCTION CONTROL. Farmers might well take a lesson from industry on how to control production and maintain prices. A recent news item tells how the production of tractors in a Louisville plant had dropped from 437 a day in 1952 to 70 at present. The working personnel has been reduced from 7200 to near 3000 and now the plant is preparing to shift it's production to other types of equipment. If farmers could regulate their production that well they too could maintain their prices and profits. Note: Kentucky's cash receipts from farm marketings in January and February dropped from $130 million in 1955 to $56 million in 1956.

JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH. In recognizing June as Dairy Month farmers should remember the fine services performed by the Kentucky Artificial Breeders Association. This organization marks its tenth birthday later in the year. It now has 49 local cooperatives with over 19,000 members, owning some 150,000 cows. The work of the Association has been a great factor in improving the productive qualities of Kentucky cows. The artificial breeding program makes it possible to multiply by 500 the capacity of superior bulls and makes the services of proven sires available, at a very low cost, to practically every cow-owner in the state. Improvement in dairy cattle in the next ten years will be at a much more rapid rate than in the past ten years. The dairyman that fails to take advantage of this modern program is sure to be "left out in the cold."

THREE OLD STANDBYS ARE GOOD "FREEZERS"

Asparagus, spinach and rhubarb, three of the season's food offerings, may be enjoyed throughout the year if they are preserved by freezing. They all lose a great deal in flavor, texture and appearance in canning, but freeze very successfully, says Miss Florence Imlay, specialist in foods at the University of Kentucky.

Vegetables should be gathered for freezing when they are their best for eating, that is, young and tender. They will be highest in both food value and flavor if they are frozen as soon as possible after gathering, at the most within six hours.

Asparagus stalks should be washed thoroughly and scales removed on the entire length in preparation for the blanching period of 2 to 4 minutes. The upper portion is tender and will require the shorter period, but the lower end is more woody and tough. For that reason it is a good idea to cut off the lower portion for longer blanching. Quick chilling, draining and packing into containers are the final steps. Head space in the container need not be allowed for asparagus.

Spinach requires only 1 to 2 minutes of blanching after it is washed in several waters and imperfect leaves and tough stems removed. A half-inch head space must be allowed.

Rhubard may be packed without blanching. Choose young, tender stalks and cut in 1-inch pieces after washing. Pack in containers or plastic bags without sugar or syrup. Or pack in sugar, using 1 part of sugar to 4 parts of rhubarb by weight.

Wilmington W.M.S. Meets

The Wilmington Baptist W. M. S. met May 2, at the church. The meeting was opened by singing, "Work For the Night Is Coming." Prayer was by Mrs. Naomi Spegal, and the reading of the minutes was by Mrs. Lena Mae Bagby.

Fourteen members and five children were present. Thirty-five visits, 33 cards sent, and 32 phone calls were made to the sick.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Delorıs King had charge of the Royal Service program, the subject being, "Onward, Christian Soldiers." Scripture reading by Mrs. Ethel Glacken. Readings on the lesson were by Mrs. Ada Spegal, Mrs. Blanche Hanker, Mrs. Lena Bagby, Mrs. Nell Rapp, Mrs. Tobit Bridges, Mrs. Hazel Kidwell and Mrs. Marietta Wilson. The last two chapters of the book "World Within A World," was taught by Mrs. Ada Spegal. The group was dismissed by Mrs. Ethel Glacken.

Backers Say Bates Will Support Top Kentucky Projects

Fear that progress in the fields of education, conservation and roads for Kentucky will be hampered unless former Congressman Jae B. Bates is elected to the Senate was expressed this week by Robert Eades, county chairman, and Harold Rogers, farm chairman, for the Bates campaign in Boone county.

"I'm sure the voters are not willing to sacrifice the future of Kentucky to a political feud, but wish to select a candidate who will push these vital programs from Washington," Mr. Eades said.

He pointed out that Gov. A. B. Chandler has fully financed the Foundation Program for education, making possible an improved curriculum and higher teachers' salaries. The only drawback to now better education in the Commanweolth is the question of Federal aid for building programs, he added.

"Bates is committed to support the Administration on this," Mr. Eodes added.

Taking up the question of conservation and highway problems, Mr. Rogers said, "Federal funds are all important to development of small watersheds and also play a key role in reforestotion of our State. Governor Chandler is pushing both these programs with establishment of a 100-acre tree nursery at Kentucky Dam Village to offer Kentucky farmers 25 million seedlings a year at cast."

"Right now Federal legislation has all but tied our hands on promotion of small watersheds and if Bates is elected we have high hapes of obtaining amendments that will allow Federal funds for these projects so sorely needed in Kentucky."

"By placing Joe Bates in Washington, we will better our chances of implementing proposed highway programs with a billian dollars of Federal money. This would be coupled with 100 million dollars derived from a bond issue that will be placed before the voters for approvol in November," Mr. Rogers said.

"Enthusiastic support of this program of progress for Kentucky will be the aim of Joe Bates. His election will assure us of better education, roads and conservation of natural resources, all so important to Kentuckians in both rural and urban areas," Mr. Eades and Mr. Rogers declared.

BARBECUED CHICKEN SAUCE GOOD TWOSOME

A twosome in foods had to surpass is broiled chicken with barbecue sauce, according to members of the Kentucky legislature and their wives, who were recent guests at the University of Kentucky.

They joined faculty hosts and hostess at a dinner at which the menu served was largely produced on the University farm: barbecued chicken, potatoes au gratin, bibb lettuce with cottage cheese salad, hot rolls, butter, milk and ice cream.

Tender, young broilers and fryers on the market in generous supply and at reasonable prices, may be as temptingly barbecued on a family-size grill in the backyard, or even in the oven, as were the 350 broilers done over charcoal coals at the University dinner.

To barbecue means to roast slowly by direct heat over coals, or with electric heat or low gas flame. The meat is turned and basted frequently with a tart-sweet, spicy sauce made hot with the addition of red pepper if desired. The secret is in long, slow cooking, 1 to 2 hours depending on size, and basting with sauce every 5 to 10 minutes.

Faculty and staff members and members of the student poultry club at the University barbecued the broilers, following recommendations in Circular 535 "Delicious Kentucky Barbecued Chicken" by Tuttle Copies may be had from offices of county and home agents, or from the Agricultural Extension Service, Experiment Station, Lexington.

FARMERS

THIS IMPORTANT MESSAGE IS FOR YOU!

The Tuesday, May 29th, Democratic Primary, election perhaps is more important to you than to anyone else. Farmers, not only in the Fifth District of Kentucky but all over the State are in distress. The Prosperity of Industry has passed you by. Something has to be done! This is your chance to do something yourself, with the most powerful weapon of all—YOUR VOTE.

It is no secret that, largely because of the age at your present Congressman—Brent Spence (he is almost 84)—nothing much has been done for the farmer of the Fifth District. No loud, strong voice has been raised for them. Actually you haven't seen Mr. Spence, and he hasn't been around to the various County seats for years to meet with you and to discuss your problems! It is time you faced the facts. (*Read the TRUE Spence Farm record at the end of this article. It will shock you!)

MORRIS WEINTRAUB, with 16 years of legislative experience, representing Kentuckians at Frankfort, is a young and active man, capable, energetic, and exceptionally qualified to represent the Farmer of this District. He was United States Conciliation Commissioner under the Frazier-Lemke Federal law and learned the plight of the farmer. He understands your problems. He is known as a fighter and he'll give you the same kind of action in Washington that earned him the vote of newspaper correspondents in Frankfort as the "most capable" representative in the House of Representatives.

You may have voted for Mr. Spence year after year since 1931—but that's no reason for voting for him again. Mr. Spence is an honorable gentleman and many of your friends and neighbors believe that now is the time, when he approaches 84 years of age, for him to be retired with grace and dignity. And under the law applying to Congressmen, Mr. Spence is eligible for a pension of $9456 a year, or $181.84 a week!——for the rest of his life. This is 2, 3 and 4 times what most farmers make all year, working for it!

MODERN TIMES AND MODERN PROBLEMS DEMAND MODERN THINKING AND QUICK ACTION—ALL OF WHICH ONLY AN ACTIVE AND VIGOROUS YOUNGER MAN CAN GIVE.

WEINTRAUB

HELP FOR THE FARMER

- Relief to the Farmer through 100% parity, which will give the Farmer proper protection. Anything less than 100% parity, is forcing the Farmer to live on a sub-standard income and sub-standard way of living.
- Relief to the Dairy Farmer who is being slowly strangled and caught in the squeeze.
- Relief to the Tobacco Farmer, through development of overseas markets and better marketing progroms here at home.
- Relief to the entire Farm Industry through the estoblishment ond encouragement of agricultural experimental farms

FOR REAL ACTION — VOTE FOR

WEINTRAUB YOUR NEW STRONG VOICE IN CONGRESS!

*Here's the True Record of How SPENCE VOTED AGAINST THE FARMER

The American Farm Bureau Federation (A.F.B.F.) is the parent body of all State Farm Bureaus, including the Kentucky Farm Bureau. The American Farm Bureau Federation made careful study of major legislation in Congress.

HERE'S HOW THE FARMER WANTED SPENCE TO VOTE:

The BILL	Date		BUT, HERE IS HOW SPENCE VOTED:
H.B.3480, Foreign Agricultural Labor; Mexican Form Labor	3/15/53	For the Bill	AGAINST IT—and against the Farmer
H.R.5227; Agricultural Appropriations	5/20/53	For the Bill	AGAINST IT—and against the Farmer
H.R.5495; To extend Reciprocal Trade Agreements	6/15/53	For the Bill	O.K.
H.R.9680; Agricultural Act of 1954; Harrison Amendment	7/2/54	For the Bill	AGAINST IT—and against the Farmer
H.R.355, Mexican Farm Labor Bill	3/2/54	Against the Bill	FOR IT—and against the Farmer
H.R.1; Trade Agreement Extension	1/18/55	Against the Bill	O.K.
H.R.12; Extension of 90% Rigid Supports	5/5/55	Against the Bill	FOR IT—and against the Farmer
H.R.7214; Minimum Wage Bill	7/20/55	Against the Bill	FOR IT—and against the Farmer
H.R.8320; Milk & Brucellosis Funds	3/15/56	Against the Bill	FOR IT—and against the Farmer

Which means Spence voted WRONG 7 times out of 9!

HOLIDAY NEXT WEEK!

Open Every Day But Sunday, 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

Next Wednesday is Decoration Day and everyone has a holiday, to go to the cemetery and remember their loved ones who have passed on. But we will be here serving you every day but Wednesday. Now we're very busy selling paint, linoleum, window shades, lawn mowers, grass sickles, and many other items for the home and farm. Miss Ruth Schmidt, over on Rector Road, saw in my ad last week that I had new patterns in Armstrong linoleum rugs, so she came over and bought one. Robert Young bought a Mastercut power mower.

We had a very nice rain and lots of customers came to town. Mr. and Mrs. Stenhauser, over in Dutchtown neighborhood, were looking over the lawn mowers. Ambrose Davis, from beyond Verona, bought the best Eclipse hand mower I had. Mr. and Mrs. Judge Oliver, also from beyond Verona, bought hoe handles, cow bells, and other hardware items. O. J. Struve bought Marlate for his dairy cows—this is 50% methoxichlor which kills most any insect that flies or crawls. If you take a sponge and wash that cow with Marlate about once a month, you will have much trouble—if you have been beetles or other garden insects, it will do the work on these two.

Jim Messmer bought the handiest little sprayer, and only 6.95. Mr. Brock, depot agent at Erlanger, called about a one horse sled—he had some fellow to pick it up. C. C. Northcutt, over at Atwood, brought over his used power mower and I traded him a new Eclipse rotary mower. Riley Prather was in today for a few minutes. Brewster and Red were helping shear sheep down at the farm—they thought they were through last week, but I bought more sheep from O. J. Worthington—the dogs had killed several and he had to sell them. J. C. Benton and Junior were doing some plumbing in one of their houses.

Brewster and Red put down new linoleum for Mrs. Robert Webster, at Verona. Mrs. L. A. Boots bought a very nice 12x15 Armstrong rug. Stanley Parker bought a gallon of red truck and tractor paint for his farm machinery. Mr. and Mrs. Walt Ryan bought border for the walls of their home. We have some beautiful new patterns in linoleum rugs, both in Armstrong and Bird. We sold a lot of paint today—rubber base floor enamel, liquid satin wall paint, and Jelled Magic.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glacken bought shellac and varnish for the floors of their home. Roger Arnold bought 5 gallons of Bolce outside white paint—he is another good Bolce paint customer. It is about time to start that outside painting, as soon as the weather warms up, so try Bolce paint for only $4.95 per gallon, and you will get the finest paint you ever used—why pay over $6.00 per gallon for paint just because it is Nationally advertised—buy Bolce paint!

Otis Davis bought a large water pump to use on his tractor for pumping water—this will pump 6,000 gallons an hour—it has a 1½" suction and discharge line. He also bought a lot of water hose and fittings. We have suction hose and discharge hose, also the water pumps. I hope it does not get that dry this year, but if it does, we have a lot of equipment for pumping water. We have paddle pumps and gear pumps for pumping water or spraying. I also have a supply of freeze proof hydrants for the milk house or dairy barn.

Henry Sleet, who is janitor of the Walton Baptist Church, is always busy—he really keeps that church clean. I have a stock of foam rubber for upholstering or cushions. Today I bought three 35 yard rolls of assorted colors of lawn chair covering—it comes 15" wide and sells for 89¢ a yard. It will not fade and the weather will not destroy it—extra good quality. I called in for more Sunbeam power lawn mowers—we have sold so many. I called for some new patterns of linoleum rugs and yard goods.

Earl Jenkins came back today and traded his old power lawn mower for a new Mastercut power mower. Mrs. Price Johnson bought a lot of Bolce paint for floors and woodwork, also a 9x12 linoleum rug, a very pretty pattern. Brewster and Red built a dog pen for Helen Burgess to put her two dogs in. We did most everything we can to help out and make a little money. Monday was some busy day—we sold a little of everything. I must tell all kinds of repair jobs. Brewster drilled and tapped a pulley for Joe Northcutt—his chicken feed grinder was broke down. Chick repaired Hart man's bicycle basket.

We sold several pieces of linoleum and some of those new Armstrong rug patterns. Bolce sent us down a truck load of new paint and took back all the old stock—now we have a complete new stock and new colors of interior gloss and liquid satin. If you want paint, I believe CONRAD has it. We have 20 colors of Jelled Magic that wonder paint, we have 15 colors of the old reliable Bolce liquid satin, also the old reliable for kitchens, bathrooms and woodwork, Bolce interior gloss, which is now called lustre kote—beautiful colors.

Chas. Allphin bought 10 gallons of Super Kromo aluminum for his barn roof. When you buy Bolce paint, there is nothing added on for advertising like on lots of other paints. Bolce lets his paint do the advertising by putting more quality in every gallon—buy your paint from CONRAD, we guarantee every gallon. Come to CONRAD'S, the Country Hardware Store!

Kentucky 4-H'ers Set For State Meeting At UK, June 5th

Kentucky 4-H youngsters by the hundred convene at the University of Kentucky campus Tuesday, June 5, for the 33rd annual 4-H week.

In addition to four days of special activities, the 4-H boys and girls from the 120 counties of the state will pay special tribute to J. W. Whitehouse, state 4-H leader. Whitehouse is observing his 33rd anniversary as head of the department and this year's four-day program is dedicated to him.

The program itself, a combination training session and recreational affair, ranges from land-judging for boys thru breadmaking for girls. It also includes such activities as vesper services, election of state officers, a casting class for 4-H camp instructors, pure seed law instruction and a dress revue for the young 4-H seamstresses. Boys and girls will also compete in speech contests, farm and homemaking demonstrations and general subject demonstrations, both individual and team.

Band Concert, Independence

The Simon Kenton High School Band, under the direction of Robert R. Roden, will present an outdoor concert on the evening of Thursday, May 31, at the Independence Court House.

There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to attend. The program will begin at 7 o'clock, and in case of rain, will be postponed until the following evening.

This will be he last appearance of the band for the current season. The band has enjoyed a most successful year of both school and public performances and was recently rated "superior" at the Kentucky State Music Festival.

State FHA Meeting Scheduled for Eastern Campus at Richmond

A three-day meeting of the F. H. A. will be held on the campus of Eastern State College, Richmond, Ky., June 4-6. Attending the convention, as representatives of the Boone County High school Chapter, Florence, are Rosetta Aylor, Florence, and Marian Blaker, of Hebron. Rosetta, a 1956-57 senior, served as president this year and was recently reelected to the same office for next year. Marian, likewise a senior, was second vice president this year.

They will be accompanied by Mrs. Helen W. Blanton, F. H. A. Chapter adviser and home economics teacher at Boone County High School.

The theme for this state meeting is, "F. H. A. Makes Realities of Dreams." The banquet speaker will be Mrs. Lloyd White, Kansas City, Mo., with "What's Under Your Hat?" Miss Janet Carter, of McCall Pattern Co., will have charge of a style shown, and the models will be F. H. A. members.

Miss Mary Lois Williamson, State Director of Home Economics Education, State Department of Education, and Miss Evangeline Smith, teacher trainee, University of Kentucky, will conduct the interview program for state officers.

State homemaker degrees will be conferred upon 140 members.

Membership in this organization is limited to girls who are taking or have taken home economics in high school. The state F. H. A. association now has 235 chapters and 12,546 members. Miss Mary Bell Vaughn, assistant director of the Division of Home Economics Education, Department of Education, is the state advisor.

Daniels-McPheron Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McPheron

A wedding of memorable beauty was performed recently at Goshen Christian Church, Piner, uniting in marriage Miss Margie Daniels of Piner, and Mr. Robert McPheron of Elsmere, in a double ring ceremony, performed by Albert Morgan, pastor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was a picture of loveliness in her ballerina length gown of lace over taffeta. She carried a white orchid surrounded by small white flowers. Her bridesmaid was Miss Jane Auton. Mr. McPheron had Mr. William Sims as his best man.

MRS. PAULINE WOODWARD

Services for Mrs. Pauline Berkshire Woodward, a former resident of Boone county, were held Sunday afternoon at the Petersburg Christian Church, of which she was a member. Burial was in the Petersburg Cemetery.

Mrs. Woodward, who was 94 years old, died Wednesday, May 23 at her home in Oakland, Calif. She had lived in California since leaving her Boone county home in 1912.

Surviving her is a daughter, Miss Gertrude B. Woodward of Berkeley, Calif.

Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

MRS. MARTHA FERGUSON

Services for Mrs. Martha Ferguson, 59, of Florence, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Stith funeral home, Florence, with Rev. Roy Johnson, pastor of the Florence Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Louisville.

Mrs. Ferguson, a former resident of Louisville, had been a resident of northern Kentucky for 16 years. She was a member of Bethany Baptist Church, Valley, Ky.

She leaves her husband, Richard L. Ferguson, employe of the Kosmos Portland Cement Co., Louisville, for approximately 50 years; two sons, Richard, of Muncie, Ind., and Wilbur A. Ferguson of Gary, Ind., two daughters, Mrs. Geraldine Bell of Midlothian, Va., and Mrs. Nina Card of Pensacola, Fla.; a brother, Walter Adkins, Louisville; two sisters, Mrs. Helen McCartin and Miss Jessie Adkins, both of New Albany, Ind., and seven grandchildren.

SIMEON J. DICKSON

Simeon J. Dickson, Rich Road, Kenton county, died at his home Sunday. He was 84 years old. A retired farmer, Mr. Dickson was a native and a lifelong resident of Kenton county. He was a member of the Goshen Christian Church, Piner.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Mary S. Dickson, and one son, Raymond Dickson, Independence; six grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at Allison & Rose funeral home in Covington, with Rev. Hugh Robertson officiating. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

Tourist Influx Expected To Set A New State Record, Prediction

The greatest tourist wave in history will hit Kentucky this year—if the tremendous number of requests for travel data and information received since January 1 by the Division of Publicity is competent evidence, G. M. Pedley, director, said this week.

Each year vacationers are showing more and more interest in Kentucky's many and varied attractions, Pedley said. The horse farms, Mammoth Cave, State parks, My Old Kentucky Home, Churchill Downs, the Capitol, the Gold Depositary at Fort Knox, Cumberland Falls, as well as fishing and boating are popular with Kentucky's visitors, he said.

"During the February - March - April period, the Division of Publicity received an average of 1,357 inquiries a day through the mails. The peak day was Monday, March 5, when 4,722 pieces of mail came to the Division offices," Pedley said.

Much of the mail is in response to advertising done by the Division of Publicity in 33 specially-selected metropolitan newspapers throughout the Nation. The Division also conducts advertising campaigns in magazines such as Holiday, National Geographic and Sports Afield.

County Agent Says Tobacco Plantbeds Should Be Watered

Tobacco plant beds should be watched very carefully for insect and disease control, according to Joe Claxon, county agent.

All beds should be treated with bluestone lime. This treatment should be applied after each weeding. Watch for fleabeetles. DDT or TDE spray or dust may be used to control bettles. If wildfire occurs, streytomycin may be used.

Most plant beds must be weeded once, many two or more times. Do only as much weeding as is necessary to keep woods under control. Repeated weedings couse mosiac if workers use homespun tobacco, and wildfire if the weeds are pulled out of the bed. Use a sharp knife and cut weeds at the surface of the soil rather than pulling them out. Pulling weeds disturbs the surface of the soil and permits wildfire to attaack young plant even when the bluestone-lime mixture was used at the proper time. Always follow weeding with an application of bluestone-lime to prevent wildfire. The applicction should be made immediately after the weeding, not two or three days later. Rapidly growing plants exaporate much water from the soil, and in dry weather beds must be watered or growth will be checked and plants injured. Watering is a laborious operation, but necessary in many seasons if strong, thrifty plants are to be produced. It is better to give the plant bed a thorough watering once every six or seven days than to water lightly every few days. A barrel of water for every 100 square feet of bed is enough. It is the equivalent to about three-fourths inch of rain. Seldom are there seasons when watering will not be a help in producing strong, early plants. Growers may obtain a table on treatment for insects of tobacco ot the county agent's office in Burlington.

Morton and Appel Head Republicans

Senator Earle Clements and Congressman Brent Spence were easy winners in the Democratic primary election, Tuesday. Clements had a 78,232-vote lead over Joe Bates, when returns of 3362 of Kentucky's 4036 precincts were tabulated early Wednesday. The count was Clements, 193,981; Bates, 115,749, and James Delk, 3347. Thurston Moore was leading two other candidates for the Republican namination for U. S. Senator by a large margin.

Senator Clements failed to lose one precinct in Kenton county as he totaled 7313 votes in 84 precincts. His opponent, Joe Bates, Greenup, was more than 5000 votes behind with a total of 2040. The veteran congressman, Brent Spence, almost kept poce with the senator as he had a total of 6946 votes to only 2226 tallies for his apponent, Morris Weintraub, Newport attorney. Mr. Spence carried all 84 precincts.

In Boone county, Senator Clements very early piled up an imposing lead despite the extremely light voting in the primary. He polled 1232 votes against 676 votes for Mr. Bates. Bates took only one precinct, winning by two votes in Petersburg No. 1, where he got 24 votes to Senator Clements' 22.

Representative Brent Spence, Northern Kentucky's veteron, led the ticket in Boone, where he has a large personal following. He palled a total of 1311 votes. However, awing to some ardent work in Bullittsville, he lost by 16 votes to Morris Weintraub. Weintraub polled 42 votes there to Mr. Spence's 26.

As expected, an the Republican side Thurston Morton won the nomination in Boone in his bid for the senatorial seat. Jule Appel won the nomination for representative.

HOLIDAY NEXT WEEK!

Open Every Day But Sunday, 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

Next Wednesday is Decoration Day and everyone has a holiday to go to the cemetery and remember their loved ones who have passed on. But we will be here serving you every day but Wednesday. Now we're very busy selling paint, linoleum, window shades, lawn mowers, grass sickles, and many other items for the home and farm. Miss Ruth Schmidt, over on Rector Road, saw in my ad last week that I had new patterns in Armstrong linoleum rugs, so she came over and bought one. Robert Young bought a Mastercut power mower.

We had a very nice rain and lots of customers came to town. Mr. and Mrs. Steinhauser, over in Dutchtown neighborhood, were looking over the lawn mowers. Ambrose Davis, from beyond Verona, bought the best Eclipse hand mower I had. Mr. and Mrs. Judge Oliver, [illegible] from beyond Verona, bought [illegible] O. [illegible] Struve bought [illegible] have seen beetles or other garden insects, it will do the work [illegible]

[illegible] bought the handiest little sprayer and [illegible] C. Northcutt over at Atwood brought over his [illegible] mower and I traded him a new [illegible] rotary mower. Riley Prather was in today for a few [illegible]. Brewster and Red were helping shear sheep down at the farm—they thought they were through last week but I bought more sheep from O. J. W[illegible] the dogs had killed several and he had to sell them. [illegible] C. Benton and Junior were doing some [illegible] one of their houses.

Brewster and Red put down new linoleum for Mrs. [illegible] Webster at Verona. Mrs. L. A. Boots bought a [illegible] 12x15 Armstrong rug. Stanley Parker bought a gallon of red truck and tractor paint for his farm machinery. Mr. and Mrs. Walt Ryan bought border for the walls of their home. We have some beautiful new patterns in linoleum rugs, both in Armstrong and Bird. We sold a lot of paint today—rubber base floor enamel, liquid satin wall paint, and Jelled Magic.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glacken bought shellac and varnish for the floors of their home. Roger A[illegible] bought 5 gallons of Bolce outside white paint; he is another good Bolce paint customer. It is about time to start that outside painting, as soon as the weather warms up, so try Bolce paint for only $4.95 per gallon, and you will get the finest paint you ever used. Why pay over $6.00 per gallon for paint just because it is Nationally advertised. Buy Bolce paint!

Otis Davis bought a large water pump to use on his tractor for pumping water; this will pump 6,000 gallons an hour, it has a 1½ suction and discharge line. He also bought a lot of water hose and fittings. We have suction hose and discharge hose, also the water pumps. I hope it does not get that dry this year, but if it does we have a lot of equipment for pumping water. We have paddle pumps and gear pumps for pumping water or spraying. I also have a supply of [illegible]

[illegible] who is janitor at the Walton Baptist Church, is always busy; he really keeps that church clean. [illegible]

[illegible] new Armstrong rug patterns. Bolce [illegible] now we have a complete new stock [illegible] CONRAD [illegible] Bolce [illegible] When you buy Bolce paint [illegible] we guarantee every gallon. Come to CONRAD'S, the Country Hardware Store!

Kentucky 4-H'ers Set For State Meeting At UK, June 5th

Kentucky 4-H youngsters by the hundred convene at the University of Kentucky campus Tuesday, June 5, for the 33rd annual 4-H week.

In addition to four days of special activities the 4-H boys and girls from the 120 counties of the state will pay special tribute to J. W. Whitehouse, state 4-H leader. Whitehouse is observing his 33rd anniversary as head of the department and this year's four-day program is dedicated to him.

The program itself, a combination training session and recreational affair, ranges from land-judging for boys thru breadmaking for girls. It also includes such activities as vesper services, election of state officers, a casting class for 4-H camp instructors, pure seed law instruction and a dress revue for the young 4-H seamstresses. Boys and girls will also compete in speech contests, farm and homemaking demonstrations, and general subject demonstrations, both individual and team.

Band Concert, Independence

The Simon Kenton High School Band under the direction of Robert B. Rafen will present an outdoor concert in the vicinity of Thursday, May 31 at the Independence Court House.

There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to attend. The program will begin at 7 o'clock and in case of rain will be postponed until the following evening.

This will be the last appearance of the band for the current season. The band has enjoyed a most successful year in its school and public performances and was recently rated "Superior" at the Kentucky State Music Festival.

State FHA Meeting Scheduled for Eastern Campus at Richmond

A three-day meeting of the F. H. A. will be held on the campus of Eastern State College, Richmond, Ky., June 4-6. Attending the convention as regional guests of the Boone County High Chapter Homemaking Reporter Marjorie Bradley and Vice-President Marjorie Bradley and Treasurer Marjorie Bradley. Miss Janet Carter, Boone County Homemaking Teacher, will be elected as president this year.

They will be accompanied by Mrs. Helen W. Blanton, F. H. A. Chapter adviser and home economics teacher at Boone County High School.

The theme for this state meeting is "F. H. A. Makes Realities of Dreams." The banquet speaker will be Mrs. Lloyd White, Kansas City, Mo., with "What's Under Your Hat?" Miss Janet Carter of McCall Pattern Co., will have charge of a style show, and the models will be F. H. A. members.

Miss Mary Lois Williamson, State Director of Home Economics Education, State Department of Education, and Miss Evangeline Smith, teacher trainee, University of Kentucky, will conduct the interview program for state officers.

State homemaker degrees will be conferred upon 140 members.

Membership in this organization is limited to girls who are taking or have taken home economics in high school. The state F. H. A. association now has 235 chapters and 12,546 members. Miss Mary Bell Vaughn, assistant director of the Division of Home Economics Education, Department of Education, is the state advisor.

Daniels-McPheron Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McPheron

A wedding of memorable beauty was performed recently at Goshen Christian Church, Piner, uniting in marriage Miss Margie Daniels of Piner, and Mr. Robert McPheron of Elsmere, in a double ring ceremony, performed by Albert Morgan, pastor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was a picture of loveliness in her ballerina length gown of lace over taffeta. She carried a white orchid surrounded by small white flowers. Her bridesmaid was Miss Jane Auton. Mr. McPheron had Mr. William Sims as his best man.

Mr. McPheron is a Coast Guardsman on the cutter Duane, stationed in Boston, Mass.

MRS. PAULINE WOODWARD

Services for Mrs. Pauline Berkshire Woodward, a former resident of Boone county, were held Sunday afternoon at the Petersburg Christian Church, of which she was a member. Burial was in the Petersburg Cemetery.

Mrs. Woodward, who was 94 years old, died Wednesday, May 23 at her home in Oakland, Calif. She had lived in California since leaving her Boone county home in 1912.

Surviving her is a doughter, Miss Gertrude B. Woodward of Berkeley, Calif.

Tourist Influx Expected To Set A New State Record, Prediction

The greatest tourist wave in history will hit Kentucky this year—if the tremendous number of requests for travel data and information received since January 1 by the Division of Publicity is competent evidence, G. M. Pedley, director, said this week.

Each year vacationers are showing more and more interest in Kentucky's many and varied attractions, Pedley said. The horse farms, Mammoth Cave, State parks, My Old Kentucky Home, Churchill Downs, the Capitol, the Gold Depository at Fort Knox, Cumberland Falls, as well as fishing and boating are popular with Kentucky's visitors, he said.

During the February - March - April period, the Division of Publicity received an average of 1,357 inquiries a day through the mails. The peak day was Monday, March 5, when 4,722 pieces of mail came to the Division offices, Pedley said.

Much of the mail is in response to advertising done by the Division of Publicity in 33 specially-selected metropolitan newspapers throughout the Nation. The Division also conducts advertising campaigns in magazines such as Holiday, National Geographic and Sports Afield.

County Agent Says Tobacco Plantbeds Should Be Watered

Tobacco plant beds should be watched very carefully for insect and disease control, according to Joe Claxon, county agent.

All beds should be treated with bluestone lime. This treatment should be applied after each weeding. Watch for fleabeetles. DDT or TDE spray or dust may be used to control beetles. If wildfire occurs, streptomycin may be used.

Most plant beds must be weeded once, many two or more times. Do only as much weeding as is necessary to keep woods under control. Repeated weedings cause mosiac if workers use homespun tobacco, and wildfire if the weeds are pulled out of the bed. Use a sharp knife and cut weeds at the surface of the soil rather than pulling them out. Pulling weeds disturbs the surface of the soil and permits wildfire to attack young plant even when the bluestone-lime mixture was used at the proper time. Always follow weeding with an application of bluestone-lime to prevent wildfire. The application should be made immediately after the weeding, not two or three days later. Rapidly growing plants exaporate much water from the soil, and in dry weather beds must be watered or growth will be checked and plants injured. Watering is a laborious operation, but necessary in many seasons it strong, thrifty plants are to be produced. It is better to give the plant bed a thorough watering once every six or seven days than to water lightly every few days. A barrel of water for every 100 square feet of bed is enough. It is the equivalent to about three-fourths inch of rain. Seldom are there seasons when watering will not be a help in producing strong, early plants. Growers may obtain a table on treatment for insects of tobacco at the county agent's office in Burlington.

Morton and Appel Head Republicans

Senator Earle Clements and Congressman Brent Spence were easy winners in the Democratic primary election, Tuesday. Clements had a 78,232-vote lead over Joe Bates, when returns of 3362 of Kentucky's 4036 precincts were tabulated early Wednesday. The count was Clements, 193,981; Bates, 115,749, and James Delk, 3347. Thurston Moore was leading two other candidates for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator by a large margin.

Senator Clements failed to lose one precinct in Kenton county as he totaled 7313 votes in 84 precincts. His opponent, Joe Bates, Greenup, was more than 5000 votes behind with a total of 2040.

The veteran congressman, Brent Spence, almost kept pace with the senator as he had a total of 6946 votes to only 2226 tallies for his opponent, Morris Weintraub, Newport attorney. Mr. Spence carried all 84 precincts.

In Boone county, Senator Clements very early piled up an imposing lead despite the extremely light voting in the primary. He polled 1232 votes against 676 votes for Mr. Bates. Bates took only one precinct, winning by two votes in Petersburg No. 1, where he got 24 votes to Senator Clements' 22.

Representative Brent Spence, Northern Kentucky's veteran, led the ticket in Boone, where he has a large personal following. He polled a total of 1311 votes. However, owing to some ardent work in Bullittsville, he lost by 16 votes to Morris Weintraub. Weintraub polled 42 votes there to Mr. Spence's 26.

As expected, on the Republican side Thurston Morton won the nomination in Boone in his bid for the senatorial seat. Jule Appel won the nomination for representative.

Another Editor Arrives

Another possible editor made his appearance on the scene the past week when a 6½ pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Meadows, Walton, at St. Luke Hospital, Ft. Thomas. Maynard is assistant editor of the Advertiser.

Grandpa Mark Meadows is thrilled since the new arrival has been named Mark Lee Meadows.

Gets Specialist Rating

Donald R. Cundiff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cundiff, Richardson Road, Independence, recently was promoted to specialist third class while serving with the 8083d Army Unit at the Tokyo Quartermaster Center.

A commodity clerk, Cundiff entered the Army in July, 1954, and received basic training at Fort Knox. He arrived overseas in July of 1955. He graduated from Holmes High School in 1954.

The hot one averages 101.58 miles per hour for 24 hours . . . tops Indianapolis 24-hour stock car record by 280 miles at famed Darlington Raceway, Darlington, S. C.

That's the almost incredible closed course performance record set by Chevrolet timed and certified by NASCAR!

This was no mere test of speed. This was a test of all the Chevrolet qualities that go to make your driving more pleasant and safer on the road. Stamina. Sureness of control. Great-hearted V8 action. It was a test of every inch and every ounce of the new Chevrolet!

WHITES TOWER

On May 14 the regular meeting of the 4-H club was held at the Independence Courthouse. Meeting called to order by Jerry Binder. Peggy Binder read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved as read. Money was collected from those going to camp. It was decided to have a picnic in July at the home of the secretary. The following were appointed a committee to furnish the food: Jack Fisk, Jackie Smith and Peggy Binder. Next meeting will be in June. Jim Wainscott, Wm. Campbell, Janet Fisk and Jerry and Peggy Binder will take in the camping trip. Motion to adjourn was made by Jackie Smith, recorder, and after a second, the meeting was over.

Another evidence of the territory covered by our news paper was provided this past week when we received a letter from M. B. Rice of Picacho, Ariz., saying that he had read our item about Rabbit Hash, and being a resident of that vicinity fifty years ago, he recalled many incidents of that time. Mr. Rice had a red-headed brother, Thurston, who was struck by lightning about that time, and killed while racing for the barn from the hay field with a pitchfork over his shoulder, which was shattered by the bolt.

Mr. Inskitt who bought the Frakes property, adjoining Bide-A-Wee farm, has a nice garden started and is proving himself a farmer as well as the writer. He had farm experience early in life.

A heavy rain, almost a cloudburst, visited the Tower Sunday night and washed the ground boards in places.

How does a ball club pitch a no-hit game for nine innings and then lose? The Reds did.

What the farmers need now is a few warm nights and watch things grow. We have had but very little growing weather in May but we can expect it now as blackberry winter and sheepskin drizzle have had their day.

Some of the farm experts are predicting that pork will cost $1.00 per [illegible]

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

To the West

Lesson for June 3, 1956

IN PAUL'S vision at Troas, his night visitor did not say, "Come over into Europe and help us." He only said "Macedonia." In fact, the word Europe does not occur in the story at all. Paul and his contemporaries were not conscious of moving from one continent to another when they set sail for Macedonia. Nevertheless it was a notable move. The Christian church was moving west, and it has never stopped permanently at any frontier. The little party that took ship for Samothracia was only one of countless groups of Christians westward bound. This was the first step in a great march. The Gospel was carried into every country in Europe, then into the Americas. Here in North America, as the settlers moved inland, westward and ever westward, as the frontier moved across the land the church moved with it. Sometimes the church itself did the pioneering, as the Roman church did in California or the Protestants in Oregon.

Dr. Foreman

Moving and Changing

Pea vines and people often change when transplanted to a different soil and climate. So it is with the church. The church at Antioch was different from the church in Jerusalem, and the church at Corinth was still different and by the time the church reached Rome and settled there, more changes could be seen. Churches in Northern Britain were not just like those of southern Italy. When the church came to America, there were further changes. To this day, a Presbyterian church in this country will be in many ways unlike the church of the same name in Scotland. English Methodists and American Methodists can easily be told apart. A distinguished English Baptist who is now serving in the largest American Baptist denomination has said in public how hard it was at first for him to feel at home here. Even in the Roman Catholic church priests who have been in America all their lives find some features of European Catholic churches rather strange, and vice versa. In America, too, as the church moved west it changed its ways.

Always the Same

"The more it changes, the more it stays the same," is a French proverb, which might well describe the church of God. It is quite true, the church has gone through many changes as it has moved westward with the years, but at heart, when it has had a heart, it has always been the same. (We say "When it has had a heart," because some churches have lost heart, or lost their heart, grown cold and died.) It would be quite a shock for a member of any American church east or west to walk into a meeting of the church at Corinth in St. Paul's time. It would be just as puzzling for a Corinthian to enter any American church—a great cathedral in New York or a country church forty miles from anywhere; neither one would be like his Corinthian meeting. But the heart of the church is the same. In Corinth, Kansas City or the Kentucky hills, wherever people are gathered together who love the Lord Jesus, who adore Him as Son of God and know Him as their Saviour, wherever those who love Christ are united to serve mankind in His name, there is the Christian church at worship and at work. Languages and forms differ, but the spirit of Christ is always the same.

Frontiers of the Future

When the church reached the eastern edge of the Pacific Ocean, had it come to the last frontier? Is there anywhere else to go? Of course there is. Beyond the Pacific are two vast continents. The Christian church has been so busy stretching westward that it has all but forgotten the "East"—which now is literally our Far West. Asia, Africa and the islands of the seas are our Christian frontiers, the frontiers of the future, and the church is (if yet only dimly) aware of them. The churches along these frontiers will be different from the churches "back home" as ours are different from Corinth and Jerusalem. But the Spirit will be there; for wherever there are true churches, there Christ lives and works again.

Congratulations to all young people who are graduating this year! Receiving a diploma means you have fulfilled the academic requirements and met the standards of conduct of your schools. They, in turn, have given you a secure world for four years, with work and rules of conduct mapped out for you.

Now all this is changed in a day. The anchor has suddenly pulled up, and the world ahead looks insecure and uncertain. You now have to plan your own work, and set your own standards of behavior.

At this point, a church connection is a strong anchor to spiritual security. Let your Commencement mean a commencement of regular church attendance in the church you choose. Face the new world ahead armed with its firm hope and faith.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without its strong influence neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four important reasons why every person should attend, serve, be regular and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CARD OF THANKS—

Words fail to adequately express my thanks and deepest appreciation to each one who sent remembrances, visited, or sent cards to me while I was in the hospital and all at my home, or in any way assisted my family. Also I appreciate the skilled and individual attention of Doctors Huey, Humpert, Robinson, and Cofield, the visits and prayers of Ministers Atkinson, Pearson, Tackett, Pineur, Worthington and Sheppard, for those who stopped to pray, you'll never know what it meant, both mentally, physically and spiritually. May God [illegible] richly bless you according to his needs.

Sincerely,
ANNIE L. PENN

Neuritis and Sciatica

By Dr. G. C. Donahoo

Neuritis is a painful inflammation of a nerve with impairment of power and sensation in the parts supplied by the nerve. The term is most frequently employed when there is an involvment of the nerves going to either arm. Sciatica is a neuritis of the sciatic nerve one of the longest nerves in the body, extending from the small of the back down the entire length of the legs. It is extremely painful and frequently renders the patient bedridden.

Of all conditions which respond to Chiropractic, it may be said that neuritis responds most readily to adjustments. The reason is that most cases of neuritis result from a disturbance of body mechanics and displacements of spinal vertebrae creating irritation of the involved nerve.

Any sufferer from neuritis should avail himself of Chiropractic without delay.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic by Dr. G. C. Donahoo, who has offices in Walton and Florence. Telephone ATlantic 3-5371.

JUNE BRIDES

Open Every Day But Sunday
8:00 A. M to 6:00 P. M.

June is the month when most of the weddings take place—school is out, lots of young ladies ready to catch that man, and June seems to be the month that they can't resist, even if they tried very hard. So, fellows, watch out, because I have heard several of them say they were going to get married in June. I asked one if she was going to get married when school was out, and she said she was—I told her she should wait a few years and she told me she would be married with a family before she was twenty.

This is a fast age—1956 models have the zip just like these new model cors Today we sold Orville Breeden 21 square yards of linoleum for his kitchen Mrs. Melvin Jones told me last night, after church, what a fine job the Jelled Magic paint did and how far it went. I called Bulce for another shipment and he wanted to know what we did with all of it. Every day we sell lots of paint. Some of you wonder why well I can tell you we have the largest assortment of colors and types of paint You name it and we have it, paint for every purpose at CONRAD'S!

Mr. and Mrs. J. M Cockrell, who live at the corner of Harris Pike and Ky. 17 were over today—they bought an Eclipse rotary power mower, a lot of linseed wall covering, paint and other small items Mr. and Mrs. W. B McCormick from Verona, bought plastic window shades Mr. and Mrs. Bulce, going to their farm in Owen county, brought down a lot more paint —he wanted to know what we were doing with all the paint they were sending down here We have a wonderful paint business because we have a large selection We have quality paint and we have the price

Kate Sparks called for me to send her a quart of Blue River enamel to Arnold's store at Beaver Mrs. Amy West called for a gallon of clover pink and a gallon of citron yellow —these are two of the new fad colors you see in your favorite magazines, recommended by Better Housekeeping We have clover pink in interior paint, also closer pink in outside house paint, we also have ranch red another new color Jack Cahill went up at Crittenden bought a Lawn Boy power mower, the 2 cycle motor with the zip and easy start

Brewster and Donald McIntyre took a lift cistern pump over to Independence and installed it for James Mann Ralph Hightman Joe Richardson, J. C. Reynolds J. M Cockrell George Hamilton, George Nelson are a few of my Kenton county customers who were in today. I have a lot of Kenton county customers and many I don't know personally, but I am trying to learn them. In fact, we have many customers from Kenton, Pendleton, Grant, Gallatin and Boone counties I get to know half of them. Being located in the south end of Boone county we have customers from five counties and a lot of good ones who buy lots of hardware in a year's time

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Metcalfe from Verona Taylor Mill, brought over their old power mower and traded it for a new Eclipse power mower. Arthur Brewster also bought the large size Eclipse rotary power mower. Jack Caldwell bought a new power mower here yesterday—today he could not get it started, and brought it back, and we gave him another—not much wrong, but we like satisfied customers and we will soon take care of this one. Scott Lancaster and Bobby, who are doing some painting down at Florence, stopped for some Bulce paint—Scott is a booster of Bulce paint and he uses a lot of it every year

We sure put up stock today. My old friend and salesman for W. Bingham Co., Cleveland, Ohio, really spent in the handsome. We have a new display on three different floors the coming fall and have changes of some. We do not want to sell out of any amount you want it—89c per linear yard and up to $2.00. Mrs. Gilbert Conger bought 10 three rolls of the newest Mrs. Dan Roberts bought 4 rolls and each room we ever will exercise the whole family. Mrs. Wood power mower gave up and bought a 19" Mastercut rotary mower

Bobby Lancaster and wife bought a rotary power mower so they have to keep up at the Robinson place where they live. We had so many paint buyers today and they bought most every kind, but mostly called Magic. A man Saturday can't beat it. People came for two Gro-Rite sprinkling tank water pumps and 100 of plastic pipe to pump on his Al's Chalmers tractor to get water for plantbeds or if tobacco setting, also for watering their lawns after the plants are out

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Jamieson bought Stipple to paint the walls of their new basement. Dale Stephens was still plumbing—he came after more material. Mr. and Mrs. George Houston, from Butler, were in a few minutes buying a few articles. Mr. Cockrell put on Rochelon Rust bought dark green stain and walnut oil stain to paint the shingles on his house. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Lower in Kenton county bought Sta-Rite irons and other small items. We just received a new shipment of Breneman window shades in fiber and plastic This year we have sold several rolls of linowall in gray and green

We received another shipment of plastic water pipe which is manufactured right here in our state at Middletown. The grade is high grade plastic pipe not a little better than most companies. It is absolutely pure for drinking water and can be used everywhere but for hot water. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glasper bought 4 [illegible] pipe for a bathroom [illegible]

Simon Kenton High Delegates Attend A State FHA Meeting

Three members of the Simon Kenton High School Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America attended the eleventh annual State meeting in Richmond, June 4-6. The three-day meeting was held on the campus of Eastern Kentucky State College. The chapters from the Richmond and Somerset districts served as hostesses to the 650 members and advisers who attended.

Attending the convention as representatives of the Simon Kenton Chapter were Donna Richardson, chapter president elect, and Jo Ann Heideman and Marilyn Friedman, who received State FHA degrees. They were accompanied by Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Walton, FHA chapter adviser and home economics teacher at the Kenton county school.

The theme for the state meeting was "FHA Makes Realities of Dreams." A special feature of th meeting was the banquet speaker, Mrs. Lloyd White, of Kansas City, Mo., whose talk was entitled, "What's Under Your Hat." Another highlight of the meet was a style show, in which the models were FHA members.

Presentation of th state office candidates is always a highlight of the state meeting. Miss Mary Lois Williamson, State Director of Home Economics Education, State Department of Education, and Miss Evangeline Smith, Teacher Trainer, University of Kentucky, conducted the interview programs. Miss Jo Ann Heideman of the Simon Kenton chapter was a candidate for state office from the Covington district.

Membership in the organization is limited to girls who are taking, or have taken home economics in high school. The state FHA association now has 235 chapters and 12,546 members.

Application Open For Postmaster at Union, Until June 26, 1956

An examination for Postmaster at Union, Ky., $4,190 a year, will be open for receipt of applications until June 26, 1956, the Commission announced this week.

Competitors for the postmaster vacancy in this city must show that they can deal with the public agreeably and effectively and that they are reliable citizens who would command the respect and confidence of patrons of the post office. They must also show that their background will enable them to maintain simple records of accounts or that it has given them a knowledge of postal procedures.

Applicants must take a written test. Those who pass will be assigned final ratings on the basis of this test and on their experience, ability, and character. There is a one-year residence requirement and applicants must have reached their 18th birthday on the closing date for receipt of applications. There is no maximum age limit.

Complete information about the examination requirements and instructions for filing applications may be obtained at the post office for which this examination is being announced. Application forms must be filed with the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C., and must be received or postmarked not later than the closing date—June 26.

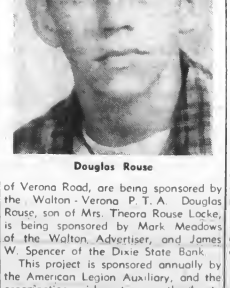
Delegates Selected For "Girls State" and "Boys State" From Walton



Miss Irma Rector

Miss Sue Gutzeit

Garry Lee Stephenson

Douglas Rouse

The American Legion Auxiliary of Walton has, for the past three years, sent a student from the local school to "Girls State." The Auxiliary is quite proud that this year, with the cooperation of the Walton-Verona P.T.A., two of Walton's business men, and the local American Legion Post, two girls will go to "Girls State" and two boys will go to "Boys State."

Miss Irma Rector and Miss Sue Gutzeit will attend "Girls State," to be held June 12-16, at U. K., in Lexington.

Gary Lee Stephenson and Douglas Rouse will attend "Boys State," which will be held June 21-27 at Fort Knox.

This is quite an honor for these young people as they are chosen by the school faculty.

The selection is based on leadership, character and scholastic ability.

"Girls State" is designed to familiarize the delegates with the operations of government.

Miss Irma Rector, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Rector, is being sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Miss Sue Gutzeit, daughter of Mrs. Sue Gutzeit, and Garry Lee Stephenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stephenson of Verona Road, are being sponsored by the Walton - Verona P. T. A. Douglas Rouse, son of Mrs. Theora Rouse Locke, is being sponsored by Mark Meadows of the Walton Advertiser, and James W. Spencer of the Dixie State Bank.

This project is sponsored annually by the American Legion Auxiliary, and the organization wishes to say thanks to the other sponsors.

WHITES TOWER

The continuing rains are posing quite a problem for the farmers as they were already behind with their work, and now haying time and tobacco setting are coming along and very few have their ground ready for tobacco. What has been planted is not growing right as the ground is still cold. Maybe a shortage in crops this year might help the farmer.

No more pigs for sale at the farm as the last ones went out Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. McBee of Harris pike were visitors of the writer and wife last Wednesday.

The "Hot Rod" races have been slowed up quite a bit by the bad weather.

A peach tree here at the farm has peaches about the size of a plum and already we have four props under the limbs to keep them from breaking. Pear trees are loaded and apples. Think if nothing happens it looks like we'll have plenty of canned fruit for next winter.

New neighbors have moved into the James place between Perkins and Ken dig and have improved the looks of their property one hundred percent by grading and even the home has a new look and it looks like we have a permanent resident here this time.

Randy Gibson Jr is raising a crop of strawberries as his project in the 4-H Club of which he is an active member. Randy is a hustler and he will make it a go.

Mrs Paul Brumback wife and son of Chicago, were guests of Mrs Maud Brumback over the week-end having driven here from Chicago for the funeral of her cousin, Carrie Wise formerly of Glenn Avenue, Latonia.

Miss Wise was one of my patrons when I was a postman in Latonia and was a very pleasant and kind lady whom we remember with affection for her many kindnesses to us.

You can buy a Jersey cow with calf by side and 1930 Ford runabout at the Ride-A-Wee this week.

Late Miller and family have purchased a home at Rossmoyne, O., near the school where he is teaching.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mrs. Cecil Faulkner is a patient in the Booth hospital. Let's not forget her.

The D V B S here was suddenly brought to an end after only four days by an epidemic of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rapp of McGee, Ark., spent several days visiting his brother, L. J. Rapp, his sister, Miss Minnie Rapp and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Flora Summey several days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children of Dayton, Ohio spent the week end with relatives here.

Miss Hope Keeney is expected here on a visit about June 16.

Mrs. John Shaw entertained the home makers club on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Keeney and son spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Damon. In the afternoon Mrs. Keeney, Mrs. Damon and Miss Ruth Schmidt went to the rose show at the Art museum in Cincinnati.

OAK RIDGE

Rev. and Mrs. George Kelly have gone to Kansas City, Mo., to attend the Southern Baptist Convention.

Mrs. E. C. Harris of Lipscomb Road has a bad case of poison ivy.

Mrs. George Haddix of Valley View Drive is recovering from the mumps.

Mrs. Bonnie Morton of Wolf Road has been seriously ill for several weeks. She would appreciate your prayers for her recovery. Her address is Route 5, Box 250, Latonia, Ky. Let's everyone send her a get-well card.

The children were all glad to have school out last Friday. Mr. Baker, the principal of Taylor Mill School, is planning a nice vacation to Oregon to attend the National Education Association Convention.

We shall be sorry to lose our good neighbors, the Straights, from Hands Pike. She was one of the First Grade teachers at Taylor Mill School. Her husband has been transferred and they are moving to Hillsboro.

The Daily Vacation Bible School at Oak Ridge Baptist Church will be held from 9 to 11 a.m. June 18 through July 1.

We hope every one got out and voted in the Primary election on Tuesday. Remember, if you didn't vote, you have no right to campaign.

RECIPE OF THE MONTH

June, Dairy Month, is a good month to check on the milk drinking habits of your family, Mrs. Pearl Haak, UK specialist in foods, reminds homemakers. The children need from 3 to 4 cups a day to supply the growing body's need for calcium for bones and teeth, teen-agers a quart, and adults, 2 or more cups to regulate muscles and nerves.

Milk beverages will be found especially valuable during the work and play activities of early summer.

Peanut Butter Milk

In a quart jar place ¼ cup of honey, ¼ cup of peanut butter and 3¾ cups of cold milk. Cover tightly and shake until well blended.

Strawberry Milk Shake

To 3 cups of milk in a quart jar add ¼ cup of strawberry jam, and ½ cup of vanilla ice cream. Cover tightly and shake well until blended.

Malted Milk

To 3½ cups of cold milk in a jar add one-third cup of malted milk powder, one-eighth teaspoon of salt, ¾ teaspoon of vanilla and one tablespoon of sugar. Cover, and shake well.

Spiced Milk

Fighting Paganism

Lesson for June 10, 1956

CHRISTIANITY has seldom if ever spread smoothly and easily like gravy over mashed potatoes. Its history is more like a river which meets with immense rocks and boulders which tear the water into foam and spray. As the Colorado river has to fight to make its way westward, so the Christian church has had to fight. It is not true that all men are eager for the Gospel and that all we have to do is to tell people about the love of God and they will all be grateful and glad to hear it. On the contrary, Christ has his enemies now as he did in Galilee, and has always had. The name "paganism" is sometimes given to everything in contemporary life and thought which is actively hostile to Christ and his cause.

Dr. Foreman

Did the church conquer paganism?

Already in the city of Ephesus, when St Paul was the main preacher there, Christians ran into trouble. We sometimes think if we could get rid of our preachers and get the Apostles to take charge of our churches for a while, we would eliminate all our troubles, but St Paul for one would not have agreed with us. We hear of opposition that became quite serious. Certain men "were hardened," "did not believe," and far from keeping their unbelief to themselves, "spoke evil of the Way" (i.e., Christian life) in the most public places ("before the multitude"). This is a sample of what Christianity, the Christian church and individual Christians, have to contend with in all ages of the church: hardened men, who are not only without faith but who will go out of their way to attack the Christians' faith. This is paganism; it has many forms but its spirit is always anti-Christian. The church both has, and has not, overcome paganism. It has won many of these enemies of Christ to become his followers, and is still doing so. It has taken the control of society out of their hands, in various times and places, as happened at Ephesus for a time. But the fact is, paganism is far from dead. In one form or other its attacks go on and on.

Missionaries of paganism

When an army stays for any length of time in a foreign territory, it usually leaves behind it words or phrases which the natives pick up, and which may become a permanent part of the local language. It was so with the English language. The Roman military occupation of England, which lasted into hundreds of years, left many souvenirs in the English language. One of the first words the Britons learned from the Romans was "wine" from the Latin vinum. (Incidentally, also, another word borrowed but not now used in English was a word for "buy" that comes from a Latin word for tavern-keeper.) So our very language bears testimony to the fact that the pagan Romans were everywhere missionaries of paganism, and that part of the gospel of paganism is, Liquor is a Good Thing . . . so let's all have more of it! Paganism still sends out its missionaries. On a slow boat to China not many years ago two men shared the same stateroom. One was being sent out by an American Christian church to preach the gospel of Christ. The other was a man who was keeping his son in college by selling liquor in China—sent out by a large distillery firm. Every convert made by the liquor-missionary was going to make it more difficult for the Christ-missionary; and also the other way around.

Paganism's progress

Christians too easily sit back in their easy pews and think, Paganism has been licked. St. Paul licked it, or Luther, or Wesley or somebody. We live in a Christian era, in a Christian land. Do we or don't we? There are some figures that ought to make us think. The statistics of the Internal Revenue Service of the United States, as analyzed by the Methodist Board of Temperance, show that for every church being erected in the U.S., seven retail outlets for liquor are being licensed. As of the latest count, there are 141,733 more saloons, cocktail bars and stores selling alcoholic beverages than there are churches, synagogues and temples combined. The breakdown shows 441,789 "spirits sources" as against 300,506 "spiritual sources."

This morning at the market a reporter questioned me:

Q. You're a home maker and mother?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you and your family attend Church?
A. Every week, unless prevented by illness.

Q. Surely you don't take the children when they're small?
A. Oh yes. It's been proved that habits formed during the first five years establish a pattern for life.

Q. When it's raining or snowing doesn't it often seem best to stay home?
A. No. Bad weather doesn't usually keep us from doing other things we want to do. Besides, children go to school on rainy days so why not to Church and Bible School?

Q. Then you feel regular worship is good for a family?
A. Not only good but necessary. Religious training is the fourth R, and the most vital part of our learning to live.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Home Treatment For Termite Control

Termite trouble develops where wood enters supports from buildings touch the ground and allow the insects a chance to get into wooden structural members.

They also can get wooden portions of buildings by making covered mud tunnels from their deep subterranean nests along concrete foundations until the wood on which they feed is reached.

Sever the wood-ground connections where they exist says W. A. Price, University of Kentucky Experiment Station entomologist and watch for mud tunnels on concrete or stone walls, and two big steps have been taken toward termite control.

Then trench around foundations and apply recommended poisons, he says, for the other big step in a control program.

All wooden supports in contact with the ground should be replaced with concrete or steel. If porch lattice work or siding touch the ground, remove the three or four inches closest the ground.

Here's how trenching is done. Dig a trench about three feet deep and of shovel-width around the outside foundations of houses have full basements. These trenches should be close to the outside foundation wall.

After all dirt is removed, treat the trench bottom with one of the recommended poisons. Fill in six inches of dirt and repeat the poison application. Repeat this until the trench is filled, treating for every six inch layer of earth.

Apply the poisons around supports under the house, and to the soil generally under the house, if there is a partial basement or no basement.

Watch the filled-in, porch type construction, where there is a concrete slab cover. It may be necessary to drill three-eights inch holes, vertically in these slabs, so poison can be poured poured down them to get around foundations under the slab. The holes should be six inches away from the house and 18 inches apart. About a gallon of insecticide per hole is administered.

Recommended poisons are Dieldrin chlordane emulsion concentrate (75 percent) at the rate of one gallon in 50 emulsion concentrate at the rate of one gallon in 60 gallons of water; gallons of water, or sodium arsenite, one pound of powder in one gallon of water.

SCRATCH-ME-NOT WITH ITCH-ME-NOT!

Apply Itch-Me-Not. In just 15 minutes, if you have to scratch your itch, your 40c back at any drug store. Use instant-drying Itch-Me-Not day or night for eczema, ringworm, insect bites, foot itch, other surface itches. Now at Brakefield's Drug Sotre, Walton. 41-23

NOW FOR ATHLETE'S FOOT USE KERATOLYTIC ACTION

Because this remarkable process SLOUGHS OFF the tainted outer skin to expose buried funki. KILLS IT ON CONTACT. T-4-L, a keratolytic fungicide, goes to work instantly o relieve this miserable ailment. When new, healthy skin appears, apply T-4-L periodically—medical science says athlete's foot can come back. In one hour.

If not surprised and pleased, your 40c back at any drug store. T-4-L is greaseless, colorless, instant-drying, easy and pleasant to use. Also use full strength for itchy and sweaty feet, insect bites, eczema, poison ivy. Today at Brakefield's Drug Store, Walton. 31-23

Indemnities totalling $15,237.82 for property losses due to dogs will be paid to 232 Kentucky property owners by the State Livestock Fund. The payment are for losses sustained during the third quarter of the current fiscal year. Money will be distributed to claimants in 57 of the Commonwealth's counties.

Ben J. Butler, commissioner of Agriculture, said the payment ranged from $1,359 to 14 Nelson County claimants to $7 to a single claim from Webster County. The largest single claim was $380 and the smallest was$1, Butler said.

The Kentucky Department of Agriculture is responsible for the certification and payment of claims under the Kentucky Dog Law.

The amount of reimbursement to the individual claimant is based on the kind of animal destroyed and its appraised valuation.

MERCHANTS LOSE TWO

The Walton Merchants softball team lost to Rural Diesel Gas at Florence, May 25 by the score of 9-3. The gasmen were aided by a three-run homer by their pitcher, Joe Hall, who pitched a beautiful game, allowing Walton only six hits. Anderson, Walton hurler, struck out 13 men.

The Merchants were again defeated on June 1, by Burlington, on the Burlington field in a very tight game which was marred by Walton errors. Anderson pitched a very good game, striking out 11 men during the seven innings.

The locals will play Falmouth at the Walton school grounds, June 10, at 2:30 p. m. The Falmouth team, like Walton, has a mixed team of white and colored men. It should prove to be a very exciting game, so everybody come on over. A small donation will be asked to help pay for equipment.

B. W. C. to Meet

The Business Woman's Circle of the W. M. S. of the First Baptist Church, Walton, will meet at the church Thursday evening, June 7, at 8:00 p. m. Program topic for the meeting is "Thy Word, A Lamp, A Light." Members please make an effort to attend. Visitors are always welcome.

Kenton 4-H Club Meets

The Kenton 4-H Club held its regular monthly meeting on May 17, in the Briar Hollow Beagle Club house. The members paid their money for Camp Ernest. Ten each of the members told how many projects he or she was taking and also how far along he was with his project. It was made a motion that before the next meeting, the members would all help in cleaning up the club house. At the next meeting there will be a wiener roast.

HEALTH THOUGHTS

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

A patient recently complained of a tightness in the chest . . . a feeling of fullness. This same patient has also been a chronic indigestion sufferer . . . complaining of heartburn, gas, a bloated feeling and a bad taste.

When she appeared a few days ago complaining of a tightness in the chest with a worried expression on her face, she found that the tightness was caused by an accumulation of gas in the stomach which crowds the surrounding organs into a smaller than normal space. Thus causing them to feel contracted.

This is a frequent complaint because so many fried foods and heavy foods are consumed.

The same sufferer from indigestion may also complain of this tightness around the heart and be fearful of heart trouble. But the answer is usually the same.

The indigestion is usually caused by an inability of the glands of the stomach to secrete enough digestive fluid to meet the food intake. Consequently even the normal amount of food cannot be comfortably digested which brings about such symptoms as heretofore mentioned.

The Chiropractor is scientifically trained to find the cause which is pressure of the life-carrying nerves to the stomach, and to remove that same cause.

STRINGTOWN CLUB MEET

The Stringtown Woman's Club meeting held recently at Cabana, was highlighted by a speech by Mrs. Howard Bary, Platform Chairman for the National Convention of Federated Women's Clubs at Kansas City. Mrs. Bary gave a report of the National Convention and briefly reviewed the aims and responsibilities of the Women's Clubs, and also congratulated the membership for being a 100 percent club.

The following new officers were installed by Mrs. Bary. Mesdames Jack Turner, president, James Miner, vice-president, John Revel, recording secretary; Robert Ammon, corresponding secretary, Joe Dringenburg, treasurer. The retiring president is Mrs. Rector Jones.

The annual club picnic will be held Monday, June 25, at the Mid-Valley Pipe Line picnic grounds at 6:00 p. m. Also, a bake sale will be held Saturday June 16, at Rouse's Five and Ten, in Florence.

Others attending the meeting were Mesdames R. M. Wilmhoft, Chester Edwards, W. Shotwell, Ted Williams, Jr. W. Tupman, H. Berry, M. Wonder, R. Ammon, J. Weaver, H. Crist, Floyd Kellis, R. L. Howard, B. S. Zimmer, A. M. Johnson, C. Crane, Miss Jean Nusbaum and Mrs. Clyde Miller, a guest.

Dairy Herd Culling Should Be Done Now Says Claxon

Cull the dairy herd now, advises Joe Claxon, County Agricultural Agent. The market for such type animals is the highest at this time of year.

Low milk producers should be taken from the herd, he says, as well as animals with blemishes and animals which are not profitable producers because of age. Cows with udder difficulties also should be culled.

Animals which have poor feet and legs should be taken from the herd, he advises, as such physical drawbacks limit these cows' grazing ability.

Claxon notes that by culling now, farmers may be conserving pasture which will be needed later in the season. Income loss, too, can be reduced when a farmer culls a cow that is not due to freshen until fall.

Services at Lebanon, Sunday

Phone ATlantic 3-3841 to register for the class, which is limited to 20 persons.

MRS. RACHEL PENNINGTON

Services were held at 1:00 p. m., Wednesday at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, for Mrs. Rachel Pennington, 87, a former resident of near Walton.

Mrs. Pennington, a native of Leslie county, died Monday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. James Bowling, Hamilton, Ohio. She was a member of the Leslie County Christian Church.

Besides the daughter, she leaves a son, Alva Pennington, of Hamilton; a brother, James Muncy, of Leslie county, 18 grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish, at this time, to thank each and every one who so kindly remembered me during my stay at Booth Hospital. Your cards, letters, visits, flowers and your prayers gave me courage to carry on to recovery. Also my grateful thanks to Chambers & Grubbs funeral home for the ambulance service; to the American Legion and the Auxiliary for many precious services; to the blood donors who responded so unselfishly; to my surgeon and physicians, Dr. Huey, Dr. Reardon and Dr. Weldon—I realize the hand of God in your skilled service, for which I am grateful; to Booth Hospital and its corps of kind and efficient nurses I will always have tender memories; to Rev. Joseph Tackett for bedside prayer. May the blessing of God rest on each one individually is my prayer.

THANKS!

TO THE VOTERS OF OUR COUNTY

Normally, little is heard from any candidate after an election. However, we want to express our grotitude and appreciation to all those folks who supported SENATOR EARLE C. CLEMENTS in the primary election on May 29th.

Senator Clements sent us two page telegrams expressing his thanks to Boone County and we wanted to relate the message to you.

To ALL voters of Boone County and surrounding counties, THANKS. We hope to have you in our corner this fall.

HOUSEPOWER Contest

$10,000 Grand Prize

OVER 1,000 PRIZES IN ALL

200 valuable prizes awarded each month, May through September.

Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER

Today, the average home uses 3 times as much electricity as it did 15 years ago. That's why 4 out of 5 homes now suffer from low HOUSEPOWER. This is true even of brand new homes. Here are the conditions that cause you to have low HOUSEPOWER:

1. Inadequate electrical service entrance. To overcome this basic cause of low HOUSEPOWER, you should have service entrance capacity of at least 100 amperes. This requires 3-wire service from the street.

2. Overloaded circuits. Too many appliances on one circuit overload it and none of them get enough power. Motors may even burn out. If the overload is too great, the fuse will blow or circuit-breaker trip. You should have enough branch circuits to distribute enough electricity to all appliances.

3. Insufficient outlets. Some homeowners use extension cords and "octopus" outlets (2- and 3-way plugs), or plug into lighting outlets. Such practices are unsightly, inconvenient, and may be dangerous. Rearranging furniture doesn't help. The only safe solution is to add more circuits and outlets.

These are the symptoms of low HOUSEPOWER: lights dimming when appliances are turned on; blown fuses or tripped circuit-breakers; TV picture shrinking when other appliances are turned on; appliances working inefficiently or taking too long to heat up.

If any of these symptoms are present in your home call your electric company, electrician or electrical contractor for a wiring check-up. If added wiring is necessary, your electrician or electrical contractor will do the job quickly, neatly, economically. It often takes less than a day. Remember, full HOUSEPOWER increases the value of your home.

Don't delay — enter this easy contest today. Nothing to buy. Just answer a few easy questions. Most of the answers you'll find right here in Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Coast to Coast:

This week contains a holiday and thousands of motorists will be on the highway. All of which means that next week, after all the figures are released on deaths and injuries, a new cry will go up for improved highways.

Here in the Capitol we are getting a lot of facts and figures on highway construction and summed up, it is apparent that a lot of money will be needed. For example, you know that Kentucky has 60,000 miles of roadway — not including the federally supported road? That means that Kentucky roads, if placed end to end, would cross the country 20 times, coast to coast.

Keep Calm:

Some Kentucky office holder, in a speech the other day, declared that within the next five or six years Kentucky would have a billion dollars worth of new federal highways.

To that we say, Keep calm. No such thing is going to happen. The federal highway program is a 13- to 15-year program and it must still pass Congress. Then, when that finally happens, surveys must be made, bonds issued by the states, and property purchased.

Again we say, Keep calm. Rome wasn't built in a day and those highways won't be constructed with the stroke of a pen.

An Inspection:

This is graduation time and a lot of young men are wondering how and where they can get money for college. We take this opportunity to point to one of our favorite congressmen, Frank Chelf, an orphan lad while attending high school.

The congressman took to barbering to help make a living. "I just picked it up," he said. "It might have been unusual for a high school boy, but I could cut hair and polish chins with the best of them."

Frank graduated from high school and then went on to college and law school.

Set the Record Straight:

Several readers have written to us to ask about the appointment of a congressman.

No congressman is ever appointed. If one dies in office, the governor of the state — only state — calls a special election.

However, when a senator dies the governor appoints a new one to serve until the next general election.

In brief, here is the theory behind it. A congressman represents the people, hence only the people can name one. A senator represents the state, hence a governor can appoint one.

Washing Machines and Water

How much water will that washing machine require? is an important question to ask your dealer, says Miss Nancy Coutts, home demonstration agent in Boone county.

If water is scarce, expensive, or difficult to pump on the farm or if heating water is inconvenient or expensive, or the hot water supply short, then the amount of water the machine uses will be important. Ask your dealer how much water it takes to fill the tub of a non-automatic or semi-automatic machine or ask how much an automatic washer used in its washing cycle.

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture research, washing machines vary from 6 to 20 gallons in the amount of water used for one filling of the tub. Laboratory tests show no definite relationship between effectiveness of washing and amount of water the machine uses.

OAK RIDGE

The community was shocked by the sudden death at their former neighbor, Mrs. Frank Recker, while she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Rose Kelly of Hands Road. The Reckers have built and operated the restaurant and ice cream parlor at 6010 Taylor Mill Pike. They sold this a few years ago and retired to Florida. Mrs. Recker was always kind and friendly and well loved by her many friends in Oak Ridge.

Congratulations to Mary Ellen Bruce on her recent graduation from the University of Kentucky.

Ernie Richardson returned home this week from Tennessee Tech and Carl Tomlin returned to his home from Baylor University. Carl is a Junior at Baylor and he stayed on the campus for the graduation exercises in order to hear President Eisenhower's address.

Oak Ridge Baptist Church is holding open house at its newly decorated parsonage from 8 to 10 p. m. Friday evening, June 8.

Thirteen G. A. girls from Oak Ridge Baptist Church attended the G. A. Rally at Petersburg Baptist Church last Sunday and they received the Banner for the church with the largest proportion of their members there.

Mrs. H. P. Hutchins left by train for New Orleans, La. Saturday evening, for a months visit with her mother who is ill.

Mrs. Evelyn Amidon and children of Chattanooga, Tenn., arrived Sunday for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Richardson of Lipscomb Rd.

Many people of the community are busy picking, freezing or preserving the strawberries at this time. There is a bumper crop of strawberries this year but the excessive rain has caused them to rot badly.

The Boy Scout Spring Camporee was held at Camp Powderhorn June 1-3 with many of the boys from this area attending. For some reason, no matter what season of the year our boy scouts plan a camping trip, they have cold rainy weather for it.

Mr. Hobert Works of Latonia Lakes is ill and in Booth hospital.

Mr. Nick Casullo returned home from the hospital this week after an operation.

We were shocked to learn of the sudden death of Pete Lipscomb of Lipscomb Road, early Monday morning. He was found dead in his bed during the night by his young son, Whitey, when Whitey woke up with a tooth ache.

DAIRY HERD CULLING SHOULD BE DONE NOW

Cull the dairy herd now, advises E. C. Scheidenhelm, Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service dairy specialist. The market for such type animals is the highest at this time of year.

Low milk producers should be taken from the herd, he says, as well as animals with blemishes and animals which are not profitable producers because of age. Cows with udder difficulties also should be culled.

Tobacco Setting Time

Tobacco setting time is here and as usual, we have a cold, rainy time, as is usual this time of June—so be sure and use Lindane transplanter solution to kill the wire worms and insects to keep them from eating your plants. It will also give your plants a start. We have one Bemis tractor drawn tobacco setter and plenty of Perfection hand tobacco setters. Some are setting by hand, while others are waiting for it to dry up. A few are nearly done, and ready to help their neighbors, which most everyone has to do to get enough help to put out a tobacco crop.

We sold out of transplanter solution, but I called the chemical house for more and they sent it right down. A few years ago we sold split baskets for tobacco plants—well I have some of these if you need them, only 30 cents each. We received a lot of mowing machine repairs today—the alfalfa crop is rearing to go and the old mowers are breaking down, as they do every year, but a few repairs are putting them in running order. We have water pumps for filling your water tanks or pumping water to your stock, 1½ suction with 1 discharge and gasoline motor to pump 6,000 gallons of water per hour, for only $146.50.

We also have a smaller pump, one inch size, with gasoline motor, pumps 2,000 gallons per hour, for $110.00. We have 1 ½ suction hose for $1.50 per foot, and comes in 10' and 20' lengths. Then we have discharge hose in 1", 1¼" and 1½" for 50c, 65c and 75c per foot. We also have an extra good grade of plastic pipe in ¾", 1", 1¼" and 1½", with all the fittings. And we have paddle and gear pumps to mount on your tractor to use for pumping water and spraying. Come to CONRAD'S—save time and money, and get the best of service.

This was another busy day—we sold paint and more paint. Mrs. Hetterman up at Crittenden bought for 1st point. Mrs. Walter Hon, over Elliston way, got Lustre Kote and liquid satin; she also bought 25 lbs. of Sta-Dri for cement walls. Bryan Rector bought two gallons of Bulce outside white to start on his house. Rilandt and Gilbert Glenn painted Al Hunt's house roof with 2 gallons of Bulce aluminum paint. It cost a little more per gallon, but it goes much further. Mrs. J. Conner Littrell bought a lot of Armstrong linoleum.

Ed Elmore had Brewster make him a lot of special standard hoops for his log truck—he also bought four metal lawn chairs. Brewster put up several new curtain rods for Mrs. Mark Meadows. We sold more plastic pipe and fittings today. Bemis tobacco setter parts and mowing machine repairs. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tomlin bought a 20" bicycle for their daughter. Mr. Denton, up by Midway Garage, bought a Mastercut mower from Chick—he took it home and brought it back and said it would not cut, so we looked underneath and there was no blade on it—someone came in the week before and needed a blade, we were out, so I took the blade off that mower and forgot to replace it. We had a lot of fun out of Chick for selling a mower without a blade on it.

We received two more 20" Mastercut rotary mowers—we ran out and Red went over to Jonesville to Webster's Hardware and picked up two. Hayes Transfer truck unloaded two Eclipse mowers with electric starters in them—we had some of these and sold out early. You ladies really like these mowers, as they just push the mower up to an electric socket, plug in the cord and off it goes, unplug the cord and your gas motor runs same as your car motor. They come in two sizes, 19" for $137.50 and 21" for $149.50. Then we have the self propelled Sunbeam and Mastercut for $159.00. Then we have a 20" rotary mower with a Clinton motor for only $75.00.

We have sold several hand mowers, one for $16.50, $24.50 and $34.50. The $34.50 mower sells best. We received a lot more plastic pipe manufactured here in old Kentucky. Every day we sell plastic pipe because we have an extra good price on it.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sparks bought a new round tub Maytag washer. You can't beat a Maytag for price and operation. Mrs. Roy Brown came in for white enamel to paint her kitchen furniture. James Meismer came after Rapid-Mix for his plantbeds for wilt-fire and blue mold—it will really kill the wild fire and blue mold. We sold several quarts and gallons of transplanter solution for the wire worms today, also sold some Perfection hand tobacco setters and repairs. I have one Bemis tractor drawn tobacco setter and will sell it cheap—get this bargain now.

Mrs. Glenn Edens bought some of the new plastic covering for those wood lawn chairs—it comes 15" wide and sells for 89c per yard—buy as much as you need. Sue Jamison bought some of the sponge rubber I have in a roll to put on Davey's crutches—he fractured his leg. Today we sold garden hoses, tank sprayers, poultry netting, screen wire, screen hangers, door grille, fishing tackle, tool boxes, tools, hoes, hose, weed cutters and grass sickles. Mary K. Stephens bought Wilkie a mowing scythe—that is a bad tool to buy any one. It is hard work using one of these, even for a young man.

Sunday Is Big Day In Hopeful Luthern 150th Anniversary Event

On Friday night Organizations Night will be observed. Each organization will present a history of its organization and a program.

Sunday, June 17 is the final and most important day of the week of observance of the 150th Anniversary of the congregation. At the morning church service at 11 a. m. the sermon will be delivered by Dr. Gerard D. Busch of Louisville, Kentucky, President of the Kentucky Tennessee Synod. A bountiful basket dinner for members and friends will be enjoyed at the noon hour.

At 2:30 p. m. an Historical Pageant written by Mrs. Wilford C. Butts will be enacted on the church grounds. A covered wagon will represent the Consestoga wagons by which the first members of the congregation made the long journey from Madison County, Virginia, in 1805 to settle here in Boone county.

A number of the members of Hopeful Lutheran Church in various costumes will act out the most important events in the church's 150 year old history.

The public is cordially invited to see the enactment of the Pageant as well as to attend the service of the congregation.

Independence Girl Scouts To Attend Summer Camp

Mrs. Bertha Moore, Girl Scout leader of the Independence Troop, announced this week that sixteen members will attend the Girl Scout Summer Camp at Butler State Park, Carrollton. The following girls will leave Monday, June 18 for the two weeks fun and frolic.

RICHWOOD BIBLE SCHOOL

Bible School at the Richwood Presbyterian Church will begin Monday, June 18 and continue for two weeks, with half-day sessions each day. All children 14 and under are invited to attend.

Kentucky Farmers Shortweighted In Feed Purchases

A check weighing campaign by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture's Division of Weights and Measures indicates that the farmers of this state are being shortweighted on 63 per cent of the commerical feeds they buy. This information has been developed since the Division began its program of checking feed offered for sale at wholesale and retail outlets.

Division Director George L. Johnson said he has 19 inspectors checking feed stores and warehouses in the Commonwealth. These men have checkweighed 43,653 bags of feed and found 23,058 of them to be shortweighed. These deficient bags have been condemned and ordered off sale. On a poundage basis, 3,043,795 pounds have been weighed and 1,791,183 found shortweight and condemned. The shortage on the condemned bags is averaging about three pounds for a 100-pound sack.

Agriculture Commissioner Ben Butler said the close inspection program would continue. When evidence is found to indicate that the miller or packer has willfully and intentionally shortweight a the packaged commodity, his Dr. ment will press for prosecution. B said:

"We will not tolerate the sale of commodities that are shortweighted. This Department is aware of the problems confronting millers and dealers, but I feel that our primary responsibility is that of protecting the interests of the consummer. We shall proceed along these lines. I have advised Mr. Johnson condemn any commodity offered for sale to instruct his inspectors in the field to that has an actual net weight less than that indicated on the bag or container," he said.

Johnson said his inspectors could complete their checking of commerical feed in six weeks. Then the Division will make periodic checks of the various commerical feed outlets, he said.

Engagement Announced

Miss Adna Bert Bowling

Mr. and Mrs. Max Bowling of Demossville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Adna Bert, to Ray E. Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Baldwin, Sr., of Independence.

Both Miss Bowling and Mr. Baldwin graduated from Simon Kenton High School in 1952. Miss Bowling recently graduated from Eastern State College, Richmond, Ky., where she received a BS degree. Mr. Baldwin is employed as a fireman on the Pennsylvania Railroad. In the fall Miss Bowling will assume a teaching position at Kenton Elementary School.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

TO TEST DAIRY CATTLE

Dr. William Green of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture and Animal Husbandry Research Department arrived in Boone County Wednesday to test dairy cattle for Bang's disease.

Joe Claxon, county agent, said that Dr. Green would be in the county most of the month and would like to get all the dairy cattle in the county tested for Bangs. To do this, the dairymen are asked to stop by the county agent's office and sign up for the test or call Burlington 412. This will make it possible to set up a schedule for the county. These tests are free to dairymen.

Signal School Graduate

Army Private Homer W. Tomlin, son of Elmer Tomlin, Walton, Route 1, recently graduated from the Army's Southeastern Signal School, Ft. Gordon, Ga. He completed the school's ten-week power equipment maintenance course, which trained him to install, operate and service motor driven signal equipment.

Tomlin entered thee Army last January and compited basic training at Ft. Jackson, S. C. The 17 year-old soldier attended Simon Kenton High School.

Bible School Commencement

The Walton Methodist Church Vacation Bible School will hold closing exercises on Friday, June 15, at 7:30 p. m., in the church. All persons concerned with the Christian education of children are invited to be present to see what the children have done and hear them recite the scripture and lessons learned.

Rev. A. E. Atkinson, pastor of the church, especially invites the parents of the children to be present.

Care of Evergreens Important In Summer Says Horticulturist

Evergreens such as hemlock, juniper, taxus, fir, spruce, pine and arbor vitae should be pruned during June or the first half of July, when they will have made most of their new growth. The suggestion comes from Prof. N. R. Elliott, horticulture specialist in Extension at the University of Kentucky.

About two-thirds of the new growth should be removed, he said. When this is done, the evergreens usually will set new buds on the ends of the shoots where the cuts were made, resulting in a thicker and better looking evergreen. Mr. Elliott warned against cutting the main central stem of the evergreen until it is the desired height. Then by annual pruning, it can be held to the desired size.

If evergreens are neglected for several years, it is almost impossible to work them back into the desired shape, Mr. Elliott said in emphasizing the importance of annual pruning.

Evergreens set last fall or this spring should be watered generously and often, as rain cannot be depended upon to supply a sufficient amount of moisture. When the needles once start dropping for lack of water, it is usually too late to save the plant, he said. The soil should be kept loose around the plant to a depth of 2 to 3 inches, and water applied through the loosened area.

Red spiders and bagworms are often hard on evergreens. Red spiders may be controlled by spraying with Aramite or Malathion, or by dusting with dry sulfur. To control bagworms, spray with Malathion or arsenate of lead. Two or three sprayings at 10- to 15-day intervals may be necessory to control the spiders and worms, but if not successfully done, the evergreen may be killed.

Walton Merchants Softball Team Wins A Pair of Games

Friday night, June 8, the Walton Merchants took the measure of the Hebron team in a regular season game by the score of 6-4. Anderson, the Walton hurler, struck out seven men during the seven innings worked. He was aided by a homer off the bat of Paul Black, and three hits by "Pee-Wee" Glenn. Hebron's losing hurler was Raily.

Sunday afternoon, June 10, the locals entertained Falmouth. Anderson gave up only four hits and one run while striking out six men. The Merchants had a total of 12 runs on eight hits, the big blow of the contest being a grand-slam home run by Anderson. The Johnson brothers, Ray and Clifford, chipped in with two hits each. The losing pitcher for Falmouth was Brown.

Friday night, the Merchants play Petersburg at the New Haven field. Game time is 8:30 p. m.

GEORGE M. RAISOR

George M. Raisor, age 90, of Walton, Route 2, died at his home June 6. A retired farmer, he was born in Owen county September 23, 1865, and was a member of the Beaver Lick Baptist Church.

Survivors include his widow, Mary Robbins Raisor; a son, Edward Raisor of Cincinnati, Ohio; three brothers, James Raisor of Warsaw, Henry Raisor of Vevay, Ind., and Dow Raisor of Madison, Ind.; four grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday, June 8, at 2:00 p. m., in the Hamilton funeral home, Verona, with Rev. Melvin Riley officiating. Burial was in the Beaver Lick Christian Church Cemetery.

MRS. SALLIE R. MILLER

Mrs. Sallie R. Miller (nee Reib) passed away at her home here on Sunday, June 10, at 11:45 p. m. She was 89 years old in January. Mrs. Miller was a member of the Methodist Church since girlhood, was always a faithful and active member and attended as long as physically able. She was a double-life member of the Women's Society of Christian Service, having been presented one by the local organization and another by the district organization.

She was the mother of three children, Miss Emma Jane Miller, who lived with her; Mrs. James Wilmot Kinslear of Dallas, Texas, and Fred R. Miller of Carrollton. She had two grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. A grandson, Lt. Fred H. Miller, is in the Air Force in England, a granddaughter, Mrs. Wm. T. Turner, and the great-grandson, Jeffrey Stephen Turner, live in Owensboro, Ky.

The funeral was held in the Walton Methodist Church, Wednesday at 2:00 p. m., with the pastor, Rev. A. E. Atkinson, officiating, with Mrs. Sam J. Hudson at the organ, and Mrs. J. B. Johnson as vocalist. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Ft. Mitchell.

The Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Walton, had charge of arrangements.

MRS. ANNA L. SMITH

Services were held last Friday afternoon at the Union Baptist Church, for Mrs. Anna L. Smith, 77, of Walton, Star Route, who died early Wednesday, June 6 at the home of a granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Bickers, Covington.

The funeral was from the Middendorf funeral home, Covington, with burial in the Richwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Smith was the mother of Floyd Smith, an associate of the Middendorf funeral home. Besides the son and granddaughter, she leaves three other sons, Gilbert Smith of Walton, Charles Smith of Florence, and Harold Smith of Blue Ash, Ohio; two daughters, Mrs. Katie Abdon of Covington, and Mrs. Frances Shinkle of Glencoe; 16 other grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandson.

Social Security Program Very Active In Boone County

Monthly payments of $6,275 to 168 widowed mothers and minor children account for 20.4 percent of the total monthly old-age and survivors insurance benefits of $30,702 in Boone county as of December 1955 according to Joseph T. Ware, Social Security Administration district manager in Covington.

In making this announcement today, Mr. Ware said that many persons think of the old-age and survivors insurance program as providing protection only for older men and women. He made it clear that it is also a program benefiting the youngsters. At the end of 1955, nationwide, about 1,275,000 children under age 18 were receiving monthly benefit payments under the social security law. Of these 120,000 were being paid the monthly dependent's benefits because of the retirement of an aged parent; the others were receiving survivors benefits as children of a deceased parent. Mr. Ware pointed out that about four times as many orphaned children are receiving benefits under the old-age and survivors insurance program as are being helped under the Federal-State program for aid to dependent children. Nation-wide, almost 300,000 mothers of children under age 18 were receiving monthly survivors insurance benefits under social security at the end of 1955.

As a further illustration of protection Federal survivors insurance now provides for the young people of the country, Mr. Ware poined out that the mothers and children in 9 out of 10 American families can receive monthly survivors insurance benefits, if death should take the family breadwinner. More than half of all young children in the continental United States whose fathers have died were receiving social security benefits at th end of 1955.

In all, 657 people in Boone County were getting $30,702 each month in old-age and survivors benefits at the end of 1955.

Aged people accounted for the greatest number in the county's increased beneficiary total, he said. In Boone County at the end of last year, 330 retired worker were getting $18,735 per month; 100 wives and dependent husbands were receiving $2,917 monthly; 59 aged widows, widowers, and parents were receiving $2,775 monthly as survivors of deceased insured workers.

"With the bringing in of many groups of employed and self-employed persons previously excluded, the old-age and survivors insurance program achieved almost universal coverage at the beginning of 1955," Mr. Ware said. He pointed out that an estimated 68 million persons had taxable earnings under the program in calendar year 1955. Some 70 million workers were insured as the year came to an end. Of this number, 32 million are permanently insured and can qualify for old-age benefits at age 65, regardless of future employment; likewise, in the event of death, their survivors can qualify for monthly benefits, lump-sum death payments, or both.

When a worker retires or dies, he or his survivors are urged to visit, phone or write the Covington social security office for assistance in making claim for benefits. "In fact," Mr. Wore said, "the social security office should be contacted (1) when a worker reaches age 65, regardless of retirement, (2) when he reaches age 72, regardless of earnings, (3) when an insured member in a family dies, and (4) when a worker becomes totally disabled for any gainful employment or self-employment."

Literary Club Has Final Meet at Watson Home

Ruth Cox Graduates

Miss Cox received a BA degree with a major in psychology. She hopes to continue her education at either Chicago or Columbia University for a masters degree from a school of social work and to have a career as a psychiatric social worker.

She plans to work in California this summer, to be followed by a ten-month hosteling tour through the Middle East and Europe with several Rockford classmates, beginning next November.

Mrs. Jerry Rouse Is Hostess To Stringtown Homemakers Club

Mrs. Jerry Rouse served as hostess to the Stringtown Homemakers at their May 24 meeting at her home on Lloyd Avenue, Florence.

Election of officers for the coming year held the point of interest during the business session presided over by Mrs. Robert Rowland in the absence of the president. Mrs. Roy Youell as president succeeds Mrs. Eugene Fightmaster, who held the office for two years and served the club well. Mrs. Chester Henderson will take over the duties of vice president from Mrs. Rowland; Mrs. Jerry Rouse will tum over her duties as secretary to Mrs. Richard Thoma, and Mrs. Leroy Abbott was elected treasurer.

The main line of work for the day was the making of pin-up and planter lamps, taught by club leaders, Mrs. Don Mager and Mrs. Norma Henderson through Home Demonstration work. These lamps were constructed of wooden bases which were sanded and shellaced. The brass fittings complimented the shades which were completely made from wire frames, sheets of fiberglass cut to fitted patterns, and gold and black lacing. Members also learned how to wire their lamps and complete them to beautify their homes. It took from two to three hours to complete this project and the cost was under $3 each.

Those who enjoyed refreshments served by the hostess were Mesdames Chester Henderson, Bobby Hodges, Don Mager, Perry Renaker, Alfred Roberts, Robert Rowland, Jewel Scott, Roy Youell, James Loftin, Richard Thoma, Leroy Abbott, Gilbert Ogden, and a guest, Mrs. Bernie Hudson.

WORK DEATHS HIGHEST IN FARMING INDUSTRY

An estimated 14,000 farm residents lose their lives in accidents each year, and an additional 1,200,000 are injured seriously, says the National Safety Council and the University of Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service.

The two agencies point out that more work deaths occur in farming than in any other major industry, with an economic loss of about $1,500,000,000 annually. These facts point up the need for safety programs and habits.

Tractor accidents accounted for a large number of farm fatalities. Of 1,100 such deaths, 99 of the persons involved were below 20 years of age, 104 were from 20 to 49 years old, and 114 were 50 years old or more.

WHITES TOWER

News is scarce this week as everyone is busy setting tobacco, haying, and planting garden.

Mr. Frakes and family have moved to Latonia, and Mr. Inglitt has moved to the Frakes cottage.

The writer purchased 18 quarts of the finest strawberries we have seen this year from neighbor, Randolph Gibson Hall for the deepfreeze and half for those delicious strawberry preserves.

We have just discovered a sure fire way of getting rich after listening to television so much lately. Just go out on one of our main roads, buy or build you a little frame shack then advertise that you have ambized chilli or country fried strawberry shortcake or maybe fluorized baked beans or tastified hamburgers with a filling of "wild water cress." also you might say that you have a bevy of pretty waitresses to whom you can give a quarter tip to show how much you appreciate the service. Try it, as it will cost you nothing and you will get your own eats at wholesale prices.

From what we hear from the rest of the strowberry growing sections it seems there is a tremendous crop and if you like this fruit, and who don't, you had better get yours at the peak of the crop as that is the best way to get your money's worth.

The weather has been ideal for farm work the past few days, but now we are looking for a few nice showers to liven things up and make a tobacco season, as the plants are getting big.

We had another evidence of the coverage of our Walton paper the past week when we received a note from a former resident of Boone county, who now lives in Lodi, Wis. He was nice enough to say, "Keep on writing for the paper as my sister mails it to me every week and I like your items because they are different." Thanks boy, but there are some who disagree with you.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are very sorry to report the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bone is seriously ill at the Children's Hospital, Cincinnati, with lukemia. The Staffordsburg church requests your prayers for this little girl and her parents. Also the prayers for one of our number, Mrs. C. E. Faulkner, who is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital. She is doing as well as can be expected from an operation several days ago. We wish all a speedy recovery.

The measles are still raging in our community. Rev. Miller's children are still confined at home, also Mr. and Mrs. George Finnell, Jr., baby, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willoughby's little daughter.

Remember the revival will continue at the Staffordsburg church all this week with Rev. Harry Wood as the evangelist. Services begin at 8 p. m. each evening. Special music by Jimmie Lee, Eldred, Joyce Cooper, and Barbara Brueggen. Come out and hear some real good preaching and good music. The meeting will continue until next Sunday night, June 17. All welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley matored to London, Ky., Sunday to visit Mrs. Riley's relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett entertained Rev. Harry Wood and Rev. Geo. Miller for dinner, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey visited over the weekend with Mrs. Losey's parents at Owenton.

Mrs. Ona Cavanaugh left for Florida the first of the week to spend a couple of weeks with friends. We wish her a pleasant and safe journey.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. Miller and family are entetaining relatives from Indiana this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter of Lexington, visited relatives here over the weekend.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to thank all that sent me cards, letters and flowers while in the hospital and at home. Especially Bro. Kennedy for his interest and prayers, and also Dr. Reichert for his attention; everyone that helped in any way. May God bless each one is my prayer.

GARDENS ARE HELPED BY GOOD WATERING

Proper watering brings commercial and home gardens to successful production levels, says, George Marlow, Jr., Kentucky Extension Service vegetable specialist.

For every pound of dry matter produced in garden plants, about 600 pound of water - roughly, 80 gallons - is needed. This water should be applied so the plant can best utilize it. Water is the keystone to plant life, carrying food to, into, and through the plants themselves.

Commercial and home gardens should get an average of an inch of water each week during the summer. It should be put on as a gentle, soaking spray, so that soils will not wash nor nutrients be carried away. A hard spray, he notes, will wash soil, and much of the water itself will be lost in runoff.

Light, frequent waterings, as once each evening, are not too good. This is not the soaking type of water application and frequently a large amount is lost through evaporation. The water so applied will not percolate downward in the soil.

Marlowe says, too, that the inch-a week average is an insurance policy. For instance, it will probably prevent plant wilting; when plants are wilted, it generally is too late to save them.

Family Hero No. 1

Good old Dad! Check writer, lawn mower, dish washer . . . pillar of family strength, he's the one you can count on in any emergency. We're mighty proud of him, too, here in the bank.

Next Sunday is Father's Day. He'll be delighted with any token of your love and affection.

YOUR CHILD

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Many parents ask, "Do you think you could help my child? Her appetite is so poor and she gets colds so easily." Many people are of the opinion that the Children Diseases are different from those of the adult. In reality there is little difference, for the child's body is the same functionally as the adult's. You were once a child.

A child, as a rule makes about the best 'patient', mainly for the reason that he has not carried nerve interference as long and since his body is in the formative stage will respond better and more quickly than the adult.

It is only sound reason that if Chiropractic will work for one person (adult) it will work for another (child). The principle is immutable, and is applicable to any condition. As we have said before Chiropractic is good for any part of the body which nerves supply, and nerves supply every part.

It is very well worth your while to have your children checked by a Chiropractor if there is any suspicion of disease or lack of ease in the body. For the sooner the block to that vital life energy is removed, the less damage will be done and the quicker the response.

Your Chiropractar will welcome you and your children in his office, for a healthy generation will make a better nation.

OAK RIDGE

The 4-H Club boys and girls are at Camp Ernst this week. Each one had to finish their 4-H project before they were eligible to attend camp. The largest delegation is from Kenton county. Although they are enjoying all phases of camp life, the center of interest for most of the children, is the beautiful swimming pool.

The Taylor Mill Volunteer Fire Department will hold its annual festival at Nick's Grove this weekend, June 15-16. Let's all attend and support our fine fire department.

The Taylor Mill Civic Association held its regular meeting at the Taylor Mill School, June 7. It was announced by the annexation committee that a suit had been filed in Kenton Circuit Court by the property owners of the area petitioning the court not to allow Covington to annex the area. Covington had until June 8 to file an answer with the court. If they failed to file an answer by that time, the attorneys for the annexation committee would ask the court to nullify the annexation ordinance. New officers were elected by the Civic Association, as follows: President, H. R. Hutchins; vice president, Mrs. Ralph Straub, secretary, Mrs. Eugene Tomlin, treasurer, Mrs. W. C. Tallent, trustees, Clyde Vincent, James Pierson, William Gargis, Clarence Mardis and Mrs. Earl Lieberman.

We were sad to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Elizabeth Selsor, who was a sister of our former neighbor, Mrs. Ruby Lipscomb. She was buried June 9 in Hamilton, Ohio. At the time of her death, Mrs. Selsor and Mrs. Lipscomb were getting ready to move to Florida, where they planned to make their home.

Mrs. Harry Lampe had a joint of one of her fingers torn off this week when she put her hand into an automatic washer before it had shut off.

The Daily Vacation Bible School at Oak Ridge Baptist Church will begin June 18 and continue for two weeks.

I spent a very enjoyable weekend with my sister, Mrs. Joyce Meyers, of Lonsdale, Ky., visiting the frontier nursing service outpost at Bowlingtown and their hospital at Hyden. The frontier nursing service provides medical care to the residents of the remote mountain areas of Kentucky where there are no doctors or other medical facilities.

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club will meet Tuesday, June 19 at the home of Mrs. E. C. Harris, Ensworth Road. The 100 percent members of the year will be honored.

The Annie Allen Circle of Oak Ridge Baptist Church met June 12 at the home of Mrs. Jack King, Senour Road.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

The International Club session of the Staffordsburg Homemakers Club was a talk on Ceylon by Mrs. T. L. Bush, citizenship chairman. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. [illegible] Shaw.

Mrs. Bluch Rich gave a report of the advisory council meeting. Members that seat weaving, clothing questions and home lighting were projects for the coming year. Mrs. H. L. Faulkner was appointed leader for clothing, 3 posts, and Mrs. Denver Binder for home lighting. Appointed on the nominating committee were Mrs. Thomas Byrne, Mrs. Floyd Smith, and Mrs. Denver Binder.

A trip to Berea to see 'Wilderness Road,' was planned for July 24, and a picnic for July 31 at the home of Mrs. Virgie Miller. Reading chairman, Mrs. J. A. Keeney, read a poem, 'Knee Deep

DODGE LEADS IN VALUE

When you go to buy a new truck, you owe it to yourself to stop . . . look . . . and think—to think about this, among other things:

How can you possibly know you're getting the best value if you sign up for a new truck without first taking time to stop and look at today's big, husky-muscled DODGE? The answer, obviously, is you can't be sure; you're just hoping you're getting the best buy!

Wouldn't you be wiser to get at least a few facts about DODGE? For instance, such easily proved facts as these—that Dodge trucks give you:

1. Greater gas economy. Dodge's exclusive Chrysler-engineered Power-Dome V-8 engines deliver more miles per gallon, full power on regular gas!
2. Maximum payloads. Dodge trucks are built extra rugged—will haul up to 35% more.
3. Lower upkeep costs. Dodge short-stroke V-8 engines maintain like-new performance far longer than truck engines of standard design.
4. Shortest turning. Dodge sharp turning angle and shorter wheelbase design make parking and wheeling through traffic much easier, save you both time and effort.
5. Rock-bottom prices. Today, many Dodge models cost less than any other make!

Dodge gives you more in other ways, too. So, before you buy, why not get the full Dodge story? Unless you do, we honestly believe you'll end up paying more and getting less.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

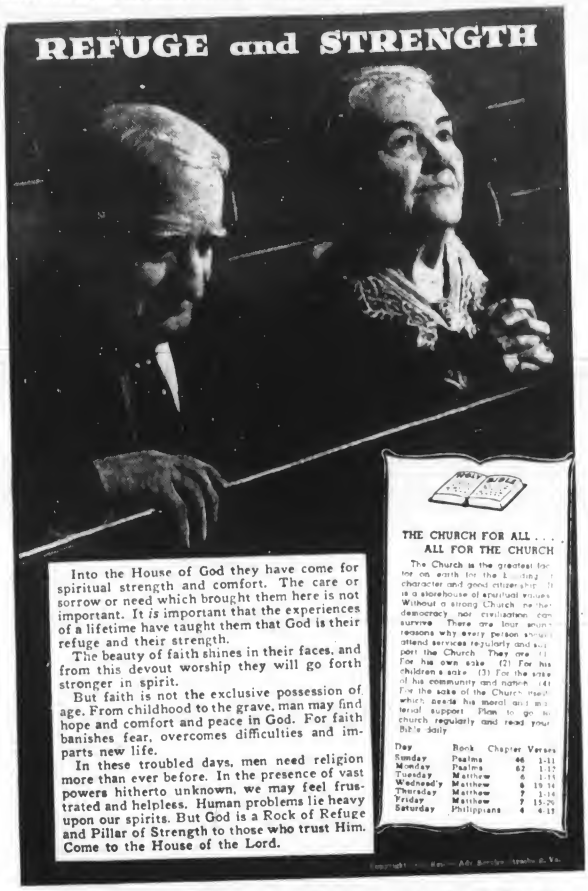
God's Ambassador

Lesson for June 17, 1956

Dr. Foreman

VERY few readers of this column have any chance of being appointed as the ambassador of the United States to any important foreign country. It isn't that you are not good enough. You are not rich enough. Ambassadors are expected to live in a high style. (Did you ever inquire what just one pair of striped pants, made to order, would cost you?) They are not expected to live on the salary the United States pays them. They have to live in mansions for which the mere housekeeping bill is enormous, they have to give parties and dinners costing more than you earn in a month.

God's ill-housed ambassador



Strange as it seems, the ambassadors of God are not usually looked after in such sumptuous style. They always have housing, of a sort; but it is seldom palatial. Indeed one of them wrote, "If we have food and clothing, with these we shall be content." Nothing said about housing. One of the very greatest of God's ambassadors to this world suffered from something quite a bit worse than leaky roofs or lack of plumbing. If the Apostle Paul were to visit our town today, even people outside the church would want to have him put up at the best hotel in town, or entertained at the finest homes. Paul sometimes got this sort of treatment, but a great deal of the time, indeed for years on end, he would be actually in jail. Not only that, but he would have to wear chains on his arms and legs as if he were a member of a chain-gang. Strange to say, too, this did not make Paul unhappy or bitter. After two solid years of that sort of thing, some men might be willing to quit. But not Paul. Standing before a king, his hands weighted down so that it was hard to move, Paul said, "I would to God you were just as I am—except for these chains." He would not wish his chains on anybody, but otherwise he knew he was better off than a king, for he was still the ambassador of God. There is no higher place.

Spokesman for God

We must not blame God for the poor treatment his ambassadors receive. It is not his fault. But God's men understand this. Paul understood it, and went on speaking for God wherever he was. Some Christians might think that if Providence had dumped them in jail they could be expected to take a vacation from witnessing to their faith. But Paul knew that there never is a real vacation from being a Christian. There have been some peculiar characters appointed as ambassadors now and then by human governments; but no emperor, king or senate ever appointed a dumb man, to represent his country. There was a great convention of Christian business men in Louisville, Kentucky, last winter. Three of these men were on their way afterwards to the airport in a taxi. What would you have done in their places? The convention was over, business and families were expecting you home. No time, no place, for Christian work in a taxi, surely? But these men did see it that way. They talked to the driver, found he was not a Christian. Never mind the plane, they said, just drive us to your own home. There they talked with him, prayed with him, and he gave his heart to Christ. They missed the plane, but do you think they regretted it?

The chains still rattle

Actual iron chains do still imprison some of God's people. There are parts of the world where it is almost a crime merely to be a Christian. But even where that is not true, the men and women who represent God have to work against many kinds of handicaps. Sometimes it is only being thought peculiar, or superstitious. Sometimes it is having to work under a government which is unfriendly to religion, as is the case in some mission fields. Sometimes it is some local "industry" which is vicious and powerful and will strike back at any person, or group, religious or otherwise, that threatens to cut down their profits. Sometimes these invisible chains muzzle the mouth of a minister whose people will not let him speak up for his own Christian ideals. Well, chains may hold back God's kingdom; but they will never stop it!

FREE -

Open Every Day But Sunday, 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

I have noticed several times this week on television where you can get so many items free with trade stamps or coupons. I don't believe the American people are that stupid to think they can get something for nothing. Let me tell you something—in this year of 1956 you are not going to get anything for nothing. That day may have existed years ago, but you are living in a fast age and there is nothing free, as I have found. I heard a dealer say he had a friend who said if he got $700 worth of stamps he could get an automatic shotgun. If he gets this he will pay cash for what he buys.

So this dealer and I both decided if he would spend $700 cash with us, we would give him an automatic shotgun and he won't have to pay the extra cost of the stamps. My understanding is that the stamps and the merchandise cost the merchant 2 percent, so you raise the merchandise 3 percent and make an extra 1 percent. This makes it hard on the appliance dealer and the hardware dealer—we don't sell any small appliances or pressure cookers. It is also hard on the small merchant who had carried you through the days when you were short of money, but now you go to the big super-markets and spend your cash just to get the stamps, and think you are getting something free.

Stanley Parker bought the last Bemis tobacco setter I had and probably will have no more this year unless a special order and I will get one in a day's time. Leonard Cook was here after a lot of Bemis parts. Clay Nix bought a quart of transplanter solution, a 4-pound bag of Marlate and a small tank sprayer to spray his cows with. We sold several Perfection hand tobacco setters, also some corn jobbers. We sold Rastus plow shovels and we have some Rastus plows and 5-shovel plows.

We got in some of those heavy galvanized double walled water coolers in 3 and 5 gallon sizes. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Webster bought an electric ice cream freezer. Mr. and Mrs. William LeGrand bought another 9x15 linoleum rug—I took it down to them as I had to order it special. Mrs. Ethel Sheppard is really satisfied with her new Eclipse rotary power mower. Now is the time to buy or trade in your old mower—we have several left and will make you a good deal. It is about time to start your outside painting, so don't forget you can buy outside paint, that good old Bolce painters' pure paint, for $4.95 per gallon. You can't beat the price and the quality.

Mr. Vallandingham, up on Gardnersville Road, purchased venetian blinds for his home. We sold mire hand tobacco setters today and transplanter solution. Lots of farmers setting tobacco and putting up hay. I saw some mowing hay after dark with lights on tractor. We sold several electric fans and we have the selection—GE in three sizes, 10" oscillating for $16.95, 12" oscillating $29.95, 16" 3-speed oscillating $49.50, 20" Dayton fan for $37.50, 20" window fan, reversible for $44.50.

A lot of small fans, cheap, and porch chairs in metal, hammocks with stand or without. Ice cream freezers and crisquet sets in all sizes. All types of water hose and water sprinklers. I have one ¾-ton Coolaire air conditioner, will sell cheap—get this one early. I have two stock watering tanks, heavy galvanized. We have some Rastus and 8-shovel plows left, and extra shovels for them. We have several swing sets for the children—get one now.

Russell and Kate Sparks were in a few minutes. So was Beckham Shields—they were in town selling the pool wool. Lessie Hoffman was in—she said her son, Herbert, had been in the hospital eight days from burns received while burning poison oak with a pressure weed burner. Red Belcher was here several times getting plumbing material—Red is always repairing or improving. The Chicago paint man was here and Chick gave him an order for paint, then came Bolce and Brewster gave him an order. We sure sell lots of paint every day. Why? Because we have the best paint for the least money. If it is not good and dont do the job, just tell CONRAD or one of his clerks, and you will get your troubles taken care of.

I have 200 gallons of Bolce outside white to sell for $4.95 per gallon—after that, I don't know, so get your house paint now. I have 50 gallons of aluminum asbestos fiber roof coating for $3.75 per gallon. I have 50 gallons of alumi-rust paint with gilsonite base—it is put out by the Sheffield Paint Co., Cleveland, the same company that makes the Super-Krome paint we sell. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Klein were over today, and bought 4 quarts of rubber base floor enamel—they really like this enamel.

Brewster traded Mrs. Ethel Sheppard an Eclipse rotary mower for her old reel type power mower—then he went over to Mrs. Sophia Rauckhorst's and sold her an electric mower. Chas. Brown took a Mastercut rotary mower up to his wife's sister. Brewster took Mrs. Ed Elmore's Maytag washer home—we had it overhauled for her. I drove around some today and the farmers were really setting tobacco and cutting hay. I went down to the farm and Bob was putting in some real hay, mostly orchard grass, but it was cut at just the right time. We have most any kind of killer for most any kind of insect, if you will tell us what kind. Come to CONRAD'S!

Local D.A.R. Chapter Observes Memorial Dinner for Boone

The annual Daniel Boone memorial dinner, which is observed each year at the June meeting of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held at Rice's Plaza Florence. The dinner is held because it was on June 7, 1779 that Daniel Boone first viewed Kentucky.

Mrs. Ray Nestor, retiring regent recounted the accomplishments of the chapter during the four years of her regency. She was the organizing regent in 1952 and was reelected regent in 1953. Due to the untiring effort of the members, the local chapter has become well known throughout the state for the many DAR projects it has completed.

Mrs. Cecil Carr, Toledo, Ohio, a former Boone county resident, was accepted as a new member.

Officers for the coming 1956-1959 term were installed by Mrs. Robert Hume, State DAR Chaplain, at Dry Ridge. Mrs. Hume also brought greetings from the state organization and complimented the chapter on its work.

Officers installed were Mrs. Samuel Denham, Sr., regent; Mrs. J. B. Wolfe, vice regent; Mrs. Ashlin Logan, recording secretary; Mrs. Ronald Crume, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Davis Gaines, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Nestor, registrar; Mrs. Clarence Wolfe, chaplain; Mrs. Louis Braun, historian; Mrs. Rufus Tonner, librarian. Mrs. Nestor presented the chapter gavel to Mrs. Denham. Because Mrs. Hume had given untiring assistance to the Boone chapter during the years since its beginning, she was presented a gift by the retiring regent.

Members present were: Mesdames Louis Braun, J. P. Brothers, David Clore, Floyd Roberts, Clifford Coyle, Aleen Conner, Ronald Crume, James Deans, Samuel Denham, Sr., John L. Feagan, Davis Gaines, H. S. Hawes, Ashlin Logan, John Lockwood, Roy C. Nestur, Rufus Tanner, Garnet Tolin, Clarence Wolfe, J. B. Wolfe, Walter Ferguson. Miss Margaret Goodridge. Guests were Mrs. Samuel Denham, Jr., Mrs. Bill Feagan, Mrs. Hastings, and Mrs. Robert Hume.

MRS. MARIE A. COYNE

Requiem High Mass for Mrs. Marie A. Coyne, 52, who died June 12 at her home on Florence - Route 1, were sung at 9 a. m. last Friday, at St. Paul Church, Florence, following prayers at the Linnemann Funeral Home, Erlanger. Burial was in Mother of God Cemetery, Covington.

A native of Sandfordtown, Mrs. Coyne was a lifelong resident of northern Kentucky.

She leaves her husband, Thomas; two daughters, Misses Helen Mary and Shirley Ann Coyne, both at home, and three brothers, George, Anthony and Bernard Eilers, all of Boone county.

High Street Property Sold

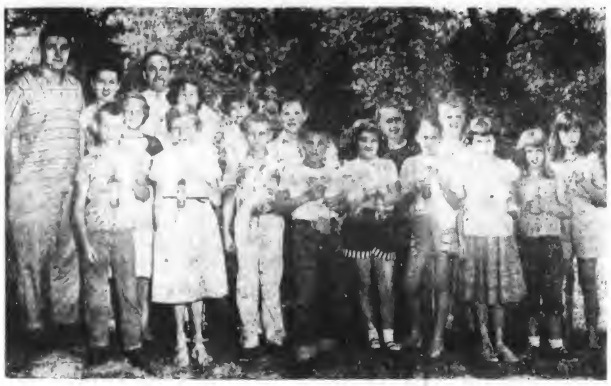
Mrs. Annie McMullen, Florence, R-1, sold a house and lot at 44 High Street, Walton, last week, to George H. Otten, Walton, R-2. Mr. Otten plans to place the property in good repair and either offer it for sale or move to it. This property was purchased by Mrs. McMullen's late husband, A. G. McMullen, a short time before his death and had planned to repair it.

The sale of this property was handled by the A. B. Renaker Real Estate Agency of Burlington. This agency is operated by Mr. Renaker and J. G. Smith.

Auto Racing at Hill Top

Hill Top Race Bowl, Route 16, 10 miles south of Covington, has announced that there will be a guaranteed $700 purse every Sunday.

On the night of July 4, there will be a special 50-lap feature with a $1,000 purse. To qualify for this event, cars must run two Sundays before July 4. There will also be fireworks.



Every Friday night, the racing events will be "visable stock cars," which is a class that can be modified only to the extent that the modification can not be seen. This will be a $300 guaranteed purse, and is the first time for such cars in this section.

Beaver Lick Baptist Revival

A revival will start June 25, at the Beaver Lick Baptist Church. Rev. Mentz will be the speaker, and song services will be led by Mr. Collett of Covington.

You are always welcome to come and enjoy these services, and receive a great blessing.

4-H Junior Star Campers Honored

Junior Star Camper awards went to these 4-H Club members attending the season's first camp at Camp Ernst, on June 11-15. They are (from left, front) Robert Streine and Pamela Forehan, of Kenton county; Lanny Cobb, Owen county; Johnny Akin and Nancy Allen, Boone county; Donna Jean Meyer, of Campbell couty; Linda Wilson and Darlene Kemper, Kenton county, (second row) Mary Louise Hartig, Peggy Ann Freppon and Cheryl Ann Uthe, Campbell county; Jimmy Strain, Buddy Beck and Jerry Binder, Kenton county, and Sheila Hensley, Boone county. Walton Softball Team Trips Petersburg and Bracht Over Weekend

Friday night, June 15, the Walton Merchants softball team defeated Petersburg in a wild game, 17-2. The winners were led to victory by three hits off the bat of Walt Ryan, and also the good pitching of Anderson. The game was marred throughout by wildness of the Petersburg pitchers, who walked 10 men. The winning hurler was Ray Anderson and the loser, W. Burns.

Sunday afternoon, the Merchants played at the Walton school grounds and entertained Bracht of the Grant County League. The locals had 10 runs on 13 hits, while Bracht had five runs on four hits. The big blows of the day were a homer and a triple by Ris Johnson, a homer by George Anderson, and a triple by Clifford Johnson. Every man on the team had a least one safety. Anderson was again the winning pitcher for Walton, and Atha was the loser.

Friday night, the Waltonions travel to New Haven where they will meet the New Haven Boosters. Game time is 8:30 p. m.

GRIDER-STURGEON

Walton, Bracht, Dry Ridge, Williamstown Form Softball League

The softball season got under way last week at the Grant County High School grounds. League play opened for three leagues. One league is made up of junior members (under 14) of the Baptist churches of the county. Another league is composed of senior members of the Baptist churches, and the third league, known as the major league, has four fine teams, Walton, Bracht, Dry Ridge, and Williamstown.

In the opening game of the Junior league, Sherman outslugged Williamstown 31-6, and came back this week to defeat Dry Ridge, 9-4. In the adult church league, Sherman opened with a well played game, defeating Dry Ridge, 3-2.

Two good games were played in the major league last week, with Dry Ridge deefating Bracht, 4-3, and Williamstown walloping Walton, 11-0.

Schedule for tonight and Friday:

June 21—Dry Ridge vs. Williamstown (Junior League), and Dry Ridge vs. Williamstown (Senior League).

June 22—Williamstown vs. Dry Ridge (Major League), and Walton vs. Bracht (Major League).

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

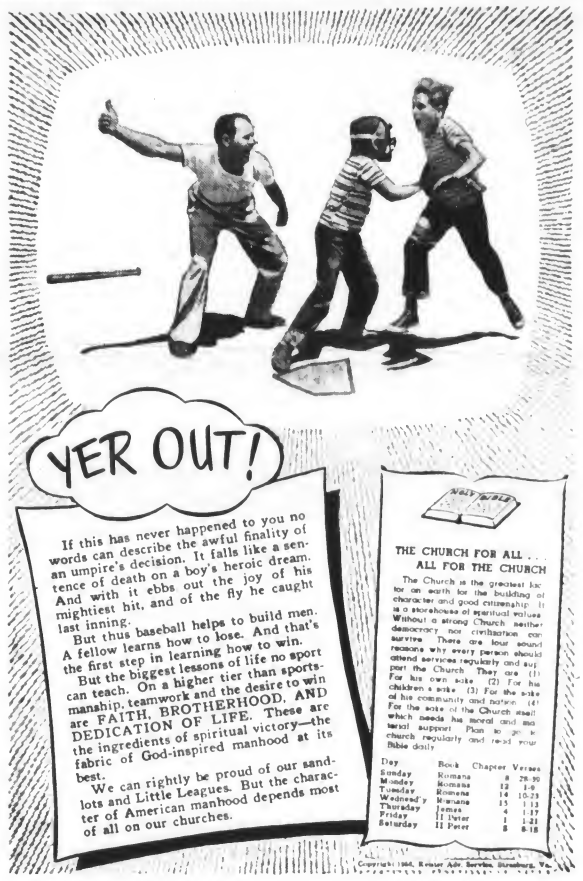
Widening Circles

Lesson for June 24, 1956

THE doctor who wrote what we call the book of Acts must have known that his story was not the whole story. He throws his spotlight first on one leader, then on another; occasionally on a whole church. During more than half his book he follows one man, Paul. Luke could not have supposed—for his friend Paul would not have let him make such a mistake—that the story of Paul was the whole story of the church. But he knew that it is men who make history. Paul was both outstanding, and typical. He was outstanding in that there is no record in the New Testament of any leader as great as he. He was typical in that for him as for others, Christianity is not a quiet stand-still religion; it must move.

Dr. Foreman

Pioneers



In the book of Acts the reader sees Christianity moving always in one direction: west. It has been going west ever since. But there were already pioneers in other directions. To the north went missionaries into the countries now known as France, Holland, Scandinavia, Great Britain. To the south went the pioneer Christians who founded the churches along the southern side of the Mediterranean and even penetrated up the Nile. To the east went pioneers who brought the Gospel to what is now Iraq. It was not long before there were Christians as far away as India. The Book of Acts closes with Paul in the world-capital of Rome. But the story of the Acts of the Holy Spirit through the Christian church is still being told. It is an unfinished story. It will always be an unfinished story so long as there are persons yet to be won. Life Magazine carried a story about the martyrdom of some young missionaries to the Aucas, a tribe of Indians in darkest Ecuador. It is safe to say that most of the readers of Life had not heard of the Aucas before. Indeed most American church members had never heard of them. But the point is, some Christians had, and to hear was to want to go and tell them the story of Jesus. Now there are five dead missionaries, and five widows . . . but it is safe to predict that some of these will go back, and others will follow, and one day it will be as safe to live among the Aucas as it is on your own street. You cannot stop the pioneers.

A world religion

Why has the Bible been translated into so many hundreds of languages? Not for fun. They don't first translate the Bible into (say) Mayan, and then start looking for some Mayans to try it on. It is the other way around. First some missionaries go to the Mayans, and they win some to Christ. And then both the missionaries and the new Christians want a Bible in the language of the land, so some one starts to translate it into Mayan, and after some years of hard work there appears a Mayan New Testament. Some day the Old will appear too. Every translation of the Bible is evidence that missionaries have been at work. If the Christian religion had stayed where it started (it would have died, but let's suppose it lived) there would be no English Bibles, no Latin, no French, only some obscure dialect of Hebrew. The existence of Bibles in English points to the work of missionaries centuries ago who brought not only culture but religion to our wild ancestors.

Miles are made of yards

We talk about the spread of Christianity, and indeed it has spread around the world. But it never spreads any farther at one time than from one person to one person. Drop a stone into a pond and presently the ripples reach every shore. But the first ripple is hardly bigger than the stone. Every road, no matter how long, is made up of very short stretches. Every mile is made of yards, yards are made of inches. You can't cover ten thousand miles without covering every inch of all that distance. A plain church member calling on a neighbor and saying a good word for Jesus Christ may not feel like a "world Christian"; but that is what he is. If the world is ever won for Christ it must be man by man. No less a person than Billy Graham has said that the most effective kind of evangelism in the world is visitation evangelism: one plus one plus one.

farm facts

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

Strawberry Reflections—For the past two weeks I have been harvesting a small acreage of strawberries and have had an opportunity to reflect on the changes that have taken place in berry growing since I was county agent in McCracken county thirty years ago, during the period when that area was at the peak of the state's fruit industry.

Berry production is safer now than it used to be because of the new insecticides, such as chlordane, to control insects, and new fundicides, especially "captan," to control diseases and rots. New varieties of berries, especially the Tennessee Beauty, are much superior to the old ones, both as to yield and quality.

On the other hand, some things are more difficult. Good pickers are harder to find. Women, who are the best pickers, don't like to work in the field like they used to, and modern youth just don't like that kind of work. Production costs have risen much more than income. But strawberries are a good additional source of income for the small farmer, especially if he has a working family. They should be a community enterprise with a cooperative marketing set-up. Growers in our community who depended upon the local market got only half the price received by the shippers.

Mounting Surpluses—Farmers are being encouraged to add to the corn surplus by the Secretary of Agriculture's recent announcement setting a support price of $1.25 a bushel for corn grown on non-controlled acres, compared to $1.50 for that grown on controlled acres. On my own farm, for instance, this ruling led us to plant 90 acres of corn rather than our allotted 49 acres, and reports indicate that the same thing is happening elsewhere.

Small Grains—The growing importance of small grain, especially barley and winter oats, to Kentucky's agriculture is apparent when one travels thru the farming section of the state during May. Never have I seen so much fine barley and oats in Kentucky as I recently saw between Bowling Green and Hopkinsville. The new DuBois winter oats and Kenbar barley have proven popular with the farmers in that area. A newer and better variety of barley, recently named Dayton, will be available for Kentucky farmers for the first time this fall.

Farm Income—In last month's Farm Facts we reported a drop in Kentucky's farm income for the first two months of 1956 as compared to the same period in 1955. Income for that period dropped from $130 million to $86 million. The decrease was due to the drop in the sales value of tobacco sold during the two months. Considerable 1954 tobacco was sold in early 1955 but the 1955 crop was practically all sold in that year. The decrease of course means that th Kentucky farmers' expendible cash will be reduced by that amount unless additional income to offset the drop can be found elsewhere, which is unlikely.

Ornamental Plants Need Attention Too

June is one of the most important months of the year in so far as the ornamental plants are concerned, according to Joe Claxon, County Agent. Flowers must be kept free of weeds and cultivated lightly, the evergreens watched to be sure they are not suffering for lack of water, and inspected for insects such as red spider and bagworms. Young trees should not be permitted to suffer for lack of water and the grass and weeds kept off a circle of soil at least 2 feet in diameter around each plant, shrubs should be pruned just after they finish blooming, dead seed pods removed from the tulips, narcissus and iris, and the dead bloom cut from the lilacs.

Weeds are perhaps the worst enemies of the flowers, but they must be removed with care or the tiny roots of the flowers that are near the surface of the soil will be damaged. Small weeds may be pulled from the flowers after a good rain when the soil is wet. When pulling the weeds, if their roots are likely to bring up clumps of soil, you should not pull them but cut the weeds with a sharp hoe.

Flowers that have come up from seeds may be too thick to do well and will need thinning. Rather than pull up the extra plants, it will probably be better to cut them off at the ground level with the scissors because pulling will injure the roots of those to be left.

Red spider are often bad at this time of the year on evergreens. They can usually be detected if the plants are not thrifty looking, and when the insects are in large number the small twigs may be covered with webs. Red spiders may be controlled by spraying with Aramite or Malathion, or by dusting with dusting sulfur. It may take two or three sprayings or dustings at 10 to 15 day intervals to control completely. If these two pests are not controlled, they may cause the death of the plant.

Bagworms are familiar to all, and these worms will soon eat up an evergreen if not controlled. Malathion or arsenate of lead used as a spray will stop them. If there should be heavy rains every few days it will be necessary to spray two or three times. These worms are not to be trifled lightly and must be taken care of promptly when once discovered or they will ruin the plants in a short time.

Some Uncertainties Mark Business Front

Some uncertainties appear in the general business picture for the next few months, says the Department of Agricultural Economics of the University of Kentucky.

Whether or not there will be a strike in the steel industry, and the extent of the wage and price increase which will follow, are the principal questions, the department says. Uncertainty also has been created by the failure of any spring upturn in auto sales, despite the fact total industrial employment rose to new record levels in April.

Cash living costs of Kentucky farmers may have risen in recent months compared with income of non-agriculture persons. Some rise in total cost of living appears to be in the cards in the near future, the department says.

Prices of the medium grades (commercial, good and choice) of cattle are expected to remain at about present levels through June, especially if the strong demand for feeders continues. Hog prices through June are expected to continue to increase at a moderate rate. Slightly higher prices for fluid milk and steady prices for butterfat appear in prospect another 30 days. The spring lamb prices are expected to remain at about present levels to July 1, followed by some seasonal decline.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The happiest miser on earth is the one who saves friends" was the thought for the day read by the reading chairman, Mrs. F. M. Powers at the June meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers Club. The meeting was called by the president Mrs. Wm. Endres, with members saying the Lord's Prayer. She gave a report on the advisory council meeting and called attention to the Homemakers emblem which features a fireplace with home, family, community inscribed on it.

Mrs. Howard Clark, chairman, elected the following: Mrs. William Endres president who will be serving her second year, Mrs. Roger Robinson, vice president Mrs. Ray Kumler, treasurer, Mrs. F. M. Powers secretary, Mrs. Ray McHale publicity, Mrs. Verner Stephens, program, Mrs. Frank Aftershirk, exterior beautification, Mrs. George Finnell, citizenship, Mrs. Gregory Bramlage, ways and means. Mrs. Vera Ott, reading, Mrs. Gus Schadler, progress report, and Mrs. E. A. Sterling, cards and gifts. Leaders were voted for projects for the coming year. Mrs. Clark also read a letter of thanks from Mrs. E. B. Sterling for the surprise farewell party held in her honor in the home of Mrs. E. A. Sterling. She and her activities will be missed greatly by the club members.

Pennies for Friendship" were collected.

A lesson on freezing of foods was presented by Mrs. William Endres and Mrs. Roy Kumler, the latter being the hostess to the members.

SOME ALFALFA FIELDS NEED TOP DRESSING

Alfalfa being produced on soils low in phosphorus and potassium takes a large part of those mineral nutrients away yearly, warns the Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service, and these nutrients should be replaced.

Harold Miller, an Extension Service agronomy specialist, recommends top dressing alfalfa crops to replace these lost nutrients. Top dressing should be done after the first cutting, and generally not later than after the second cutting.

Soils low in phosphorus or potassium should get the following applications: About 60 pounds per acre of phosphate (P_2O_5) and about 120 pounds per acre of potash (K_2O).

Miller recommends borated fertilizers to give the land proper amounts of boron. If straight or non-borated fertilizers are used, 20 to 30 pounds of borax per acre should be applied.

Miller noted that there is no need to top dress alfalfa if the soil is high in available phosphorus and potassium. Soil tests are the best way to determine this level.

MILK FOR THE PARTY

Want to encourage Janie or Junior to drink? Try setting up a milkshake center in your home, suggests the U.S. Department of Agriculture. As the weather gets warm and the youngsters' appetite for cooling beverages increases, parents may wisely encourage milk drinks.

Arrange a corner of the kitchen for the crowd that gathers after school or in the evening. Have milk in the refrigerator and milk on the shelf (dry or evaporated). And have a variety of different flavorings or other aids that the young people can use for attractive milk drinks. For that foamy, rather thick consistency especially liked in "shakes" and "floats", there are new milk-shake mixes in different flavors to add to milk. Non fat dry milk may be added to fluid milk to make "double milk" with flavors added to taste. If you have ice cream stored in the home freezer, that may be whipped into milk for a hearty shake. Have shakers on hand for the youngsters to let the electric mixer whip up a batch.

A set-up that suggests milk drinks as treats, party beverages or extra-special-between-meal-snacks often is a skillful persuader toward more milk-drinking by the younger generation. Those from six to sixteen generally like to be "in" on the fun in mixing their own milk drinks, provided the makings are on hand. If the budget is a consideration it's worth noting that colorful, appetizing and nutritious drinks can be made thriftily at home.

Nutritionists recommended that children need 3 to 4 cups of milk a day (that is 1½ pints to 1 quart of milk). Teen-agers need a quart of milk or more daily. Yet surveys show that many youngsters are not getting their milk quota. Frequently a whim, prejudice or mistaken idea about milk stands in the way.

Enter the $100,000 HOUSEPOWER® Contest

$10,000 Grand Prize

OVER 1,000 PRIZES IN ALL

200 valuable prizes awarded each month, May through September.

Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER

Today, the average home uses 3 times as much electricity as it did 15 years ago. That's why 4 out of 5 homes now suffer from low HOUSEPOWER. This is true even of brand new homes. Here are the conditions that cause you to have low HOUSEPOWER:

1. Inadequate electrical service entrance. To overcome this basic cause of low HOUSEPOWER, you should have service entrance capacity of at least 100 amperes. This requires 3-wire service from the street.

2. Overloaded circuits. Too many appliances on one circuit overload it and none of them get enough power. Motors may even burn out. If the overload is too great, the fuse will blow or circuit-breaker trip. You should have enough branch circuits to distribute enough electricity to all appliances.

3. Insufficient outlets. Some homeowners use extension cords and "octopus" outlets (2- and 3-way plugs), or plug into lighting outlets. Such practices are unsightly, inconvenient, and may be dangerous. Rearranging furniture doesn't help. The only safe solution is to add more circuits and outlets.

These are the symptoms of low HOUSEPOWER: lights dimming when appliances are turned on; blown fuses or tripped circuit-breakers; TV pictures shrinking when other appliances are turned on; appliances working inefficiently or taking too long to heat up.

If any of these symptoms are present in your home call your electric company, electrician or electrical contractor for a wiring check-up. If added wiring is necessary, your electrician or electrical contractor will do the job quickly, neatly, economically. It often takes less than a day. Remember, full HOUSEPOWER increases the value of your home.

Don't delay — enter this easy contest today. Nothing to buy. Just answer a few easy questions. Most of the answers you'll find right here in Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER.

A MODERNIZED ART

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Spinal manipulation was first used by the Egyptians and the Greek physicians many years before Christ. Chiropractic, as known and practiced today, was founded by Dr. D. D. Palmer in 1895. He systematized and developed this form of spinal adjusting and prepared himself to teach it. Dr. Palmer established the fact that constriction of the spinal nerve openings through joint deviations affects the spinal cord and is in many cases the fundamental cause of symptoms of various ailments. He based his reasoning on results obtained in his clinical practice, and later proved his work by the X-ray.

Due to its beneficial results, the science has attained wide recognition ranking as the largest drugless profession with numerous colleges, clinics and sanitoriums. The professional training to practice covers a period of four years.

From statistics compiled by the Chiropractic Research Bureau it is of particular interest to note that spinal adjustments obtain results in many conditions where traditional methods prove ineffective.

WHITES TOWER

The fine rain that fell last week was very welcome to all but those who had hay down but the good it did more than outweighed the little damage to the hay crop.

Companionship, love and affection are three things money cannot buy and are the real bases for a happy old age. This is probably the reason for the high divorce rate in the ranks of movies, radio and television, where they are continually reaching out for things that are not really important, and they would find the humble simple life the answer to all of their problems.

Each neighborhood always has one resident who knows his business so well that the rest of us take his advice when it comes to his particular line. So it is with Vally Bitts when it comes to gardening or small fruits, he can give you valuable advice as we have watched his garden for the past 13 years and he sure knows his business, and seems to take pride in having the best. He is also very nice about helping his neighbors when he is needed.

Our little community was lucky in the recent storm as no real serious damage resulted therefrom. We had a good soaking rain which was needed but little damage to land or crops. It was the Lord's will and maybe we are attending church a little better.

Mr. and Mrs. Fogely of Latonia were Sunday visitors to the farm to see how their corn field beans were coming along. They planted quite a few in our corn field and we hope they do well, as they are a fine couple and are the friendly type which we of the rural areas like to see come around.

Judy Brumback of Independence left Sunday for Cleveland, O., to vacation for a couple of week with her father, who is head of one of the big trucking firms in that city. Her brother, Tom, is spending his vacation with his uncle, Bob Mathis of "Camp Hungry" and is helping to put in a fine hay crop which Bob has on the farm. Tom is driving the tractor.

Members of the Brotherhood of Amity Baptist Church spent Saturday evening on an outing and fishing trip to "Bide-A-Wee" lake. Altho they didn't catch many fish they enjayed the wiener roast and spent a very enjoyable evening.

The poorest blackberry crop is predicted on account of the rains came at the wrong time and raspberries are also out as they just don't seem to be doing right. Dewberries are a thing of the past in this community.

Mr. Carl Foltz, dairyman of "Three L" highway bought the Guernsey we mentioned last week in this column. The price seemed satisfactory to both buyer and seller and no trouble was had in making a deal.

A gentleman farmer from Williamstown got our plants we had, after getting through ourselves. He came in today (Monday) and on account of the good rains found enough to finish planting his crop. By the way the gentleman's name was Mr. Harris.

We were sorry to hear of the light stroke suffered by Uncle Jim Smith of Visalia who has a host of friends in the county who are pulling for his early recovery. Everyone like Uncle Jim who is one of those fellows who is always ready with the handshake and a warm welcome in the Visalia Church. We don't have enough fellows like Uncle Jim or this would be a better world.

The revival at the Comunity Pentecostal Chiurch of God is still in progress. Judging from the machines parked the attendance has been good.

The Gun Club at Hill Top is sponsoring a "Shoot" July 1st with the entire proceeds of which will go to the Independence Volunteer Fire Department to buy new equipment and the public is invited. A large crowd is expected to help a worthy cause. The members are all good sportsmen and are dedicated to protecting fish, game and wild life.

Dairy Pastures May Call For Upping Protein Content

Dairy pastures are maturing now and there may be a decrease in the grasses protein content, says Garland Bastin, Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service dairy specialist It thereby may be advisable to increase the protein content of the concentrate ration fed to milking herds.

Dairymen using a grain ration with a 11- to 12-percent total protein content, may have to step it up to 14 percent, Bastin says.

In the later half of July and during August, a 16-percent protein content grain ration may be needed, unless the milking herd is on an excellent Sudan grass pasture.

Electric Fans

Open Every Day Except Sunday, 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

There is no need for anyone to suffer with a hot house, because we have all sizes and all prices of fans from a 10" fan for $12 95 to a 20" fan for $37 50—any size or any type you want and at reasonable prices We have a 20" reversible window fan for $44 50 and a 10" fan for $12 95 We have a ¾-ton air conditioner for $199 00 and it will cool three average rooms I believe I have the smoothest and finest 18" fan I have ever seen for $34 50—it has a large motor and will run all day and never get warm—look this one over before you buy

We have a large selection of fans in most all prices and styles. Today, we had paint customers from all parts of the country—they were buying inside and outside paint for all purposes William Scroggin from Verona was buying plastic water pipe and lots of fittings [illegible] mowing machine repairs, also some [illegible] people are buying that [illegible] the bean beetle must be [illegible] large enough to eat up [illegible] watermelon [illegible]

S C Camt[illegible] who lives in the old Mart Ben[illegible] house on High Street bought a Sunbeam electric mower—for his wife he said Mrs Schmidt over Morning View way came after her 9x12 flowered rug I had ordered for her We received a lot of new fans today, a hassock fan for $34 95, a 20" reversible fan which will pull the air out of the house or pull the cool night air in the house for $44 50, a 14" table fan for $29 95, a 12" G E oscillating fan for only $29 95, the old reliable 16" G E oscillating 3-speed, a lifetime fan for only $49 50 then we have a 10" G E and Westinghouse for $16 95 and a few 10" Dominion for $12 95.

We have 3- and 5-gallon galvanized water coolers which are double walled and will keep water cool We have oak water kegs and all types and sizes of thermos jugs We also have ice chest in most all sizes and prices also croquet sets in 4 and 6-ball sets We sold hay forks, hay rope and Delaney Johnson bought a grapple fork to put baled hay in the hay loft Mrs Sam Murphy bought several items, a large aluminum tea kettle, paint, lamp converters and a lamp chimney. Brewster and Red put down new linoleum for Mrs. Anna C McCabe in her kitchen We sold several more electric fans today

Russell Rector and son bought that large Hanson sprayer which operates off the tractor power take-off and sprays 50' spread at a time Faye Poe came after a large size ice chest—it was a large one, and holds 85 pounds of crushed ice We received a large shipment of containers for putting food in deep freezers Pints, pints and a half, also quarts with soft plastic top Mr and Mrs Geo McL[illegible] were buying paint and screen wire also checking on prices of pipe for putting water in their house

Arthur Earl Brooks came after five gallons of [illegible]

[illegible]

We just received more Maytag washers—[illegible] these just like grapes, in bunches, and then they wait a few weeks, then all at once they start again [illegible] we run out Someone should buy this 66" double bowl kitchen sink for only $129 50—it is a beauty [illegible] no place to display it I also have a 40 gallon table top electric water heater for $129 50 also a 52 gallon round upright electric water heater for $129 50 and a ¾ ton Coolaire air conditioner for $199 50 installed and a Dayton jet water system with 33 gallon tank for only $89 50 We have all types of [illegible] and sprayers for the tractor or to carry on the [illegible]. Walton Wa-Na Club Installs New Officers At June 11 Meeting

The Walton Wa-Na Club had it final meeting of the 1955-56 year on Monday, June 11 at Ordner. This was the club's annual dinner meeting, and also the meeting for the installation of officers for next year.

After a delightful dinner, the president Mrs. James Fulks opened the business session with the pledge to the flag and the reading of the club collect in unison.

The historian for the year, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, then had each committee chairman of the year to report on their committee's work for the entire year.

Mrs. Carl Conner, chairman of the library committee, then gave a report on the progress of the library that had been made this year. She also reported on some new books that have been added to the library, especially some Grace Livingston Hill books that are outstanding.

Mrs. Lina A. Rouse past president of the Walton Woman's Literary Club was the installing officer and the following officers were installed for the coming year: President Mrs. Jane Ellis, First Vice President Mrs. Faye Martin, Second Vice President Mrs. Wood Jones, Secretary Mrs. Robert Oser, Treasurer Mrs. Linda Hendricks, Historian Mrs. Meredith L. Wilson.

Mrs. Hess Veal was a guest and gave a reading. Members present were Mrs. A. J. Rouse, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Mrs. Jane Ellis, Mrs. Faye Martin, Mrs. Stanley Vallandingham, Mrs. Lina Rouse, Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Robert Oser, Mrs. Linda Hendricks, Mrs. Lloyd Hendricks, Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., Mrs. James L. Whitson, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Elmer Geiger, Mrs. Wallace S. Grubbs, Mrs. Robert Oser, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Charles Helder, and Mrs. Jane Ellis.

CHESTER CRAWFORD

Funeral services for Chester Crawford, 79, who died last Thursday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Florence Hale, Morning View were conducted at 9:0 a. m. Monday at St. Matthew Church. White Valley Burial was in Mount Zion Cemetery.

A lifelong resident of Covington, Mr. Crawford was a painter.

Besides Mrs. Stein, he leaves another daughter, Mrs. Josephine Bright, Florida; a son James Crawford, Washington; two sisters, Misses Lydia and Henrietta Crawford, both of Covington; a brother, William C. Crawford, Covington, and three grandchildren.

Bean Dinner To Be Held Saturday At the Verona Lake Ranch

The world's biggest Bean dinner will be held at famous Verona Lake Ranch, Verona, next Saturday, June 30. These dinners have been popular country entertainment for years and for the first time in Boone county, you can now enjoy the time honored good eating of a real old fashioned get together around the big iron pot.

The beans will be cooked all night the night before and everyone is invited to come in then and watch. They'll be cooked in real country style in big, antique 50 gallon iron kettles over hickory wood fires. You're invited to come and join around the fires, and maybe sing a few of the old songs with the crowd. There'll be night fishing that night too, so bring the old poles and cast a line.

Admittance to the park Friday night and all day Saturday will be free, so if you like beans, be sure and come, and if you don't, come and watch the fun. You'll get all the beans you can eat for 50c and watching some of those big eaters put away gallons will be something to see! There'll be games and contests too for all who wish to enter, with prizes for all winners. For a real good country get-together, y'all come to Verona Lake Ranch next Saturday June 30. Just stop in anytime throughout the day, or better yet, plan on staying all day. The fishing's good, the food's good (beans or refreshments) and a beautiful picnic area and play ground awaits you. Get acquainted with one of Kentucky's fine outdoor parks now.—Pub. Ch.

Boone Homemakers Observe International Day With A Program

[illegible] Conference [illegible] meeting and he [illegible] the yoke of bondage" [illegible] Egypt [illegible]

Kenneth Bowen's address [illegible] Christian Hour for World Peace, delivered to the fifty three Boone county homemakers assembled at the Florence Fire House Thursday June 21, for the recent annual International Day tea.

Dr. Bowen, pastor of the Erlanger Christian Church, further stated that mans greatest single political hope is world peace, however we cannot trust peace and good will to armaments. Peace comes from God and our source of faith in freedom is God, our protection of that faith is in the Bible and assurance of that faith is the human nature of man which will not let any tyrant long ultimately or permanently have him in.

Mrs. Joseph Hogan, Boone county citizenship chairman, welcomed those present by explaining some of the history of International Day. This day was originated by the Association of Country Women in order to learn more about the life of women in other countries, and to promote international good will, friendship, and understanding among them.

Special music for the occasion rendered by the Boone County Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Omer Dilwick, included "Praise for Peace," Plough man's Song," a Swedish folk song, and "Vive La Muir."

Following the musical selections, Mrs. Lewis Webster introduced representatives from three foreign countries. Mrs. Steve Robinson and her daughter, Jane presented a Scottish song. Mrs. Nils Mengborn, a native of Denmark, told of her recent visit to her homeland and rendered a folk song, and Mrs. A. E. Atkinson delivered a most interesting and graphic account of her travels in India, concluding with a native Christmas story.

The meeting adjourned with the singing of "A Song of Peace," by the entire assembly.—Pub. Chr.

Station Workers Check Corn Zinc Deficiency

What may be zinc deficiency in corn characterized by yellow streaking when the plants are 8 to 10 inches high, is being checked by Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station agronomists.

The specialists ask that samples of corn and soil from fields showing such symptoms be sent in. Samples also should be collected from a part of the field or nearby field where the corn is healthy.

In severe cases, the leaf tips, margins and sheaths become purple, a wide yellow stripe develops down each side of the leaf, and the pith may have dark blotches at the lower nodes. The plant also is stunted.

The agronomists note these symptoms might be caused by blue aphids on corn roots and that there may be some relation between the two cases.

County agents have details on how to send the soil and plant samples to Room 213, Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky.

Church Choir Contest Scheduled Aug. 23 At Boone County Fair

[illegible] contest [illegible] the [illegible] Fair [illegible] announced [illegible] Fair Board. The choir contest will be held Thursday evening, August [illegible] 23, at [illegible] p. m.

Churches entering the contest must be Boone county churches only. All participants must be members of regular attendants of the church with whom they sing on this program.

All numbers will be limited to three minutes.

All entry blanks are to be filled out and in the hands of the committee by August 15. Mail them to the County Extension Office Burlington, Ky.

The two classes will be: (a) Open to church choirs only; hymns, evangelistic songs, anthems, negro spirituals may be used. (b) Open to quartets, trios, duets or soloists, may be women's, men's or mixed. Cash trophies and a ribbon will be awarded.

Bake Sale June 30

The [illegible] Johnson-McElroy American Legion Auxiliary will hold a bake sale Saturday, June 30th 10 A.M. at Ryle's department store. Proceeds from the sale is to help buy tables for the new Legion home.

Anyone wishing to donate any baked goods to the sale will be greatly appreciated by the unit members.

RICHARD ACRA

Richard Earl Acra, 55, of Petersburg, employee of the Boone county road department, died last Saturday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, where he had been a patient since suffering a stroke at the county garage June 15.

A lifelong resident of Boone county, Mr. Acra was a deacon and treasurer of the Petersburg Baptist Church, a member of Petersburg Lodge, 926, F. & A. M., Indra Consistory, Scottish Rite, Covington, the Knights of Pythias, Covington, and a charter member of Chapter 547, Order of Eastern Star, Petersburg.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Brennie L. Acra; his mother, Mrs. Ella Acra, at home; a brother, Jennings Acra, Petersburg; three sisters, Mrs. Lyman Christy of Petersburg, Mrs. John Snelling of Taylorsport, and Mrs. Louis Griffith of Lawrenceburg, Ind., and several nieces and nephews.

Services were held Monday afternoon at the Petersburg Baptist Church. Burial was in Petersburg Cemetery.

MRS. GLADYS DOLWICK

Services for Mrs. Gladys Dolwick, 52, who collapsed and died at her home on Erlanger Road, Boone county, last Friday, were held at 2:30 p. m., Monday at the Hebron funeral home. Burial was in the Hebron Cemetery.

Dr. Harry Daugherty, Florence, who was called to the residence, said Mrs. Dolwick apparently died of a cerebral hemorrhage.

She leaves her husband, Adam Dilwick; two daughters, Janet Dilwick, at home, and Mrs. Carl Jen Moulder of Burnley, a sister, Mrs. Katherine Herbert and a brother, Elmer Jergens, both of Vault Road, Boone county, and a grandson.

She was a member of the Constance Homemakers Club, the Boone County Utopia Club, and the Constance Christian Church.

Attend Brotherhood Meet

Eleven men from the Walton Baptist Church attended the annual State Baptist Men's Brotherhood Rally at Camp Cedarmore last Saturday, June 23. They were Lloyd Shields, Emerson Young, D. K. Johnson, Bryan Reeter, David Gerth, Levi Pennington, Joseph Tackett, W. E. Duchemin, Jimmy L. Allphin, James Newby and David Dunbar. There were approximately thirty seven hundred men attended.

Dr. R. G. Lee, past president of the Southern Baptist Convention, was the principal speaker. Delicious barbecued chicken dinner was served.

Visiting In Walton

Clinics To Be Resumed

The Boone County Health Department will resume the Wednesday morning clinic July 11. Clinics will be held every Wednesday morning from 9:00 to 12:00 noon throughout the summer.

Immunizations given at the clinics include polio, typhoid fever, whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus and smallpox. If your child has not been immunized against these diseases, contact your family doctor or come to the Boone County Health Dept., Florence.

District Masonic Meeting Tonight At New Haven

Approximately 500 Masons from Kenton and Boone counties are expected to be present at the annual meeting of the 29th Masonic District of Kentucky set for 8:00 p. m. tonight (June 28) at the New Haven School, U. S. 42, two miles south of Union.

Riley J. Preiser, Union, district deputy grand master, said that Fred B. Layman, grand master of Masons in Kentucky, would be the principal speaker.

Mr. Layman will be accompanied by other grand officers of the order. Also in attendance will be masters and officers of the 15 Masonic lodges comprising the 29th district.

Mr. Presser, a past master of Boone-Union Lodge 304, the host lodge, has urged all Masons throughout the district to "avail themselves the opportunity to hear a report on the conditions of the fraternity in Kentucky."

The meeting will close with a buffet supper and social hour.

Mass Meeting To Study The Soil Bank Program

All Kenton county land owners and tobacco growers are urged to attend a mass meeting at Simon Kenton High School, near Independence, on Monday, July 2, 1956, at 8:00 p. m.

The purpose of the meeting is to study how farmers can participate in the new Soil Bank Program just enacted by the Congress of the United States. This will be the only meeting of its kind in Kenton county.

The meeting was called by Russell Rector, Chairman of the County A. S. C. Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yates are having a new house built in Verona. They started Monday morning.

Governor's Adherents Working Determinedly

A political fight is shaping up in Boone and Kenton counties this Saturday when the Democratic county conventions will be held.

The governor's adherents in Boone county have been working quietly, determinedly and perhaps somewhat desperately to persuade Chandler diehards to attend Saturday's convention.

The word "desperately" is used with good reason, because the Chandler forces in Boone county were given such a sound drubbing in the May 29 primary in the Senate race between Sen. Earle C. Clements and Joe Bates they were able to win only one precinct out of Boone's 17 and that one by only two votes.

The loss of Saturday's battle virtually would sink Chandler propanents insofar as next year's county elections are concerned.

Taking cognizance of this well-organized plan, old-line Democrats in Boone county, the Clements and Wetherby supporters, also have been doing a lot of circuit riding in lining up adherents to the old-line cause.

In Kenton County

Andrew W. Clark, chairman of the Kenton County Democratic Executive Committee, urged all party members to vote in the county convention Saturday when 97 delegates to the state Democratic convention will be chosen.

Mr. Clark spoke for the large turnout, hoping to keep state control of his party away from Gov. Chandler.

The 58th district convention will meet at the Independence Courthouse, with Melvin Stubbs as chairman; the 59th district at 14 West Southern Avenue, Covington, Leonard Connar, chairman; the 60th district, 427 Byrd St., the East End Civic Club, James A. Dressman, Jr., chairman, and the 61st district, Sixth and Philadelphia Sts., the Goebel Park shelter house, T. P. Fitzpatrick, chairman.

In July, 1953, the people of Demossville, Kenton and Visalia area decided that it was time to organize a fire department to protect life and property in the various communities. After meeting every week in the Dist. A. Hall at Kenton and electing officers for $25 each a 500 gallon per minute pumper was bought in August, 1953. A building that could be kept heated was needed to keep the pumper in so as the 300 gallons of water carried on the truck would not freeze. A 50x30 firehouse was started and with the help of Chester Coppage and the Walton Lumber Co. and many more to whom we are very grateful, the firehouse was finished enough that we could move in about the last of November, 1953.

This four wheel drive fire truck has pleased the people as well as the firemen for they can take it off the road in winter without getting stuck in the mud and this means much to the farmers as their water supply is mostly ponds.

In March, 1955, an ambulance was purchased and people of the community were asked to donate $5 per family to help pay for it as there are no charges for its use at it is kept for emergency use only.

The Ladies Auxiliary went to work and purchased an oxygen inhalator and resuscitator costing $331, for the life squad. The life squad has first aid training and some have advanced training which was given by Chief Wesley Bruce of the Ludlow Fire Department Chief Bruce has had 30 years of life squad work, much of it with the Cincinnati Fire Department.

The dry summer months when water was a problem for the fire department, caused the firemen to go to work and purchase a 1000-gallon water truck and mounted a portable pump on it to make a second fire truck, as well as carrying extra water to the fire. This water truck goes to all fires.

The chief money-making project to keep the fire department maintained is the annual picnic, which is held at Thorn Hill Lake, Kenton, the last Friday and Saturday of June each year, falling on June 29-30 this year. The firemen have a good program this year for the public's entertainment. Bonnie Lou and Rockin Rudy Hansen of the Midwestern Hayride will be there and the Klotz Bros. will furnish dance music. So come out and help the fire department so that they will be able to help you when you need them.—Chief Cecil Ishmael.

Visitor From Arizona

The Stephen A. Morgans are happy to have Mr. Morgan's father, C. O. Morgan, visiting them from Douglas, Ariz. The Morgans all visited relatives in Manchester, Ky., last Sunday. They attended Rev. Wayne Patton's church in that city. Rev. and Mrs. Patton are to be remembered to all their many friends in Walton.

Most modern truck V8's ...and the pounds prove it!

Pound for pound, the most powerful truck V8's today are Chevrolets. That's one way you can tell they're the most modern V8's going!

They carry around fewer pounds for power they develop. That means you not only can haul bigger loads—you have more usable power to move them!

Stop by and let us give you the facts on Chevrolet's compact, super-efficient truck V8's.

Weigh the facts... and you'll choose today's most modern trucks

Wasted weight is engineered out of Chevrolet truck V8's! Chevrolet's truck V8's have a rugged yet remarkably compact cylinder block. Modern design cuts down engine weight.

More power per pound means more power for your payload! Less power is used up in moving engine weight, more is available for moving your payloads. You get hour-saving performance!

There's a modern V8 for every Chevrolet Task-Force truck! There's a V8—either standard, or optional at extra cost—in every Chevrolet truck model. Horsepower ranges as high as 195!

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

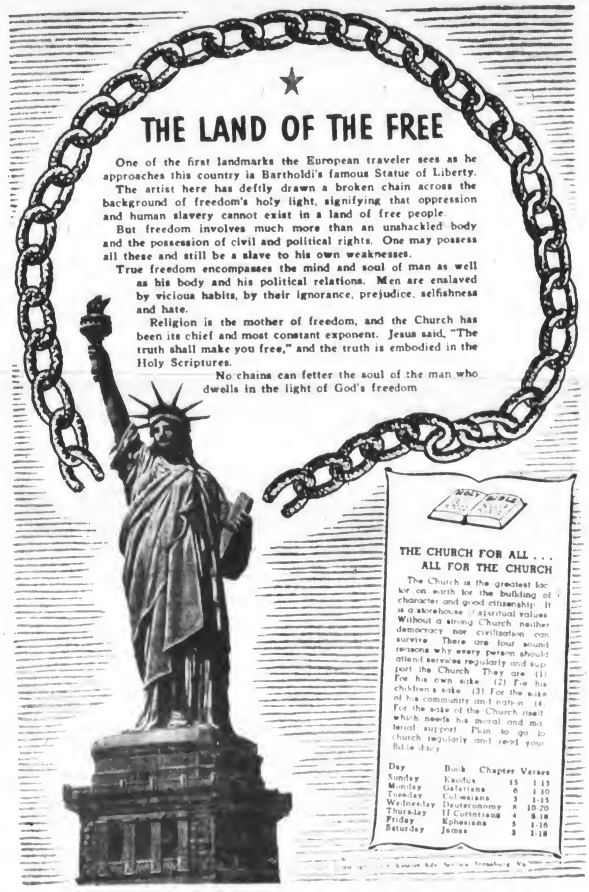
Nine Letters

Lesson for July 1, 1956

Dr. Foreman

THOUSANDS of Sunday schools for the next three months are going to be studying nine short but immortal letters. These letters are the forgotten parts of the New Testament, for many people. Out of the 27 "books" of the New Testament, all but five are letters. These nine—from Hebrews to Revelation inclusive—make up about 50 pages or one-sixth of the whole Testament. It would be worth the reader's while to make a special study of these letters this summer. Perhaps all the teachers in a Sunday school could chip in and buy a commentary or two.

Letters from . . .



No two people write quite alike. All letters bear the mark of their writers even when they are unsigned. So it is with these nine. Some of them are signed, some are not. But the writers can be told apart without any trouble. If Hebrews and James were printed together without a break, a high school student should be able to notice the difference between them. The writer of the first letter is plainly a highly educated man, a man who is keenly interested in ritual and in the history of the Hebrew people. The writer of the second is less highly educated, but a more practical man all around. Not that his advice is any better, but he loses no time getting down to particular problems. The first man is greatly interested in theology, the second is so little interested in it that his letter has worried some people like Luther, for example, who wondered whether it really belonged in the New Testament. Or again, comparing Hebrews with the letters of Paul, the reader can see why scholars are for the most part quite certain that Paul never wrote this one. It is obviously written by a different kind of man—one who used a different vocabulary, went at problems differently, constructed a letter differently, quoted the Old Testament in a different way; indeed while all of Paul's letters are carefully signed, Hebrews is not signed at all. So one may go through the rest of these letters seeing the writers through what they wrote.

Letters to . . .

Letters vary according to the persons to whom they are written. A woman writing to her mother, her husband, the tax collector and her boy at school will write four different kinds of letters. So these nine letters were written to different kinds of people. To be sure, some of them were sent to a pretty wide circle of readers (Peter for instance), but even so, that wide circle had something in common: in this case, suffering and persecution. Is it too much to suggest that the Christian John has in his mind's eye as he writes his letters are much more mature than the Christians to whom James writes his plain advice? Now the interesting thing is that the various kinds of Christians to whom these letters were addressed are matched by Christian types today. That is why one Christian will sometimes get more out of one part of the New Testament, while another Christian finds more meat in another part. And yet for all the differences there are some important likenesses, and the noticing reader will find them.

Letters about . . .

Few if any of these letters, or any others in the New Testament, are about "things in general." They usually speak to some particular problem, situation or trouble. The New Testament does not consist of a series of theological essays neatly arranged by topics. Rather, it consists of fairly short letters speaking to certain specific problems that had been distressing the readers. Some of these problems emerged in more places than one at the same time, just as happens today. In the short passages selected for special study in most quarterlies, two problems are highlighted, as the reader will find: false teachings, and persecution. In these times in which we live, with half the world in a ferment against Christianity, and even in the "Christian" part of the world a bewildering jangle and wrangle of sects and "isms" soap-boxing all over the place—the Christian church threatened by enemies without and "crackpots" oftentimes within, who can call the New Testament's themes out of date?

WHITES TOWER

This is reporter, report to his patrons who have been good enough and wise enough to subscribe for our newsy paper which comes closer to the people of our community than all the big news papers and magazines.

Bet you'd like to think how lucky we are for the recent wet weather, in spite of the little damage it has done everything is growing and just looks fine. "A wet [illegible] good crop year" is an old saying but very true and we will have plenty. If time to get rid of those weeds, and then watch the stuff grow. Pastures are the best ever and cows are growing the most milk we have ever seen at this time of year.

Don't Ya just wonder what will be done with the [illegible] is working.

A new orchard home is going up in the next few weeks adjoining Bide-A-Wee on the west. We will have more about it when it is started.

Miss [illegible] is spending her vacation with her parents here on the T and Mrs. [illegible] purchased the household goods of the old car lot on the T and has moved it to his lot between here and Nicholson, where it will be a [illegible] shop, something badly needed in our community.

When this comes out in our paper it will be only a few days 'namely July 4th when the city fathers are going to celebrate in the [illegible] Fire Department will be held at Hall Top by the Lathing Gun Club. The boys who are giving this are all good fellows and are trying to keep the teenage boys out of trouble by [illegible] to enjoy hunting to spend a day or [illegible] gathering at the [illegible] We need [illegible] like this that makes a vast crowd [illegible] a night.

Rosie Osborne is [illegible] looking strawberry field we have seen lately and next year we will really have some news to tell you when they hand out the awards.

[illegible] is telling us his Texas [illegible] only to find a few [illegible] get where they are going at [illegible] the [illegible] right at the start [illegible] to [illegible] furniture which [illegible] will [illegible] that will take a little [illegible] to get [illegible] straight [illegible] summer, if the [illegible] the end of the week.

Joe Sweeney and Carnee Brinkley have not finished getting their [illegible] Joe tells me that he soon had all the usual [illegible] in the final analysis.

We have plenty of [illegible] plants so if you need any good plants, we would be glad to give them to you.

Weeds are getting a little a problem as the rains continue and what we need now is about two weeks of dry weather.

Tom Baumlach left Sunday for Cleveland, Ohio, to join his sister, Judy, on a vacation visit to his father.

OAK RIDGE

Homemakers Meet

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. E. C. Harris, Lipscomb Road, June 19. Roll call was answered by each member telling of their vacation plans for the summer. The report of the nominating committee was read by the chairman, Mrs. J. E. Mann, followed by the election of officers for the coming year. The officers chosen were: President, Mrs. Harry Collier; vice president, Mrs. Chester Barton; secretary, Mrs. Thomas Renecker, treasurer, Mrs. Orville Eads; program chairman, Mrs. Edith Piper.

The club then made plans to go to Berea, July 12, where they will visit the Berea College Industries and attend the play, Wilderness Road.

The president, Mrs. Collier, reported on the advisory council meeting.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Harris, at which the 100% members for the year were honored by gifts of friendship cups. There were five 100% members, Mrs. Edith Piper, Mrs. Kenneth Galloway, Mrs. J. E. Mann, Mrs. Chester Barton, and Mrs. Thomas Renecker.

Mrs. Chester Tallent read a letter from her pen pal in England telling about the 21st birthday party of the Women's Institute, and also told of her recent visit to the Frontier Nursing Service Centers in Perry county.

Mrs. Renecker announced that her sister, Mrs. William Schwall, of the Ryland Homemakers' Club, would present the lesson on renovating picture frames at the September meeting.

The club will meet July 24 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Bauer for a workshop on braided and hooked rugs.

Those present, besides the hostess and the one hundred percent members, were Mrs. Harry Collier, Mrs. Hayden Ware, Mrs. Chester Tallent, Mrs. Ralph Bauer, Mrs. Homer Harris, and a guest, Mrs. Guy King.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Jaegers have moved into the former home of Gene Kelly on Hands Pike. We welcome them to our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Ishmael and sons of Taylor Mill Pike, visited Sam Schuster of Painesville, Ohio, recently. They brought Mr. Schuster home with them and he is now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Galloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Degle and family of Little Rock, Ark., visited Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Metcalfe recently.

John Riley of Covington, was a recent guest of his nephew, Kenneth Galloway.

Mrs. Dorothy Jameson is in St. Elizabeth Hospital, where she underwent surgery.

The festival of the Taylor Mill Fire Department was very successful. The nicest thing about these festivals is the opportunity to see old friends and former schoolmates whom we seldom see.

The new Dairy Delight across from Taylor Mill School is quite a success judging from all the customers we see each time we pass there. Mr. Clark, teacher from Taylor Mill School, is working there this summer.

In crossing Hands Pike recently we noticed the barn on Mrs. Ada Calloway's place had caved in and a huge tree in front of her house was blown down. We weren't able to find out if it was struck by lightning or if the wind had caused the damage.

My sister, Joyce Meyers, and her three young sons visited me recently. We visited Coney Island, went shopping in Cincinnati, fished and swam.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to express our gratefulness to all who so graciously helped us by their prayers, visit, cards, and expressions of sympathy during the illness and death of our father.

CHURCH OF TODAY

READY-MADE HOUSE OF WORSHIP is this prefabricated church manufactured by United States Steel Homes, Inc., the housing subsidiary of U. S. Steel corporation, at its ultra-modern plant in New Albany, Ind. Many of the churches already have been erected in various localities of the nation. Due to mass production techniques, the churches are erected speedily and economically without loss of strength or quality. All are expandible and, due to panelization, floor plans may be varied. The church pictured above was designed by William M. Cooley of Chicago, A. I. A.

THREE TEENAGER YOUTHS TRAPPED IN BOONE CO.

Boone County authorities Thursday were holding three teenaged youths accused of stealing dairy equipment valued at $1,[illegible] from the milk house on the farm of William Burr, Petersburg, Ind., Monday night.

Following [illegible] Burr's complaint, Mr. Burr and [illegible] searched the area and trapped the trio and lodged them on charges of breaking and entering and grand larceny in the county jail. Sheriff Byron Kinman and Deputy Sheriff Joe Hager [illegible].

Two of the youths, both 17 [illegible] home [illegible] and one from Cincinnati, were [illegible] the grand jury under $1,000 bond. A 16 year old boy from Cincinnati was turned over to juvenile authorities.

COOKING UNNECESSARY IN NEW JAM RECIPE

Strawberry jam in January, with the delightful flavor of fresh berries in June [illegible] long last become possible. The [illegible] which has in it [illegible] the fresh crushed berries, sugar [illegible] powdered pectin in water are combined and brought to [illegible] then the jam [illegible] to jells. Then the jam [illegible] to zero.

This unusual jam has the flavor and [illegible] fresh fruit plus an attractive [illegible] feature that makes it spread well. It will keep in the refrigerator for [illegible] months or in the home freezer [illegible] as a year. To enjoy the jam at its best, it should be eaten promptly after the jar is opened.

If the jam is too firm when the jar is opened, stirring will soften it. If it tends to separate, stirring will blend it again.

As in making cooking strawberry jam, sound, ripe fruit should be used. To wash the berries, place a few at a time in a pan of water, then carefully, lift them out and remove the stems.

Add 5 cups of sugar to 3 cups of crushed berries. Mix well, and allow to stand 20 minutes with occasional stirring. Dissolve 1 package of powdered pectin in 1 cup of water, bring to a boil and boil 1 minute. Add this liquid to the berry mixture and stir 2 minutes.

Ladle jam into jelly glasses, filling [illegible] within ½ inch of the top. Cover and let stand until jelled, 24 to 48 hours if necessary. Seal with hot paraffin and cover with metal lid. Put in refrigerator or home freezer at once. Makes 9 six ounce glasses.

Raspberries or blackberries may be substituted for the strawberries, using the same amount. Peeled crushed peaches also may be used, about 2½ pounds being necessary.

Shade Farm Gas Tanks To Cut Fuel Losses

Shade the farm gasoline tank to prevent fuel losses this summer, says J. B. Kelley, U. K. Extension engineer. This will cut evaporation losses as much as 10 percent.

The hot summer sun causes evaporation of the part of the gasoline that makes the tractor easier to start. Then the gum content of the gasoline becomes too great, causing faulty carburation and sticky valves.

Silver or white paint, to reflect the sun's rays, help cut surface temperatures and reduce evaporation. The paint should be used when shade cannot be provided. Pressure valves are recommended.

In addition, Kelley points out, gasoline should be stored outside of buildings to reduce fire hazards, and clean containers should be used if gasoline is drawn from the tank into a receptacle and then transferred to the tractor.

Many farmers put their tanks up on frames or supports, to use gravity flow in fueling equipment.

Where flies are DDT-resistant, the most effective spray for killing them on the wing uses pyrethrum as an active ingredient. Another method of control developed by recent research is poisonous baits. These combine poisonous compounds—malathion is one of the best—with sweetening agents that attract the flies and cause them to feed on the bait.

Cool, fresh cotton seersucker bedspreads make a nice change for the summer season, they are easily washed and require little or no ironing.

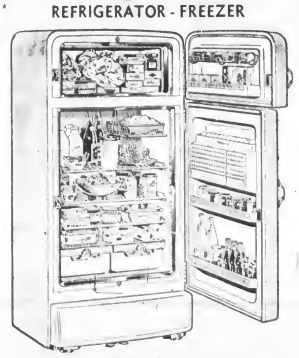
Sunday School Class Meets

The Happy Helpers Class of the Walton Methodist Church met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Morgan with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster as co-hosts for the evening.

The devotions were exceptionally interesting and inspiring. Scripture readings were given by Mrs. Bruce Wallace and Nick Welsh. C. O. Morgan, of Douglas, Ariz., gave the devotional message ably illustrated by his rock and gem specimen which showed the various processes through which an old, rough looking rock is converted into a precious stone or gem. In the course of his talk he recited the well beloved poem, "The Touch of the Master's Hand." Lloyd Watson presided over the meeting.



Those enjoying the refreshments were Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Atkinson and Elizabeth, and their missionary guest, Miss Ruth Fields, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson, Miss Emma Jane Miller, Mrs. Bruce Wallace, Miss Louise Conrad, Nick Welsh, Miss Carey, Mrs. William Brown, C. O. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Morgan, Don and Sandy Morgan.

CAN'T YOU SLEEP?

by Dr. G. C. Donohoo

When you get to bed at night, can you sleep, or do you spend an evening tossing to and fro, yawning, counting sheep, and yet find it impossible to sleep?

Sleeplessness may be caused by a number of different things. Essentially it is the congestion of blood around the brain which keeps it overactive. If you are troubled with this condition, it would be well to find out what Chiropractic can do for you. After a careful examination the Chiropractor will find out what is wrong with your nervous system. Spinal adjustments have been highly successful in normalizing blood circulation and relieving congestion of the blood vessels of the brain.

This is a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, who is now in Walton and Florence. Phone ATlantic 3-5371.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

History Repeating?

Kentuckians here in the Capitol are watching the Democratic presidential contest with a strange feeling. It seems that they've seen and heard it all before.

Remember 1952? Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver were battling for the lead. Kentucky's Alben Barkley, from a border state was holding back, planning to become the compromise candidate when the convention deadlock developed.

Well, here it is again! Stevenson and Kefauver are fighting for the lead. Senator Symington from the border state of Missouri is holding back, planning to become the compromise candidate.

We'll bet that the 1956 result is the same as 1952. Stevenson will be the nominee.

Tenth at Bat:

When Governor Chandler named Bob Humphreys to the Senate, Kentucky got its tenth senator within the short space of 16 years.

Since 1940, the state has been served in the Upper House by Alben Barkley, M. M. Logan, Happy Chandler, William Stanfill, John Sherman Cooper, Garrett Withers, Virgil Chapman, Tom Underwood and Earle Clements.

This is not a record number but it is close to the top. Many states in a sixteen-year period have had only two senators. For example, Georgia has been represented by just two senators for the past 26 years—Walter George and Richard Russell.

Within 15 Years:

Within the next 15 years we expect to see a new Ohio River, all along the many miles of Kentucky's border.

Several years ago, when army engineers planned the high level dams, it was a 30 to 40-year program. Today, thanks to Senator Earle Clements and Kentucky congressmen, the time table has been stepped up. The Warsaw-Markland Dam is years ahead of schedule. The Louisville dam is moving along at a faster pace and the New Richmond Dam, above Newport, already is in the planning stage.

Mail Call:

To Pendleton county student: Only two Kentucky congressmen were elected to the House without previous service in lesser offices—Noble Gregory and John M. Robsion. For Lewis county farmer: Congressmen stopped years ago sending free seeds to constituents—too much waste. Reply to Gallatin county writer: For complete information on appointments to the service academies, write your congressman or senator—but do it now! Answer to Grant county football fan: Your senator or congressman may be able to get your tickets (at a price) to the Army-Navy game—however, he gets only a limited amount and they go fast. It may be too late.

"My wife's bragging about her OK Used Car again!"

It's a wise chief who adds a feather to his cap by picking an OK Used Car. OK means inspected, reconditioned and warranted in writing by the dealer. OK means you save wampum, too! That's because volume trade-ins on fast-selling Chevrolets add up to extra savings and big used car selections at the lot with the OK sign.

Rural roads are expected to carry a record load of motorists and vehicular traffic this summer. Make a full stop at every stop sign—don't just slow down.

Nine Kentucky counties in 1955 tested over 3,000 soil samples each. Shelby county was first, with 5,081 samples, and the others, in order, were Fleming, Bassen, Mason, Hardin, Hickman, Mercer, Lincoln, and Marion.

White bread prices rose 70 percent between 1946 and 1955—but the farmers received only a 20 percent increase in the same period for their wheat.

In one Kentucky county 1300 gas cartridges were used in control of ground hogs, and 1000 more cartridges were on order from the U S Fish and Wildlife Service

The 1956 Farmers' Tax Guide will be prepared and will be shipped out in November, the Federal Agricultural Extension Service says.

A female housefly may deposit up to 2,500 eggs during a life span of 2 to 4 weeks. And when conditions are right the eggs will hatch and the new generation reach adult stage in as little as eight days.

Rising world population, improved levels of foreign economic activity, rising incomes and better diets abroad, all point to a favorable outlook for export of U S. farm products.

HALF GONE

Open Every Day But Sunday. 8 00 A. M. to 6 00 P. M

Did you realize that after this week, this year will be half gone? Next week is July 1 and on the second half of this year Most all of you had planned to do lots of things before July 1 but time passed so fast you never had time So get ahead of this last half and do what you have in mind, before it is too late Now is the time to start painting those buildings and roofs—don't put all of them off until fall We have the best outside white paint you ever used for only $4 95 per gallong—Bolce painter's pure paint

For the roof we have a heavy asbestos fiber black, also a heavy asbestos fiber aluminum paint for roofs that need a heavy coat We also have an aluminum roof paint with Gilsonite base for metal roofs Of course we have red roof paint and green roof paint In fact we have most any kind of paint you want for all purposes Mrs Lawrence Overbay bought Bolce white Lustre Kote for her woodwork, Bolce light oak floor paint for her floors, and also a piece of linoleum for her hall Mrs Raymond Conner from over on US 42 on the Doc Edwards farm came after a few items in the hardware line [illegible] Mesmer from Verona came after Streptomicin for his cows udders

Mr and Mrs [illegible] Steinhauer were over today looking for something to kill bean beetles that they could spray on [illegible] recommended Marlate which is 50 percent Methoxychlor and will kill most any insect that flies or crawls Mr and Mrs Kenneth Tomlin came after more paint and linoleum Mrs Cornelius who bought the Rice apartment house was in today buying several articles including a very nice linoleum rug I sold two Rastus plows today one to Lloyd Ross, who has a farm at Big Bone and the other to Tom Hamilton who also lives at Big Bone

Bill Scroggin was back today after more pipe and fittings Some fellow I did not know stopped and got a lot of soil pipe and fittings This was one of those days that everyone comes to town and everyone buys Mr and Mrs Bill Howe from Crittenden, and two sons came down after two bicycles Chick fixed them up Then J B Spegal came in the side door and said his wife's washer had quit so he said bring over the best Maytag I had nothing too good for that woman she is a fine young lady and she had a good husband J B has put in an electric water pump electric water heater [illegible] new bathroom this year now a new Maytag washer He is right on the job all the time

Then came Russell and Charlie Sparks they [illegible] the [illegible] power mower it cuts a wide cut, [illegible] self propelled and it is easy to start [illegible] wrong when you buy anything made by Sunbeam Then [illegible] hunter [illegible] Carpenter he bought a kerosene lantern, but I didn't know he was going fox hunting Everett Bickers called for a roll of poultry fence, and Brewster took it down to him Chick sold Mr Strickler out at Boone Lake, a Dayton water system and a lot of plastic water pipe

The broom and mop man from Collegedale Tenn was here These brooms and mops are made by the college students, and they are really good—this is the only place I can buy a twine mop" We received some new thermos jugs and freezer chests and can sell them at a very reasonable price Larry Atha bought a 6 qt White Mountain freezer he will have ice cream this summer [illegible] D Adams from Verona bought a Master cut power mower—this one will pull you if you hold on Sam Kite came after a 3 tine hay fork he also got some fish hooks

We just received more Maytag washers and a shipment of Horton washers I have sold Horton washers for years they are $40 cheaper than a Maytag and we don't have much trouble with them [illegible] than anything else Of course Maytag is the best and longest life washer made [illegible] was having trouble the lightning had run in and had blown some fuses Brewster soon took care of that trouble Miss Mary Collins [illegible] Mrs Sam Murphy's washer [illegible] brought it in and put a new motor in it When [illegible] it home he took [illegible] large size [illegible] manner

I saw several linoleum rugs go out the side door but don't know who got them We sold lots of fishing tackle and several Case pocket knives Russell Sparks and Beckham Shields were in today and bought a few things [illegible] little [illegible] know [illegible] plastic water pipe with the fittings Ronnie Tackett came along looking for a way to make a dollar and I took him up to mow my mother's yard He is just like a whirlwind he had it mowed [illegible] hardly got back to the store [illegible] these boys make a lot of money every summer doing small jobs

The weeds, grass, corn, tobacco and garden vegetables are really growing but I believe the weeds and grass are growing faster than the crops We had a terrible electrical storm Sunday night and it blew out [illegible] fuses [illegible] the [illegible] Atwood was here buying [illegible] telephone Jerry [illegible] we sold lots [illegible] weed [illegible] COME TO CONRAD'S

Annual Meeting and Electric Farm Show At Butler State Park

It's Annual Meeting and Farm Show time again for members-owners of the Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative. The big one-day event will be staged on Friday, July 6, at Butler State Park Corvallion.

Manager Richardson of the Owen County Co-op, expects last year's crowd of more than 7,000 to be easily surpassed. There will be a continuous program of entertainment, contests, and prizes throughout the day, headed by the annual business meeting. The meeting is scheduled to get underway at 1:45 p. m. (CST). Registration for members will begin at 11:30 a. m.

Favorite of the contests on the program is the Beauty contest, sponsored by General Electric, scheduled to begin immediately after the annual meeting, at which some girl will be chosen "Miss Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative of 1956". The number of entries in the contest has been increasing as time for the event draws near. Last minute entries in all contests can still be accepted. For details, contact the Co-op office.

Other contests to be held throughout the day and evening are Talent Handicraft and Tractor Driving.

Fun for young and old alike will be provided the crowd by an array of top-notch entertainers. Dizzy Adkins, the master of ceremonies and ventriloquist will introduce the well-known wooden dental friend "Digsby," who is a constant source of trouble to Dizzy and provides plenty of laughs for the audience. Versatile Margie Baker will dance as well as present her clever and entertaining puppet routine.

Thrilling audiences wherever they play are the Heerdinks, a horizontal bar and balancing act. Brought in just for the children is Bibbo Barnet, clown and one of the world's foremost novelty attractions.

Always a favorite of rural audiences are the Jolly Sisters, Millie and Dottie, who will harmonize in favorite folk and country tunes. At the organ throughout the show will be Homer Ochsenhirt providing plenty of music with his special interpretations of old and new favorites. All the entertainment is free and open to the public, co-op member or not.

There will be attendance prizes throughout the afternoon and evening sessions of the program, and also free electric appliance demonstrations from the state.

Ryland Homemakers

The International Day program for the Ryland Homemakers Club was a talk on Ceylon by Mrs. John Below, citizenship chairman.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. W. P. Schwall, president, who called the meeting to order. She gave a report of the Advisory Council meeting. Miss Ruth Schmidt was appointed as leader for Clothing Guideposts. Mrs. Harold Ward was appointed for home lighting nominating committee. Mrs. Harold Ward read the third chapter of Proverbs, verses 1-6, for devotional, and Mrs. G. A. Damon read a poem, "If I Knew." Mrs. J. H. Lawson gave the gardening lesson. Roll call was answered by 13 members with "What I Plan to Do This Summer." Mrs. William Damon, program chairman, conducted a quiz game in the afternoon.

Members attending Mesdames W. P. Schwall, J. A. Rich, G. A. Damon, J. H. Lawson, O. J. Williams, William Damon, Evert Wilson, John Below, Rudolph Casson, Harold Ward, William Bagby, W. B. Barnes, and Miss Ruth Schmidt.

A work day was held June 26 at the home of Mrs. J. H. Lawson.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Logan Wayman recently. Mrs. Aaron Nienhaus, president, presided. Mrs. Venson Vogelpohle gave a lesson on making plastic leaves. Mrs. Cleo Snelson described the different flags, and also talked about Ceylon. Mrs. J. C. Reynolds gave us the best buys of the month in food. Plans were made for a picnic at the next meeting.

Members were Mesdames Charles Davis, Flo Summey, Cleo Snelson, Catherine Kunkel, Vensgn Vogelpohle, H. L. Witt, Aaron Nienhaus, J. E. Beers, J. C. Reynolds, William House, Logan Wayman. Guests were J. E. Beers and grandson, and Logan Wayman.

To Conduct Beaver Revival

Rev. Chester Land

Services at Beaver Christian Church each Sunday at 11 a. m. conducted by the pastor, Rev. Chester Land of Independence. Everybody is invited.

Plans are being completed for a Revival to be held Sunday, July 22 thru Friday, August 3, with services each evening at 8 p. m. All are invited.

Walton Merchants Lose

Friday night, June 22, the Rural League baseball team, the merchants of the baseball by the score of 5-4. It was a game of good pitching except for the wildness of Walton hurler. And Grier, who walked in three runs in the last inning with nothing for the team, but he let them come in again, let the team with C. Hall's help throw him out at the plate.

The Merchant will play Burlington at the New Haven field July 6. Burlington holds an early win over Walton and they will be out to even the score. The time is 8:30 p. m.

Army Gyroscope Units

Enlistments are now open for three new Gyroscope Units of the U. S. Army. Young men may enlist under the "Buddy System Plan" and serve their entire enlistment together.

These new Gyroscope Units are 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, Fort Knox, Ky.; 78th Engineer Battalion, Fort Benning, Ga.; and 55th Field Artillery Battalion, Fort Sill, Okla.

Young men interested in enlisting in one of these units should contact the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, Post Office Bldg., Covington, as soon as possible as these assignments are for a limited time.

Graduates from Army School

Private James T. Drahman, whose wife, Mildred, lives at 19 Grand Ave., Florence, recently graduated from the I Corps Non-Commissioned Officer Academy in Korea. He received instruction in leadership of units, map reading and other military subjects. He is the son of Charles E. Drahman.

NOTICE—LIGHTS OUT

The lights will be off from 9:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m., July 6, from Hopeful Road to Union, according to James Vest of the Union Light, Heat & Power Company.

Florence Youth Falls From A Raft and Is Drowned In Lake

A 13-year-old Florence youth drowned Saturday when playing on a raft in the Sam Denham lake on U. S. 42, ½ mile west of Florence.

John Edward (Pete) Ledford, the victim, was playing with a companion, 13 year old Gary Yelton, also of Florence. State police said the boys were on a raft and apparently the Ledford boy slipped and fell into the water. E. E. Brugh, coroner, Walton, investigated.

The Yelton boy dived after his companion but was unable to save him. Members of the Florence fire department recovered the body and attempted to revive the boy.

The boy, a member of Troop 1 of the Florence Boy Scouts, was a pupil in the Florence elementary school. He attended Sunday school at the Florence Methodist Church.

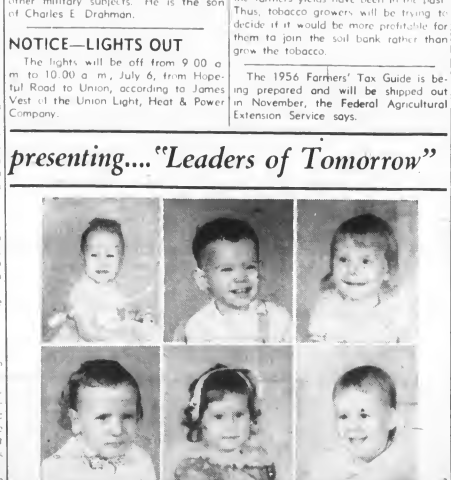
His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bethel, told police that John could not swim very well.

The boy was born in Dayton, Ohio, and the family moved to Florence several years ago.

Surviving him besides his parents are his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ledford, Hamilton, Ohio.

Services were held Monday afternoon at the Florence Methodist Church. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Erlanger.

Meeting to Outline Soil Bank Program Scheduled for July 12



A meeting to outline the Soil Bank Program for Boone County will be held at the court house in Burlington at 8 p. m. Thursday, July 12 according to Joe Claxon, County Agriculture Extension Agent. The County A. S. C. Committee urges all farmers that are interested to attend.

Mr. George Carder, University of Kentucky, will be on hand to discuss the subject "Whether a farmer should take part in the Soil Bank for 1956?"

Tobacco growers in Boone County will be able to deposit some or all of their 1956 tobacco allotment in the soil bank if they feel it would be to their advantage to do so. The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service has announced that Soil Bank payments on burley tobacco will be at the rate of 18 cents per pound multiplied by either (a) the check yield for the field or farm, or (b) the appraised yield for the farm. However, the maximum yield on which payments will be based on the farm's check yield no matter how high it is, is the farmers yields have been in the past. Thus, tobacco growers will be trying to decide if it would be more profitable for them to join the soil bank rather than grow the tobacco.

The 1956 Farmers' Tax Guide is being prepared and will be shipped out in November, the Federal Agricultural Extension Service says.

J. B. ARVAIN

J. B. Arvain, retired Boone County farmer, died Monday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Kelly, Burlington. A native of Clark County, he resided in Boone County for 37 years.

Mr. Arvain, who was 81 years old, was the owner of several farms in Boone County area. He was a member of the Burlington Baptist Church and Burlington Lodge of the Modern Woodmen of America.

He is survived also by two daughters, Mrs. N. C. Hicks, Louisville, and Mrs. Rebecca Hall, Lubbock, Tex.; a brother, the Rev. Butler Arvain, LaGrange, Mo., retired Baptist minister; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday today at the Sixth funeral home in Florence. Burial will be in Belleview cemetery, Boone County.

ALBERT PFANSTIEL

Services for Albert G. Pfanstiel, former postmaster at Morning View, were held Monday afternoon at the Allison and Rose funeral home, Covington. Burial was in the Gardnersville Cemetery.

Mr. Pfanstiel, who was 84 years old, died June 28 at Stuart Circle Hospital, Richmond, Va. He had lived with a daughter, Mrs. Mary Anderson, Richmond, for the past four years. A native of Morning View, he was a member of the Grassy Creek Christian Church, and formerly was a teacher in the Kenton county school system.

Besides Mrs. Anderson, he leaves a son, Ben Pfanstiel of Fiskburg; another daughter, Miss Nell Pfanstiel of Cincinnati; a brother, Robert Pfanstiel, of Cleveland, and ten grandchildren.

Returning from Germany

Miss Joan Dumbacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dumbacher, Florence, arrived in New York City, Tuesday, aboard the S. S. Rose, enroute home from Kaiserslauten, Germany, where she has been teaching school for the past three years.

Miss Dumbacher's relatives, friends and neighbors are invited to stop in and see her.

Homemakers Sponsor Tour

The group will leave Walton at 8:30 a. m. The round trip fare is $4.00 per person. Make reservations by contacting Mrs. Lee Flynn either by mail or phone, Walton 745, before July 9. The trip is on July 13.

Surprise Birthday Dinner

Mr. Warren Stephenson was surprised with a birthday dinner Wednesday evening by his wife and family. Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Conrad and daughter, Alma, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stephenson and daughter Fay, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Conrad and children, Chris and Linda, all of Covington; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stephenson and daughter, Donna. Mr. Stephenson received lots of nice gifts and everyone left wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Kindergarten Pictures

Kindergarten pictures, which were ordered recently, may be picked up at Ryan's store, Walton, any time after today, according to Mrs. James S. Webster.

Annual Firemen's Picnic to Be Held Here July 12-13-14

One of the highlights of the summer season in Walton is the picnic sponsored by the Walton firemen, with everyone coming for miles to enjoy the fellowship and fun which always goes with the firemen's picnic.

This year's affair, according to Chief Charles Worthington, will be one of the greatest events so far. The men are working day and night making arrangements for all the entertainment, games, rides, food, and features for the kids, which has always been a great attraction.

Of course, the main object is the raising of funds, whereby the department may do a better job of protecting your property in case of fire. Many new men have been added to the force and all are enthusiastic over making this the greatest picnic yet. The picnic will be held at the fire department grounds on High-School Court, July 12-13-14.

Farmers Should Look Into Soil Bank Program

Attend Cedarmore Camp

Four boys from the Walton Baptist Church attended the State Royal Ambassador Camp, Junior week, June 25-30, at Cedarmore Baptist Assembly at Bagdad, Ky. They were Paul Wilson, Barry Woods, Frankie Stephenson, and Eddie Neumeister. A total of 213 campers attend this week.

These camps are sponsored by the Kentucky Baptist Brotherhood Department, and under the direction of J. C. Ballew, Louisville, State Royal Ambassador Secretary.

Attend National FHA Meet Being Held In Chicago, This Week

Miss Jo Ann Heideman of the Simon Kenton Chapter, with her adviser, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, are two of the seventy-four Kentucky FHA members and advisers attending the National FHA Convention at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago, this week.

Miss Heideman was elected State FHA treasurer at the recent State meeting, when she also received her State Homemakers degree. She is an honor student at Simon Kenton and won the Home Economics honor award this year. She is also active in many other school and community activities. She is the past president of the local chapter and is second vice president elect for the coming year. Miss Heideman also served as treasurer for the Covington District FHA the past year. As president of the chapter, she encouraged the 78 members to work hard and as a result of this, the Simon Kenton Chapter was an honor roll chapter with the maximum number of points, and the scrapbook received a superior rating in the state. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Heideman, Demossville.

The theme for the National Convention is "You—in Home, School, Community and Chapter." These youthful convention-goers will represent a total National membership of 427,165 in 9,457 chapters in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, and District of Columbia.

Speakers at the meeting will be the U. S. Commissioner of Education, Samuel M. Brownell; Mrs. Billie Davis, lecturer and author of "I Was A Hobo Kid," and Miss Edna Amidon, Home Economics Branch Director in the Office of Education, U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The Kentucky delegates included ten state officers for 1956-57 and representatives from each of the fourteen districts in the state.

Miss Betty King, Bourbon County High School Chapter, is Kentucky FHA's candidate for National office. She is one of four candidates for president.

Others from this area going were: Lois Riley, State Reporter, Carrollton; Sandy Keetz, Highlands; Barbara Maloney, Bellevue; Margie Webb, Grant County, and Mrs. Alva Kelly, adviser from Bellevue.

Ladies Aid Society to Meet

The Ladies Aid Society of the Walton Christian Church will meet on Thursday, July 12, at the home of Mrs. H. F. Mann and mother.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at the noon hour. All ladies of the church are invited to attend.

Time Is Short Says County ASC Committee

Boone county farmers should look into their possibilities in the Soil Bank program for tobacco, wheat and corn at once, says the County A.S.C. Committee.

Many corn growers may wish to participate, in the acreage reserve section of the Soil Bank program in 1956. These farmers face the problem of determining whether or not it will be profitable for them to deposit some of their corn base in the Soil Bank. The lateness of the season and the possibility of poor stands may be important factors in causing farmers to joint the Soil Bank in 1956.

According to announcements of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the farmer must (1) reduce his corn acreage by at least 15 percent from his 1956 Soil Bank acreage (farmers with a Soil Bank base of 50 acres or less may include their entire corn acreage in the Soil Bank), and (2) not utilize the Soil Bank acreage for a harvested crop or for pasture in 1956, to participate in the Soil Bank program.

Corn growers in these commercial counties, who already planted corn, may be given the opportunity to put corn land in the Soil Bank by plowing up corn. In cases where the corn needs to be replanted, or has been damaged in some way, a farmer may be particularly interested in going into the Soil Bank program. The corn yield on which payments are based will be an important factor in determining if it will be profitable for farmers to join the Soil Bank.

Tobacco may also be put into the Soil Bank. Farmers must call at the A.S.C. office at once to sign agreements as the time is very short to participate in this program.

Annual Dairy and Pasture Tour Scheduled for July 12

Boone County Annual Dairy and Pasture Tour will be held Thursday, July 12 at 1 p. m. (EST) according to Joe Claxon, County Agricultural Extension Agent.

The tour will be held on the dairy farm of Al Heimann, near Hebron. On pasture there will be seen alfalfa fields, clover and grass pastures. Also the dairy will be inspected.

Mr. H. M. Ellis, manager of the farm invites everyone to attend the meeting.

Mr. Ed Troutman, Dairy Specialist, University of Kentucky, will discuss more profit in dairying and Mr. George Carder, Soil and Pasture specialist, University of Kentucky, will discuss a pasture program for a dairy herd.

Final Meet Of Year Held by Florence Homemakers Club

Mrs. William Foote entertained the Florence Homemakers at her home on Goodridge Drive for the final meeting of the year on June 26.

Mrs. Roy Lutes presided at the business session at which time the following officers were elected for the coming season. Mrs. D. L. Eger, president; Mrs. Charles Luchte, vice president, and Mrs. Fred Ruppel, secretary and treasurer.

The final lesson on lamp making was demonstrated by Mrs. Grant Maddox and Mrs. W. H. Wesler.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames D. L. Eger, Grant Maddox, Fred Ruppel, John Schram, John Martin, Mable Sayre, James Miner, Frances Dempsey, William Foote, Roy Lutes, W. H. Wesler, Thos. Randall, Rose H. McElroy, Edith Browne and Miss Jane Scott.

A CORRECTION

In a story in the Advertiser last week concerning the Kenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department picnic, the item listed several communities that aid in this project and Morning View was somehow missed when setting the article into type. We sincerely regret that this happened, since Morning View was on the copy which was sent to the Advertiser, and it was just accidently omitted here in our office.

happy vacations begin in a Chevy

You'll love to travel in it, because it loves to travel! When you get this Chevrolet out on the road, you'll want to keep going—and so will the whole family.

America's largest selling car—2 million more owners than any other make.

Of course, even in a Chevrolet the happiest vacations may involve one or two minor problems. Like fidgety small fry who want gallons of water and keep asking if you're almost there. The big things, though, are beautifully taken care of by this roomy Chevrolet's smooth and easy way of going. That's for sure.

The fact is, few cars at any price hold the road with Chevy's grace, with its solid feeling of stability. And with horsepower up to 225, Chevrolet moves out like a whiplash, for safer passing. It's no wonder that so many people who used to buy higher priced cars are changing to Chevrolet! Stop by soon for a ride.

INDEPENDENCE News Events . . .

Mrs. Pat Thurman is convalescing from a major operation at Pleasure Ridge Park hospital. She is recuperating faster than usual. It must be due to having won $50 at a recent social gathering in Louisville.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Betty Carr in Pleasure Ridge subdivision is under the doctor's care. Betty has been confined to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lock of Pleasure Ridge subdivision are the proud parents of a baby boy. The mother, father, two daughters and the newly-born are doing nicely.

Willie Blanton of McKim Drive, had a heavy load taken from his shoulders last week and has been passing out cigars because of the ordeal. His wife, Betty, gave birth to a baby girl and both mother and daughter are doing well.

Mr. Betty Wilson and her sister Helen Collier, of the LLL Highway, will be leaving soon on a vacation trip to Texas and/or Florida. They expect to be gone three weeks.

Florida will be welcoming the Watson family of McCullum Road, soon, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Coleman of Independence have returned from Florida after having spent two weeks in the sunshine and orange groves.

It seems the wedding bells have been continually tolling this month and rung again June 23 for Shirley Dennis of McCullum Road and Jerry Cox of Walton. They are residing in Walton.

Mrs. Laura Stanton of Richardson Road is in the hospital and we hope sincerely that her illness isn't serious and that she will be well soon.

Pat Burr of Main Street, is gradually becoming unpainted with his new employment with the Insurance Co. he has been associated with for the past six years. We hope for Pat's success in his new venture.

Bill Wright and family have returned home from a ten day vacation. While away they toured parts of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois, and have decided that there's no place like good ol' Kentucky. Previous years their vacations were spent touring Kentucky and will remain just that next year.

Home On Leave

Horace L. Dawson, Main Street, returned home June 10 from Washington on a 21-day furlough, where he has been stationed with the armed forces for the past year. Horace married Bonnie Bickers of Independence, last year and went into service soon after. Horace will return to Washington for an 8th month's training and then will be shipped to Alaska for the balance of this year.

Saturday Evening Dance

The monthly Saturday evening dance will be held by Moon Bros. Post 275, American Legion, July 7 at the American Legion Home, Independence.

The public is cordially invited and a very good time for everyone has been planned by members. Make up a group and come to the dance. Good music will commence at 9 p. m.

Hickory Grove W. M. S.

The Hickory Grove W.M.S. met at the church June 5 at 8 p. m. with six members and two visitors present. They were Mrs. Janetta Neuspickle, Mrs. Anna Weinel, Mrs. Hilda Jump, Mrs. Martha Maddox, Mrs. Mary Popp and Mrs. Marie Glass and Miss Ruth Jump.

The program "Thy Word, A Lamp and A Light," was very interesting. We are glad our young ladies have organized a W.M.A. Let us all be a lamp with a light to help others see the way. We urge others to come and help us.

Discharged from Service

Billy Appel of the LLL Highway will be discharged from the Air Force June 23 at Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Ala., after which a short vacation will be in order before reporting to his regular job at the Bell Telephone Co. He plans to co-op to receive an engineering degree in electronics with the telephone company.

Gayle England, Independence Station Road, has returned home from Germany for a 30 day furlough. He has but six months more active duty before his discharge. He was attached to the Army overseas.

Richard Cain, also of Independence Station Road, was to return home and then be discharged, but enlisted for another year to complete his marriage to a girl in Scotland. He has been stationed in Scotland for the past two years with the Air Force.

Safer Driving

The Red Cross, which long has offered courses to teach you such things as water safety and first aid, now comes along with one to make you a safer driver. The course originally was developed to teach Red Cross volunteer drivers good motoring habits and what to do in minor road emergencies. It is to be free, but may not be offered by every local chapter.

Veterans' Bonds

Thousands of World War II veterans have money coming to them—an average of $200 apiece. The money is in bonds issued as payment for unused leave to veterans discharged between April 1, 1943 and October 1, 1946. The Treasury Department figures 130,000 veterans still haven't cashed their bonds, but wish they'd do so to enable it to clear its books of the issue. The bonds quit drawing interest in 1951.

Job Booklet

The 1956-57 edition of the Department of Labor's "Job Guide for Young Workers"—information about what jobs are open to youths leaving high school and how to get the jobs—is now off the press. It's sold by the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. The price is 40 cents.

Bradford O. E. S.

At this meeting, fathers were honored and gifts were given to each one by the Worthy Patron. Past Worthy Matrons and Patrons were also honored and were given a special invitation for all future meetings. It was learned that new members will be initiated at the next regular meeting, July 10.

"I'm Saving for My Future Education!"

Our association is proud of the fact it serves many young folks who have part-time jobs after school hours. Many of them are saving here regularly to pay for their education after high school graduation. So, parents, whether your youngster does baby-sitting, delivers newspapers, or works for local merchants – teach him (or her) to SAVE part of those earnings.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Son of God

Lesson for July 8, 1956

ONE thing the Christian church has believed from the beginning: Jesus is divine. Now the Bible never says that in those words. A more vivid and personal way of expressing it is the Bible way. There he is called Son of God. Theologians have written volumes on top of volumes to explain what it means to call Jesus the Son of God, and some of these volumes are pretty hard to understand. It is important to look into the Bible itself and see what is said there. The letter to the Hebrews (one of those nine letters at the end of the New Testament), in the very first sentence, gives Jesus the title of Son; but does not finish the sentence before beginning to explain a little what is meant by this.

Dr. Foreman

God Speaks by a Son

The first thing we are told here is that God, who has been speaking to men for thousands of years in various ways, has at last spoken to us by a Son. Jesus Christ is God's answer to man's questions, he is the answer to man's call for help, he is God calling to us. Men have long wished the sky were not so silent. They wish they could read the inscrutable mind of the most high God. Well, God has spoken, he has given us his last and best Word. And this Word is not in the form of a textbook, not in the form of an answer-book for all the riddles of existence. God's message to man is not a creed, however good it may be. His message is in a Person, a Life. We want to know what God thinks. We wish he would say something. Well, God has said . . . and what he says is Jesus Christ.

Through Him, the World

The line that divides all things that exist into two different kinds of things, the first and most important line, is not the line dividing spirit from matter. The real dividing-line is that which runs between Creator and Created, or to put it in another way, the line between God and everything else that is. When you take time to think about it, you can see that only God can be on the creator-side of creation. God alone, of all that exists, is because he is and not because something or somebody else made him be. Every man must say to himself, "If it were not for such and such a person, or such and such an event, I would not be here." But God could not truly say a thing like that. He does not depend on something or some one else for his very existence, as we do. It is by his good will that we are in the universe at all; it is by his will that the universe is here for us to be in. Now the letter to the Hebrews declares that Christ is God's active agent in creation. In the simple words of the writer, we read that through the Son, God created the world. No wonder the early church soon saw that this puts Jesus on the God-side of that line dividing Creator from Created. This is part of what we mean when we say that Jesus Christ is divine.

Reflection and Stamp

Another part of what we mean is expressed in those two words "reflection" and "stamp." The old Greeks had a story about a creature called a Gorgon, with snakes for hair, so horrible that the very sight of her turned the beholder to stone. Only when a brave man thought of going up to her, not looking directly at her but into a mirror, was any one able to enter her presence and live. In quite the opposite way, God is not too horrible, but too holy, for mere men to gaze at. We too need a mirror to reflect the unbearable glory of God; Christ is that reflection. He is likewise the "stamp" of God's nature. He is as it were God's signature, his handwriting, his personal seal.

"Therefore . . . Closer Attention"

The divinity of Christ, of which these sentences in Hebrew are only a few of the New Testament testimonies, was never thought of, in those clear early days of the church, as a mere doctrine in a book. It meant and means something intensely practical. If Jesus is really divine, then, we cannot just take him or leave him. If he is God's Son, he is no more optional than God is. Deciding for or against him is the most important decision in life. What he tells and teaches is not "one man's opinion"; is not even the voice of genius; it is the Voice of God.

We need fences. They serve a good purpose. They give protection. But unless they have gates in them, they stop being fences and they become barriers. Without that gate, for instance, Mary Jane couldn't go across to the garden next door, and play with the little girl who lives there.

And, just as we need physical fences sometimes, we need mental and spiritual fences too. We need the privacy of our own thoughts, the sanctity of our own beliefs.

Danger comes only when we build barriers rather than fences around our inner selves. For none of us can live in spiritual isolation. We must have gates in our personal fences. We must permit Faith to enter. We must commune with others . . . and, above all, with God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy, nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

WHAT IS ARTHRITIS?

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Arthritis is essentially an inflammation of the surfaces of the joint. This inflammation involves not only the bony surfaces, but the muscles and the ligaments surrounding the joint. In many instances, this joint inflammation results from excessive stresses and strains arising from improper functioning. This is a matter of faulty body mechanism arising from bad posture, curvature of the spine, bones out of place, and other conditions which would induce body unbalance.

Another factor that is often involved in arthritis is faulty calcium metabolism. This means the body's ability to utilize for its own purpose the natural calcium salts found in certain foods.

Recent research has demonstrated that there is definite relationship between arthritis and an upset nervous system. Disturbances in the nervous system interfere with metabolism.

The chiropractor, in dealing with arthritis, seeks to restore normal body balance, and normal functioning of the nervous system. By removing the pressures which clog, reestablish the body's proper calcium metbolism as well as the correct mechanical functioning of its joints. When he does so, symptoms of arthritis disappear.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific chiropractic by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, whose office is at 7628 Dixie Highway, Florence. Atlantic 3-5371.

READ THIS ABOUT ATHLETE'S FOOT

The writer of this ad had athlete's foot several years ago. Was miserable with the pain of burning and swelling. One bottle of T-4-L Solution cleared it up. Now I keep it on hand to use only when my toes begin to itch. Have never had the disease again. I can't promise that you who have athlete's foot will get my results but there is a mighty fine chance. In fact, the makers of T-4-L have built a nice business on that chance. Their records show that repeat sales are far in the majority. T-4-L is especially made for, and is advertised only for athlete's foot, even tho' it is good for similar itches. Just give it a try. Your 40c back at any drug store if not completely pleased. Farm Facts . . .

SEASONAL THOUGHTS — With the 1956 cropping season well under way it is not too early to consider crops to improve next years farming practices. I refer particularly to alfalfa, small grains and permanent pastures.

ALFALFA deserves first attention because when properly sown in August, it produces an abundance of forage the following spring and, with our increasing dependence on livestock the good hay, silage and pasture it furnishes become even more important in our farm program.

The rules for growing alfalfa are simple but must be strictly adhered to. They include the selection of well drained soil, the liberal application of lime, phosphate and potash, the preparation of a good seed-bed and the use of an adapted variety of seed, properly inoculated. ATLANTIC has been the favored alfalfa variety but I have been impressed with a French variety named DUPUITS. It is well worth a trial. If alfalfa is to be seeded this year NOW is the time to test the soil and begin preparation of the seed-bed.

The introduction of improved varieties of wheat, barley, oats and rye and better fertilizer practices have increased the importance of small grain in Kentucky. DUAL is a new, high producing variety of wheat, quite resistant to Hessian fly. Its disadvantage is its lateness and tall growth which make it more difficult to establish stands of grasses and legumes. KNOX has the advantage in this respect. It is an early, short-strawed, high producing variety.

KENBAR and DAYTON are the tops in barley varieties. Where properly seeded on suitable land, yields of fifty and sixty bushel per acre are not uncommon. DUBOIS is a stiff-strawed, high yielding winter-resistant variety of oats. BALBO is still the best variety of rye. The continued reduction in Kentucky's corn acreage especially on hill land and the increase in fall sown small grain have done much to remove one of the principle causes of erosion in the state—the lack of cover crops. There is now a much better balance between row crops and cover crops than ever before.

Late summer and early fall is also the best time to establish and improve pastures. The soil bank program should be a distinct aid to Kentucky farmers in expanding and improving pastures. It will undoubtedly increase the demand for fescue, blue-grass and orchard grass seed of which we are important producers. It will likewise increase the demand for other seeds such as clover and lespedeza which can be harvested profitably on many Kentucky farms.

Systemic Material, ET-57, Prevents Grub Development

The common cattle grub which causes millions of dollars in hite, meat and milk losses annually, in the United States can be prevented from developing within cattle.

The USDA has demonstrated experimentally for the first time that by feeding cattle an organic phosphate chemical, known as Dow ET-57 the grubs can be destroyed in the animal's flesh.

The process is not available for commercial operations as yet. Tests must be completed to check suitability of ET-57 in grub control, toxic effects on the animals, and chemical residues in milk or flesh.

The chemical used in the experiments is systemic, i. e., it moves through the bodies of cattle to destroy grubs wherever they may occur in an animal's flesh.

Grubs run through a peculiar life cycle. They start as heel flies, which lay eggs on the hair of cattle's feet. The eggs hatch into tiny grubs that enter through the skin, and finally come out from the back of the animal and fall to the ground. There they hatch into heel flies and start the cycle again.

CARD OF THANKS—

I'd like to say thanks for all the nice cards and letters, and most of all to those of the radio audience for the cards and prayers, during my recent illness and stay in the hospital. Thanks so much and may God bless you.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Presiding Officer:

Kentucky's newest Senator, Robert Humphreys, was put to work early as a presiding officer of the Upper House.

It's a custom to let the newer members occupy the chair from time to time. They feel honored at the designation as the presiding officer of the United States Senate. It's something they can relate to their families for the next generations.

However, its also a tiring job to sit and listen for hours and the oldtimers duck for the cloakrooms when the presiding officer starts looking around for a prospect to take the chair.

Always Growing:

Scarcely a week goes by in the Capitol without a new report of growing traffic on the Ohio River—which we Kentuckians own.

Latest figures show a 10 percent increase in commerce on upper stretches of the Ohio. Much of the increase is in coal which is moving in barges to the two new atomic power plants. Such fuel comes from the western Kentucky fields as well as the eastern Kentucky mines. It all means money for Kentucky.

Those New Roads:

That new, long-delayed, long-needed super-highway bill is now law. Under it Kentucky gets $137 million for each of the next three years. Ohio receives $310 million, Indiana $189 million, and West Virginia $85 million.

The map of proposed roads shows one road leading from Lexington, Va., to Lexington, Ky., and then to Louisville and the West. It will cut across some pretty rugged, but beautiful, country. Another four-lane road will move from Cincinnati to Louisville and then Nashville and the South. Still another one—also four-lane—travels from Covington to Lexington and then Knoxville.

Don't gas up the car, however. It'll take many, many a year before those ribbons of concrete tie the nation together.

Post Office:

The Mason county writer Kentucky gets 30 votes at the Democratic National convention.—For Carroll county reader: Senator Clements has two offices, one in the Capitol, the other in the Senate Office Building.—To Campbell county inquiry: You are right, Gen. Moore, member of the Civil Service Commission, formerly lived in Fort Thomas. He now resides in Maryland.—For Bracken county student: You too, are right. Supreme Court Justice Stanley Reed is a graduate of Kentucky Wesleyan, class of 1902. He also served in the Kentucky General Assembly.

COTTAGE CHEESE AND CUCUMBER SALAD

Cool as a cucumber—and cottage cheese! There's a suggestion for a summer salad to season with a sweet-spicy vinegar dressing. Here's a recipe sent to the U. S. Department of Agriculture from the Idaho extension nutritionist, which has been so popular that it is repeated by request. It's low in calories, high in good looks and flavor. It rates especially for the calcium in the cottage cheese. The cucumber is sliced but not peeled. The green peel adds iron and a little vitamin A as well as color.

Ingredients for Idaho cottage cheese and cucumber salad are: 1 to 1½ cups cottage cheese, 20 slices of cucumber, 2 tablespoons white vinegar, 2 tablespoons sugar, ½ teaspoon poppy seeds, ½ teaspoon celery seeds, lettuce or other salad greens. To make: Heat vinegar, sugar and spices to boiling point (until sugar is dissolved). Pile cottage cheese on chilled platter or salad bowl edged with salad greens. Arrange the cucumber slices slantwise in the cottage cheese. Pour the vinegar sauce over the salad. Chill in the refrigerator until ready to serve—an hour or so, if you wish to make this salad ahead.

Gone with the wind!

WHEN A FREIGHT CAR rolls down the "hump" at our new $14 million Citico Yard at Chattanooga, Tennessee, even the wind resistance of the car is automatically measured.

While the car is rolling, a radar device instantly picks up and evaluates all the many factors that affect its rollability—weight, speed, size, wind, weather and others. Then the magic brain of an electronic computer regulates the retarder brake in the track under the moving car so that it will couple safely and gently to another car standing far down in the yard below.

This is a new kind of railroading. You'll see it at work in countless ways on the Southern today—at Citico, and in our other multi-million dollar push-button yards at Knoxville, Tenn. and Birmingham, Ala. And still another ultra-modern electronic yard to cost $15 million is now under construction at Atlanta, Ga.

Yesteryear railroading is "gone with the wind" on the Southern. Today's modern railroading means better living for all in the South.

OAK RIDGE

Mrs. Gertrude Spanton and daughter and Mrs. Betty Wilson and children have just returned from a Florida vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hitch have returned to their home in Sennur Road after living in Ohio for several months. Last week Mrs. Hitch's brother, William McFarland, and his family from Florida, visited them. The McFarlands are former residents of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Thumpson and daughters, Judy, Fran and Connie, spent their two weeks vacation visiting Mammoth Cave and other points of interest in Kentucky. Judy and Fran remained in Lexington, to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adkins and children, Dolly, Darlene, Joe and Donnie, visited relatives in Indiana, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckham Miller were disappointed when, right on the eve of their vacation, one of their children came down with the mumps and another got the measles. Since this kept them at home, they spent the money for a car, which they are enjoying greatly.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Maus (nee Joan Deters) on the birth of a baby daughter, June 25, at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

H. R. Hutchins and grandson, Terry Tallent, drove to New Orleans, La., last week to get Mrs. Hutchins, who has been staying with her mother, who is ill. While in Louisiana, they plan to go on a deep sea fishing trip. They will spend a few days in Gulfport, Miss. before returning home next week.

The Vacation Bible School at Oak Ridge Baptist Church was very successful. They averaged 135 daily in attendance. There were 176 present at Sunday School last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Luzemore and daughters, Darlene and Pamela, left on a Florida vacation last Saturday. They had an accident in their car on the way and Pamela had her hand broken, but they continued on to Fla.

Bobby Tomlin and Harold Cranford visited Bobby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin, recently. They are now vacationing in Daytona Beach, Florida. They plan to return to their work in Washington, D. C., next week.

Mrs. Thelma Binder is vacationing in Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Edkgar Baker and children left last week for a month's vacation in Portland, Oregon, and the west coast. Mr. Baker is a delegate to the National Education Association, which meets in Oregon, this month.

WHITES TOWER

The writer and wife made a trip to Rossmoyne, Ohio, and Werk Road last Wednesday on a flying visit to our son's, Bud Ryle and wife and Lafe Miller and family to have purchased a lovely home in Rossmoyne and is a teacher in the Reading school. One thing we saw on the way that deserve mention was an acre cabbage patch which had cabbages from two to five pounds, ready for market.

Crops look good here but the weed problem is very acute but we suppose that hardships can be overcome by hard work.

We has begun on the new home being built next door to "Bide A Wee," on the west by Charlie Dorsey. This will be a modern home in every respect and a big forward in beautifying the Tower and vicinity.

A pretty fair shower of rain fell here Saturday night but did not stop cultivation in fact it helped to soften the top of the ground and make for better plowing.

Mr. Stoengle and wife of Covington were after the finny tribe in our lake the last of the week.

I wish to make an important announcement to our readers in the Tower district. When you have an item of news whether about yourself or your neighbors, call it in and see what happens. We cannot write the news without the cooperation of the folks in this vicinity.

Trade continues to go sky high while the hog market is off from one to one fifty per cent. It just don't make sense to the farmer who is not feeding one.

The recent wave of storms crashed into [illegible] wondering if we [illegible] to [illegible] to the ground [illegible] by the mowing [illegible] [illegible].

We notice that [illegible] cats at the Latonia [illegible] weeks old and would like to give them to someone who will give them a good home. Come on kids, don't crowd the line.—E. J. R.

A THANK YOU—

The pastor, deacons, officers and members of Zion Baptist Church want to thank each and everyone for the splendid help in raising money for repairs on our church. Especially do we want to thank our white friends who were so nice to help us, donating money, which we plan to use for painting the church inside and outside and doing repair work on the building. So, we say thank you for your help. Our total amount raised was $954.95. Again we say thanks to everyone who helped us make this a success.

JULY 4th

Open Every Day But Sunday 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

We have had a wonderful season this year—a little too much rain but as a whole the country looks good. I drive down to the farm tonight before dark and noticed the country. Delaney Johnson has a nice patch of tobacco there by the house, then Mr. Carey, who owns the Albert Johnson farm, has a nice patch of tobacco, then I saw Thelma Sturgean, very ambitious, mowing her lawn—they have a nice place out there. Mary K. Stephens and brother, Willie, have a nice place and a good patch of tobacco. George Brooks does a lot of work and keeps his place looking good, even if he does work in town every day.

Russell and Bill Ryan have the best garden I have seen. Mr. Hutcherson, at the Sam Sleet farm, has a very good tobacco crop. Roger Arnold also has some good tobacco—I forgot about Ed Black's garden—he works on it most every day and it is a real one. Albert Rosenstiel has already baled those oats—they sure were a fast crop, when I got to George Clifton's he was just finishing setting tobacco and it looked good, I went on down to the farm—I had not been there for five days and I believe everything had doubled in size—corn and tobacco was twice as big, with lots of hay in the barn.

Today it rained again, in fact it rained several times. We sold water pipe and fittings, also wiring materials and fixtures. We should sell a lot of roof coating after all this rain, because lots of people had leaks that they did not know about. O. J. Struve was in checking up on paint—he wants to paint his house, outside, this year—we took him down six gallons of Bolce outside primer to start on the house. Then we took Dr. T. C. Crume, at his nursery, four kegs of nails—he uses these at his nursery. Ralph Sparks drove in and took two rolls of 5' poultry fence.

We have some Rastus plows and 5-shovel walking cultivators. James Vest, I believe, is going to buy a Sunbeam power rotary mower—I took one down for him to try out. Forest Rowlett, from over on the Grant and Gallatin line, bought a lift pump to put in a 60' well, so Brewster had to lower the pump cylinder down 40' and put a 20' tail pipe on it with a foot valve. We sold lots more paint today, both inside and outside. Mrs. Cecil Dickerson was in, I was not here but Brewster said he sold her several items. Roger Arnold, who operates the store at Beaver, was in—he also farms and is a carpenter.

I understand some of the business men and women did not like my article two weeks ago about giving stamps—I never aimed to hurt any, their dealer or competitor who gives stamps, but what I had in mind was that in the premium book I saw there were 212 different articles that a hardware store sells, that are given as premiums with so many books of stamps. I would say if I gave away 212 items with purchases that they sell what would they sell? I have been accused of everything but I have never tried to hurt any competitor or any other merchant—we are all in business to make money, and it is hard enough today with all the taxes and overhead we have.

I don't care how many stamps anyone gives, all I care is these 212 items is what I sell which makes a difference with any merchant. I have been here a long time and as I have told you before I have the best group of customers any merchant could have. We do our best to take the best of care of them and very few we have ever denied of anything when they run short of cash. So I don't believe I have to give stamps and I believe I have enough good customers that will get more than stamps when they trade with CONRAD HARDWARE.

We sold several kinds of paint today—first paint automobile paint, outside house paint, inside Jelled Magic paint, and black asbestos fiber roof coating. Boots Jackson and his father were in for a tractor water pump with fittings and hose—he has about 40 acres of corn to spray for killing the weeds. Brewster fixed it up for him so all he had to do was to put it on his tractor. Loretta Richardson and Mrs. McGuire were here today buying a few small items. Ed Kennedy was in and said he finally got that corn field plowed, nearly got stuck twice, but could not wait until it dried up.

Ed bought a large box of PTZ powder for those fine sheep they have down at the farm. If you will give those sheep two PTZ pellets and feed some of the powder in the salt, you will never have to worry about worms in sheep. This week—the 5th—we deliver our wool to the pool and get that big check. Wool today is cheaper than it was 30 years ago. I suppose there are so many substitutes like nylon, orlon and others for making ties. We do get a very good price for lambs. I only sold get them ready for the early market.

Larry Atha was in and got another bought a Mastercut power rotary lawn mower. Ralph Sparks drove up with his tractor—Chick made a new bolt for his seat, and Brewster put a new belt on the tractor pump so he can spray his corn. Joe Richardson and George Klein came after pipe fittings and plastic pipe. Ben Jump came after sprayer to spray his cows. Connie Arnett and wife were here. They bought a tank sprayer for most all spraying purposes around the farms. They also bought Methoxychlor, which will kill most any insect, will try it myself out today, but not quite hot enough for pests to come hunting electric fans we have most any good thing for you might want.

Five Killed Sunday In Head-On Crash On LLL Highway

A head-on collision of two automobiles killed five persons Sunday night in front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyle Elliott on the LLL Highway at Atwood, Kenton county. The tragedy occurred about, before 8:00 p.m. Four of the victims, two of them Cincinnati couples, were riding in one car.

Coroners Keller identified the dead as Bessie Swain, 41, Cincinnati, and her wife, Opal Faye Swain, 46, Telford, Tenn. Ky. Jennifer Swain, 18, Wilmington, Ky., and Kendall McKenzie, 28, Covington.

A fifth Ohio victim was killed outright. She died about an hour later at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. The driver, their insured, and passenger suffered fracture.

Capt. Ed Fenton, James Wilson, Bob Anderson and Russell England of the Kenton County police said Mr. Swain was identified through papers found in a purse lying at the scene.

Police said Mr. McKenzie was driving southward that the surrounding at slight speed he crossed off the opposite lane striking the northbound Swain auto. It could not be determined who was operating it.

The bodies were taken to the Weidler funeral home, Covington.

Polio Vaccine Available Now For Booster Shots

Salk vaccine is now available for all those who are eligible for their third shot. This includes children who had their first and second shots in the school clinics.

To date 33 cases of Poliomyelitis have been reported in the state as compared to 55 cases at the same time last year.

If you have children under 20 years of age you are urged to contact your family doctor or go to the Boone County Health Department for them. A clinic is held every Wednesday morning from 9:00 a. m. until 12:00 noon, at the office in Florence.

Local Girl Winner In Talent Show at Annual RECC Meet

More than 3500 persons turned out for the annual meeting and electric farm show of the Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, held Friday, July 6, at Butler State Park, Carrollton.

Elected as directors of the organization were: For three years, Robert Arthur, Grant county, Albert Davis, Carroll county, and Roy Gray, Campbell county. For one year, Walter Luttrell, and Howard Greene, directors at large. For the unexpired portion (2 years) of the term of J. F. Burk, Oakley Noel of Gallatin county.

Miss Diana Snider, of Taylorsport, Boone county, won the beauty contest, sponsored by General Electric and received the title of Miss Owen County RECC of 1956. She will compete for the State title in September at the State Fair. Second place went to Miss Lois Ann Smith, Grant county, and third place finalist was Miss Mary Jean Adams, of Hamps, Kenton county.

The talent contest was won by Miss Sherry Stephenson, of Walton. She is the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lebus Stephenson. Mrs. Hollie Collins, of Corinth, won the handicraft contest. Both of these winners will compete later in State contests.

Baptist Brotherhood to Meet

The Men's Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church, Walton, will meet on Monday, July 16, at 8:00 p.m. M. W. Kettlehake, supervisor of the Long Lines Department of the American Telephone Company, will be the speaker. He will show a film and comment on "The Progress of the Telephone." Mr. Kettlehake is an outstanding and interesting speaker.

A short devotional and business session will be held, according to W. E. Duchenin, president. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. All men are invited. Visitors welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coppage and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alford Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sturgeon and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rice and sons spent July 4th with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Robbins of Florence.

MRS. NELLIE M. BAKER

Services for Mrs. Nellie Martin Baker, who collapsed last Thursday night at her home in Spring Lake, and was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, were held Monday morning at the Allison & Rose funeral home, Covington. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Mrs. Baker was 58 years old. She was a lifelong resident of Kenton county and had been in poor health for the past several months. She was taken to the hospital by the Walton Rescue Squad, but life had ended.

A brother, Earle Martin, survives.

Walton Firemen's Picnic This Week; Many New Big Features Scheduled

Respirator Is Needed For Life-Saving Work

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department is presenting its annual picnic this weekend—Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights—at the department's grounds on High School Court.

This organization is composed of volunteer members who contribute their time and efforts to the prevention, as well as the extinguishing of fire, as evidenced by this community not having a major fire loss this year.

Members attend fire school each year at the University of Kentucky to learn the latest methods of fire fighting, and bring them home to the fire department so the techniques can be applied to our community.

Now for the Picnic!

As in the past, the department has gone to no end to assemble the best of entertainment for this gala picnic, including a new 24-chair swing for the kiddies, a hot-rod ride, plenty of ponies to ride, and all kinds of playground equipment.

The adults will be dished-up to the best of "live" music, games, drinks, dancing, and food—those delicious fish sandwiches—and that ever-popular bingo—you just come and enjoy yourself.

Several new pieces of equipment have been added to the already well equipped department, which included a GMC vanette, used for carrying light equipment, a new portable pump, and many feet of new hose. Several other pieces are planned, such as a respirator for life-saving work.

The personnel, which has had several changes in the past year, includes:

Soil Bank Advantages And Rules for Corn-Tobacco Listed

Want to know whether or not to join the Soil Bank program?

According to Buel Lanpher, Extension specialist in agricultural economics at the University of Kentucky, it breaks down this year, for tobacco and corn farmers, to this:

If your tobacco has been damaged by insects, disease or weather, you might do better by joining the Soil Bank. You will get 18 cents a pound from the government for the estimated yield of burley tobacco which you destroy (12 or 13 cents for dark tobacco), and you may put a cover crop on this former tobacco land. You'd also get other not-so-easily seen benefits, such as savings in family labor, fertilizer savings, and availability for other uses of the operating capital earmarked for the tobacco.

If you are a farmer in one of the state's 49 commercial corn-producing counties, you get some Soil Bank benefits, too, if you sign up for the program. Here's how!

Say you have a previous corn allotment of 100 acres. The Soil Bank people have given you about 18 percent more acres. This is called a Soil Bank corn acreage base. That raises you to a 118-acre total.

If you will plant only 85 percent of these 118 acres to corn (about 100 acres) you get the national corn support price of $1.50 a bushel. The 18 acres underplanted (difference between the Soil Bank corn base, 118 acres and the allotment, 100 acres) may be put into the Soil Bank acreage reserve and you draw payments for them. If you don't follow this system, but plant the whole 118 acres in corn or other crops for harvest this year, you will get only the lower national corn support price of $1.25 a bushel.

The idea of the Soil Bank is to promote land fertility and reduce surpluses in the basic crops. These basics, for Kentucky, are corn (in the designated 49 commercial corn-producing counties located for the most part in Western Kentucky), tobacco and wheat. Peanuts, rice, and cotton are also in the national plan but have little application for Kentucky farmers.

Remember these things about the Soil Bank program:

(1) Participants must have signed Soil Bank agreements with their ASC committee by Friday, July 20.

(2) By Tuesday, July 31, farmers in the Soil Bank must have plowed under, clipped, mower, cut (or incorporated into soil) crops growing on land put into the Soil Bank "acreage reserve" program. (For wheat, the deadline was set as June 30.)

(3) Land going into the Soil Bank acreage-reserve cannot have been grazed after June 22, 1956, nor planted to other crops which would be harvested in 1956. However, cover crops can be planted on them for harvest or grazing in 1957.

(4) There must be control of noxious weeds on acreage-reserve land.

(5) Cash payments will be made as soon as possible after requirements are met.

(6) Participation is voluntary.

(7) ASC committees, state and county, have charge of the program, including inspection and checking work.

BAPTIST GIRLS AT CEDARMORE CAMP

The first week of Girls' Auxiliary Camp is in session at Cedarmore Baptist Assembly near Bagdad, Ky., under the auspices of Woman's Missionary Union, of Kentucky. Director of the four weeks of G. A. camp is Miss Mary Kent Youth Secretary.

The following from Walton are in attendance at this camp: Vicki Reed, Phyllis Gibson, Paulette Chance, Norma Neumeister, and Beverly Gerth.

Emphasis for the week has been on group living, missionary education, Bible study, outdoor life, recreation and development of skills. Included on the faculty are Miss Hannah Barlow, Rose Marloe, Mary Etheridge, Samaria Marout, Rev. Wendell Belfew and Bailey Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Daggett and two sons, of Verona, have returned home from a two weeks vacation in Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., and Virginia.

TO WED JULY 21st

Miss Betty Black

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Black, Walton, have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their granddaughter, Miss Betty Black, to Mr. Thomas Stubblefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stubblefield, also, Walton.

The wedding will take place Saturday, July 21, at 7:30 p. m., in the First Baptist Church, Walton. The public is invited to attend.

Low Percentage of Boone County Youth Have Had Polio Shots

Only 26.3 percent of Boone county's approximately 4,641 children under 20 have received any polio vaccine, according to figures reported to the Kentucky State Department of Health, released today. With so small a percentage of highly susceptible persons protected, there is always the danger of an epidemic.

Thirty-three cases of polio have been reported in Kentucky this year, one in nearby Kenton county. This figure is lower than the number of cases at this time last year, when 55 had been reported. Last week 180 new cases throughout the U. S. were reported, compared with 277 for the corresponding week of last year. The reduction in the number of cases perhaps can be largely attributed to the effectiveness of the polio vaccine. Parents are being urged to have their children vaccinated at once before the polio season gets further under way. Most susceptible to polio are those under 20 years of age and pregnant women.

Vaccine is available through family physicians. The State Health Department is shipping orders of vaccine to counties on a first-come, first-served basis. Boone county parents have been asked to call for the vaccine so that this area will receive its proper allotment.

Dr. Ogles to Speak Here

Dr. H. C. Ogles, Superintendent of the Covington District of the Methodist Church, will preach at the Walton Methodist Church on Sunday, July 15, at 8:00 p. m. All members and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Christian Minister Called

Rev. George Fiske of New Liberty, Ky. has been called as minister at the Walton Christian Church. He will assume his duties here August 1.

Local Talent Wins Contest

Miss Sherry Marlene Stephenson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lebus Stephenson, Verona Road, Walton, won first place at the rural talent contest sponsored by the Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative Corp., held at Butler State Park, Carrollton, last Friday night.

Miss Stephenson played "Serenade" by Sigmund Romberg on the Hammond organ. She will participate in the state finals to be held in Louisville, in October. She is a student of Mrs. Carole Leming, of Florence.

MRS. LAURA D. HEAD

Mrs. Laura D. Head, 90-year-old resident of Union, died Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

Surviving her are a son, James Head of Ludlow; a daughter, Mrs. Wilford Stephens of Union; four grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Taliaferro funeral home in Erlanger, with burial in Rice Cemetery at Union.

Loss damage to insects, and control costs, are 4 billion dollars a year in the United States.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Fairy Cooper of Mills Road, and Mrs. Edith Piper of Taylor Mill Pike, left last week by plane for Hawaii and a month's vacation.

Bob Mathis of Camp Hungry shipped three head of Black Angus cattle to the Black Angus stock farm at Union, of which his friend Al Ginter is the owner and manager. Bob is having them pastured for the summer.

The weather has been ideal for the past week and everyone is busy cleaning their crops as the long wet spell caused the weeds to grow as well as the crops.

Tomatoes seem to be ripening while rather small, which we don't understand or we have the same kind we planted last year.

The Reds have the fans all steamed up and it looks now, if they keep it up, that they might just naturally overpower the rest of the teams with their hitting and fielding, which has seemed to none in the league.

Work is progressing satisfactorily on the new home being built next to Bide-A-Wee by Chas. Dixon. The foundation is being laid this Monday morning by Mr. Cheeseman.

The championship sheet at the local golf club was won by a man from Maysville.

It seems the new boy killer Road is making a big impression on the farmers in the vicinity of Locust Corner for he's usually well off in a few days and he is waiting for a new supply to arrive.

I honestly believe that Whites Tower right now is the most beautiful and interesting place in the county. You want to know why—well here goes. We have the best looking and best kept gardens, we have quite a fruit crop, peaches, apples and pears, hay all cut and fields look nice and smooth and weeds have been kept down to a minimum. Everyone is happy, no serious disagreement among the neighbors and everyone tending strictly to his own business and not trying to make over his neighbors according to his own ideas. What more could you ask?

Miss Linda Ward of Greenup Street, Covington, spent several days of her summer vacation with her grandparents in the Tower, last week. Linda won a new wrist watch by getting all passing grades during the term at Holmes High School.

Sorry to hear of the death of our old friend and neighbor, Leen Killer, at Latonia. Mr. Killer was a very likeable fellow and a good father as we well know, since he was a next door neighbor to us when we lived in Latonia.

Want to know something about those kittens we have—well, we still have four and if no one comes for them before next Monday, they are going to the pet shop in Cincinnati, so if you need a couple of pets, you can admire and love, we will be looking for you over the weekend.

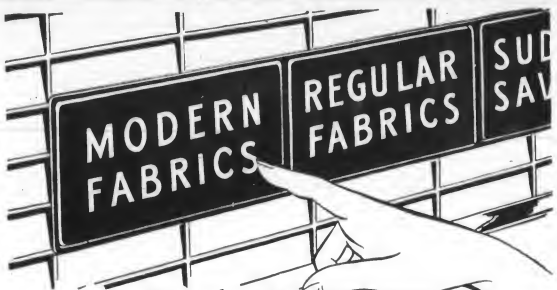
Want to see the second best tobacco crop in this part of the country—well, stop at Bide-A-Wee and we will show you. The best crop in the county is on your left between here and Nicholson. We don't know whose it is but it sure is a fine piece of tobacco.

Members of Amity Baptist Church near Skyway Drive, worked several days last week beautifying the church basement by painting the wall and putting new curtains in the windows so when you come to our services next Sunday you will see a very cheerful atmosphere and that friendly feeling that makes you want to come again. Amity church is labeled the friendly church where the members take an interest in the visitors and want them back again.

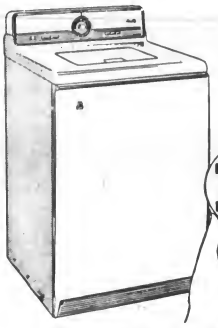
Our sympathy goes to Mr. Marshall Wayman subdivision, whose mother is very ill as they were called to her home Saturday on account of her condition.

We welcome our good neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Inabitt, who seem to be a welcome addition to our little community. They were welcomed to Amity Baptist Church, Sunday, and we hope to see them back soon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bales entertained a number of friends and relatives Sunday, July 8 in honor of her brother, who had a birthday on that date. Bro. Wilkerson of Oak Ridge Baptist Church and Bro. Bob Brumbach of Amity Baptist Church were among the invited guests. A wonderful dinner was served and everyone present enjoyed the day very much.



We just received word of a terrible auto accident involving two cars near Atwood. Four persons were killed and two hospitalized in a serious condition. One man was from Kenton county and a family from Jellico Creek, Ky. were the ones killed.



Cash receipts from U. S. farming totaled 10 billion dollars January thru May of 1956.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Savior of Men

Lesson for July 15, 1956

Dr. Foreman

THE Bible does not say that Jesus saves men from hell. It does say that he saves men from their sins. This is much more important; for suppose a man were saved from hell but not from his sins? Perverted by sin, such a man would carry his own hell with him even through the gates of heaven. Christ is the Saviour of men here and now, not in the future alone, but in the living present. In the Bible the word "save" means, first of all, to rescue. Christ as Saviour comes to the rescue of men who are chained and beaten, men who are the victims of their worst selves, bondsmen of the devil. Your worst self hates your best self. Left alone, your best self has a very slim chance, if any. You need to be rescued from yourself, and Christ is the rescuer every man needs.

Sin-bearer

How does Christ rescue men? The Bible suggests, and the church echoes, many answers. Let us look at three. Christ rescues men by taking their sins on himself. As a modern Christian writer (Hordern) puts it, he "took the rap" for mankind. As St. Paul put it, "He who knew no sin was made to be sin, for us . . ." In a long-ago battle for Swiss independence, the story is that one of the front-line soldiers seized as many of the enemy's spears as he could gather in his arms, and forced himself on them, thus making by his death a gap through which his fellow-soldiers poured to victory. In North Carolina, when the United States government was about to punish the Cherokee Indians for an alleged crime, their chief Junaluska offered to give his own life if the government would let his people go. So he was killed, and his people went free. These are imperfect illustrations of what Jesus Christ did as sin-bearer, as self-giving Sacrifice. He "tasted death for every one." That does not have to be done twice.

Example

Another way in which Christ saves is by just being himself. Once there was a school-room in which the small boys and girls seemed to learn a courtesy, a graciousness of manner, which children in other rooms did not learn. Some one who wondered how the teacher did it, and who knew how hard it is to teach some children even the ABC's or of politeness, asked one of the boys how the teacher did it. "She don't teach us at all," the small boy said. "She just walks around, and we feel as polite as anything." A well-known "Spiritual" sings, "I want to be like Jesus, in my heart." Jesus saves men from their sins by so inspiring them that they know there is nothing better than to be like Him. If you are learning to play the piano, you don't learn best by listening to poor pianos poorly played. You learn by listening to a master-pianist, a real artist. Now there is an easy way of misunderstanding this matter of Jesus saving us by his example. It is to suppose that we must every day compare him with ourselves, keeping (so to speak) a chart on which our "spiritual progress" is charted every day—20% like Jesus in 1955, 25% in 1956, and so on. That is absolutely the wrong way to do it; all you become is a Pharisee. The right way is to keep our mind fixed on Christ, so to love him in sincere earnest, that we shall grow more and more like him, one may say almost without knowing it. True saints are not self-conscious.

Unseen Guest

Once Jesus invited himself to dinner at the house of a very shady character named Zacchaeus. After dinner Jesus said, "Salvation has come to this house," and we know that Zacchaeus began to be a different man from that afternoon. In the last book of the New Testament a picture is drawn of Christ standing outside a closed door. "If any one hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in . . ." So Christ saves men by being their permanent unseen Guest, by being the Inner Companion whose very presence is a saving power. Christ is Saviour, not alone by what he does for men, but by what he does in men. Being "saved" is more than knowing or believing; being saved is becoming, by his invitation, host to the [illegible]

HOUSEPOWER Contest

200 valuable prizes awarded each month,

May through September.

Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER

Today, the average home uses 3 times as much electricity as it did 15 years ago. That's why 4 out of 5 homes now suffer from low HOUSEPOWER. This is true even of brand new homes. Here are the conditions that cause you to have low HOUSEPOWER:

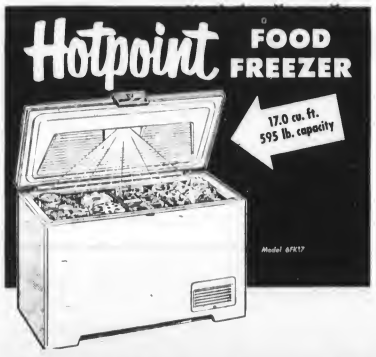
1. Inadequate electrical service entrance. To overcome this basic cause of low HOUSEPOWER, you should have service entrance capacity of at least 100 amperes. This requires 3-wire service from the street.

2. Overloaded circuits. Too many appliances on one circuit overload it and none of them get enough power. Motors may even burn out. If the overload is too great, the fuse will blow or circuit-breaker trip. You should have enough branch circuits to distribute enough electricity to all appliances.

3. Insufficient outlets. Some homeowners use extension cords and "octopus" outlets (2- and 3-way plugs), or plug into lighting outlets. Such practices are unsightly, inconvenient, and may be dangerous. Rearranging furniture doesn't help. The only safe solution is to add more circuits and outlets.

These are the symptoms of low HOUSEPOWER: lights dimming when appliances are turned on; blown fuses or tripped circuit-breakers; TV picture shrinking when other appliances are turned on; appliances working inefficiently or taking too long to heat up.

If any of these symptoms are present in your home call your electric company, electrician or electrical contractor for a wiring check-up. If added wiring is necessary, your electrician or electrical contractor will do the job quickly, neatly, economically. It often takes less than a day. Remember, full HOUSEPOWER increases the value of your home.



Don't delay — enter this easy contest today. Nothing to buy. Just answer a few easy questions. Most of the answers you'll find right here in Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER.

Low Cost Forage Crops Boost Profits from Milk and Beef

LOW prices for livestock and dairy products emphasize the need for farmers to use low-cost feed, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing a recent statement by two University of Kentucky agronomists—George D. Corder and Harold F. Miller.

"This does not mean a poor quality feed, but one produced at the least cost possible, whether it be grain or forage," says the agronomists' statement.

The agronomists point out that pasture crops produce the cheapest feed for livestock. Hence, special attention should be given to pastures this year.

"In establishing pasture and hay fields, the first step should be to have the soil tested," Corder and Miller suggest.

"Next step should be to apply lime and fertilizer needed to establish the crop and give high yields. The third step is to maintain pasture and hay production by annual applications of phosphate and potash fertilizer as indicated by the soil test.

"It is cheaper to maintain established forage crops through top-dressings of fertilizer than it is to reseed them," the agronomists say.

If there is no legume in the mixture, or if the stand is weak, the use of nitrogen fertilizer can be profitable, provided there is sufficient phosphate and potash to meet the needs of the crop, they point out.

Questions About UK Many, Varied

Questions asked about the University of Kentucky by prospective students in all parts of the state are many and varied. Some of the questions and their answers follow:

1. How many colleges are there at UK? Eight undergraduate colleges: Arts and Sciences, Agriculture and Home Economics, Engineering, Law, Education, Commerce, Pharmacy, and Adult and Extension Education—and a graduate school.

2. What are the major fields of work offered? The University offers about 2,000 courses of instruction. For information about major fields of study, the prospective student should write to the University Registrar or to the dean of the college in which he is interested.

3. Is a counseling service available to help students? The University Counseling Office offers counseling in the academic, vocational, and adjustment areas. A student who feels the need of this service may be referred by a dean or department head or may come voluntarily to seek counsel.

4. Is it possible to take University of Kentucky courses without attending classes on the campus? Within the College of Adult and Extension Education it is possible to take extension classes, either for credit or non-credit, taught in any Kentucky community where sufficient interest is assured. Home-study courses on both the college and high school levels, or a full two-year curriculum at the Northern Center in Covington.

5. Where can more information about UK be obtained? For more detailed information, write to the Office of the Registrar requesting either the University's Bulletin or General Information Series (a General Catalog—Campus View Books may be obtained from the Department of Public Relations.

Plant Food Pays Dividends at 'Unbelievable' Rate

A MISSOURI economist reports that fertilizer pays dividends at a rate almost "unbelievable" to investors in general or to farmers in particular.

Gordon B. Nance, of the University of Missouri's agricultural economics staff, said that the rate of return from the use of fertilizer is many times above that of some of the popular investments. Nance's statement was summarized here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Increased yields per acre can pay a 3-to-1 return from fertilizer investment.

"General Motors pays less than 3 per cent, Standard Oil of New Jersey and U. S. Steel, 3½ per cent, General Electric 3 per cent, and DuPont 2¼ per cent.

Nance said it is a different story so far as fertilizer is concerned.

"On Corn Belt land of below-average fertility," he said, "the first $6 worth of fertilizer returned 291 per cent on a corn crop priced at $1.21 per bushel in Missouri tests. The second $6 worth of plant food returned 227 per cent. When the rate of fertilizer application was stepped up, they had to use $40 worth before the returns from the last addition declined to 6 per cent.

"The marval of the ages is that while almost everyone knows this, practically no one acts on it."

Hughes Chapel W. S. C. S. Meets

Thirteen were present for the June meeting of the Hughes Chapel WSCS which met at the home of Mrs. Shirley Guard. A pot luck lunch preceeded the program.

The program subject was "The World —Beginning In My Community," one purpose being to stress our stewardship obligations. Opening hymn was "The Kingdom Is Coming," followed by prayer by Mrs. Boyd Bedinger. Scripture from Romans 15 was read by Mrs. Walter Robison. June was Methodist Student Month and students presenting and participating in the program were Phyllis Kite, Eleanor Kidwell, and Wanda Hudson. Others assisting with the program were Mrs. Fred Kite, Mrs. Shirley Guard and Mrs. Bill Ford.

In addition to program from regular program books, a study of New Guinea from current events will continued.

One reporter says, "New Guinea, a brave new world as freshcut from the past as television, is on the beam. It has changed lots since World War II. The airplane opened up New Guinea just as the war caused roads to be built where no roads existed before. There are new, thriving towns that didn't exist five years ago. New Guinea is in the Pacific near the equator. Things are changing in this last outpost of the stone age. There is still unexplored territory, still natives who have never seen a white man, and some gold in some hills. In some places agriculture is beginning to leap. In one plywood factory most of the employes are natives whose fathers were among the more persistent eaters of men less than 30 years ago, and no more than 20 miles away. But there is still some of the native population still fighting. One tribe still preserves its dead and places them in niches on a high mountain. Some of the young Kuks who have grown up around missions and outposts have even changed in appearance and attitudes. The basic insecurities of a native can not be overcome in 10 minutes.

The missionary is a great educator, but when he attempts to sell the white God, at the expense of polygamy, he runs into difficulties. In New Guinea some white people are doing some right things, with unsophisticated black people. This same reporter says New Guinea is going to play an enormous part in the affairs of the southern hemisphere, and the eastern world in general. The Japs want New Guinea, and so do the Indonesians. The Chinese would love to have it, and right now the United Nations, the Australians and the Dutch have it.

Mrs. Ross Kite served as secretary during the business session. All ladies signed a get-well card to send to a sick member who was absent. One new member joined.

In July, the group will meet with Mrs. Joe Wood, U. S. 25, near Richwood.

Top-Dressing Speeds Meadows' Comeback after Hay Cutting

Bumper hay yields remove bumper amounts of nutrients from the soil. Regrowth of meadows can be speeded by top-dressing.

1—The fertilized meadows make a quicker comeback.
2—You get more hay per acre. This can mean fewer feeding costs and higher profit.
3—The hay is higher quality, more nutritious, with a bigger protein content.
4—Fertilizer in the top-dressing helps develop the legume roots after the tops have grown out.

Alfalfa is a big eater of phosphate and potash, the committee points out. Four tons of alfalfa will take from the soil up to 140 pounds of potash and 55 pounds of phosphate.

"On most of the farms in the Corn Belt, the nutrients should be replaced in the form of commercial fertilizer," says the committee, "in order to maintain thick alfalfa stands and high yields.

The committee reports that Midwestern agronomists recommend using 300 or more pounds per acre of phosphate-potash fertilizer such as 0-20-20 or 0-10-30, depending on the soil's nutrient requirements.

In Wisconsin tests, hay yields have averaged more than four tons a year for the past six years on fields top-dressed with 300 pounds of fertilizer.

Completes Artillery Training

PFC Ellsworth F. Rhodes, whose wife, Joyce Mae, lives on Walton, Star Route, recently completed artillery surveyor training at Fort Sill, Okla. Rhodes received the training in the 617th Field Artillery Observation Battalion. He entered the Army in February of this year and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. The 19-year-old soldier was graduated from Lloyd Memorial High School, Erlanger, in 1954.

Bankers Gather at UK

Approximately 40 senior bank executives are taking part in bank management conference now in progress at the University of Kentucky. Cooperating with the University in staging the affair are the Kentucky Bankers Association and the State Department of Banking. Delivering the keynote address at the conference was George D. Bushnell, vice president of the American National Bank of Chicago.

Kentucky growers of certified seed must label their out-of-state shipments to show analysis and other labeling data, conforming to the laws of the state into which the seed is shipped. The shipper is responsible for meeting the requirements.

Film at Christian Church

On Thursday, July 26, at 8:00 p. m., the Booster's Club of the Walton Christian Church will show the much talked of picture, "So Dear to My Heart," which children, as well as adults, will enjoy.

Everyone is welcome. Be sure to see this film—if you have seen it, you will want to see it again. Remember the date—July 26—at the Walton Christian Church.

Nine Kentucky counties in 1955 tested over 3,000 soil samples each. Shelby county was first, with 5,081 samples, and the others, in order, were Fleming, Bassen, Mason, Hardin, Hickman, Mercer, Lincoln, and Marion.

Our complex American society today is possible because only one farm worker is needed to produce for himself and 18 other persons living in town; in 1940 he could produce for only 10 others, and in 1860 for only 3½ others.

OAK RIDGE

There seems to be a lot of babies and young children in the neighborhood who are sick with bad colds or croup. Among those absent from Sunday School last week because of these ills were Dennis Tomlin, Sandy and Phillip King, Kevin Tallent, Scott and Karen Whalen ad Glenn Rust.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dorman and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Oral Dorman, Sunday.

Lots of you former classmates of Gertrude Dorman think of her often but she gets awfully lonesome staying home confined to her wheelchair as a result of polio. Why don't some of you drop in and visit with her or two or three come together and play canasta with her. She is always so sweet and cheerful that the visit will be as good for you as it is for her. She has a telephone now and loves to get calls. So when you have a few minutes to spare, call her up. Her phone number is FL 7-2362.

The young men's class of Oak Ridge Baptist Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kelly on Hands Pike Saturday evening for a family picnic. Those attending, besides the host and hostess, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Asch, Mr. and Mrs. Jack King, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Tillett, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Obel, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kenner, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knnner, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Butte, and Rev. Frank Wilkerson.

The Taylor Mill Civic Association met last Thursday evening at the fire house. The Fourth of July holiday had gotten Big Steve mixed up on his dates and he forgot to come to open the school. He called up Friday to apologize for forgetting. The new officers were supposed to be installed and Judge Goodenough came to install them but four of them were absent because of vacations so it was decided to install them at the August meeting. Charles Deters reported that Covington was dropping their annexation plans for the area for the present, but by repealing the annexation ordinance rather than having the court rule against them in the matter the way was left open for them to pass a new annexation ordinance at any time. Those present discussed the advisability of the entire area uniting into one city. Mr. Deters said that Taylor Mill could annex the whole area or any part of the area. They are not seeking to annex more territory but if the residents of the area want to become part of Taylor Mill they will be glad to have them. They discussed the possibility of Sunny Acres and Latonia [illegible] uniting with Taylor Mill and forming one city instead of several small cities. A committee was appointed to talk with the residents of the area to find out their feelings in the matter. It is coming to the place where we must as well accept the fact that this is no longer a rural community but is urban and we can either unite and have a planned community with streets laid out according to plan, zoning so that businesses can locate in business areas not next door to fine residences, shanties can't be built next to lovely homes, streets are put in properly when they are laid out so paving, drainage and other problems don't appear at a later date to plague the property owners. Come to the Taylor Mill Civic Association's next meeting—the first Thursday in August at the Taylor Mill School and give your opinions on the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hutchins and Terry Tallent arrived home from Louisiana Sunday night. Mr. Hutchins brought home several fish he caught in the Gulf of Mexico and 15 pounds of shrimp he purchased for 30 cents a pound. That's a big difference from the 95 cents a pound they cost here.

The Taylor Mill and Independence baseball squads were kept busy on Sunday night with all the auto wrecks. Five people were killed in one wreck in front of Boyd Elliott's home. It reminded me of a story I heard last week. A truck driver said he had just made a trip from Oklahoma and had never driven so carefully in his life before. He was hauling a bull for which the boss had just paid $7,000. His friend said, yes, it is plain to see by your driving that you value the life of that $7,000 bull more highly than you value the lives of your wife and children.

BILIOUS ATTACK

By Dr. G. C. Donahoo

The liver is to be regarded as a great poison filter for the entire body. So long as there is no interference with its nerve supply and function, it can deal with poisons as fast as they are formed, the body is safe and can remain healthy. But if the liver does not function properly, the poisons are not handled properly and we become "bilious." Our head aches, our tongue becomes coated, we have a bad taste in the mouth, we lose our appetite and feel stupid, dull and feverish.

Such waste products as the liver cannot burn down, so that the kidneys and skin can handle them it pours out through its duct into the intestine as bile. The bile is a yellowish brown fluid, which assists the pancreatic juice in the digestion of the food, and helps to dissolve the fats eaten. It is however, chiefly waste product.

Besides being a great blood purifier the liver is a blood maker in the sense that it changes food stuffs in the blood from the intestines into forms which are more suitable for use by the brain muscles and other tissues of the body. Some of the sugars, for instance, the liver changes into a kind of animal starch (glycogen) which it stores away in its own cells. It also turns both sugars and proteins into fat, part of which it pours into the blood and part of which is stores away in its own cells.

The liver is very important in the network of organs of the body. Maintain its normal function by Chiropractic adjustments.

STAFFORDSBURG

We were very glad to have Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Ogle with us for the Sunday morning service, July 1. Rev. Ogle gave us a fine Independence Day sermon that he said Rev. Miller administered the communion and conducted the quarterly meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett were recent weekend guests of relatives in Mount Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Ballinger called on their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fooks of Verona, July 1.

We are glad to know that the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bain is at home following an extended stay in Children's Hospital. However, we sympathize with Mr. Bain in the sudden death of his father.

Leslie Damon, our Sunday School superintendent, was missed from his usual place Sunday of last week. It was later learned he was ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wolke were shocked when Mr. Wolke's mother, who had been visiting them for a few weeks, fell suddenly Saturday morning, June 30, from a height of 18 feet.

Mr. Dallas Pickering and Miss Helen Kidwell were called on Mr. and Mrs. Earl Haines recently.

Mrs. L. M. Downer spent several days recently with her sister, Mrs. Smith of Russell, Ky., who suffered a stroke a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children of Dayton, Ohio, were recent weekend guests here.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna spent an afternoon recently with their son and wife in Ridgeway subdivision.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Misses Alma and Mary Stephens, Mrs. Leontine Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rector attended the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Baker of Grants Lick.

READ THIS ABOUT ATHLETE'S FOOT

The writer of this ad had athlete's foot several years ago. Was miserable with the pain of burning and swelling. One bottle of T-4-L Solution cleared it up. Now I keep it on hand to use only when my toes begin to itch. Have never had the disease again. I can't promise that you who have athlete's foot will get my results but there is a mighty fine chance. In fact, the makers of T-4-L have built a nice business on that chance. Their records show that repeat sales are far in the majority. T-4-L is especially made for, and is advertised only for athlete's foot, even tho' it is good for similar itches. Just give it a try. Your 40c back at any drug store if not completely pleased. KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Senior Citizens:

One of the federal agencies here in Washington gave out some figures the other day on the increasing number of citizens 65 years of age and over.

Do you know that Kentucky, for example, has four times as many senior citizens today than it did in 1900. With improved medical care, vitamins and all the other things, we can expect the number to grow and grow and grow.

With these facts staring us in the face, public and private agencies had better start some movement to see that those citizens are gainful and happily occupied and employed.

Sorry News:

Kentucky educators who looked forward to getting federal aid for school construction appear doomed to disappointment. The segregation issue has been tacked on the program and it appears defeat is inevitable.

Such has been the plant of the anti-federal aid people from the beginning—to attach an anti-segregation rider to the bill so that when it gets to the Senate it will be filibustered to death.

All of which means that Kentuckians will have to look elsewhere for help in improving our schools.

Our Shore of Taxes:

A western congressman went to the trouble the other day to determine how much each state pays to Uncle Sam in federal taxes. Kentucky, he said, pays less than one percent.

New York is at the top of the list with approximately 15 percent and California is second with a little more than 9 percent.

Here are the figures on nearby states: Ohio, 6 percent. Indiana, 2⅓ percent. West Virginia, .66 percent, and Tennessee, 1¼ percent.

Joiners:

Members of the Kentucky delegation in Congress, like all politicians, are real joiners. Someone asked the other day which lodges and fraternal orders are represented. Here's a partial list—and veterans organizations are dominate.

American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans, Military Order of World Wars, the Elks, Odd Fellows, several branches of the Masonic Order, Eastern Star, Junior Order United American Mechanics, and college fraternities including Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Phi Kappa Alpha, Phi Delta Theta, and others.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received by the Department of Highways at its office, Frankfort, Kentucky, until 9:00 A. M. Central Standard Time on the 20th day of July, 1956, at which time bids will be publicly opened and read for the improvement of

BOLCE PAINT

Lots of people say, how do you pronounce that name B-O-L-C-E and I tell them it is just plain Bolce—they are located at 2429 Gilbert Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio. It is owned and operated by three brothers and a sister with some of their children and of course they hire some employees. That is why we get such good service and quality merchanilise, because they are there personally to see that you get the best paint for the least money and you pay for no advertising like you do in lots of other highly advertised brands of paint.

I have had a chance to put in most every brand of paint that is sold in this section of the country, but no one could offer a proposition that would take me away from Bolce as long as it is this merchandise and service we get. I have been buying from Bolce for 21 years and Mr. Fry bought for years before that. We have the most complete line of paint in this part of the country [illegible] we make it good. B[illegible] bought a gear pump for his tractor—the first thing it sheared off a pin but Brewster fixed it for him. Nearly everything we sell today we have to overhaul before it will work. Mrs. Marvin Darlington was in and bought a gallon of Bolce outside white paint and two metal lawn chairs.

Herbert Hoffman came after a quart of Endrin for tobacco worms. Edward Roberts came after a gallon of Rothane for tobacco worms. We sold several tank sprayers. Charley Vest from Verona wanted something to spray his peach trees and grapes. Mrs. Cecil Dickerson bought another quart of shadow gray liquid satin paint as she ran out of that color. They have always used Bolce paint and expect to use a lot this year. John Adams was in a few minutes; he was headed for the stock sale. Does Estimated Half-Million Dollar Damage

One of the worst disasters ever to hit the City of Walton, struck Friday afternoon at thirteen minutes before four o'clock and was over in about two minutes time—it was a whirling, twisting tornado that came in from the west, starting at the farm of M. L. Carey on Beaver Road and grinding its way thru town and out Locust Street, finishing its devistation at the Chapman barn. In between those two points, the residents of Walton received an estimated loss of $500,000 in property damage. The miracle of the entire incident was that in all the fury of the storm, not one single life was lost.

Beaver Road Hardest Hit

The area from the Corey property to U. S. 25 was the hardest hit, with five homes completely destroyed and many others badly damaged.

Mr. Carey, a farmer, about a mile from Walton, said, "We heard the roaring noise, like a diesel engine, and we saw the black funnel coming and seconds later it hit." This was one of the families who lost all of their buildings—house, barn, silo, smoke house, chicken house—just completely "cleaned it." Mr. Carey also was one of the most seriously hurt, as he received a deep cut and bruise on his forehead. He and his wife were in the kitchen and the entire house just blew away from them.

The next home in the path of the twister was that of Robert Cornwell, where Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell, their four children, Ronald 10, Donald 9, Robert 7, and Bruce 4, and his brother, George, were in the house at the time the blast hit. Mr. Cornwell was hurled into the yard, the children were pinned in the wreckage (what little was left on the grounds), and Mrs. Cornwell and George were also hurled into the debris. None of the seven were hurt seriously—another miracle, since very little of the house was even left on the farm.

Johnson Property Demolished

After skipping over the Mershon home, the twisting funnel dropped again in all its fury on the property of Mr. and Mrs. W. Delaney Johnson, where a large combination barn was completely ruined, a concrete block garage demolished, but the full fury hit the beautiful two-story home and reduced it to shambles. The Johnsons saw the storm coming and watched the funnel form, and had gone to the basement—the house was lifted from the foundation and slammed to the ground beyond in one huge mass of broken timber. They were saved from being killed by a water heater which held the heavy timbers off of them—another miracle.

Next the tornado demolished the barn of Howard Feldhaus and damaged his home, still traveling down Beaver Road.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Jameson was no deterrent and it went like the rest. No one was home at the time. Mr. Jameson was coming from work in Cincinnati, and his wife, Margaret, had gone on a Homemakers Club trip to Frankfort.

And still the wind blew and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McCubbin was scattered along the opposite side of the road.

Hits Main Street

By this time the twister had hit North Main Street where it played havoc with the roof of the A. H. Gaines home. It blew out windows of the Walton Feed Mill, the plate glass front of Young's Restaurant, as well as the windows at the Walton Tie Factory. One end of the Walton Skating Rink was removed, leaving the roof intact. The slate roof of the old Walton school building suffered heavy damage and many of the windows in the structure were blown out. A large portion of the roof on the old gymnasium was peeled off. All property on the street from—just north of Beaver Road, south to the L&N Railroad crossing was damaged to some extent.

Locust Street Hit, Too

The "blow" continued out Locust Street, where it hit the home of Henry Beach and twisted the house so that rain and wind poured in, damaging everything. All other homes on the street were damaged rather extensively with windows, roofs and chimneys going with its fury. A barn on the Chapman property was the "finis" to the five-minute reign of terror by "Mr. Tornado" of Friday, July 13.

Rescue Work Immediately Begins

Within a few minutes time the combined forces of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department, The Union Light, Heat and Power Company, The Consolidated Telephone Company, and townspeople had started the long, hard task of clearing the debris, twisted light wires, telephone poles, trees, furniture and everything imaginable from the streets, especially on U. S. 25, where the traffic was tremendous. The Kentucky State Police immediately started rerouting traffic at Bracht and Richwood around Walton. The town was declared "a restricted area."

Red Cross On Scene

Late Friday, the Red Cross arrived on the scene and later established headquarters in the City Building. A canteen was set up and food and orders for clothing were given sufferers. They are now receiving applications for rehabilitation assistance.

All Red Cross assistance is free and voluntary, given from funds from the American people. No loans are ever made and no repayment is ever accepted.

Bob Eades, Disaster Chairman; R. D. Frost, Chapter Chairman, and Mrs. A. H. Gaines, former chairman, have been assisting in the disaster work. The local office will remain here until all has been taken care of.

Firemen Do Tremendous Job

The Walton firemen, who started immediately to clearing the trees and rubbish, directing traffic, and stayed on the job 24 hours a day until the "mess" had been cleared. Work was under the direction of Chief Charles Worthington; Russell Groger, Deputy Chief; David Hankinson and Guy Carlisle, Assistant Chiefs. Chain saws, loaned to the firemen by the Homelite Corp., and axes were used all night Friday in order to clear the way for workers from the utility company who had about eleven crews from Walton, Covington and Cincinnati placed into action restoring current to the darkened city—which was done in a record time of about four hours. Phone service was also restored to part of the city in record time with the remaining part taking longer, as they are replacing the torn-up system with new cable, which should be a great improvement, according to G. B. Foscue, Jr., manager of the system.

At services Sunday, Rev. Joe Tockett of the Walton Baptist Church, and Rev. A. E. Atkinson of the Methodist Church suggested that firemen set up stands along U. S. 25 and try to collect funds for the tornado sufferers.

In short order—and with the help of the Walton Christian Church—three stands were erected and manned by volunteer firemen along the Dixie Highway.

One was near Beaver Road, close to the tornado-stricken area, another was at the fire house, and a third at another point on the highway.

Walton Police Chief Herman Simmons was aided by his assistant, Bill Parker; Harold Jones, of the fire department, the State Police and firemen, in directing traffic, which was heavy, indeed. D. H. Vest, Walton councilman, counted 16 cars a minute passing a given point.

The Relief Fund

The relief fund has grown steadily since Sunday, and by Monday night the firemen had collected a total of $2,001. Other collections turned over to the firemen were: Fire Dept. Auxiliary, $25; Herman Simmons, $197; American Legion Post 4, Florence, $100; Baptist Church, $1,185; Methodist Church, $500. This is a total of $4,008.

Verona Lake Ranch management is sponsoring a show on Sunday, July 28, with the entire proceeds going to relief of needy families.

FORGIVE US!

The editor of the Advertiser had to leave out some news items and ads this week in order to get all the information about our disaster, so forgive us, as we know you would want it that way.

Benefit Show At Verona Lake Ranch For Tornado Victims

July 29, at Verona Lake Ranch, a big benefit show will be presented with all profits going to help the many victims of the Walton tornado, who lost their homes and personal property. This was one of the worst disasters in history to hit this area and it is wonderful the way people have helped in cleaning up the city and helped those who were injured and without homes.

Verona Lake Ranch is the 100-acre Folk Park in Verona, Ky., which is just 5 miles west of Walton on Route 16. This park has country music shows every Sunday throughout the summer with top name stars, and is famous in this three-state area. The park is owned and operated by Thurston Moore, and all employees and all entertainers on this date will give their services free.

Verona Lake Ranch has good, clean, wholesome entertainment, so you can be proud to bring your family and friends and enjoy the good entertainment on the 29th and help those people who need your support. There is plenty of parking space, picnic tables, refreshment stands, games and amusements, and good fishing in the big lake.

Advance tickets are on sale for the benefit show and can be purchased by sending your money to "Verona Lake Ranch, Verona, Ky." Admissions to the park is $1.00 for adults, and 50c for children 6 to 12. By buying tickets now or at the park on the 29th, you will be helping people who were caught in a horrible disaster and who will be forever grateful for whatever help and aid they receive.—Pub. Mgr.

CLINIC AT VERONA

A clinic will be held at Verona, on Friday, July 20, from 10 a. m. to 12 noon, at the Verona School.

This clinic will be for expectant mothers, infants, pre-school and school children. Polio shots will also be given. This is a good opportunity to have your children examined.

Dr. Virginia Kratz will be in charge of the clinic. This is a free service of the Boone County Health Department.

Ryans Have Daughter

A lovely daughter was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. (Ab) Ryan at St. Elizabeth Hospital, weighing six pounds and eleven ounces. Both Betty and the babe are doing nicely, according to reports.

Firemen's Auxiliary Wishes To Purchase Portable Power Plant

The greatest wish of the Firemen's Auxiliary of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department is to buy our firemen a portable power plant after the picnic.

Did we hear you say you wanted to help?

Good! You come down to the Firemen's picnic Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights and buy all the fish sandwiches, hot dogs and coffee you want, take a sack full home; you may buy some tickets at our raffle booth—on Thursday night we are giving a beautiful lamp; Friday night a very pretty Lone Star quilt, and Saturday night a large window fan.

The Auxiliary set up a canteen on the front porch of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Groger, Friday night and gave all the workers all the hot dogs and coffee they wanted.

We took coffee out on Beaver Road to men who were covering a house and saw a portable power plant, from Independence, in use.

We are thankful that other firemen have so many things that our firemen do not have and are willing to come when called upon. But don't you think our firemen should have these things too?

So we'll see you at the picnic.

Services at Lebanon, Sunday

There will be services at Lebanon Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon, July 22 at 2:30, with Rev. Chas Owens doing the preaching. The public is invited to attend and hear Rev. Owens the second and fourth Sundays of each month.

Mark's REMARKS

Very seldom does the Editor of this paper write comments about events that happen, but this time he feels that it is impossible to keep down that desire to focus attention on a certain group in our community that need an awful lot of talking about—and you probably know it just as well as I—so I will do the talking for you.

You couldn't have been in any part of our town, night or day, since that tragic moment at 3:45 Friday, July 13 without seeing one of these "little men with the big hearts" working their fingers to the bone—with absolutely no compensation in sight, but merely the satisfaction of doing a job for their town and its needy victims. These unpaid heroes were working under the most discouraging circumstances that could possibly exist, since they had worked for months in preparation for last weekend when they had their hearts set on making money, not for themselves, but for more equipment, so that they could serve every single member of our community better in case of disaster—how unselfish can a human being get—just to recount a smattering of their untiring devotion to duty, here are some of them—minutes after the tornado struck, the entire force was on the job directing traffic, cutting debris away, covering homes with tarpaulins, going miles to secure more equipment to aid, working all night, and after all that, spending the entire day Sunday standing on the highways, with blood-shot eyes and aching backs, taking up an offering from the tourists, amounting to about $1500 for victim relief—then after everyone else is taken care of, they turn their weary legs toward their totally destroyed "picnic grounds" with that still-alive de-

Telephone Service Restored After Storm Knocks Out System

Despite the devastating effects of the tornado, emergency telephone service between Cincinnati and Walton, and Walton and Williamstown, had been restored as early as 8:30 last Friday night, G. B. Foscue, General Manager of the Consolidated Telephone Company, told the Advertiser.

Hundreds of telephones were knocked out, but service should be fully restored by the time this paper goes to press, Mr. Foscue said.

Prompt restoration of service, Mr. Foscue explained, was made possible through the splendid cooperation of the Cincinnati and Suburban Bell Telephone Company, the Southern Indiana Telephone Company, and The Union Light, Heat and Power Company, in placing new cable, fittings and poles at the disposal of the local phone company.

Mr. Foscue had high praise for the telephone crews who worked until midnight Friday and on through Saturday and Sunday.

MRS. CORA B. CAMPBELL

Mrs. Cora Bell Campbell, age 81, died at her home on Walton-Nicholson Road, Walton, Monday morning. She was one of the oldest members of the Walton Christian Church.

She leaves a sister, Miss Libbie Ingram, Walton; three sons, Charles E. Campbell of Chillicothe, Ohio, Russell B. Campbell of Ludlow, and John T. Campbell of Walton; seven grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton. Rev. R. F. DeMoisey and Dr. J. F. Reeves officiated. Burial was in the Walton Cemetery.

INDEPENDENCE

Parents of Baby Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Dawson of Main street are the proud parents of a baby girl born last week at St. Elizabeth hospital. Mrs. Dawson formerly Bonnie Bickers and baby are doing fine.

Roaming Emil

It has been rumored that a local boy will end his working years and residence in Independence soon, and will compell Lyman Holzderher to break in another caretaker at his business place. Roaming Emil will leave by trailer toward the western section of the U. S. and has in mind to take with him a bride. Emil has been with us for the past six years and has made many friends, his personality has given him such a good standing that, if his trip proves futile, his job will be available for him at any time. We all wish Emil a very happy and cheerful trip and above all, a very safe journey.

Bradford Ster 493 O. E. S.

Bradford Star Chapter 493 will celebrate its eighth birthday Saturday evening, July 21st at the hall at Independence, Ky. All members are invited to bring a covered dish and their families. Dinner will be at 7 o'clock. Past Matrons and Past Patrons will be honored.

Just a Thought!

With the increasing use of frozen foods, many a wife is turning out the best meals she ever thaw.

Remember!

July 31 will be the last day some of you can operate your autos under your present driver's license. George A. Domon, Deputy County Clerk at the Independence Court House urges all persons effected by this year in the change of your drivers' license to obtain the new ones early to avoid the last minute rush. No change in the office hours will be made. So it is best to check now if you are the one that will need the new issue. Office hours are 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. daily, Saturday 9 to 12 noon.

Proud Father

Randall Wagner, rural mail carrier, became a proud father of another boy, last Tuesday morning, July 2nd. Patsy and Toby are doing fine. This will make Randall with three boys as potential basketball players. You know Randall, five players are needed for a team.

Personal Interest

Elma Taylor, Alma Stephens and Mrs. Henry Pitcher of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. Claude Taylor and daughter of Frankfort attended the annual State Gladiolia Show at Bardstown last Saturday, July 14th.

Mrs. Luther Reed of Main street, slipped and fell at her home last week, and severely injuring her arm. Under X-ray her arm was broken in two places and the elbow bone was chipped.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ledford's boy of Shaw Pike, was injured last Wednesday evening while riding his bicycle near Whites Tower. The boy was taken to the Hospital and remained there for two days under observation.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

This community was very sorry to learn of the tornado which passed thru Walton Friday evening leaving much destruction behind it.

The Staffordsburg Sunday School was glad to see such a good attendance out Sunday. We hope all will try to come back next Sunday and bring someone with you, if possible.

Rev. George Miller and family returned home Saturday from several weeks visit with relatives in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett and little daughter spent the day Saturday with Rev. Ray Martin and family of LaGrange and were accompanied home with their grandson Dickie for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Mrs. Nell Mann of Hamilton, Ohio is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Mamie Folmer and son, Randal.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley had s dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children and Mr. Charles Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw entertained several of their relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gedkar who are here from New York visiting relatives and friends spent a couple of days with Mrs. Stella Richardson this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley entertained Mrs. Riley's parents from Decoursey on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna entertained relatives from Frankfort Saturday including Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunn, son, Raymond and daughter, Mrs. Edward Parris and husband, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hanna and sons of Latania.

ABSOLUTE AUCTION

Saturday, July 28

——: 10:00 A. M. :——

Eads Road, Verona, Ky., Boone County

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rouse are selling out and leaving for Florida, and have contracted with us to sell at Absolute Auction, on the above date, their household goods, farm, tools and equipment, and a 6-room 2-story frame home with 10 acres of land. Real estate to be sold promptly at 12:00 Noon on Saturday, July 28. To be sold in two parcels, as follows:

PARCEL 1—Five-room two-story frame home, four on first and one large room on second; full basement, coal furnace, water under pressure, cabinet sink; garage, chicken house, and approximately 2 acres of ground with 150' frontage on Eads Road; fruit and shade trees.

These two parcels to be sold separately and right reserved to group. If you are interested in a small acreage with a good tobacco base, attend this sale, or if you are interested in a home and 2 acres, attend this sale—this is an Absolute Auction. Joe says sell to the highest bidder.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE—Living room furniture (divan, 3 chairs, one a new Floatflex), china closet, mahogany bed, vanity dresser and chest, Jenny Lind bed, upright piano, dinette set, large kitchen cabinet, small kitchen cabinet, Hotpoint refrigerator (7 cu. ft.), Tappan gas stove, Kenmore electric sweeper with attachments, Bissel hand sweeper, desk, child's maple desk, chest of drawers and table, Maytag square tub washer (3 years old), gas heater, stone jars, 7-quart pressure canner, deepfreeze, paper and cartons, blancher, 1-gallon size ice cream freezer, odd dishes, pans, etc.

FARM EQUIPMENT—1951 Cub tractor with mower, cultivator, disk, water pump and turning plows, 2-wheel farm trailer, 4-wheel rubber tired farm wagon, scalding pan, lard press, 20 drums, rabbit hutches, 21" rotary power mower, 2-wheel Schwinn bicycle. Also 150 bales alfalfa hay, small tools of all kinds.

OAK RIDGE

The tornado was the big story of the week. It was the first time a tornado ever struck this immediate area and naturally everyone will take the warnings more seriously from now on. There is really nothing you can do to protect your property if it is in the path of a tornado. Just be sure you are fully covered by insurance and your premiums are paid. Everyone is thankful that there were no serious injuries or loss of life.

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club took a trip to Berea to see the play "Wilderness Road" and to visit Berea College industries last Tuesday. Those making the trip were Mrs. Edith Piper, Mrs. C. M. McNew, Mrs. T. B. Renecker, Mrs. Chester Barton, Mrs. Ralph Bauer, Mrs. Chester Tallent, Mrs. E. C. Harris, Mrs. Homer Harris and Mrs. Leonard Thompson.

The Covington South office of the Commonwealth Life Insurance company held a picnic at Butler State Park Sunday. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mulhem, George Anderson and son, Hugh, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tallent, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Klier, Mr. and Mrs. William Green, Mr. and Mrs. Don Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson.

Warren and Mary Dorman and son, Johnny, of Shelbyville spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Oral Dorman and family. They took their nephews, Oral and Don Jones, back to Shelbyville with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sizemore and daughters, Darlene and Pamela returned from their vacation in Florida last week.

Despite the rainy weather there were 105 women who attended the Womens Missionary Union meting at Bethel Baptist Encampment on Thursday night. The B.W.C. had charge of the program and presented two beautiful musical selections and a very inspiring devotional entitled. Be still and know that I am God. In the hustle and bustle of modern living we too often let even our prayers be one-sided, where we do all the talking. We need to be still and commune with God and await His answer to our prayers. Mrs. George Ferguson, executive secretary of Kentucky Women's Missionary Union gave a talk on the plans for the W.M.U. for the coming year and answered questions concerning problems with the report forms. Earlier in the day there was a study course for the sunbeams from the Baptist churches of the North Bend Association. Those attending the W.M.U. night at Bethel Trim Oak Ridge Baptist Church were Mrs. Frank Poetter, Mrs. Paul Newsom, Mrs. Francis Richardson, Mrs. Chester Tallent, Mrs. Earl Lieberman, Mrs. Earl Hundley, Mrs. Dorothy Jameson and Mrs. Charles Asch.

We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. Henry Binder at Latonia Lakes was suddenly taken ill. She is in Booth hospital recovering from an operation performed last week. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Edith Piper and Mrs. Fairy Cooper returned last week from a two weeks vacation trip through New Orleans and the Southwest.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to thank all my friends and neighbors for the cards, flowers, gifts and visits I received while in St. Elizabeth Hospital and at home. These kindnesses will always be remembered by me and my husband. May God bless you all.

site to get that money to buy additional equipment, fire fighting tires and disasters and there start the long, hard task of repairing the grounds for that said picnic this weekend. Need we say more, everyone knows that we are trying very humbly to honor our own "GALLANT FIRE DEPARTMENT" and mere's say to you that surely you will come to their picnic this week (Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights) and not only have fun at their games or eating their food, but show your love and admiration by digging deep into your pocket and handing it to any of the firemen in duty there—saying "Thanks boys for a big job well done." Let's show them that "that kind of service" pays off.

Most people in the community have dug down and given money for relief, which I would say in this case was easier to get than it will be to fairly get rid of, but that is not all—these hard hit people need lot of people to help clean up their places, and if you can just pick up rubbish or lot any of them and VOLUNTEER!

It seems that someone in the weather bureau or TV station are covering up for each other when they referred to last night as a "Squall Line"—then finally after flying over they say it may be a tornado, but they will have to make further studies—all they would have to do was walk Beaver Road and see the twisting path that completely destroyed everything in its wake and only a few hundred feet away no damage—it that isn't a tornado, then we are crazy—and I don't think it's us.

—o—

And it's some of our government officials don't think this was a "serious storm damage" and deny us federal aid—then we hope that it never happens to their homes, even in this "mild" form.

—o—

What did God have to say to us by this tragedy—we had better get our eyes and ears tuned to Him for the answer. I think that a half million dollar tornado and no one seriously hurt. He surely had His hand around us.

—o—

On Friday, ten minutes after the rain stopped, until six o'clock, 1850 cars passed through Main Street in Walton, as counted by Mrs. Eva Brittenhelm—all this added to our problem.

—o—

A tremendous amount of praise should go to The Union Light, Heat and Power Company and to the Consolidated Telephone Company, for the untiring work they have done in our town—they certainly met the need.

READ THIS ABOUT ATHLETE'S FOOT

The writer of this ad had athlete's foot several years ago. Was miserable with the pain of burning and swelling. One bottle of T-4-L Solution cleared it up. Now I keep it on hand to use only when my toes begin to itch. Have never had the disease again. I can't promise that you who have athlete's foot will get my results but there is a mighty fine chance. In fact the makers of T-4-L have built a nice business on that chance. Their records show that repeat sales are far in the majority. T-4-L is especially made for, and is advertised only for athlete's foot, even tho' it is good for similar itches. Just give it a try. Your 40c back at any drug store if not completely pleased. Today at Brakefield Drug Store, Walton, Ky. 3t-27

Most payload of the low-priced 3... DODGE pick-up

...most V-8 POWER too!

Get Your Dodge Dealer's Deal Before You Decide!

Your best buy is Dodge... and we can prove it!

Maybe you've had your eye on one of the other two makes of low-priced trucks. But why settle for second best when Dodge is in the same price class? After all, Dodge leads in the features that truck owners look for:

Most Payload! Dodge hauls up to 375 more pounds of payload per trip. It carries the extra weight you'd have to leave behind if you were driving another truck. Saves trips as well as cash.

Most Power! Dodge gives you up to 17 more V-8 horsepower than its competitors. You get the brawn you need for tough hauling jobs without engine strain.

Easiest Handling! You breeze in and out of the tightest traffic or parking spots because Dodge is the sharpest turning truck of all. Try it! It's the most comfortable riding, too.

And when you add to these advantages the biggest brakes in the field and the roomiest cabs, plus famous Dodge economy and dependability, you see why we say: Check Dodge before you decide. Come in and let us show you the facts . . . we'll prove Dodge is your best truck buy.

VERONA

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith and children visited her mother, Mrs. Oval Lunsford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman and Mrs. Vevie Webster of Verona, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Webster of Napoleon, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Straus and children of Richwood, Mr. and Mrs. Les Webster of Crittenden spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Webster and children of Berry Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wilson entertained Mrs. Ruth Connelly from Thursday until Sunday. They had as their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Jack Connelly and children and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson. Jack came to take his mother home.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Chapman and daughter, Rosemary, and Mrs. Emma Webster were calling in Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edmington on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Cooke and daughter and Mrs. Effie Clements were recent guests of Mrs. Clement's sister, Mrs. Virgie Colston of near Williamstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Wolfe of Louisville spent Saturday night and Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamb.

Miss Anne Chandler, Mrs. Angeline Hayden, Mrs. Susie Glore were calling on relatives in Owenton and New Liberty on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Christine Yonts was calling on her mother, Mrs. Martha Hayden Friday afternoon. Mrs. Hayden is on the sick list.

We are glad to see the Burchett family back in church Sunday. They have been visiting their parents in Kentucky and Tennessee the past two weeks.

Mrs. Ethel Rogers left Saturday for Florida on a two weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coyle left Sunday for Miami, Florida for a two weeks vacation. They will visit several places of interest while on their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Elliott were calling on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chipman and children Sunday afternoon.

WHITES TOWER

Mr. Andy, who makes his home with Vally Blitz and family has been quite sick the past two weeks.

A week's revival is in progress at the Amity Baptist Church on Taylor Mill and will end next Sunday night, July 23.

Jan Fields of Florence brought the message Sunday night at Amity Baptist Church. Bro. Jan is assistant pastor at Florence and is doing a great work in his chosen field. We predict much success for this very personable young minister.

Mr. Fageley of Latonia was out Saturday helping to get the weeds out of his bean patch which he planted in our corn field. He and Charlie got all done but eleven rows which will probably fall to our lot to put on the finishing touches.

Mrs. Maud Brumbach of McMillan Drive, Independence, starts her vacation today, Monday and will visit Mammouth Cave on her tour thru Kentucky.

All the kittens are gone but one black and white one and we kinda hate to see that one go.

Boyd Elliott and Charlie Davis, if the two were raking and baling hay over the week-end cutting quite a field of wheat.

Wonder why Shirley-Ann is petty-ing around this year. If you do better get the candy out, as they are not going to last long. We're talking a few days at 25 per week. If you want any telephone calls.

As this is last call, I must say it was with real sadness that we heard of Miss Minnie Belle Kelly's death. She was a fine woman and will be missed by many friends.

We are glad to report that Mr. Henry Riddell who underwent an operation at Booth hospital last week is getting along fine and will be back with her friends and home folks very soon.

Did you know or do you read what's going on in the papers. Those drunken orgies that are going on in Moscow with Vodka flowing freely is not conducive to a peaceful solution of world problems. A war could be started overnight and those drunken overlords would not know they had started a war until the next day.

Tomatoes in the Tower that are ripe are selling at 25c per pound and well worth it. Maybe next week they will be down to 20c if they ripen right.

By the time this is published the writer of this column will be on his way out of Whites Tower for good. We have tried and tried hard to make a go of it but it just seems that we can't get going in the right direction so we are getting another resident of the Tower to write the News for our little village. So, if you give your support and cooperation to he will have a good column.

Social at Independence

The ladies of St. Cecil's Parish, Independence, will hold their monthly social Wednesday afternoon, July 25. Public welcome.

CRITTENDEN

Mrs. Ora Wilson and daughter of Cincinnati were Saturday guests of her sons, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Riley and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Riley and family.

Mrs. Bertha Hitch returned home on Friday after a two weeks visit with relatives in Florida.

American Legion Auxiliary Unit Elects Officers For New Year

The regular meeting of Johnson-McElroy American Legion Auxiliary Unit, 277, was held July 10 at the City Bldg. The meeting was opened by the president, Georgia Stephenson, with the pledge to our flag. Twelve members and a guest, Miss Irma Rector, were present. After the reading of the minutes of the past meeting, and treasurer's report, our guest, Miss Rector, gave our members a lovely report from "Girls State," and what Girls State meant to her. She stated it was a wonderful experience and that what she learned at Girls State was very instructive and will be beneficial to her in her senior year. Miss Rector also thanked the Unit members for making it possible for her to attend Girls State in Lexington.

Election of officers was in order for the coming year, and are as follows: President, Aurelia Day; Vice President, Emma Jane Spillman; Secretary, Janet Webb, Treasurer, Emma Cluster; Historian, Georgia Stephenson; Chaplain, Wilma Winburn, and Sgt. of Arms, Eva Waters.

Picnic plans were discussed. The unit bought four folding tables for the new Legion home, also a committee was appointed to buy chairs for the home.

A bake sale was held and we wish to say thanks to all who helped us in any way.—Pub. Chm.

JOHN J. HUME

Services for John J. Hume, retired farmer and employee of Rollman's Department Store, Cincinnati, were held at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, Saturday. Burial was in the Independence Cemetery.

Mr. Hume, who was 75 years old, died last Thursday at his home, Nicholson. A native of Sydnia, Iowa, he had resided in Kenton county for more than 30 years.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Cora Rankin Hume, two sons, Ralph, Dayton, Ohio, and Rankin Hume, Louisville, and two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Anderson of Shenandoah, Ia., and Mrs. Pat Horn, of Omaha, Neb.

Rev. R. F. DeMoisey, Walton, officiated at the funeral.

Increased per capito consumption of meat by Canadians has caused that nation to become an importer of beeves.

BEAVER LICK REVIVAL

The Beaver Lick Christian Church announces a revival meeting to begin on Sunday night, July 22 and extending through Sunday night, August 5. Rev. Chester Land, minister of the church, will do the preaching. Mrs. Lillion Staggs, pianist for the Independence Christian Church, will be the pianist for the two weeks revival. The church is located on U. S. Highway 42, about 5 miles west of Walton.

Rev. Land promises that there will be good interest and special features sponsored during the meeting. Outside talent will present special numbers in music and song. The young people of the church community will be featured in special numbers and choir work.

A cordial invitation is extended to all people to attend as many of the services as possible. A special emphasis is placed on the attendance of church groups from neighboring churches. All people are welcome and a special invitation is extended to attend the revival services as often as possible.

Billy Graham Film At Crittenden Baptist Church

"Mr. Texas," called "the world's first Christian western," will be shown at the Crittenden Baptist Church, Monday, July 23, at 8:00 p. m., according to an announcement by Rev. John Durham, pastor. The film is the first major production of Billy Graham Evangelistic Films, Inc., and features the famed young evangelist and his entire evangelistic team. Playing leading roles in the full length color picture are Redd Harper and Cindy Walker, both professional western stars who have made their decision to give their lives and talents to Christian service.

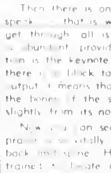
Dessert-Bridge Party Set

The Woman's Auxiliary of Grace Episcopal Church, Florence, will hold a dessert-bridge party on Wednesday, July 25, at 1:00 p. m., in the home of Mrs. Otto H. Salsbery, Crescent Springs Road, Erlanger, for the benefit of the church building fund. Tickets ($1.00) may be obtained from any Auxiliary member or by calling Mrs. Salsbery, DI 1-5657.

Ice Cream Social Saturday At Morning View Church

The Intermediate class of the Morning View Methodist Church will give an ice cream social on Saturday, July 21, at the Morning View church, starting at 6:00 p. m. Home made cake and ice cream will be served. You are invited.

Mrs. Lillion Hempfling is teacher of the class.



WHEAT QUOTA VOTE

Friday, July 20, is the date when growers will determine how they want to market their 1957 wheat crops, Russell Rector, Chairman of the Kenton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminded farmers this week.

HEALTH THOUGHTS

By Dr. [illegible] Donohoo

Many times we wonder why a Chiropractor is interested in the spine when their complaint may be in the stomach, kidneys, legs or [illegible]. Chiropractors are interested in the spine because it houses the main channel of life force called the spinal cord. The spinal cord may be likened to the trunk of the tree from which many branches and sub-branches come. The spinal cord and nervous system comprise the main communication system in your body carrying messages to and from the brain to every microscopic cell.

Then there is an open line, so to speak, that is when the messages get through all is well and health is abundant, providing that moderation is the keynote of living. When there is an block to that life energy output it means that nine or more of the bones of the spine is displaced slightly from its normal position.

Now you can see why the Chiropractor is so vitally interested in your back and spine. He is scientifically trained to locate and remove that block to life energy bringing you health and happiness.

Great Company

Lesson for July 22, 1956

MAN is not made for loneliness. He not only feels incomplete when circumstances force him for a time to live alone; he is actually incomplete. It is only through existence with others that we arrive at our true selves. People who have never thought this through know it by a kind of instinct. That is why there are so many organizations and societies and fraternities and groups of innumerable sorts in the world. Even when an organization has no very important reason for its existence, its members just like to get together.

Dr. Foreman

The Great Company

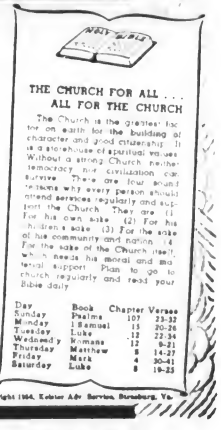
Of all groups of human beings, the greatest is the "great company" we call the Church. Belonging to it is more than joining another organization. It is more than any denomination, more than any existing list of members; even if you put all the members of all the churches into one master-list. The writer to the Hebrews, thinking of the heroes of faith, does not think of them as past-and-gone saints. They live now; they are the great "cloud of witnesses"—the cheering grandstand, we may dare to say—in whose presence our own race is being run. They are living members of the Fraternity of Faith. All those who have dreamed God's dreams after him, all who have looked beyond their times to the heavenly city yet to be, all who have toiled to make this world a bit more like the world of God's intention, who have by faith seen what God promised and greeted it from afar; these make up the company to which every man and woman is invited; these are the light-bearers, the builders, to whose fellowship every Christian belongs. Men of faith often have to live lonely lives; they can be misunderstood, imprisoned, tortured and killed; but they take heart, knowing that they do not

Marching With the Heroes

For some persons, precise accuracy of belief is what makes a good Christian. Surely accuracy of belief is a good thing. To say the least of it, there is no point in believing what isn't so, or not believing what is so. But from the standpoint of this letter to the Hebrews, indeed from the standpoint of Jesus himself, accuracy of belief and completeness of understanding are not the last word in what makes a Christian. Faith, in the way the word meets us in the famous 11th chapter of Hebrews, is not voting "aye" to a set of propositions. Faith is doing something for man and God. It can be expressed in the slogan, "Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God." Faith of this rousing, robust kind is more than thinking. It is doing. It is thinking too; faith certainly is no substitute for thought. Reading the stories of the men and women the writer to the Hebrews lists in his roll-call of faith, one finds them planning ahead, working, fighting, never blindly but with the determination that comes from a thinking faith. Heroes think, plan, believe; but also heroes DO. It is the doing that makes them heroic. So the Great Company is a marching, fighting company, marching at God's orders, fighting God's war.

Supermen?

Thinking about such things, and such men, has put iron into the blood of many weaker men and women, struggling through their own battles on this earth. But it has a discouraging side, too. These men—Abraham, Moses, all the rest, and all the others that Christian history can name—these heroes of faith were supermen, we feel. Quite out of our class. In such a company, many a humble Christian feels like a boy who can't do simple arithmetic being elected by accident to a Mathematical Society, or a boy twelve years old suddenly finding himself in the middle of a football game between Notre Dame and Texas. It's embarrassing. But no—that is a mistake. The men named to that Roll-Call of Faith were not really supermen. Indeed some of them felt so small that they tried to resign before God elected them. By themselves they would have been no more remarkable than ourselves. For after all, it was not their faith, or their character, or their power, that made them; it was the God in whom they had that faith, who made them. And God still makes men!



HOLD TIGHT!

Ever find yourself caught out in the middle of a storm with your umbrella blowing itself inside out?

There you are, clinging like mad to that frail bit of cloth and metal . . . and you realize that if the wind gets one whit stronger your "protection" is going to blow right out of your hands.

Fortunately, it doesn't hurt to get wet, so losing your umbrella wouldn't be much of a tragedy. But when you're caught in one of the other types of storms life deals out . . . a storm that buffets your inner sense of security . . . or your idea of right or wrong . . . a storm that tries to undermine your marriage, or your career . . . or a storm of sickness or strife . . . then it's a very different matter.

How fortunate that in those more difficult moments, you don't have to rely upon something as flimsy as an umbrella. How fortunate that you can turn to the Church and find in it solace, protection, courage, and the faith to keep going. You will find that the Church is a shelter that will always protect you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FRIDAY, 13th

I was born on Friday, 13th of August, 1907, and have been a little superstitious all my life, but somehow I have been through several close calls and have been left here to do some good. I made a date with a doctor in Cincinnati about a month ago for Friday, July 13, and the office girl asked me if I was superstitious and I told her I would take a chance. So I left Walton about 12:30 p.m. to see that doctor. It rained very hard, especially about 3:30 which must have been about the time that terrible wind hit here. I stopped down at Jansen Hite and picked up my chain saw and took it down to the farm. No one was there so I left the saw and headed for Walton.

When we passed Russell Ryan's garden my wife said that corn had been blown down, but we never noticed much else until we passed Chester Sturgeon's house and I couldn't realize what had happened at Carey's—no [illegible]

Ralph Sparks was here again [illegible] Price outside white paint. The Baptist Church just unloaded 1000 one gallon cans of outside white; this was just made last week. Like most of Boone paint, you get it fresh and it is not hard to handle. I was down at Beaver this afternoon and that little frame Church really shines. Roger Arnold and the crew at Ralph Sparks, Ed Black, Henry Hicks and himself really put on that Price outside white [illegible] We forgot to give the old church [illegible] it was very dry. Roger is also painting the house at Beaver.

Mr. Arnold [illegible] a gallon of wood killer, attack Scott [illegible] and brush killer and a half gallon of the other paints. Mr. Price lives in Nicholson Highway. I bought a gallon of bright yellow for the fence and Mr. [illegible] Lawrence [illegible]

Dairy and Forage Crops Meet

A dairy and forage crops field meeting has been arranged for Kenton county farmers in cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service, the Kenton Soil Conservation District, the Dairy Department of the University of Kentucky, and local farm leaders.

The field meeting will be held on the farm of John W. Sleet & Son, Green Road, about 1¼ miles southeast of Walton, on Thursday, July 26, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Dairy management problems, forage crops, alfalfa, brome grass, birdsfoot trefoil, pasture management, use of fertilizer, and soil conservation practices will be discussed at the meeting.

Speakers scheduled are Ed Troutman, field agent in dairying from the Dairy Dept. of the University of Ky., Tom Ford, technician, Kenton Soil Conservation District, and C. A. Wirkkund, Kenton County Agricultural Extension Agent.

Farmers interested in dairy management, hay production, pasture crops, and soil conservation practices are invited to attend this field meeting.

THOMAS FENHOFF

Thomas Fenhoff, a retired conductor of the C&O Railroad, died Monday in Speers Hospital, Dayton, Ky. He lived on Demossville, Route 1. Mr. Fenhoff, who was 65 years old, had been retired two years after 37 years with the railroad. He was a member of First Methodist Church, Covington.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Edith Ellis Fenhoff, two brothers, Logan and Charles Fenhoff, and a sister, Mrs. Richard Niemann, all of Covington.

Soil Bank Program Meet Well Attended

A large group of Boone county farmers attended the meeting on the Soil Bank program held at the courthouse in Burlington, last week.

George Corder, Specialist from the University of Kentucky, told farmers that the program was a voluntary one and its success depended on the farmer.

Purpose of the soil bank program is to reduce production of surplus crops and therefore a higher price for these farm crops.

Farmers wishing to participate in the program must sign up by July 20 and will have until July 31 to destroy any necessary crops such as plowing under.

Mr. Corder pointed out that this is only for 1956 and that each farmer has an individual situation, therefore must determine whether the soil bank program will be beneficial in their case. Examples were given on how to determine whether or not a farmer would profit by putting tobacco land corn in the acreage reserve. Farmers participating in the program must have a [illegible] as explained.

HUGHES CHAPEL REVIVAL

Hughes Chapel Methodist Church is holding a summer revival this week. Rev. [illegible] pastor of the Florence Methodist Church is the evangelist.

The meetings will continue each night this week at 8:00 p. m. and will close Sunday evening, July 22.

Youngsters Attending Conservation Camp at Cumberland Lake

Several Boone county youngsters are taking part in the week long learning, building program at Kentucky Junior Conservation Club Camp Wilson at Cumberland Lake.

All members of Kentucky's Junior Club program will get expert instruction in such varied fields as swimming, boating, nature study, first aid and hunter safety. A week full of activity which highlights the conservation education year in Kentucky and gives the youngsters a chance to put in practice what they have learned during previous classroom sessions throughout the school year.

Local Red Cross To Become Branch Of Cincinnati Chapter

At a special meeting last Thursday night, the Board of Directors and members of the Boone County Red Cross Chapter voted unanimously to become a Branch of the Cincinnati Area Red Cross. R. D. Frost, Boone County Chapter Chairman, becomes Branch Chairman and will serve on the Board of the Area Chapter.

The Cincinnati Area Red Cross Chapter, which now covers Cincinnati and Hamilton County, Clermont County, Kenton County, Campbell County and Boone County, will participate as a partner in the United Appeal this fall throughout the five county area.

This means two less fund campaigns for the Red Cross in Clermont County and Boone County will not conduct their regular March campaigns in 1957 as they did this year. The Red Cross in Kenton and Campbell Counties participated in the Northern Kentucky United Appeal last fall.

Formal acceptance of the Boone County Red Cross as a Branch will be completed at the next meeting of the Cincinnati Area Board. Permissive authority for the merger has been given by the American National Red Cross officials in Washington, D. C., pending the next meeting of the National Red Cross Board of Governors.

Nelson Schwab, Jr., Area Chapter Chairman, stated that he is looking forward to working with the people of Boone County and the other counties for better and more efficient Red Cross services. He pointed out that with all resources pooled, it is now possible for major Red Cross services to be provided to all residents in the area, regardless of where they live or work.

As in the other counties, Red Cross headquarters in Boone County will remain open as a Branch location. Volunteers and staff will continue in their respective capacities.

More than 200 chemicals now are used in farm work, compared with only about 50 in 1939.

Local Firemen's Picnic Is Largely Attended; Disaster Fund Grows

The Walton firemen's picnic was attended by one of the largest crowds in the history at this annual event, and the "boys" realized something over $2,000 for their efforts. This money will be used for new equipment, and to pay for some which they now have. They wish to express their appreciation to everyone for their wonderful cooperation.

The "disaster fund," which is being sponsored by the firemen for those hit by the recent tornado is still growing, day by day. The latest count the Advertiser could get, was a little over $4,000. This money will be distributed by a committee composed of members of the fire department, churches and local leaders. Same will be done in the case of future disasters, it Guy Corbin, Disaster Fund chairman.

One of the larger donors to the fund of week was the Walton Christian Church with $300, also the Seventh Day Adventists. Florence firemen, and many others.

The City of Walton sincerely appreciates the wonderful help given by the thousands of individuals, companies, clubs, churches, etc.

HUBERT D. BRADY

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, for Hubert D. Brady, 84, of Carrollton, retired farmer and a native of Boone county. He died Monday at St. Joseph Hospital, Louisville. Burial was in Bellevue Cemetery.

Mr. Brady, a resident of Carrollton for eight years, had been ill three years. A semipro baseball player in his younger days, he was a member of Belleview Baptist Church.

He leaves his widow, Kitty, two sons, Sebren Brady of Belleview, and Joe Brady of Vevay, Ind., and four grandchildren. Rev. Robert Brown, a nephew, pastor of the Anchorage (Ky.) Baptist Church, officiated at the services.

Inspirational speaker will be Rev. Jon Fields, educational director of the Florence Baptist Church.

Miss Shirley Tallent of Oak Ridge, will present the closing meditations.

Entertainment For Both Young and Old

The Independence and Community Volunteer Fire Department will hold its 20th annual picnic on Friday and Saturday, July 27 and 28, on the Independence Courthouse grounds in Independence.

The department recently purchased a new ambulance, and plan the purchase of other equipment during the year, and it is these picnics that supply the revenue for these advancements, so better serve the residents of the comunity.

There will be entertainment for all, including a fish pond and rides for the children; there will be music by the Klatz Brothers, dancing, and refreshments. A pony, complete with saddle and bridle, will be one of the feature prizes to be awarded, as well as cash, in the amount of $300.

The firemen cordially invite you to be present and enjoy and evening of fun and relaxation.

Farm Bureau Meets Here

W. Dale Scott, Louisville, chairman of the policy development program of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Boone County Farm Bureau at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, in the Phoenix Restaurant, Walton. Beckham Shields, president, presided.

John E. Crigler, secretary of the Boone county organization, said there are now 1,015 members, the largest in history. The meeting here was held to formulate policy.

With the soil bank program now being placed into operation, with wheat quotas, corn allotments, and tobacco acreage measurements, farmers throughout Kentucky are taking a serious interest in the solution of their own problems, Mr. Crigler added.

Farm Safety Week Is Being Observed July 23 to July 28

Accidents are "public enemy number four," and the farming industry leads all others in the number of work deaths. Cutting implements and heavy equipment must be treated by the farmer with a great deal of respect for these are responsible for a great many farm accidents.

A 1954 study showed that home accidents led in non-fatal accidents of farm residents. The farmhouse may have all the usual hazards, such as cluttered or dark stairways and slippery rugs, that town homes have, plus a few others like poisonous insecticides, scythes, guns, heavy equipment for canning and separating cream, and ice boxes left over from the days before the house was wired for electricity. The farm wife has some special problems in safety.

Keeping everything in its proper place is a prime rule for the farm wife. Pesticides and chemicals must be stored where children cannot get into them, and must be used according to the instructions that come with them. Accidental poisonings from them can be fatal. Surveys have shown that many poisonings by insecticides have been caused by excessive exposure to them and by grass carelessness in working with them.

Canners and other heavy containers and equipment must be kept out of reach of curious children who might pull them over or fall into them. Remember also that children do not realize the dangers of scythe blades and shotguns.

Many tragic deaths have resulted when adventurous tots have crawled into old ice boxes and locked themselves inside. A cautious homemaker will remove the doors from such antiques or else destroy them completely.

Be on the lookout for accident hazards on your farm. They will sabotage your economy and health and even your life. We are all interested in a strong productive nation. Spend safety practices on the farm and in the home can help us achieve this goal. Observe Farm Safety Week, July 23-28.

TWO CHAMPIONS OF THE ROAD... both Chevrolets!

To the eye, the new Corvette and the new Chevrolet are far different. But these two champions have one superb quality in common—both were born to cling to the road, as though they were part of it!

Chevrolet's astonishing roadability is a big reason why it's America's short track stock car racing champion. It can and does out-run and out-handle cars with 100 more horsepower. When you wed rock-solid stability to superb engines such as the 225-h.p. V8 that flashed the Corvette to a new American sports car record—then you get a real championship combination. Stop by for a sample!

America's largest selling car—2 million more owners than any other make.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Sports and Politics

Kentuckians were involved this past week here in the Capitol in sports and politics.

The All-Star game brought Governor Happy Chandler to the city and he occupied a seat on the stands right opposite Democratic leader Rayburn. The Republican contingent, [illegible] of other Kentuckians, were in the stands [illegible] from the Southern part of the state rooted for the Cincinnati stars.

After the Game:

After the ball game, Governor Chandler went up to the Hill to visit his former colleagues and talk a bit about his candidacy for the presidential nomination. He was escorted around the building by Congressman Frank Chelf and Noble Gregory.

Young A. B. Chandler, Jr. also is on hand. A recent graduate of the University of Kentucky, young Chandler has a top-notch job as administrative assistant to the new senator from Kentucky, Bob Humphreys. The position, incidentally, pays in the neighborhood of $14,000 a year. Not a bad neighborhood for a recent collegian.

Front Page:

The announcement that John Sherman Cooper was to run for the Senate took front-page lineage in the Washington papers. Political dopsters also had a field day on the development.

The Washington Post, however, didn't like the situation and took President Eisenhower to task. The editorial writer reasoned that Cooper was needed in Ike's where the situation is tense and to Ike, he was accused of playing politics at the expense of international [illegible].

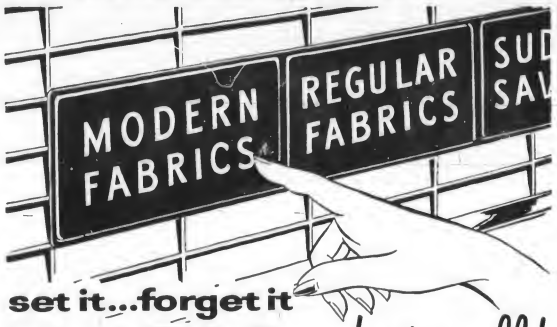
Pooled Wool Brings Good Price

The Boone County Wool Pool received its wool [illegible] and the buyer was John Newman, Louisville, according to Robert E. Grant. According to Beckham Crigler, secretary treasurer, 22,126 lbs. of wool were received which was about 3,000 lbs. more than in 1955. There was a very small number of pounds of wool [illegible].



Mr. Grant said that a higher price was received by members of the pool than was received by individuals. Boone sheepmen received approximately $10,000 for the pooled wool.

Farmers Can Get Refund On Gas Tax From Jan. 1

Farmers are entitled to claim a refund of the federal tax on all gasoline bought and used for farming during the period January 1 to June 30, 1956, say the USDA and University of Kentucky agricultural Extension economists.

Any owner, tenant or farm operator who buys gasoline for use on a farm may file a claim. He also may request a refund of the tax on any gasoline used on his farm by a custom operator or a neighbor in connection with cultivating the soil, or raising or harvesting a crop.

The amount claimable this year is two cents a gallon on each gallon purchased and used on a farm during the first six months. In future, claims will be filed for a 12-month period, running from July 1 through June 30.

Claims must be filed on IRS Form 2240, available at county agents offices or district directors of Internal Revenue. Date for filing is not later than October 1, 1956. Late claims will not be honored.

Refund claims must not be made for gasoline used off the farm; nor for gasoline used for other than actual farming purposes, such as highway use, lawnmowing, processing, packaging, freezing or canning. Good records must be kept too, to justify the farmer's claim.

OAK RIDGE

July and August seem to be the months for weddings, at least for the young people of our neighborhood—Barbara Green and Thomas Wilson were married July 21 at the Latonia Baptist Church; next Saturday, Marlene Price and Ronald Jarman will be married at Oak Ridge Baptist Church on August 3, Emma Grace Kells and Billy Batson will be married at the Latonia Baptist Church, August 4 has been chosen by Charles Deters and Mary Sue Krippenstapel for their wedding date at St John's Catholic Church, Covington.

Carpl Tallent and Linda Yates are spending this week at the Intermediate G. A. camp at Cedarmore Baptist Camp at Bagdad, Ky.

Two residents of our community, Mrs Ida Northcutt of Latonia Lakes, and Mr. Charles Arnsperger of Senaur Road, passed away last week. Our sympathy is extended to their families.

There are a number of our neighbors who are ill at this time. Mrs. John Fogel of Kleete Road is confined to her bed; Mrs. Henry Bindel is recuperating from an operation at Booth Hospital; Herman Whalen is in St Elizabeth Hospital where he underwent a serious spinal operation last Friday; Rodney Egger is still in bed, recuperating from his bout with hepatitis, and Mildred Brogan was ill at her home and unable to operate her grocery early this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Byrnes of Taylor Mill Pike, returned last week from their vacation trip to the West coast and Yellowstone National Park. Gladys Byrnes is again operation her beauty shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Banks and daughter, Sylvia, returned last week from a two weeks vacation trip to New England and Canada.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna were the guests at a Marshall family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons on Sunday.

We regret the fact that Mrs. Lorena Martin is in the Elizabeth hospital where she underwent an operation on Friday. We are glad however that she is doing nicely at last report. Hope she will soon be up and around new.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pruett were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ballinger and daughter, Betsy, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger.

Glad always to see new faces at Sunday school and church. We are easy folks to get acquainted with. Come!

The W. S. C. S. met with Mrs. George Tinnel on Thursday evening. The program on Work in Brazil was led by Mrs. Opal Shaw assisted by several others. Mrs. J. A. Keeney presented one chapter from the book, South of Himalayas. Twelve members were present. Mrs. Tinnell assisted by her mother, served delicious refreshments. Next meeting with Mrs. Leslie Elmore.

Mrs. Bess Mann is visiting Mrs. Minnie Fellmer and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Keeney and son spent Sunday afternoon with friends near Independence.

WHITES TOWER

Our new writer for this column brought me a few items of news and said if I wouldn't write them up for a few weeks as he will be on vacation for the next two weeks. We were kinda glad to get away as it just seems like part of our routine to sit down at our desk on Sunday and get our news letter ready.

Donald C. Perry of Southern Ave., Covington, wisely had his name put on the book for our newsy paper for the next year.

• The many friends of Mrs. Pete Blau can help to cheer her convalescence by sending her cards, or visiting her at St. Elizabeth hospital.

Mrs. Henry Bindle's friends will be glad to hear that she is much improved and will soon be back home from the same hospital.

Bro. Red Turner, formerly on radio and TV, brought the message Saturday night at the Amity Church revival. A large attendance enjoyed very much the talk and singing of this very sincere young man.

Mrs. Maude Brumback and family and Mrs. Lafe Miller left Wednesday for a vacation at Mammoth Cave and a week end vacation.

Brick work on the new home going up next door is being started this morning and the workmen are hoping for a week without rain.

Mrs. Gibson and children and her daughter Mrs. Pretzinger and family spent a day at Coney the middle of the past week.

Mr. Hasse has moved from his farm here back to his old home in Ft. Thomas and Mr. Gadd who brought his place has taken over and we welcome him to our little community and wish him very success.

Almost a cloudburst of rain descended on the Tower Wednesday morning as nearly an inch and one half of rain fell in a space of three hours. To say it was not needed would be putting it mildly.

Miss Linda Ward of Covington and Miss Janet Oliver, her girl friend, spent the past week with her former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ryle of the Tower.

Paul Campbel, pastor of a Georgetown Ohio Baptist Church, was a visitor to the Amity Church Saturday night and sang a beautiful sing and took other parts in the service. We predict a great future for this young man who but recently seen the light.

Mr. and Mrs. Young and Bud Ryle and wife of Cincinnati were visitors at the farm Sunday.

The wet weather will probably help the price of hay as we don't know how many crops have been lost by the continued rains but we knew of several in this immediate vicinity.—E.J.R.

Local News

Mrs. Flora Howard has returned home after spending several weeks vacationing in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deatherage and son Gary, Miss Mollie Deatherage and Bill Cason were calling on Richard Howard who is ill at his home on Church Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kacaba and baby Mike who have just returned from Fairbanks, Alaska, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howard and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Anderson were calling Sunday afternoon on Mr. and Mrs. Naaman Cook and son.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ryan, Mrs. Stanley Kacaba, Flora Howard, June Riley, Jill Junior Ryan and Mike Kacaba spent Sunday afternoon at Coney Island.

Mrs. Grace Knox, Mrs. Vera Wright and Mrs. Donna Wright entertained on Monday evening with a wiener roast for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Sr. and Charles Miller, Jr. of Germantown, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Teegarden and sons.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to express my appreciation to my friends who have been so kind and helpful during my illness in Christ Hospital and since I came home.

KIDNEY DISORDERS

By Dr. G. C. Donahoo

A great deal of mystery has existed in the popular mind as the kidney difficulties and to one unacquainted with the facts it might seem that the application of Chiropractic far the relief of such disorders is but another addition to the mystery.

The function of the kidney is that of elimination to filter out and excrete the excess water and waste products from the blood circulation. This function is made possible by the selective action of the cells of the kidney tubule. After the kidney cells remove the harmful substances from the blood, the unwanted materials are washed out of the tubules into the pelvis of the kidneys, down the ureters into the bladder, and then cast off by the act of urination.

It is easy to see that the junction of the kidney is dependent upon the integrity and condition of the epithelial cells that line the little tubules with which each kidney is honeycombed. These in turn depend for their health upon normal nerve impulses. The nerves that supply the kidney controlling the distribution of blood to the kidney and the excretary function of the organ can be traced to the center of the spine where any spinal displacement or irritation will interfere with their harmonious action.

The chiropractor is able to determine by modern diagnostic methods when kidney trouble does exist. He is thoroughly trained to remove any disturbance with the vital nerve supply to the kidneys restoring the normal health of the organ.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, by Dr. G. C. Donahoo, whose office is located at 7628 Dixie Highway, Florence, Ky. Phone ATlantic 3-5371.

Of Suffering

Lesson for July 29, 1956

Dr. Foreman

WHAT they did in ancient times without the mimeograph machine it is hard to imagine. If a modern church executive said to his secretary, "Miss Jones, take a letter, get it out to all the Christians in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia," Miss Jones would hardly know what to do without a typewriter and carbon paper at the least. She might wonder, too, what Christians in places as out-of-the-way as Bithynia might have in common with Christians in Asia. However, when Simon Peter wrote his letter, he knew what all those Christians had in common. "Now for a little while, if meant, to the end of their lives, you may have to suffer various trials." Trouble, trials, affliction, suffering—how many words there are for it, how many different kinds of it! St. Peter's letter, written so long ago in Greek, now in English has a fresh contemporary look about it. For trials and troubles are very ancient, but they are as new as the morning paper, they are as universal as the human race.

Suffering and Prayer

Christians in particular are bothered, when they think about suffering—especially their own or that of other Christians—in two ways. What is the use of suffering? and, Why should Christians suffer? These are the problems which Peter rolls into one problem: What use is it to Christians, to suffer? He brushes off one kind of suffering—when one gets into trouble on account of one's own wrongdoing. That is no puzzle. The puzzle comes when the good man, the Christian suffers perhaps because he is a Christian and for no other reason. One use of suffering Peter remembered from his own experience. When he was in jail in Jerusalem, the church held a prayer-meeting for him. Somewhat to their astonishment, their prayer was answered. Can we suppose that Peter himself had not been praying? His trouble, in short, had brought both himself and his friends to their knees; it had made them acutely aware of their need of God, and God in turn had made them know his power. Some people make fun of "foxhole religion"; but isn't it better than none?

Genuine Faith

Faith that has never been tested can be real; but only God knows it. Faith tested by suffering, when it endures, demonstrates how real it is. A missionary in India was trying to talk to an Indian about Christ. The Indian, who had just lost a wife he deeply loved, cried, "You lead a happy life, everything comes your way. If you had to go through what I go through, you'd not talk about faith!" Within a few months the missionary too lost his wife by death. At the funeral he stood by the casket and said: "If the man is here who told me I had never been through what he went through, I want to talk with him after this. Now maybe he will believe me." To make the story short, the Indian did come to believe as a Christian.

Everybody Has a Heartache

Another use for suffering is that it can open the heart wide. It does not always do this. Suffering by itself has no magic. It is only when the sufferer reaches up in trust to God that anything like "magic" comes to pass. But when one who is afflicted trusts in God even then, he may not have his pain—physical, mental or spiritual, whatever it be—removed; but he will find that he has joined the great fraternity of pain. His heart, hitherto in-turned, now turns outward. He knows the password to every human heart. For every one has his own heartache, and those unacquainted with grief find no entrance. Your own heartache is the key to the hearts of all men everywhere. Suffering "as a Christian"; this above all, as Peter says, is a mark of brotherhood throughout the world. The minister in Mississippi who loses his pastorate because he says a word of sympathy for wronged Negroes; the Indian who is stoned from the village well because he has turned from Mohammed to Christ; the Spanish Christian who is not allowed to worship except in forms approved by the government; the Chinese Christian who is forced to march in a parade at the hour of church worship; do we not suffer with them? For they are our own.

We'll Never Forget

July, 1956, is a month that so many of us in this vicinity will never forget—I believe it has been the wettest July I ever remember—the tornados is the main thing we will never forget. With all the damage and not one hurt seriously is a miracle. People are still coming to see what happened, and donations are coming in—several members and the pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, over in Kenton county, were here Monday and left a very nice gift and some clothing. This thing has grown into something that no one ever figured would happen. Chick Worthington, as fire chief, who has taken care of these donations, has been a busy man.

They have sent money from all over—the Christian Church just came in with a big check. Now I suppose they will appoint a committee from the churches and fire department to distribute this money and use it at the most needed places. Everyone has been so nice, and so many have helped these farmers and other victims clean up the mess. Delaney Johnson was in, said he has his chicken house up and his garage about finished. He wants to start on his barn soon, so he can get it finished by tobacco cutting time.

We went out and picked up Jean Crouch's Maytag washer, repaired it and took it home—about that time Myrle Crouch came in with a busted pitman rod—Chick soon had it repaired and ready for him to go to work. Harold Aylor came in, also having mowing machine pitman rod trouble—he bought a handful or repairs to put it back together again. Harold Franks from Stewartsville, stopped and bought mower repairs. Homer Farris also bought mower repairs for Floyd Sebree—he is going to mow off all the fields. Mr. Dawson from Piner bought mower repairs—so this was a repair day for mowers.

Friday, when I went down to the store, there were three lawn mowers for minor repairs—Chick was filling a mower knife with sections. Harold Johnson, out at Boone Lake, was here after a Dayton jet water system with all the pipe and fittings for putting water in his cottage. Mrs. Gertrude Webster sent up for five gallons of Bolce outside white—she is going to paint her house down by Readnour's feed store. Mrs. Cecil Dickerson was back today for three gallons of red roof and barn paint, also three gallons of asbestos fibre aluminum roof paint—she thought she was finished but Cecil found another building.

Fred Greene came in and bought his wife a Barton washer—these men are buying a washer every day for their wives—either that or wear dirty clothes, I guess. J. C. Reynolds had a repair job for Chick repairing his buench for his lawn. Cecil Sebree brought in two mower guards—Red put new plates on them in a few minutes.

Stanley Robinson is making most anything you ask for. I ordered him a lot of casters and Red cut him a lot of pipe—he is making someone a table, and he can make most anything as he has a lot of tools and knows how.

Lon Wilson came after a mower tongue—it was a little crooked, but it will work. We have a terrible time trying to keep these tongues straight. Red put in several tive handles today and some hammer handles. Every day we do a lot of repair work—we try to help keep these farmers working, as there is no blacksmith here now. Mrs. Sam Jackson and Mrs. Ishmael brought Mr. Jackson to town and bought five gallons of Bolce outside white paint, a gallon of green trim, some turpentine and linseed oil. Mr. Mullins stopped and got 50 pounds of Stabrite for Concord church.

Leonard Caldwell sent after more Jellef Magic paint. Marvin Darlington bought a lot of mower repairs. We are short a few items of hardware today, and it will be here at once. We have also pipe and fittings also Orangeburg pipe and fittings. We sure have sold the glass jars in the store. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods from Napoleon were in Friday as far as ever. Mrs. Woods says he eats five times a day—she bought a rotary mixer for painting. We have sold several cold pack canners and lots of freezer containers.

Mrs. Finley Jacobs, Sr. and Jr. were both here today—they bought semi-gloss Jelled Magic for woodwork and set them a wild lots of dishes today, several pots and pans, hoe handler hoes, mowing scythe, lots of bolts, bar iron, sponge mop, wet mops, brooms, wiring material, electric fence charger with all the fittings, heatstock oil, harness oil, sheep dip, Rathane, Rose Dust and lots of other items. Norman Hammond is back at work after being crippled for four years—he bought his granddaughter a toy pedal auto—she will have a big time now.

Stanley Parker bought a gallon of Bolce outside white paint and a gallon of Bolce Lustre-Kote white enamel. Dick Born, who lives at Fiskburg, and raises those Great Dane dogs bought several dog collars and chain. I bought a Dayton water system. Edgar Wilson bought bolts, nuts and wrenches—he is putting in something over in the empty building where the grocery was. Sam Hudson is putting Sta-Dri on his basement walls—it will keep the dampness out even if they don't leak and it makes the basement so much lighter and cleaner looking. Come to CONRAD'S, we have it!

C. H. Hopkins came after a fence charger—the grass is fine this year and they are putting in a lot of temporary fences. I just received a shipment of Rainmaster hayrilles, in plain models, to sell for $39.50. Small sizes last time of these before they go up. We have ring emails and tags to sell—$1.50 for 25 rings. tf

Southern States Meet Scheduled for Walton On Wed. Nite, Aug. 8

A "What's the Answer" contest leading to prizes valued at nearly $25,000 and elections of local board and Farm Home Advisory Committee members, will be among the highlights of the annual Southern States membership meeting for the Walton area, to be held at 6:30 p. m. August 8 at the Agent's Warehouse in Walton. The session is being sponsored by Southern States and Lipscomb Farm Supply.

There will also be a showing of the movie, "Partners," which is the story of how the farmer cooperative has become an important part of the farmer's business operations and how it benefits all the people. The movie was produced and distributed by the American Institute of Cooperation of which Southern States Cooperative is a member. The film has an all professional cast.

The "What's the Answer" contest — there will be about 450 such contests held throughout the six state operating territory of Southern States Cooperative within the next few months — will be built around a short film report of Southern States Cooperative and local agency operations for the past year.

To be eligible contestants must be 18 years of age or older as of August 1, 1956, and be a member or patron of Southern States or be a member of their families or be a member of any farm family. He or she must attend the local Southern States meeting in the community.

There will be three contests based on "What's the Answer" questions to be held at local meetings. Those entries will have their names entered in the grand prize competition which will be held as part of the Southern States annual stockholders meeting, scheduled for Lexington, Ky., in November. Two winners of the local meeting will receive electric skillets.

A total of 15 grand prizes all of them with cash options, will be awarded at Lexington. Included among these are $1,200 worth of Southern States supplies for use on the winner's farm, a 35 cu. ft. food freezer, a fertilizer spreader, $1,100 worth of Southern States supplies for use on the winner's farm, $1,000 worth of seed, a milking machine, a bulk milk tank, $1,000 worth of fertilizer, and other prizes.

Wilton Stephens, Burlington, will serve as chairman of the local meeting. Rev. J. R. Tackett, Walton, will give the invocation.

A report on local operations and services will be given by Henry Lipscomb, manager of Lipscomb Farm Supply, Southern States District Manager Kenneth Luttrell will report on over-all Southern States operations for the year ended last June 30.

Nominees for the local Southern States board for the Walton area are James Rice, Verona, W. W. Worthington, Morning View; Tevis Thomas, Crittenden, and Myrix Crouch, Verona.

Nominees for the Farm Home Advisory Committee are Mrs. Frank Penick, Sr., Mrs. Herbert Day, Mrs. Ira Stephenson, all of Walton, and Mrs. P. E. Bush, Crittenden. Other nominations may be made from the floor.

Members of the board whose terms expire this year are Charles Watson and Bryant Rust. Members of the Farm Home Advisory Committee whose terms expire this year are Mrs. Harold Vest and Mrs. Myrix Crouch.

Members of the general committees assisting with the meeting are Patron's tickets, Leo Flynn, chairman, Walton, and Mrs. Joe Damaschko, Erlanger, greeting, Lassing Huey, chairman, Walton, and Mrs. Walter King, Verona.

Merchants Defeat Petersburg

The Walton Merchants softball team turned on the power last Friday night with a barrage of hits to defeat Petersburg in the first game of the elimination series. The count was 11-4. The Merchants were led to victory by the strong pitching of Anderson who, during the seven innings pitched, struck out 10 men, and also aided his own cause with two hits, one of which was a triple. Other hits by Walton were Rice, with four, and Ryan three. Willett also helped out with a long triple. Each man had at least one hit for the locals. The losing hurler for Petersburg was W. Burns.

On Friday night, August 3, the Walton Merchants travel to Petersburg to play Hebron in the second game of the two-losses-and-out elimination series and everyone is urged to attend and give their support to the locals.

Aerialists at Verona, Sunday

The famous Siegrist family will be on the big stage show coming to Verona Lake Ranch, Sunday, August 5th. They are famous world over and will present two shows during the days stage shows.

All-Day Meeting Held At the Piner Baptist Church Last Sunday

Piner Baptist Church held an all-day meeting Sunday, July 29 at the regular hour of the month, the day was called "Fellowship Day."

Sunday School and Worship Services were held as usual with morning service and attendance. Bro. Wilson delivered the morning message after which a bountiful dinner was served in the basement for members and friends.

At 2:30 the congregation assembled in the auditorium for the ordination of Mr. Elmer Spaulding as a deacon.

The pastor, Rev. Robert Wilson conducted the ordination service and read the Scripture. A special message in song was brought by Brother Wilson and Carlos Oliver.

Rev. Frank Krueger of Kenton Baptist Church served as interrogator for the ordination of Mr. Spaulding and Rev. Joe Tackett of Walton Baptist Church gave the charge to the church. These two able ministers made the ceremony very impressive.

The laying on of hands was enacted by the deacons of this church and a number of visiting deacons from Pleasant Ridge, Walton and Crittenden with the pastor, Rev. Krueger, Rev. Tackett and Rev. Osborne from Clark's Creek Baptist Church.

Watermelon Festival

A watermelon festival and white elephant sale sponsored by the Chi-Rho, will be held on the lawn of the Walton Christian Church, Saturday afternoon, August 4. You are invited.

South American Home Demonstration Agent Visits Boone County

Boone county was selected as hostess to a Home Demonstration Extension Agent from Brazil July 23-27, under the supervision of Miss Nancy Guilfoil, Local Home Demonstration Extension Agent.

Miss Ambrosina Ribeiro is a Municipal Home Demonstrator for the Rural Credit and Assistance Association, where she supervises home extension work for better homes and living in rural areas. She helps farm people to help themselves through teaching good food habits, home management, home industries, and gardening. Her main problems among the Brazilian rural people are poor nutrition due to few gardens, health and conitation, buying a selection and construction of clothing, and child care and housing, since the average rural family consists of seven children.

During her visit here, Miss Ribeiro observed the county extension program and methods used in the office, in adult and youth education clubs, and in the farm and home development program.

Among the week's program, Miss Ribeiro visited a Utopia Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Sterling Dickey, and helped the home agent and apprentice, Miss Joyce Kelly, judge at the Grant County Fair.

Miss Ribeiro's favorite American food is Southern fried chicken, but she does not like our unusual baked beans with sugar. She liked Kentucky horses, bluegrass, and the hospitality. She said, "The biggest social difference between our country and this does not exist in Brazil."

Miss Ribeiro will stay in Kentucky four months and then in the following two months will visit Indiana, Georgia, and Puerto Rico. She is a graduate of the Izabela Hendrix Methodist College, under the direction of America, and speaks and understands English.

Vacation Bible Scchool

The annual Vacation Bible School at the Zion Baptist Church in Walton will start Monday, August 6th and run thru August 12. Each day from 9 a. m. to noon. Preparation day will be Saturday, August 4 when all workers and pupils are requested to be present. The school is sponsored by the Walton Baptist Church, under the direction of the pastor Rev. J. R. Tackett with workers from his church. All colored children in the community are cordially welcome.

Fair Catalogs Off the Press

The Boone County 4-H and Utopia Club Fair catalogs are off the press and may be obtained from any Boone County bank, the County Agent's office, R. V. Lents, Florence.

The Ladies Aid of Lebanon Presbyterian Church will meet at the church on Friday, August 10, at 10:30 a. m. All members are urged to be present.

Future Homemakers To Set Goals for Year At 2-Day Conference

Tonight, Kentucky district and state officers of the Future Homemakers will take part in a Talent Program at the Future Farmers Training Center, in Hardinsburg. Approximately 150 officers and their advisers will assemble from 14 districts for two days to carry out the theme, "Let's Play Ball With FHA." These officers represent 12,546 Future Homemakers from 235 chapters in the state. State officers, under the leadership of their president, Wanda Levett of Junction City, her adviser, Mrs. Marianne Kirby, and their state adviser, Miss Mary Bell Vaughan, will set up goals for the coming year. Following this, district executive councils will formulate their goals and activities to coincide with the state goals. Also, at the conference, each district officer will receive special help for carrying out effectively her responsibilities for the year.

Jo Ann Heideman, of Simon Kenton, who is state FHA treasurer, will be in charge of tonight's general session, preceding the Talent Show. She will serve as chairman of all the district treasurers and will work with them in such a manner that each understands her responsibilities well and can handle money efficiently in her district organization. Jo Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Heideman of Demossville. Jean Elliott, also of Simon Kenton Chapter, will be a member of the Recreation Group, since she is the district recreation leader. Jean lives on Green Road with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Elliott, and family. Friday morning a symposium on "You in the Game of Group Work," will have as its consultant, Mrs. Helen McElroy, who is Jean and Jo Ann's adviser. In this symposium will be Sandy Kertz of the Highlands Chapter. Accompanying Mrs. McElroy to Hardinsburg will be the two above mentioned Simon Kenton Chapter members and Linda Longbons, of the Grant County Chapter. Linda is representing Margie Webb, who is district treasurer but, due to illness, cannot attend.

Farm Bureau Plans Meetings Throughout County During Month

Beckham Shields, President, Boone County Farm Bureau, is very anxious that all Boone county farmers, whether Farm Bureau members or not, participate in the various group policy development discussions scheduled to be held throughout the county during the month of August.

Similar meetings are being held durust, Mr. Shields explained, by Farm bureau members in 114 Kentucky counties. From the recommendations thus developed, the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, at its annual meeting to be held in Lexington in November, can, in turn, endeavor to have such recommendations enacted into law, from either a national level a state level, or if no legislation is required, to secure greater cooperation from the various government and state agencies.

Mr. Shields reminded Farm Bureau members that the objectives of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation are: To organize effectively; to promote and protect the interests of Kentucky farmers; to enlarge and ennoble their field of endeavor; to win for them that recognition of their usefulness and power to which they are justly entitled; to raise the standards of farming and rural homemaking throughout our beloved Commonwealth; to establish a high code of ethics among the members of our vocation; to represent farmers in any legitimate manner which may promote their best interests—economically, educationally and socially; to increase the effectiveness of county Farm Bureaus by strengthening their educational and service programs; to strengthen the whole Kentucky Farm Bureau program by unifying the county programs while preserving local initiative; to cooperate with the College of Agriculture and the Home Economics of the University of Kentucky, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the Extension Service, Vocational Education Department, the State Department of Agriculture, the Soil Conservation Service, and other agencies working for the welfare of agriculture thus advancing the best interest of all people of Kentucky.

Mr. Shields listed the various directors of the Boone County Farm Bureau and their communities as follows:

Lamar H. Congleton, Burlington; John E. Crigler Burlington; Ben F. Dixon, R. 2, Walton; Gilbert Dolwick, Constance; S. W. Eichholz, R. 2, Walton; Omer Dolwick, R. 1, Burlington; W. Robert Ellis, Burlington; J. Lassing Huey, R. 2, Walton; Earl Jones, Verona; Embry Klopp, R. 1, Petersburg; Grant Maddox, R. 1, Florence; F. W. McWhorter, R. 1, Petersburg; D. E. Ogden, R. 1, Union; Robert B. Rogers, R. 1, Petersburg; Sebern Scott, R. 2, Burlington; Beckham Shields, R. 2, Walton; L. C. Tanner, R. 1, Florence; Mrs. L. H. Congleton, Burlington; Mrs. J. E. Crigler, Hebron; Mrs. Grant Maddox, R. 1, Florence.

Heading Boone County Farm Bureau policy development committee is J. Lassing Huey, Union.

Fair at Simon Kenton, Wednesday, August 8

Several hundred dollars in premiums will be available to Kenton County 4-H Club members at their 23rd annual 4-H Club Fair, Wednesday, August 8. The event is sponsored by the Kenton County 4-H Club Council and will be held on the grounds of the Simon Kenton High School, near Independence. Exhibitian is limited to Kenton County 4-H Club members.

Four-H entries in the girls' classes, clothing, canning, foods, and handicraft are to be made by 10 a. m., Tuesday, Augpust 7, and remain on exhibit thru the following day. Miss Edith Locey, 4-H specialist from the University of Kentucky, will hold a training school for 4-H clothing leaders as she judges the girls' entries on Tuesday. All local leaders in 4-H clothing projects have been urged to attend this training school. Luncheon has been arranged by the 4-H Council.

Boys are reminded to have their 4-H entries made no later than 10 o. m., Wednesday, August 8. These entries will remain on exhibit until 4 p. m. of the same day. Boys' classes include swine, rabbits, poultry, beef cattle, sheep, garden and tobocco, club secretary's records, entomology, dairy, and electrical and woodwork. Record books must accompany both boys and girls entries. Girls entries will be made in the cafeteria of Simon Kenton school, and boys entries in the lovestock and garoge buildings in rear of school.

According to Robert Jackson, chairman of the Kenton County 4-H Club Council, one of the best 4-H garden and electrical exhibits in yeors is expected. He has urged all county 4-H club members to have their project work on exhibit at this year's 4-H fair.

Ice Cream Social Saturday

The annual home-made ice cream social given by members of Jobs Daughters Bethel No. 8 of Independence, will be held Saturday evening starting at 7 p. m. on the Independence Court House lawn. There will be home-made ice cream cake, parcel post sale, fish pond, soft drinks, coffee and the Country Store, all of which was a great success last year.

The public is cordially invited to attend this delightful event given by the most courteous and efficient girls of Independence.

Cake Wins Prize at Fair

Mrs. Ethel Breeden, Walton, won first prize for a blackberry coke at the Grant County Fair. Ethel is noted in these parts for her wonderful cakes. Congratulations!

Boone County Fair Set for Aug. 23-25, With New Features

The Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair will be held August 23, 24 and 25, according to John Crigler, chairman.

Mr. Crigler said that new attractions have been added this year and that there has been an increase in prize money. One of the new attractions will be the County Church Sing, which is expected to add much to the fair and give the churches an opportunity to have a part in the fair. The "sing" will be held Thursday night. There have also been new improvements at the grounds for the comfort of those attending.

The various committees and clubs are working hard to make this year's fair the biggest in the history of the event.

Those who plan to have exhibit booths at the fair are urged to make reservations at once.

GERIATRICS

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Is old age really a disease? A state of mind? Or just a natural condition? Old age should be the best part of life. Family responsibilities have ceased to exist and many old people have acquired a competence and are free from financial worries. Still many are unhappy and time hangs heavily on their hands.

Helping those in need, taking more interest in children are of great assistance in warding off senility. Following the latest discoveries of science, becoming interested in people, civic, religion, politics, etc.

Perhaps the most prominent symptom of old age is a settling of the spinal column, it actually decreases in length from one to several inches, due to the thinning of the cartilagenous cushions between the spinal bones.

This condition greatly interferes with the flow of energy supplied by the spinal nerve to the various organs, greatly decreasing their efficiency. Spinal manipulations and adjustments are of great assistance to avoid diseases peculiar to the aged.

Plain, easily digested foods, small meals and more of them to avoid taxing the digestive organs, induce well being and promote restful sleep. Keep planning and looking into the future. That is the way to postpone old age.

Curtis Chandler of Cincinnati was calling on Mr. and Mrs. Mayro Hayden on Sunday afternoon.

GLENCOE

Sadness has covered the entire county and state over the loss of our fine banker and friend and neighbor, Olin Stewart of Warsaw. Olin was always kind and good to each and everyone he met, always took time to say a few friendly words to the poor, as well as rich, always ready and willing to help in time of need. He will be sadly missed by his family, his church, his bank, his neighbors and friends. His memory will never die, it will live on in the lives of people.

Mrs. Stella Ross is slowly improving.

The new pastor has moved into the Baptist parsonage—Bro. Richerson, wife and four children. Welcome to these good people.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gordon had a big home-coming Sunday and all the family and friends gathered for a nice day together.

Mrs. June Gullion and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Maddox, Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Noel has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Bob Snow and Mrs. Walter Noel.

A revival will begin at Sugar Creek Church of Christ, August 5. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The Glencoe Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Arch Maddox last week. All had a nice day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kinman entertained their children Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Lindell Boaz and Raymond Courtney and family.

BITING FLIES CAUSE NERVOUSNESS IN CATTLE

Biting flies, three types of them common to Kentucky, can take a big toll of milk production and beef production.

Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station entomologists identify the three types as the horn fly, the stable fly, and the well-known horsefly. Insecticides are effective against only one of these three, the horn fly; repellents must be used against the other two.

Horn flies can be knocked out by Methoxychlor in dairy operations; for cattle not being milked, Lindane can be used, for cattle not being milked or finished for slaughter, DDT can be used. Each preparation's label bears the proportions for use against the horn fly.

Activated or synergized pyrethrins, repellents or the material known as Crag fly repellent, can be used in areas where the stable fly and the horsefly abound. However, they are short lasting.

The entomologists note that each of these flies is a "sharp" biter and extremely worrisome to cattle. Research is under way now to find an agent that will control stable flies and horse flies.

Richard Thurston, entomologist, points out that the materials mentioned here—Methoxychlor, Lindane and DDT—are materials that can be used on the animals themselves subject to the conditions noted above. Malathion and Diazinon, two highly effective materials, are for use on premises only and cannot be put into living animals such as beef and dairy cows, etc.

At Verona Lake Ranch

—Johnny Cash

Johnny Cash, the tall and handsome young man of 23 summers, has had many hits out on records, "Cry, Cry, Cry," "Folsom Prison Blues," "I Get So Doggone Lonesome," "Hey Porter," "Get Rhythm," and now the big current hit that everyone is singing, "I Walk the Line."

Johnny hails from Dyess, Ark., just a short drive from Memphis, Tenn., which he now calls home. After school and a stint in the service, Johnny came back home to settle down and get married. While studying in radio school he made his first record, and he was on the road to fame.

The original material Johnny uses, coupled with his distinctive deep voice, and the completely different backing he gets from the "Tennessee Two," Marshall Grant and Luther Perkins, has already identified him as one of the most distinctive new country stars to come along in many years. Constant demands for his services keep him on the road a great deal of the time.

Johnny is very modest about his success. He enjoys visiting home in Memphis, where his pretty young wife and two handsome children await him. And when he's home he is either romping with the babies or writing another hit song.

Johnny Cash and the Tennessee Two are stars of the Grand Ole Opry now and will be appearing in person Sunday, August 5, at Verona Lake Ranch. While at Verona, Johnny may go fishing between shows because he loves to fish, and have an occasional fish-fry.

Staffordsburg WSCS Meets

The W. S. C. S. of the Staffordsburg Church met at the home of Mrs. George Finnell Jr. last Thursday evening with fourteen members present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. George Miller. Opening song by the group, then prayer. Scripture reading by Mrs. Bessie Cummins.

Mrs. Shaw, program leader, read from the program book, subject "Scatter the Seed" assisted by several of the members. Mrs. Keency then gave a chapter reading from the study book.

The business meeting was then opened for some discussions. The society voted on sending a donation to the Walton Tornado sufferers. The meeting closed with prayer by the president.

The August meeting will meet with Mrs. [illegible] on August 9th at 8 p. m. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and fruit was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Joe Richard. Any Ancients who can come to our meetings are always welcome and also to join our society.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

In Two Ways

Lesson for August 5, 1956

THE United States now has more drug addicts than all other western nations combined—sixty thousand. In the past three years the Federal Bureau of Narcotics has compiled a list of names and addresses of 30,000 known addicts, and the list is growing at the rate of a thousand every month. These and other facts were brought to light last January by a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee after seven months seeking the facts. Illicit dope traffic they found out has tripled since World War II. Whereas in the war's end there was one addict to every 20,000 persons, now there is one to every 3,000. Approximately 50% of all crime in our cities and 25% of all crime in the nation at large is traceable to drug addiction.

Dr. Foreman

How Does It Start?

The narcotics evil, like the alcohol evil, like most social sores, begins with the young people. If for one generation you could bring up children and young people with no knowledge of such things and no temptation to indulge, you would have dealt a heavy blow to those who traffic in these things. Nobody, no healthy boy or girl certainly, wants to be the sort of wretch Frank Sinatra played in "The Man with the Golden Arm," or the kind of persons you may find in the hospitals that try to do something with narcotics victims. But young people the traffic must have. Thirteen per cent of all dope addicts in the country are under 21. These figures from TIME magazine for last Jan. 16 s. Now how does a boy or girl get started on the dope habit? How do they get started drinking? The other night a boy in his second stolen car for that night knocked in two store fronts and woke up in the hospital. His girl friend woke up next morning in jail. Both were about sixteen, both had been drinking beer, she said. The question is, Why do they do it? What starts them off?

Letting Yourself Go

One answer given by young people themselves is that they are after thrills, "a kick." Just being young is not thrill enough, they have to jazz it up with alcohol or narcotics. Let yourself go! they say to themselves. Go on faster, faster, when all the thrill nature provides are stale, then go after the artificial jolts you can get from a bottle or a hypodermic syringe. This is not all the fault of young people. Older people often lead them astray. Even teachers may do it, for there is a philosophy of education that says, in effect, that a child must never be made to do what he doesn't want to do. "What I want" is supposed to be the key to happiness. Now this is precisely the opposite of the Christian way of living. Self-control, not letting yourself go, is always a mark of the Christian life in every New Testament description of it. Life without inner control is not only a weak life, it is headed for a crash.

Who's to Blame?

Sometimes the blame for young people's downfall is not to be laid at the door of the traffickers in drugs. Parents themselves who have never said "No" may be to blame. Some years ago a school for girls received this letter from a wealthy woman: "My daughter has always been spoiled and given as much money as she could spend. She is sixteen years old and I'm afraid has the wrong view of life. . . . I don't think her companions are just the right sort either . . . I shall try very hard to have her wardrobe proper although it will be extremely difficult because she has always had very expensive and extremely fancy clothes. . . . Please advise as to what subjects she had better take up. If either Latin or domestic science can be taken I prefer D.S. because she knows very little about cooking. I am very glad the girls are requested to keep their rooms in order . . . It is my wish that my daughter becomes what a real American girl should be, a perfect wife and mother, and under your care I hope she will come home to us a different girl." Do you think she did? Do you think she could have? If you had been in charge of that school, would you have accepted this girl? If she finally turned out to be an alcoholic or a narcotic drug addict, whose fault would it have been? The Christian Way is the harder road—till you get to the end!

WHITES TOWER

Bob Mathis, Tom Brumback and the writer went on a fishing trip to Dam 38 and Middle Creek last Monday.

Mrs. Merrill of Fowler Creek Road who has been suffering from a tooth infection, we are glad to report is much better at this writing.

A good crowd of members of Amity Baptist Church visited the revival services being held at Bellevue Saturday night by Bro. Red Turner who was very pleased to see the large number that turned out altho it was a very bad night.

After looking around this Monday morning after the storm, we could not help but think how lucky we were that we did not get one of those twisters that wreck your houses and barns. There is always a silver lining to all dark clouds.

The storm Saturday halted the Hot Rod races at the Bowl here as the track was very muddy and dangerous so the races were wisely called off.

Early sugar corn, tomatoes and beets are on the menu here this week though the storm damaged the tomatoes to a considerable extent we still think we will have them on sale next week.

Our "Reds" showed signs of an awakening of their power over the week-end and they will surely need it, the way Milwaukee is going at the present time.

The blackberry crop is almost a complete failure on account of so much rain which has had a tendency to soften them up which makes them unfit to can. The only recourse is jelly and jam so we may have a few this week for our old customers who have been buying from us over the years.

The storm Saturday seemed to center on the Independence area in regard to wind. Mrs. Brumbock of McCollum Rd. reports that large limbs were blown from trees in that vicinity.

Bud Ryle and wife of Cincinnati, Bro. Bob Brumback and family of Latonia Lakes and Billy Baker of the Lakes were guests of the writer and wife Sunday.

Workmen finished the brick work on the new Dorsey home and this Monday morning the carpenters are taking over.

Milk Program

If you're involved in Boy Scout, 4-H or similar activities for youths, note that Congress has passed a bill extending the school milk program to camps run by such organizations. They thus become eligible for reimbursement by the Department of Agriculture for part of the cost of milk served under the program. Also made eligible for nursery schools, settlement house and other child-care institutions operated on a non-profit basis.

Personal Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Woltgang Fite of Hoffman Heights subdivision, had as guests their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Thoroughman. The Thoroughman's were returning to Maysville from honeymooning thru Kentucky and Tennessee, where they will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Fite accompanied them to Maysville where they visited other relatives.

Mrs. S. C. Fisk, Mrs. Edna Rich, Mrs. Clora Cook and Mrs. H. L. Pitcher motored to Berea last week to see the drama "Wilderness Road" by Paul Green now playing at the Indian Fort, an open air theatre. This is the second season for this great show and the performances were enjoyed by all attending.

Merl Appel of 3-L Highway entered Booth Hospital last Sunday for X-rays and observation. Merl does not know how long he must remain there but I'm sure he would appreciate having friends--to visit him and to receive cards.

Just A Thought

Are You A Litter Bug?

Traveling through Indiana and Illinois I noticed one particular sign along the highway which reads: "$100 Fine for throwing any material from your Auto" and the highway police are ordered to enforce this law to the fullest. The persons breaking this law are called Litterbugs and there are many beautiful roads in these two states. Their maintenance crew was reduced 50 per cent because of this enforcement.

In touring Kentucky, have you noticed various types of waste having been thrown from vehicles to such extent that it looks trashy and undesirable? I understand that Kentucky has a similar law toward keeping our highways cleaner. So the next time you are about to oust some paper or waste from your auto, just stop and think—Why be a litterbug?—wait until you stop and then place that material in a trash can.

Kenton County Garden Club

The recent meeting held by members of the Kenton County Garden Club was held at the home of Miss Elma Taylor on Rector Road. The guest speaker for this meeting was Mrs. Vernon Nix, the chairman of Ways and Means of the Blue Grass Region. All attending enjoyed the subjects covered by the speaker.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are glad to learn, Mrs. Lorena Martin is improving in St. Elizabeth hospital and we hope will soon be able to be back home.

We are very glad to see the beautiful sunshine this morning after such a bad storm in this community Saturday afternoon, a terrible rain, quite a bit of hail, but glad to report not much damage only limbs and trees blown down.

The Staffordsburg Sunday School was well attended Sunday and we hope for more next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brannock and son Robert of Kelat, spent Sunday with relatives here and were visitors at our Sunday school and church services.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were the guests of Mrs. Keeney's sisters of Independence on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Finnell Jr. entertained with a family dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Finnell's cousin, Chester Ballanger and family of Arizonia. They are spending a couple weeks with Chester's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballanger.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp entertained for dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George Langlois and children of Latonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna entertained with a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of five birthdays in the family, in the month of July. There was twenty guests present.

Mr. Will House of Independence who has been quite ill, is not much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Losey and son, J. B. were Sunday callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter of Lexington returned home on Sunday evening from a few days visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey visited over the week-end with Mrs. Losey's parents of Owenton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barnett and son attended the Camp meeting at Wilmore over the week-end and reported a splendid meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett and little daughter spent several days visit with relatives of Lexington and Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Rev. George Miller and family had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McLott and children of Latonia Lakes.

Cash income from poultry in Boyd county in 1955 was $476,750, which put poultry near the top as a source of cash farm income in the county.

AUGUST

The months have gone so fast this year, it will be cold weather before we know it. Last week, Chick sold two ladies from over in Kenton county, a new Perfection oil heater, to be installed after Labor Day. The weather is so cool, we have not had but a few hot days. I wanted to go to the Smoky Mountains for a few days but it will be so cool in those mountains it will feel like fall. But August is always a hot month—a vacation month for so many people. August 13 is my birthday and as I have told you before, I was born on Friday, the 13th, in 1907.

Several farmers had hail on their tobacco Saturday—some was real bad. We've had everything in this part of Kentucky this year—so much wind, we never had anything like this before. Red set up some new double tubs on legs, a Mastercut lawn mower, a rubber tired wheelbarrow and he cleaned up the warehouse. We sold a little of everything. Mr. Below over in Kenton came after wiring material. Bob Morgan needed plumbing material, he was installing a water heater for someone. There is nothing like electric hot water heaters—clean, cheap and always hot.

Fred Bott came in and said there was something wrong with his Dayton water pump—Brewster went right over and repaired it. that's the reason for buying at CONRAD'S, we do our best to give service. I have a beautiful 66" double bowl kitchen sink, and it is a bargain for someone, for I am going to sell it to someone before stove time, as I have to have the space for heating stoves. CONRAD has a very good stock of heaters now and more coming. We want to be ready when you are to solve your heating problems.

During the month of August we get all the heating systems ready for winter. We check the roots and gutters for leaks and paint them, if needed. August is a fine time to paint all the buildings and get all the odd jobs done. CONRAD has most all types of paint and repairs for all your buildings. It can't be long until winter, so get everything ready—120 days will soon pass. We come to CONRAD'S for all your repair needs. Don't forget, it it is hot we have those electric fans at CONRAD'S!

Stuny Ingram came back after 18 more of the 3 yard wide linoleum—he covered two large rooms from wall to wall with Armstrong linoleum. Brewster put linoleum on the kitchen and bathroom floors of Jerry Maxwell's new house on Verona Road. Mrs. Harvey Hughes came after a bit of paint and varnish for their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Treadway were having paint trouble with some of that rubber base wall paint, but we gave them some different paint for their walls. Once in awhile we get a bad mixture—this happened to be rubber base wall paint, so we gave them more paint of another brand.

Brewster put down a room of linoleum for W. A. Salmons in Fairview Court, then he went up to Miss Mary Collins at Bracht and put new stove pipe in their coal range. Vernon Porterfield came in with a rod burned out of his lawn mower, so I traded him a new one for it. Mrs. Kenneth Stamper bought a remnant of linoleum and a few small articles. Riley Prather came after more plastic pipe and fittings. Helen Collins, daughter Shirley and son, Bill, from over at Nicholson bought several small items and a shower gift for a meiene.

Luther Barlin bought a 20" electric fan. S. C. Combs at High Street bought a large 20" window fan. Omer Hale took home a very nice 18" table model electric fan. Jerry Roland also bought a very nice fan. Mrs. Clo-nes Robinson, down at Richwood, called and said she was ready for that window air conditioner, so Brewster took it down and installed it for her. The gentleman who bought the farm on Verona Road, known as the Berry Johnson place, was here getting more Bolce outside white paint—he has used several gallons at this fine paint.

We sold lots of canning supplies, cold pack canners and pressure canners this week. Chick sold Sidney Cantwell a Mastercut power mower—he lives at Verona. We put in a lot of handles and filled mower knives with new sections, rewired electric lamp, and several other small repair jobs. We have a lot of summer items to sell—metal lawn chairs, folding wood deck chairs, croquet sets, hammocks with stands or without, ice cream freezers, freezer chest, picnic jugs, all types of electric fans, and all at good prices, so we won't have to carry them over for next year.

Scott Lancaster and Bobby were here getting Sta-Dri to paint Mary Rensler's basement—last week they bought Bruce paint to paint her house outside. Dawson Bottinger, from Ata-mont, was here today with his son from Phoenix, Ariz. he sure is a big fellow. Lloyd McCubbin, wife and boys were in getting a few items—every day they look for something they thought they had but it flew away. Two ladies from Kenton county bought several aluminum kettles, also a lot of small hardware—we have a lot of Kenton co. customers. Loretta Johnson, who is on her vacation, called for me to bring her a badminton set—she wants to get a lot of exercise. Thomas Guard, his wife and her brother were here, they bought hinges and a flashlight. This rain favors the fast growing season we have had for a long time. All the crops are growing by leaps and bounds. We are having lots of wedding and showers for the newlyweds, time to CONRAD'S for your gifts—we have many items to select from.

Insurance Rates Increase Hits Young Drivers In Kentucky

Sharp increases went into effect on August 1 on automobile liability insurance rates for young male drivers in various sections of the State.

There was a slight reduction in rates for young female drivers but increases to a smalled degree for other drivers were made.

State Insurance Commissioner Cad P. Thurman announcing the new ... said a new survey of automobile ... ent statistics showed wrecks involv ... ung men are "far out of line" with those of other drivers.

In Louisville, Paducah and Lexington areas the rates went up as much as $35 a year. Rates for female and older male drivers increased from $2 to $6 in the same areas.

Covington and Newport's young drivers will pay more but the rates for the others will remain about the same.

The sharp increases for young male drivers resulted in part from a new measuring stick which grouped all drivers under 25 for statistical purposes.

Segregating the two brought into clear focus the major blame of young males in the overall accident picture. Thurman said, adding:

They have been responsible for a very heavy loss ra...

Fourth Son Born to Tudors

While vacationing in Kentucky, the fourth son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tudor of Guam, at the Richmond, Ky., Hospital, named James Herbert.

Mrs. Tudor is the former Julia Hoffman, daughter of Clestial and the late Herbert F. Hoffman of Carlisle Road, Kenton county.

The Tudor family plans to leave for Guam, August 14, via American Air Lines.

At Lackland Air Force Base

Terry Gabriel Lunsford, 18, son of Mrs. Oval Lunsford, Verona, is completing his Air Force basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, near San Antonio, Texas.

His training is preparing him for entrance into Air Force technical training or for an Air Force duty assignment. The course includes a scientific evaluation of his aptitude and inclination for following a particular career field.

Blanch Vegetables Before Freezing Says Ky. Food Specialist

Sweet corn that is being prepared for freezing very definitely should be blanched, according to Mrs. Pearl Haak, Extension food specialist at the University of Kentucky.

Mrs. Haak made the statement in contradiction to a rumored recommendation that sweet corn could be satisfactorily frozen in the husk. Such a practice is not wise, she explained, as continued enzyme action in the corn results in a change in flavor, which can be stopped only by blanching. The undesirable flavor of unblanched corn (or other vegetables) may develop as early as three weeks after freezing, she said, and within six to 10 weeks the food may be entirely unfit for use.

For best results in freezing, Mrs. Haak says to: 1) Select perfect ears of young, tender, sweet corn in the thin-milk stage; husk, remove silks, trim and wash; 2) for whole-kernel corn, place the ears in rapidly boiling water for four minutes; chill quickly in cold water, drain and cut kernels off cob, pack into containers, leaving one-half inch head space seal and freeze; 3) for cream style corn, cut off grains half way to cob and scrape cob; add one-fourth cup of water to one cup of corn; bring to boiling point, then set pan of corn in cold water and chill thoroughly; pack into containers, leaving one-half inch head space; seal and freeze.

LEGION AUX. TO MEET

The regular meeting of Johnson McElrey American Legion Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday, August 14th at 8:30 p. m. at the City Building.

The unit members are very proud of their years work as they won two citations this year, one from the National and one from Department at the State Convention, which was held this year at Paducah, Ky.

All final plans will be held for the Annual picnic being held the 17-18 at the Walton playgrounds.

Remember books of tickets are on sale for a Westinghouse rooster and a lovely bedspread which will be drawn on Saturday night, August 18th.

All members are urged to be present at this meeting as this will be the last meeting before installation of new officers for the coming year, which will be held August 27th at Jonado Restaurant on the Dixie Highway.

Soil Bank To Pay Kentucky Farmers Total of $4,803,285

Kentucky farmers will receive $4,803,285 under soil bank agreements signed up to July 20.

The deadline for signing the agreements was July 27, a spokesman of the Department of Agriculture states. The soil bank program under which farmers receive federal payments for withdrawing land from the production of certain crops, was set up earlier this year by Congress.

Farmers signed 12,128 agreements for withdrawing 143,632 acres from corn production and will receive $4,483,893.

Nine hundred and forty agreements withdrawing 877 acres of burley tobacco land from production will net farmers $130,146. Total payments of $93,664 will be received by 599 farmers for the withdrawal of 779.46 acres of dark fire-cured tobacco and 632 agreements for withdrawal of 407.4 acres from dark air-cured tobacco were signed for total payments at $6,795.

Wheat agreements totaled 336, covering 4,196 acres and providing payments of $19,245.

The State's relatively few cotton farmers signed 113 agreements to withdraw 181.6 acres from production, to receive $9,542.

ANNA BROWN TANDY

Mrs. Anna Brown Tandy, of near Glencoe, passed away August 2, at the Dry Ridge Rest Home. She was 83 years old, and had been a member of the Glencoe Church of Christ for over fifty years.

Survivors include a daughter, Miss Leota Mae Tandy, at home; two sons, J. V. Tandy of Aurora, Ind., and Forrest C. Tandy of Cincinnati, Ohio; three grandsons, and five great-grandchildren.

Services were held Sunday afternoon, August 5, at the Glencoe Church of Christ, with burial in the Ghent Cemetery.

Hamilton funeral home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

THOMAS BENSON

Services were held last Wednesday afternoon at the Swindler funeral home in Independence, for Thomas Richard Benson, 66, former resident of northern Kentucky, who died suddenly July 29, at his home in Hamilton, Ohio. He was a veteran of World War I, and retired.

He leaves only a sister, Mrs. Anna Lee Elliott, Independence.

ROBERT STEVENS

Robert Stevens, a driver for Commercial Freight Co. of Indiana, died Sunday at St. Elizabeth hospital, Covington. He was 50 years old, lived in Burlington.

He was a member of the Moose Lodge Cincinnati, and of Local 100, Teamsters Union. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anne Pearl Stevens; two step-children, Susan and Howard, at home; two half sisters, Mrs. Parlon Emerson, North College Hill, and Mrs. Lois Walters, New Baltimore, Ohio, and his father, Lucian Stevens, Mount Orb, Ohio.

Services were at the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence Tuesday. Burial in Burlington cemetery.

FRUIT GROWERS TO MEET

A field meeting for fruit growers will be held in Kenton county at the farm of John P. Westerman & Sons, on the Hawsen and Petersburg Road in the Crescent Springs section, near the WCKY radio tower, northwest of Crescent Springs, at 2:00 p. m., August 14.

W. W. Magill, field agent in Horticulture, from the Horticulture Department of the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, is scheduled to meet with the growers and discuss fruit production problems and marketing.

Fruit growers in Kenton county and neighboring areas of Northern Kentucky are invited to attend the meeting and take part in the discussion.

Stringtown Homemakers

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thoma opened their country home to the Stringtown Homemakers and their families for their annual picnic, which was held last Sunday. Fried chicken and complimenting picnic dishes were served buffet style.

Volley ball and baseball were enjoyed, with swimming and horseback riding for the children filling the remainder of the day. During the game of baseball, the club's president, Mrs. Roy Youell, suffered a broken wrist while "accidently" sliding into first base. She was taken to the hospital where her arm was put in a cast. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Youell, Gary and Bobby Youell, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Loftin and Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roberts and daughter, Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Abbott, Dennis and Barbara Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Don Mager and Dawn Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Renaker, Vicki and Davey Renaker, Mrs. Chester Henderson, Trina and Chetty Henderson, Miss Charlotte Thoma, the host and hostess, and sons, Ricky and Stevie.

J. C. MADDOX

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Glencoe Baptist Church for J. C. (Callie) Maddox, 83, former resident of Glencoe, who died Monday at Central State Hospital. Burial was in the Poplar Grove Cemetery, Owen county.

Mr. Maddox, a retired farmer, was a native of Owen county, but had lived in Grant county and the Glencoe area for many years.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Herman Schulker of near Verona, and Mrs. Hubert House of Covington; two sisters, Mrs. Eath Irons of Covington, and Mrs. Myrtle Wilson of Glencoe; four grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren.

Hamilton funeral home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thornton and two children of Hamilton, Ohio, and Mrs. James Vest of Florence, spent the past week in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Many Improvements at the Boone County Fair

DR. B. F. METCALFE

Funeral services for Dr. B. F. Metcalfe, 82, who died Friday, August 3, were held Monday afternoon at Greenville, Ohio. He had been in declining health for the last three years.

Dr. Metcalfe, a native of Walton, who was an active practitioner in Greenville for a half century, graduated from the College of Medicine at the University of Cincinnati in 1899. He had been identified with the Masonic fraternity for 56 years and was a past Master of the Walton Blue Lodge. He had served as an elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Greenville for 45 years.

Surviving are his wife, Edna Ransler Metcalfe; a daughter, Mrs. Carl Albrecht; a son, Brice Metcalfe of Cincinnati and 8 grandchildren.

Walton Merchants Still In Elimination Series; Draw Bye

The Walton Merchants defeated the Hebron team Friday night, August 3, by the score of 7-5 in the second round of the elimination series. The Merchants were again led to victory by the strong pitching of Anderson who struck out 12 men during the game. Ray Johnson, Code and Ryan also helped Anderson with their hitting.

Walton, Burlington, and Rural Doxol Gas are the only three teams left in the elimination series all of which have not been defeated in play yet. Hebron, New Amsterdam Petersburg have been eliminated by losing their first two games. Burlington plays Rural Doxol Gas Friday night with The Merchants drawing the bye and playing the winner of this game the next Friday night.

The Walton Merchants are also competing in the Kentucky District tourney held at Frankfort. Monday night they were defeated by Georgetown Buick and Pontiac by the score of 10-0. The locals were guilty of 9 errors, and had one hit, a bunt single off of the bat of Ray Johnson. Anderson went all the way for Walton and was the losing hurler. The winning pitcher for Georgetown struck out 13 men. The Walton Merchants play Bagdad at Frankfort this Friday night.

WILMINGTON WMS MEETS

The W. M. S. of the Wilmington Baptist Church met August 1st at the church all day session with a covered dish luncheon. The meeting was opened by singing "Bringing in the Sheaves." Office Moves to Florence

The Department of Economic Security, Division of Public Assistance, has moved its office in Boone county from the Courthouse in Burlington, to the Myers Building, Main and Shelby Streets, in Florence, on the second floor. The office is open every Wednesday from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon.

First Horse Show Set For Friday Evening

This is the season for fairs throughout Kentucky. The Boone County Fair will be August 23, 24 and 25, according to John Crigler, chairman.

Mr. Crigler states that many improvements are being made at the fair grounds for the convenience of the exhibitars and public. A new exit is being built so that it will be convenient for the traffic to move in and out the fair grounds quicker and safer. The horse barns ,exhibit buildings and the grandstand have been newly painted. The horse show ring has been built up with dirt and banked so that the horse show exhibitors may be able to show their horses better. The fair food stand will be remodeled so that there will be more convenience to serve eats to the public.

On Friday morning there will be the Sheep, Hog and 4-H Beef Shows, with Mr. Robert Crouch, Assistant County Agent, Campbell County as judge. In the afternoon there will be the Team Pulling Contest, which is always an interesting thing to watch. The Team Pulling Contest Committee are Ted Cress, Edgar Graves and Bert Loomis.

On Friday night at 8:30 P. M. there will be the first Horse Show. Mr. Lillard Scott and Courtney Kelly are Ringmasters. The horse show has been planned so that other horse shows in this section of the country will not coincide with the Boone County Show. All 4-H Club members in Boone County are urged to exhibit their projects and start at once in making plans to do this by Mr. Ed McCandless, Assistant County Agent and Miss Nancy Guilfoil, Home Demonstration Agent.

Verona Lake Ranch Is Open For Picnics Every Day In Week

Verona Lake Ranch is a community park to be enjoyed by everyone, every day in the week. Monday through Saturday admission is free to the park, and you can come, play, picnic, just lounge around and make yourself at home, and it won't cost you anything.

They have a stage show most every Sunday at Verona Lake Ranch, but next Sunday (August 12) will be open house for everyone—no show will be presented and they invite you to come and spend the day. Bring a picnic and have a good time throughout the day and evening. Many people have heard about Verona Lake Ranch no doubt and have desitated to come to see the shows or to the park during the week. Well, here's your chance, if you want to come on Sunday to see what all the talk is about.

You'll find 100 acres of beautiful rolling fields and woods—lots of picnic tables, grills for outdoor cooking, playground with swings for the children, lots of parking room, and a big fishing lake if you're in the mood to catch a few on the hook. Refreshment stands are there too if you wish to buy food or soft drinks. No beer is sold at Verona Lake Ranch and it is certainly a park where you'll be proud to come and bring your family and friends.

Good, clean, wholesome entertainment is on stage most every Sunday with Mrs. Thurston Moore, wife of the owner, as mistress of ceremonies. Top stars of country music appear there and the next show—on August 19—will feature the top stars of The Grand Ole Opry, Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs with their band. Add as a special feature that day, Oney Wheeler, singer of the hit record, 'Oney's Bop," will appear in person.

No matter when you wish to come around, the welcome mat is always out at Verona Lake Ranch, so come around sometime and say "howdy" to the folks who run this fine park. The park is yours, so enjoy it!

ABSOLUTE
AUCTION
17—TRACTS OF LAND—17
On Frogtown Road, midway between Route 42 and Dixie H'way

Doan heirs have signed a contract with us to sell this property at absolute auction

Sat., Aug. 11 - 1 P. M. Rain or Shine

Tract No. 1 has 2.76 acres and 4-room house; one other tract has large barn; also 5.2 acres with large lake; 14 other tracts that are all outstanding, and ranging in acreage from 2 to 3 acres. These are some of the finest building sites that you can find anywhere. Most all have a wooded area on the back part of each parcel. All tracts will be sold separately. Positively nothing will be grouped.

DIRECTIONS TO SALE—If taking Route 42 out of Florence south, about one-half mile beyond Union, turn left on Frogtown Road, see sign; also going Dixie Highway, watch for sign on right at Frogtown Road.

It is hard to buy any land of any kind in this neighborhood; this is a wonderful investment, even though you don't need it to build on; when the new express highway comes through everything in this area will double in value; it will be a matter of just a few minutes driving to Cincinnati.

TERMS—20% down day of sale, balance on or before 30 days, at which time a clear title will be delivered.

Don't be late, we will try to start on time. Drive out and look this property over.

Nothing takes to the road like a Chevy!

Once in a blue moon a car like this comes along—a design so advanced in performance, so beautifully balanced that it stands out above every other car on the highway.

It has a solid, sure-footed way of going that makes driving safer and more pleasant on any road. And you feel a very special sense of security in its rapid-fire responsiveness to your touch on the wheel, brakes and accelerator.

You can see that the '56 Chevy is a standout for style. But until you have driven it—you're missing the best part of the news—the fact that Chevrolet is the smoothest, solidest, most wedded-to-the-road automobile you ever bossed. Try it and see.

America's largest selling car—2 million more owners than any other make!

You get more car when you buy it . . . more dollars when you sell it! Chevy has the highest resale value of the leading low-priced models!

OAK RIDGE

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gatewood of Sonnar Road, on the birth of their son July 24 at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Elma Taylor and baby Judy are planning to leave this week for a two weeks tour of the south land visiting in New Orleans, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tomlin and Connie and Bonnie Tomlin left last week for a week's vacation at Pickwick Beach, Del.

Rev. Frank Wilkerson, pastor of Oak Ridge Baptist Church, left last week for a two weeks' vacation in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Six members of the Woman's Missionary Society of Oak Ridge Baptist Church attended the Associational W. M. U. meeting at Big Bone Baptist Church, recently. Big Bone is a beautiful country church with a lovely tree-shaded yard. The program was very inspiring and was thoroughly enjoyed by the 156 women who attended. Those from Oak Ridge who attended were: Mrs. Paul Newsom, Mrs. Russell Yates, Mrs. Frances Richardson, Mrs. T. C. Richardson, Mrs. Earl Spainton and Mrs. W. C. Tallent.

The Girls Auxiliary of Oak Ridge Baptist Church held a coronation service at the church Sunday evening.

Miss Emma Yates has had as house guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. Holmar Crawford of Washington, Ky.

In mentioning all the wedding in our community recently, we inadvertently left out two of them—we are sorry—but we had not heard about them at that time. Dr. James Rich and Miss June Hardy were married June 20 at the Kennedy Heights Presbyterian Church. After their honeymoon, they will live above the doctor's office at 5975 Taylor Mill Pike. Saturday, July 28, was the wedding date for Miss Martha Anton of Sonnar Road, and Ernest Roy McCormick. They were married at Latonia Church of Christ.

CRITTENDEN

Mrs. Paul Tuemler and three children of Falmouth, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Meldin Below and son.

Frank Knight remains quite ill at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waller and daughter of Jackson, Miss., are spending a week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Waller.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Hitch of Covington, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Hitch.

Town Marshal Shelby Hisel has a new cruiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Richerson of Covington, have moved into the apartment of Mrs. Mary Schneider.

Mrs. Bessie Tungate entertained on Sunday her daughter, Mrs. Roger Riddell and Mr. Riddell, and Mrs. Patsy Sullivan and baby, all of Georgetown.

Jackie Rae of Martinsville, Ind., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Riley and family were guests of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Beach, of Lawrenceburg, Ind., Sunday.

HEALTH THOUGHTS

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

As you know, there is not an invention in the history of the world which is not patterned after some perfect little organism or function of the body. The human body functions perfectly and harmoniously as a whole.

How often do you stop to consider how wonderful is your body? Many of the most educated people in the world know little or nothing about their own bodies. And why is it?

The expert photographer uses an instrument which is patterned after the eye. The mechanic uses ball and socket joints and hooters in making his devices run and work smoothly. The automobile engine is fed gasoline and turns much in the manner of the human body.

Suppose that a car stops and refuses to go. The average person would look and look and yet could not see that the gas line was clogged. The expert mechanic would know by the actions of the car instantly what was wrong.

Your body is the same when it is not functioning normally. There is a block to the life energy. The life energy is there as is the gas in the car. However due to the block the life cannot get thorough function. The chiropractor is scientifically trained to remove that block, restoring normal function and health.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of Scientific Chiropractic by Dr. G. C. Donohoo whose office is located at 7628 Dixie Highway, Florence, Ky. Phone ATlantic 3-5371.

WHITES TOWER

News is scarce this week as I suppose everyone is enjoying a vacation when they come back home broker than they would if they had worked. Now I am going to quote from an old friend of mine whom if I should mention his name you would all know who said the following. "Half the fun of vacation is anticipation. The other half is doing what you want to, regardless of neighbors, friends and relatives. The best form of vacation is to go back to the scenes of your childhood and recall what few people are left whom you knew when. Do just what you want to do. Listen to no advice as it is your vacation so what."

Linda Ward of Covington with her mother spent the week-end with her mothers parents here in the Tower. Seldom do her mother have the chance to visit her parents as she works six days a week for a book company in Cincinnati.

Corn is the finest we have seen since we have been here and we were lucky in making five plantings at different times so as to have some coming on each week until frost.

Our Reds ran into a snag out in Phillie as the Phils are red hot and no respector of the slugging power of any team and are beating the good clubs at their own game.

Two turtles were taken from Bide-A-Wee lake over the week-end.

Mr. Dorsey has his new home under roof and work on the inside will start today Monday.

Late Miller and family of Rossmoyne O. were week-end guests of relatives here and at Independence.

INDEPENDENCE

Thanks and Appreciation

Dunna Richardson, Honored Queen, Bethel 8, Job's Daughters, her officers and members wish to express their thanks and appreciation to all persons who donated to the annual homemade ice cream social, held last Saturday evening on the Independence Courthouse lawn. Also, their thanks and appreciation are extended to the persons helping before, during and after this social, and to those attending.

This year's supper was even a greater success than any held previously and the girls are mighty happy to know that they have so many friends in and around Independence.

Girls of Bethel 8 also wish to thank members of the Independence and Community Fire Department for the use of their tables, chairs and kitchen equipment, which was very essential for the success of the event.

"Ti-Dee" Auto Litter-Bag

All members of the Kenton County Garden Club are promoting the use of the "Ti-Dee" Auto Litter Bag to all persons having a vehicle and they are a great gadget that will stay on the market permanently. I have seen one of these litter bags demonstrated and not only will they fit any new or used auto, but are wonderful for sick persons in bed and for babies. They are equipped with easy clip-on hangers for beds or just clip for your autos.

The purpose of these litter bags, that all garden clubs throughout the nation are promoting the use of is to eliminate the litter bugs that travel our highways, and to break a very bad habit of persons who unconsciously toss waste and such out the car window.

If you are interested in seeing one of these gadget bags just contact any member of any garden club and a very interesting demonstration will be given.

Bradford O. E. S.

The next regularly stated meeting for officers and members of Bradford O. E. S. Chapter, 493, will be held Tuesday evening, August 14, at 8 p. m., in the Independence Bank Bldg. Helen West, Worthy Matron, and Robert West, Worthy Patron, will preside. All members of the order are cordially invited to be present.

Keys Found

A key ring with two keys attached was found in the clerk's office in the Independence Courthouse last week. The owner may pick up these keys at that office.

Birthday Dinner

A birthday dinner was held Sunday, July 29, in honor of Clarence Roden, on his 81st birthday, at the home of daughter, Mrs. Earl Williams, Hoffman Heights. Many friends and relatives were present, including his five children, 19 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Personal Interest

Word has been received from Emil Wardwitz, former employee of Lyman Huddleston that he was in Custer, S. D., which is near the famous Mount Rushmore on July 31 and still heading west in his converted truck.

Russell Ward of Main Street, recently resigned as Town Marshal to resume his regular trade in the machine shop. John Brown will replace Mr. Ward, with James Walden becoming Mr. Brown's assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Staggs and family of Shaw Road, left last Monday for a week's vacation.

Just A Thought

Hear about the lawyer who got his client a suspended sentence? They hanged him.

Thanks and Appreciation

Members of the Independence and Community Volunteer Fire Department wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to the ladies in this community who helped in various ways to make the annual firemen's picnic such a great success. Also, their thanks and appreciation to the men who devoted so much time before, during and after the picnic.

It is the cooperation of all persons in and around Independence who work so diligently that makes the firemen's picnic more successful each year.

CARD OF THANKS

Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me." We quote those words of Our Master in thanking each and everyone for their prayers, cards, visits and gifts to us during the illness of my husband. May God bless each and everyone in our prayer.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Fellowship

Lesson for August 12, 1956

Dr. Foreman

THE word "fellowship" is batted around a good deal without people's always knowing just all that the word can mean. When some men use the word they may mean no more by it than lunching in the same place with other men of about the same age and salary bracket, once a week, calling one another by their first names and in general acting as jolly as possible. This is some distance off the meaning of the same word "fellowship" as we find it in the New Testament. There it is a very important word. Indeed it sums up all that the Christian church is and ought to be at its best.

With God

Fellowship,—the word, that is—even among Christians can be misunderstood. It is not just the same thing as "sharing." Some of this sort of sharing, or what goes by that name, are not fellowship at all. The writer was in a meeting once where a good deal was said about sharing with the needy of the city and in other lands. Toward the close of the meeting it came out what was being planned at all old clothes drive. Everybody present was exhorted to go through his or her attic and closets and find clothing, hats and what not that wouldn't be used again, and to have these ready on the porch when the boys came by for it. Of course that was not real sharing at all; it was only a scheme to get rid of some fire hazards to step up for fall housecleaning. Real sharing always involves giving up something which one would otherwise have been glad to use. But even real sharing may not be fellowship as the New Testament has it—not as our Lord and the beloved John meant it and practiced it. A traveler can share a seat on a bus when he would much rather sit alone. Fellowship is sharing-with-love, it is a sharing love.

With Man

It is a striking fact that although John is writing to and about the Christian church he writes twice of his three letters without ever using the word. Perhaps it was too cold and formal a word for him, although Paul loved the word "church" and so may we. But John did not want to be misunderstood. So he uses simple words like "God's children," "brothers." The church is the place for fellowship among God's children. In a real church, there is bound to be a closer, dearer tie between Christian and Christian than there can be between persons outside the church or between Christians and outsiders. What brings Christians together in the first place is not simply themselves as human beings. It is their fellowship with God. It is because they are so close to him that they become close to one another. Now fellowship with other Christians in the church again more than sharing. Even on the sharing-level, how much of it is done in the typical church? What do "members" of the same church share? Pews, hymnbooks, the same sermons, preacher, potato salad at church suppers? All this may be the doorway to Christian fellowship, but still not quite it. Two people can sit at opposite ends of the same pew, and eat out of the same salad bowl, for years on end, without ever finding out what real fellowship means. It is only when they really share the love of God, when together they let his love flow through them in joyous service in his name, that they discover Fellowship.

Learning How

Christian churches would wither without Christian homes. Little children learn lessons in living first at home before they learn in Sunday school or church. Father, mother and children can learn together what Christian fellowship is, and if they do, they will know what the preacher is talking about. If they do not learn at home, the minister, and the Bible, will seem to be talking in a strange language. Actually, there is not a great deal of time to practice fellowship in the church. Maybe one spends five hours a week there; it's more than most do. But there are 168 hours in a week: what about the other 163? If the church is the lecture-room for fellowship, the home is the laboratory. The Bible tells us that it will work. Home is where we can find out how right it

VERONA

Mr. and Mrs. Mayer Hayden and daughter, Carolyn had as their sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Yancey of near Dunlap. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rathmell and son of Erlanger and Mrs. Martha Haskins of Verona.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Burden and Vicky spent Saturday night and Sunday with her mother Mrs. Allie Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rosenstiel and three children and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edrington went to Sky Ridge and Other Point of interest in the mountains of Kentucky on Sunday.

Several from here have been attending the revival at Crittenden church the past two weeks.

Mrs. Paul Payne and mother, Mrs. Vernie King of Louisville spent Monday at the Mayr. Hayden home. Mrs. Payne came after her son Steven who had been visiting at the Hayden home the past week.

GLENCOE

The many friends of Mrs. Annie Tandy were made sad to hear of her passing away. She had been a member of the Glencoe Church of Christ over fifty years and was a fine Christian woman.

Mr. C. C. Higgins is still in the hospital and improving slowly.

Mrs. Laura Connly is having her home painted which looks very fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl Snow and son and daughter spent Sunday with his father, mother Sunday, Mr. ad Mrs. Bob Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Les House were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noel.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Piland are enjoying a new truck.

Mrs. Lettie Beech is in St. Elizabeth hospital doing nicely.

Several children from the Church of Christ have been to the Christian Camp and enjoyed it very much.

STAFFORDSBURG

The many relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ballinger and daughter Miss Betsy, have much enjoyed the visit here and regret to know they are leaving Monday. All of us wish them a pleasant journey home and an invitation to "Come Again."

Hope everyone noted that the W. S. C. S. is postponed from July 9 to July 16. It will meet at the home of Mrs. Leslie Damon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were the guests on Sunday of Misses Mary and Alma Stephens.

Ezra Elmore was really surprised when a number of relatives and friends came in at noon on Sunday with well-filled baskets to help him celebrate his birthday. May you have many more years and each better than the last.

Several from this neighborhood attended the picnic given by the Staffordsburg Homemakers, on July 31 at Rosegate home of Mrs. Virgie Miller. All enjoyed the bountiful lunch and the children were in the water most of day.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and son were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon.

Attendance at Sunday School was down a bit. Let's keep coming every Sunday and keep up our record.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION—

I wish to thank everyone for their kindness during my illness in Booth Hospital. Thanks for the cards, flowers, and gifts. May God bless you all.

HOUSEPOWER Contest

OVER 1,000 PRIZES IN ALL
200 valuable prizes awarded each month, May through September.

Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER

Today, the average home uses 3 times as much electricity as it did 15 years ago. That's why 4 out of 5 homes now suffer from low HOUSEPOWER. This is true even of brand new homes. Here are the conditions that cause you to have low HOUSEPOWER.

1. Inadequate electrical service entrance. To overcome this basic cause of low HOUSEPOWER, you should have service entrance capacity of at least 100 amperes. This requires 3-wire service from the street.

2. Overloaded circuits. Too many appliances on one circuit overload it and none of them get enough power. Motors may even burn out. If the overload is too great, the fuse will blow or circuit-breaker trip. You should have enough branch circuits to distribute enough electricity to all appliances.

3. Insufficient outlets. Some homeowners use extension cords and "octopus" outlets (2- and 3-way plugs), or plug into lighting outlets. Such practices are unsightly, inconvenient, and may be dangerous. Rearranging furniture doesn't help. The only safe solution is to add more circuits and outlets.

These are the symptoms of low HOUSEPOWER: lights dimming when appliances are turned on; blown fuses or tripped circuit-breakers; TV picture shrinking when other appliances are turned on; appliances working inefficiently or taking too long to heat up.

If any of these symptoms are present in your home call your electric company, electrician or electrical contractor for a wiring check-up. If added wiring is necessary, your electrician or electrical contractor will do the job quickly, neatly, economically. It often takes less than a day. Remember, full HOUSEPOWER increases the value of your home.

Don't delay — enter this easy contest today. Nothing to buy. Just answer a few easy questions. Most of the answers you'll find right here in Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER.

MY CUSTOMERS

Mr. and Mrs. Steinhauser, over Dutchtown way, bought a lot of Bolce paint and some aldrin for the insects on tobacco. Mrs. Robert Sebastian bought her self a GE steam iron— these are one of the best items we have to sell today. J. B. McCubbin bought enough Sta-Dri to paint his basement walls inside—this water proofs them as well as makes a very clean looking basement. Marion Waller brought in a lot of mower guards to have new plates put on them—we fixed him up in a hurry. Brewster sold Jim Wasson a Mastercut mower. We also sold two used mowers today.

I have been here a long time, but I never sold lawn mowers in August before, like we have this year. Last fall I got messed up and ordered twice as many lawn mowers as we generally do and did not know it until February, when they started to come in. I wondered what we would do with all the power lawn mowers, but we sold all of them and reordered twice. We have two new mowers left and I believe one of them is sold, but whoever saw grass grow like this in August?

Mrs. Clara McMillian and Mrs. Owen Flynn were in. Mrs. McMillian bought a heating stove. Mrs. Flynn and husband have just returned from a 4800-mile trip to Mexico, Texas and back through New Orleans—she said it was hot and dry in Texas, and most all the west. Howard Moore came after 5 gallons of Bolce red roof and barn paint. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibson from over Hebron way, came after a Dayton jet water system to put in his dairy barn. I delivered Martha Wallace a 52-gallon electric water heater—we will try to get it installed this week. We have been so busy and Chick is on vacation—we are running on three cylinders.

Bolce's truck brought down another load of paint—we sure are now and have sold a lot of Bolce paint this season. I know this is the best paint year we have had. We, in the past, bought Bolce outside white in 24 gallon shipments, but this year we buy it 100 one gallon cans at a time and we have about sold our third shipment. Chas. Steers bought three gallons of Bolce Lustre Kote—this has a very nice gloss and is easy to put on. Red Beach up at Woodland Inn, was here every hour today. She is putting in a new kitchen and needed a little of everything.

Ronnie Tackett had a birthday and he bought himself a badminton set—Rev. Tackett bought a croquet set. Jimmy Robinson came in with a paper bag full of money—he bought a Davey Crockett wagon for his birthday. The new bride and groom, Tommy and Betty Stubblefield, were getting a few of the necessary kitchen gadgets for keeping house. It takes so many things to start a household—more than any newlywed thinks until they start getting them together. Brewster put in a lot of guard plates for Marion Arch Waller—this is some job, even if you have plenty tools.

We put in a lot of handles. Red put in a new stick in pitman rod. William Brown needed new single tree, new grass stick on grass board, new eye bolt in neck yoke. We did so many of these small repair jobs. We put new cords on three irons today. Mrs. Margaret Smith, from Beaver, bought the best metal ironing board, pad and cover I had. Mrs. Sam Vest bought a beautiful 9x12 linoleum rug. Mrs. Frederica Mann was getting mower repairs to take out to her farm. Mr. Morgan, who lives over on Percival Road, brought in his wooden ice cream freezer bucket and Brewster put new bands on it.

Raymond LaFollette and Ed Helmer came in with a pitman rod to be overhauled—the three of us soon fixed it. I saw in the Advertiser where John Tomlin, out on Nicholson Road, had 8 ewes and a ram to sell—I went out to look at them. They were Suffolk and very nice, so I bought them and Sam Vest took them down to the farm for me—now I have a South-down ram for sale—he is 3 years old, and a big bone type for $25.00. Jesse Brown came after some PTZ capsules for Ruth Baker Barlow's sheep—these capsules and powed keep them healthy.

Today we sold plastic window shades, and more of that Bolce paint—I just love to hear them come in and say I want two or five gallons of that good Bolce paint because they have used it or some neighbor has recommended it. We also have sold more mower repairs this year, because we are cheaper than other places or that is what th farmers tell us. We sold plastic pipe and fittings, copper pipe and fittings, galvanized pipe and fittings. We have cast iron soil pipe and fittings, also orangeburg pipe and fittings.

We have Dayton water systems at $89.50, a table top electric water heater for $129.50 and a 66-inch double bowl kitchen sink for $129.50. Don't miss these bargains, as steel will raise everything by the first of September. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hughes, from Concord neighborhood, are building a new home—they have been using a lot of Bolce paint and today bought more. They also bought a 52-gallon electric hot water heater, a Dayton jet water system and a 66-inch double bowl sink. Brewster took them over and put them in the house, then he went to Mrs. Anna McCabe's to trim her linoleum, then back to Verona, to Chas. Richards to repair his lawn mower. Henry Steel came in the back door with a girl's bicycle to have training wheels put on it. Sheila was right there, ready to hop on. Rev. Tackett bought enough wire and sockets to light up his back yard for sports for the children.

New Trotting Track Scheduled To Open First 28-Night Meet

Night harness racing, America's fastest growing sport, will be introduced to the northern Kentucky-Cincinnati area on Friday night, August 24, when Kentucky Raceway, the nation's newest and most modern trotting track, opens it inaugural 28-night meet.

Under the leadership of President and General Manager Richard H. Hutchison, Jr., nationally prominent harness racing official who pioneered the night trotting sport in Maryland in 1948, construction of the huge, handsome Kentucky Raceway is nearing completion on a beautiful, highly accessible site an U. S. Route 42, just ane mile south af Florence, and only 12 miles from Fountain Square in the heart of downtown Cincinnati. The new plant will be one of the most up-to-date and best equipped in the nation.

Focal point of the plant will be the big five-eights mile racing oval itself, engineered by a team of experts for maximum speed, safety and all-weather dependability. It will be over this racing strip that hundreds of top-flight trotters and pacers, driven by some of America's finest rein men, will clash "far gold and glary" in nine autstanding races nightly (except Sundays) during the meet.

Dominating the track *will be the huge, madern, steel-canstructed grandstand with a seating capacity far 4,500 fans. Flanking the grandstand will be the deluxe terrace clubhouse. The clubhouse dining room will accambodate 450 patrons at a single sitting, and is layed aut in tiers sa that fans can dine and watch the races without leaving their tables.

Fronting the clubhouse and grandstand will be a ramp 500 feet long and 100 feet deep, graduated so that fans who like to watch the races on the rail can see without difficulty over the heads of those in frant.

Surprise Birthday Dinner

Spencer Reed was the guest af honor at a Surprise Birthday dinner at his home on Verona Road recently. Those enjoying the day with him were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stephenson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vest and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed and daughter and his wife, Mrs. Spencer Reed.

The ladies of St. Cecilia parish, Independence will hold their monthly social on Wednesday afternoon Aug. 22 from 1:30 to 4 p. m. in the church basement. Everyone welcome.

Proceeds To Be Used For New Building

This Friday and Saturday nights at the Walton playgrounds the Johnson-McElroy American Legion Post will give $230 in cash to lucky winners, part on Friday night and part an Saturday, along with their annual picnic.

As usual, there will be games, drinks and music—fun for all. Alsa a farris wheel and other rides for the young and old, so everyone attending may have a good time—come early, as everything will close down at midnight.

For the kiddies, there will be pony rides, fish pond and twa electric rides. There will also be those delicious fish sandwiches which Howard Feldhaus cooks—see you at the American Legion picnic.

The Legion is in the midst of building a club house near the city limits af Walton and the money from this picnic will be used for this building.

TIRES ON DISPLAY

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 277 will have on display twa Lee Super DeLuxe white or black side wall silent traction tires, any desired size, given by the ladies Auxiliary, compliments af Clusters Texaco Service Center R1 Waltan, Ky. See booth at the American Legion picnic 17th and 18th. The lucky ticket holder will win both tires.

All proceeds will be given to tornado victims. Don't forget to buy your books of tickets an the 18 qt. Westinghouse Roaster and the lovely bed spread at the picnic this weekend.

Came out and enjoy those good fish sandwiches and have an evening of good clean fun and help the American Legion boys. They need your support.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS

A religious census of the Waltan area will be started this Sunday at 2 p. m. by the Walton Baptist Church under the supervision of their pastar Rev. Joseph Tackett, assisted by several members. The results of this urvey will be shared with all the other pastars and churches so that they too, may benefit by the effort. They ask the cooperation of the public in giving this vital informatian.

Florence Youth in Germany

Army Private Lloyd C. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Martin, Florence, recently arrived in Germany and is now a member of the 2d Armored Division. A radio operatar with Headquarters Company of the division's Combat Command A, Martin entered the Army in December, 1955, and was stationed at Ft. Caffee, Ark., before going overseas.

Pastors and Laymen Invited To Meet At Florence August 27

Pastors and laymen af the Protestant churches in Boone county are invited to meet at the Florence Christian Church at 7:45, Monday evening, Aug. 27. The purpose of this meeting is to hear and passibly to accept the report of a smaller group that has been working on plans for a "Northern Kentucky Association af Churches," said Rev. John B. Astles, president of the Kenton County Protestant Association, wha has been guiding the movement.

Sixteen pastors and laymen af Boone county conferred on this plan at a meeting in Florence an July 27 and thaught so well of it that they decided to call this larger assembly of churchmen for the 27th.

It is reparted that the Campbell county churches are moving toward the acceptance of this plan and that the Kenton county people are already committed to it. Therefore, said Dr. Astles, "It seems probable that by fall the 175 Protestant churches in Boone, Campbell and Kenton counties will have agreed upon a cooperative program that will enable them to render a greater service to Northern Kentucky and the Kingdom of God."

You get more car when you buy it . . . more dollars when you sell it! Chevy has the highest resale value of the leading low-priced models.

Why people who used to buy higher priced cars are changing to Chevrolet

More and more buyers are deciding that they prefer a sweet handling Chevrolet to a big, unwieldy high-priced car!

When you consider Chevy's reputation for performance and roadability, you wonder why anyone would pay hundreds of dollars more for a higher priced car. Well, a lot of people have been wondering the same thing, and the result has been a big switch from high-priced cars to Chevrolet. Of course you save plenty, too. Come in and sample the fun and get the facts!

August is Saving Season at Your Local Dealer's. Big deal while he cleans his decks for the '57 models.

Would you trade 20 minutes of your time for a saving of hundreds?

Why put off the fun of a Ford Test Drive for a single day? As you know, it puts you under absolutely no obligation. And it may save you literally hundreds of dollars—we'll get to that a little further on.

By a Test Drive we mean more than a once-around the block "spin."

We want you to test the power that rocketed Ford to a 500-mile stock car record at Indianapolis . . . the GO that won the grand prize at NASCAR's Daytona Championships. We want you to feel how this Ford seat pays off in your kind of driving: in traffic, passing on the highway, getting going at traffic lights. We'll put either a Ford Six or a mighty V-8 with up to 225 h.p. at your disposal.

We want you to drive and listen—drive and feel.

That fine-car quiet results from sound insulation under the hood, under the roof, in door and body panels—the most insulation in any car at anywhere near Ford's low price.

Some other things that contribute to that smooth, silent, luxury-car ride are things which Ford's leading competitor certainly can't boast: Ball-Joint suspension with wide base control arms for better steering, more stabilized wheel alignment . . . shock absorbers that are mounted to the frame rather than the body.

"Sure," you'll say as you drive along the road, "Feels pretty good—but after all, this car is new."

Well sir, when you come in from your drive we'll show you why Ford will stay like new for a long, long time.

We'll show you how Ford has five cross-members (including a "K" member) in its frame. Ford's leading competitor only has two. We'll show you the deep-block V-like engine design which enables Ford engines to take it.

Now—what you've been waiting for. How can you save hundreds of dollars by taking a Ford Test Drive?

Simply by proving to yourself that there really is a fine car in the low price field.

You see, the reason a Ford does not cost hundreds of dollars more than it does, is Ford's huge production and the huge volume which we Ford Dealers sell.

But enough of this talk. Come in. And you do the driving and the talking. Bring the family, too.

NOW! A FORD with AIR CONDITIONING costs less than many medium-priced cars without it. TRY ONE TODAY! Based on a comparison of suggested list prices.

Ordinance 255

An Ordinance prohibiting owners or harborers of dogs from allowing such dogs to room about the City of Walton unattached to a lease, Prohibiting owners or horborers of dogs from permitting such dogs to go upon the premises of any other person within said City, Requiring such owners or horborers of dogs to keep said dogs confined at all times, with certain exceptions; Providing that any dogs found rooming about the City of Walton in violation of such ordinance shall be taken into custody by the county dog warden; and providing a penalty for violation hereof.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WALTON, BOONE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section No. 1

That it shall be unlawful for any owner or harborer of any dog or dogs to permit such dog or dogs to roam about the streets of Walton, Kentucky, without having the dog or dogs under control by the owner or harborer, or such other person responsible for such.

Section No. 2

That it shall be unlawful for any owner or harborer of any dog or dogs to permit or suffer such dog or dogs to be about or on the premises of any other person or persons within the City of Walton, Kentucky, without the permission or consent of such other person or persons.

Section No. 3

Every owner or harborer of a dog or dogs within the City of Walton, Kentucky, shall keep such dog or dogs confined to the property of said owner or harborer at all times except as herein before provided.

Section No. 4

That any and all dog or dogs found roaming about the City of Walton, or upon the property of any person other than the owners or harborers of such dog or dogs shall be taken into custody by the County Dog Warden, and held by the said County Dog Warden in the County Dog Pund at Burlington, Ky., R 2, a period of 7 seven days after which time said dog or dogs shall be destroyed by said County Dog Warden.

Section No. 5

Any person who violates any provision of this ordinance shall be fined not less than ten $10.00 dollars nor more than one hundred $100.00 dollars.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force and effect after its adoption and publication according to law.

Adopted and ordered published this 14th day of August, 1956.

Other low-price cars can't possibly give you these 7 big Plymouth extras!

Do you own a '53, '54 or '55 model of one of the low-price 3? Then here's what you're missing—look how much more the all-new Plymouth offers:

1 Tomorrow's styling today: You can easily see Plymouth is all new, while other low-price cars haven't changed much in the last two years.

2 Biggest, inside and outside: Plymouth's the biggest, longest, roomiest car of the low-price three. A smoother ride and more room to enjoy it!

4 Choice of two superb engines: Pick either Plymouth's sensational Hy-Fire V-8 (up to 200 hp —240 hp in the Fury) or the PowerFlow 6.

5 Top take-off and passing power across the board: Plymouth's 90-90 Turbo-Torque provides the greatest breakaway and passing power in all models of any low-price car.

6 Greatest attention to safety: Plymouth gives you many more standard equipment safety features—Safety-Rim wheels, electric windshield wipers, SafeGuard door latches, dozens more.

PLYMOUTH costs less

From the day you buy it . . . through all the years you own it . . . you'll spend less on a Plymouth. That's one reason more Plymouths are used as taxis than all other cars combined.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

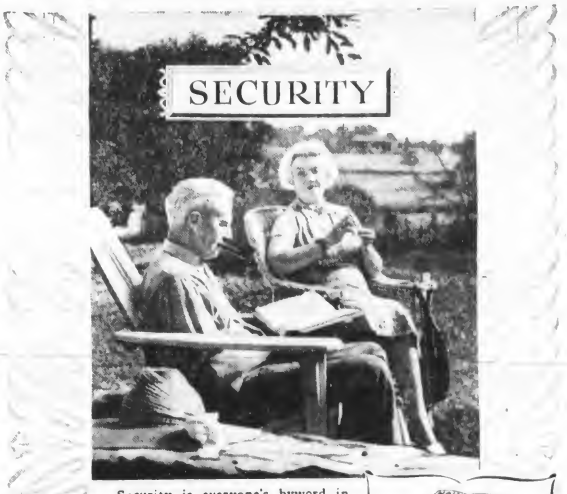
"We Know"

Lesson for August 19, 1956

"I DON'T know. I hope so," is the answer you will often get when you ask some one if he is a Christian. It's a common answer but it doesn't make sense. Are you going to be sick tomorrow? Are you descended from William the Conqueror? Will you ever be famous? You may well say "I don't know," for various reasons, to such questions. But being a Christian is something different. Are you one? You ought to know. You're not a perfect one, you may not yet even be a very good one. It is quite right to say you don't know just how much of a Christian you are, for only God knows that. But if you have ever decided for Christ, if you ever accepted Christ as Savior and Lord, then you are a Christian-by-intention. If you never settled that before, you can settle it before you read another line.

Dr. Foreman

"That You May Know"



There is one of the New Testament letters which has as its theme, "We Know." It was written by the same person who wrote the Fourth Gospel. In both the gospel and the letter, the author says plainly why he has written what he did. To the readers of the Gospel, John says, "These (things) are written that you believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name." (John 20:31.) Now there must have been a number of people back yonder, as there are now, were uncertain whether they really "belonged" as Christians, or not. If you asked them, "Do you believe?" they would say "Yes." If you asked them, "Are you sure you have eternal life?" they would say, like their modern descendants, "I don't know. I hope so." John writes to just such people, so that they won't have to give such a timid uncertain answer any more. "I write this to you who believe," he says, "—that you may know that you have eternal life." (I John 5:13.)

"By This We Know"

You know you have a wart by looking in the mirror. You know you have a farm because the deed is on record at the court house. You know you have sixty dollars in the bank because the bank statement tells you so. But how do you know you have eternal life? It is infinitely more important than any of these things. Knowing you have it is likewise the most vital knowledge you can have. The first letter of John is filled with the "We know's", the apostle goes on to say why we have every right to be sure. One outstanding reason is expressed in the sentence: "We know we have passed from death to life because we love the brethren." (3:14.) You'll not be much of an athlete if you don't like athletes. You'll never make a farmer if farmers don't appeal to you and you have nothing to do with them. If you are a Christian, futhermore, you will surely love Christians. If you do love them, its a good enough sign for the apostle John.

Listening to the Word

The reader will find various other signs by which, John says, we can know whether we have eternal life. This life cannot be looked at, it cannot be photographed, weighed or measured. Like any other kind of life, it can be known by its effects. You know a plant is living by the fact that it puts out shoots and leaves. You can't cut the plant open and see the life, but you can see from the way it behaves that it is living. So with eternal life. (And by the way, the reader will note that John speaks of "having," not "going to have" eternal life.) One more point may be noted here. John has different ways of expressing this assurance: We know we have passed from death to life . . . we know he abides in us . . . we know we are of the truth . . . we know that we abide in him . . . we know that we are of God. "Whoever knows God," he says (4:6), "listens to us." In other words, those who know God listen to one who speaks the Word of God. What kind of a lover is it who will not read his sweetheart's love letters? What kind of soldier is it who never reads nor opens an order from his superior officer? What sort of sports lover is it who never looks at the sports page? So it is fair to ask: How much of a Christian is one who never reads what his Father in heaven has to say to him in his Word? God's people love God's words.

Security is everyone's byword in this era of tension, anxiety, and bristling competition. It's the goal of government, industry, business, family, and nations.

Security generally means being sure of something, or even someone. But, no one gets security without giving. It is not self-accomplished. Other people and factors contribute in providing our security.

Above all, God alone is the source of security and serenity. Society cancels out our security with finality when we run afoul of its standards, whereas God endows us with the privilege of obtaining forgiveness and mending our ways.

How secure are we against the disasters and perils of life and against our own imperfections? To find the answer, turn to God's Church where we will find the fountain of security.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VERONA

Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy and son, Mr. Locke and Norma Gene Locke visited his aunt and family at Scribner, Texas, a few days last week. They went to Oak Ridge, Smoky Mountain State Park, driving to the highest point which is 6,000 feet. They also stopped at Kentucky Lake on their way back home. They enjoyed their trip very much.

Mrs. Vesie Webster spent last week with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Webster and children of Berry Station. Her little great daughter came home with her to stay a week.

Mrs. Effie Clements, Mrs. Lillie Cooke and daughter, Delores, spent Sunday with Mrs. Clements brother, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dolan of Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm had as their sunday dinner guests, Mrs. Janie Copely of Zion City, Ill., Mrs. Laura Lamm, Elmo and Blanche Lamm of Covington, Ellie Mae and Marion Arch Waller and Miss Betty Cooper of Walton, Mrs. Lizzie Noel of Verona. Afternoon callers, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Kuhn of Elleston, Joe, Eddy and John Simpson and Mary Adams all of Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perkins and children just returned from Chicago where they were called to see Mr. Perkins brother Willard, who is quite ill with T B. He has to be operated on and a silver plate put in one lung.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vest left Friday for California. They sold their house and lot to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gullion who moved in Saturday. We wish Ray and family the best of luck in their new home.

Mrs. Etta McMunn, Mrs. Alpha Lock spent Monday with Mrs. Pat Burdevent helping her can some beans.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayse Hayden and daughter and Mrs. Susie Shore spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert King of Crestwood, Ky.

Mr. Arlie Locke and Norma Gene spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. Locke's sister in Walton.

Mrs. Evelyn McElroy and two children who just came last week after spending the week with her mother Mrs. Blanche Kinsman and Mr. Ransom.

Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy and sons were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lost Marsh and son Wayne on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton and son spent Sunday with her parents at Erlanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters were visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Flint Adams over the week end.

Mrs. Lizzie Noel spent last week helping Mrs. A. A. Waller while his mother Mrs. Effie Waller was visiting her son Mr. Lester White and Mr. White.

Sympathy is extended to E. S. Wilson family when Mr. Ed Wilson passed away suddenly last week.

Mrs. Ethel Irons is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Mertee Wilson.

Mrs. Laura Connly and Mrs. Walter Noel have been painting their home.

Mrs. Violet Klein and family from India, visited her mother and father on Saturday.

Mrs. Zelma Snow and son and daughter are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Radford at Louisville.

Mr. C. C. Higgins is improving at Christ hospital now.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We were sorry to learn of Mr. J. A. Keeney's accident last week, but glad to know it wasn't serious. He was driving a tractor, and stopped, failing to put the brake on, the tractor started and knocked him down running over his limb, but not breaking it.

We were glad to have the light shower of refreshing rain Monday morning, after a few days very warm weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damin returned home the latter part of the week from a few days vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rapp and children left on Monday morning for a weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rapp and wife of McGee, Arkansas.

Mrs. Flo Summey is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Will House of Independence. We are sorry to learn of her sister, Mrs. Ora Stine of Walton, falling in the basement and breaking her arm. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley, Mr. Chas. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children, Mr. and Mr. Wayne [illegible] motored to Lexington Tuesday for the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley and little daughter, Wanda.

The W. S. C. S. from Staffordsburg church will meet with Mrs. Leslie Damon at her home on Taylor Mill Road on Thursday evening at 8 p. m. All members try to be present and any guests who can go are welcome.

Mrs. Chas. Linsey and son, J. B. and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey called on relatives at Walton on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. George Miller and children were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burgess of Taylor Mill Road on Sunday.

WHITES TOWER

Tom Brumback of Independence has been entertaining his cousin from Cleveland, Ohio over the week-end. Tom is counting on a visit to Cleveland next vacation time.

Suckers eight inches long are on the tobacco now and its never been topped, and they only come on the trip when the plant is in full bloom. This is something We have never seen before and is probably caused by the wet weather a few weeks ago. Plants are tall and the leaves large this year.

Melvin Vincent has his new home closed in and the new home next to the Ride A-Wee is waiting for the plasters.

Several persons were injured quite seriously in a car accident near Visalia Saturday night. We did not learn their names but they were from Covington and Latonia.

We are glad to report Mrs. Henry Bindel is home from the hospital and is much better.

Dock Webster and family of Louisville visited the former's mother here over the week-end.

The temperature this morning is about 85 with prospects of a very hot day which makes for good crops. Cornfield beans are in abundance and the best quality and reasonable in price, tomatoes 10c pound and large mangos 5c each.

The little daughter of Jack Baker was taken to the hospital last week. It has not been determined just what the trouble is. Nothing serious we hope.

Mr. Fred Smith of Visalia is home from the hospital and is progressing very satisfactorily at home.

An experimental model seed-reclaimer operating on the vacuum cleaner, and agitator principle, has reduced shatter and losses by 75 to 95 percent under test conditions in seed production.

Frozen unsweetened apples are considered best for pies, but far uncooked desserts, texture and flavor of most fruits are improved by the use of sweetening.

THE HUMAN MACHINE

By Dr. G. C. Donahoo

You own the most wonderful mechanism that has ever been perfected, your body. If you gave this body as careful attention as the engineer gives his locomotive, or as much care as the motorist gives his automobile, it would last many many years without a breakdown. Your physical mileage would be lengthened and your joy as you travel along life's highway would be many times multiplied.

When you notice the first signs of engine trouble when you find that you cannot make the grade as easily as you used to, have a thorough physical check up. Prevention is always better than cure, and if the cause of your ills is discovered early, much pain and suffering may be avoided.

Spine failure occurs in some degree in the majority of people. The symptoms are seldom ones that lead you to suspect there's anything wrong with your spine. You may simply have headaches, muscular soreness or a generally "run down" feeling. The effects may show up far from the cause. It is always better to be safe than sorry, and thousands of people who never really feel 100% could save themselves still more serious trouble by taking the proper steps to correct spine failure before it becomes acutely dangerous. "It takes backbone to be healthy."

We Never Know

When that front door, side door or rear door opens we never know what's coming in. Just today Ray Fisk came in the front door, Red Belcher in the side door and Nick Trapp in the rear door—They all wanted something and we really put out the service.

Leo Courtney came in for a few bolts for a truck rack before we finished he had the bolts, the clips for each end, also the angle irons to hold the flat bed together. We cut the iron, drilled the holes and made everything ready for him to go home and put it together. Nick Trapp wanted 1¼ inch plastic pipe to put in his water pump for his tractor.

Scott and Bobby Lancaster were here they are still painting and spreading that Bolce Paint—Jake Stahl was up today he came to the doctor. Take looks real good, says he feels better.

Several were getting their hunting license and shells the squirrel season opens the 15th of August. Roger Arnold came in after six gallons of Bolce's Liquid Satin for the interior of Zion Baptist Church.

Mrs. Charles Roberts wanted some Flat Black to paint wrought iron with we had it.

Ralph Sparks and Ed Black came after 8 gallons of Bolce's Outside White and 2 gallons of linseed oil to paint the Zion Baptist Colored Church here in Walton. —This paint sure does a nice job, it is snow white and has plenty of gloss.

Omer Kite came after two gallons of linseed oil to thin that Bolce Paint he bought here, is too thick.

—Robert Behymer over at Zion Station bought five gallons of Bolce's Outside White for his house. Robert Morgan just came in after 30 feet of 1½ inch plastic pipe with the fittings. This sure works fast and easy.

Mack Bill Durr over 25 feet of 2 inch plastic pipe I had ordered special for him. I also took Mrs. Newman Armstrong a part for her Easy Washer I had ordered for her.

Irene Ford and Ruby Treadway came for Bolce White Enamel. Mrs. Margaret Smith down at Beaver brought a chain pump, Everett Jones took it down for her. It was Minnie and son came after more Bolce's Outside White and Red Roof and Barn paint, they also bought a mowing machine tongue.

Robert Behymer bought his wife a 12x12 Armstrong Rug for her spare bedroom, we have some very nice patterns in rugs and yard goods.—Mr. Oscar Chandler was here looking for water heater and water pump he just bought a place on Shady Lane just north of Cemetery.—Mr. Charles Archer and daughter Bought several items, a dish drainer, meat platter and a large oval galvanized tub. Kyle Nicholson is starting Delaney Johnson a new barn he had Brewster make him 24 anchors 18 inches long to fasten this barn to the foundation.

John Woods and Jess Callen have started Mr. Carey a new barn they have the foundation poured. They are going to try to have these barns ready for tobacco housing. So as green as it is now, I believe they will make it and sometimes think this is a PAINT SHOP—instead of a HARDWARE STORE we have so much repairing to do. But there is no one else that will take time to do these jobs, we don't mind to do them if we have time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kacaba were in today they say back here to stay. They have been in Alaska for several years, he is stationed in Cincinnati, O now and they are looking for a house. Charles Maloney said send him six lengths of 1½ inch galvanized pipe to the new house he had about finished down on Nicholson Road. This is the second one he has built down there.

We just received another load of Bolce's Paint in it was another 100 one gallon cans of Bolce's Outside White just made and ready to use. Try some and if you don't like it, please tell us and will correct your troubles.

Raymond Baker bought a spool of wire for electric fence, a tobacco spear, a tomahawk and some steel rods. Ira Dixon bought that asbestos fiber aluminum paint for his house roof.

They have just finished painting the Zion Baptist Church here in Walton with Bolce's Outside White and trimmed with Shutter Green. Take a look at this job.

Clem Washum bought his wife a new Barton Washer Kenney Vest's wife was in, she said Kenney was out in the dog house now that new washer did the work.

Mrs. Margaret Baker bought a nice piece of linoleum. We have some new patterns. Mr. Oscar Chandler came back and bought a Dayton Jet Water System and a 52 gallon Electric Water heater.

We just installed a 52 gallon Electric Water Heater for Mrs. Martha Wallace. Cliff Chance put this one in for me and did a nice job. Mrs. Lindsay Brasher and Mr. Robert Webster were here getting a few small hardware items.

John Hartman's wife sent him after a Angle Food Cake pan. A customer said not know bought a large one I took manner and four 1-gren jars. We have a lot of canning supplies and all size cold packers and pressure canners. And just remember for deep freeze work course I still have gala for items I never have but I try to keep what the average household or farmer uses. That is hard but I do my best to serve you what men every day.

Boone County Fair to Open On Thursday

Horse Shows Featured Friday and Saturday

This is the week! The Boone County 4-H and Dairy Fair will be held on the Burlington grounds August 23, 24 and 25.

Thursday morning the exhibits will be judged with the dairy show starting at 10 a.m. W. J. Hiatt, superintendent of the dairy show, states there will be dairy animals from all the surrounding counties and that these animals will be prize winners and state fair quality. Dr. M. Seath, head of the Dairy Department, University of Kentucky, will be the judge.

In the afternoon there will be a feed sack dress revue and 4-H style show. 4-H leaders have reported that 4-H members are working hard for this event.

Thursday night there will be a special program of the Church Choir Sing. Local churches entering the sing, their directors and the numbers to be presented are: Burlington Methodist, Mrs. I. O. Smith, Now the Day is Over by Sabert Barnes; Union Baptist, Rev. E. L. Carpenter, Just A Little Talk With Jesus and Glorious Is This Name; St. Paul Baptist, Florence, The Lord's Prayer by Lani Angelicus and Ave Maria; Walton Methodist, Mrs. Sam Hudson, Except Him; In All the Earth by Norman and Simpson by Adam Cole. Judges for this event are William Layne, choir director from Covington, and Mrs. Oliver Redmond, Fort Thomas.

Also on Thursday night there will be a tractor contest and the pig scramble for boys 12 and under. As in the past, Earl Huffman, noted master of ceremonies, will returned to handle the grandstand program for the fair.

Friday morning there will be the beef, hog and 4-H beef shows with Robert Brush, Assistant County Agent in Campbell County, as judge. In the afternoon there will be the team pulling contest which is always an interest to many people.

Friday night at 8:30 there will be the first horse show. Lillard Scott and Courtney Kelly are ringmasters. The horse show has been planned so that other horse shows in this section of the country will not coincide with the local show.

On Saturday morning at 10:30 will be the purebred Hereford show with Wilbur Gray in charge. He says there will be fine beef cattle from all parts of the state.

There will also be two horse shows and a pony show on Saturday, one starting at 1:30 p. m. and the final show at 8:30 p. m.

Covington Office Is Ready to Receive Claims from Women

The Covington Social Security office announces they are now ready to receive claims for social security benefits from all women between ages 62 and 65, who may qualify for benefits under the new Social Security Law. This includes widows with or without social security numbers of their own, of deceased workers who were insured under social security; wives of wage earners who are drawing social security benefits; women workers who are retired or, though working, will not earn over $2080 in 1956, and dependent parents of an insured worker who died leaving no widow, widower, or child who could get monthly social security payments.

To facilate these claims the Social Security office asks that the women bring with them proof of age, such as Baptismal Certificates, Family Bibles, or old Insurance Policies which show their dates of birth. The widows are also requested to bring their marriage certificates.

Wives and women workers are reminded that if they choose to start getting the payments before they reach age 65 there will be a reduction in their benefits. The reductions are permanent, payments after 65 will remain reduced. Payments will not be made until Nov. 1956.

The Covington Social Security office will be located at 729 Scott Boulevard.

MRS. NETTIE KELY

Mrs. Nettie Kely, Burlington, one of the oldest members of the Burlington Baptist Church, died Tuesday at the Life Bridge Nursing Home. She was 92 years old.

A native resident of Boone county, she is survived by a son, Howard Kelly of Florence, two grandchildren, and five great grandchildren.

Services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30 in the Burlington Baptist Church, with burial in Hebron cemetery.

Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

Home Economics Teachers Meet In Annual Conference

Miss Mary Ellen Bruce, Walton-Verona High School, and Mrs. Helen McElroy, Simon Kenton, were two of the more than 200 home economics teachers in Kentucky who gained "do it yourself" ideas from Mrs. Charles R. Crumpton at this year's annual conference of teachers. The conference was held at the FFA Leadership Training Center at Hardinsburg.

Mrs. Crumpton's illustrated talk was on making hats from straw braid and waxed velvet tubing purses from straw braid and sheet aluminum, lamp shades from parchment, and various other gift items.

Under the leadership of Mary Alice Sheffler, from the University of Illinois, a workshop on home experiences was conducted. Sixteen teachers from the Northern Kentucky District availed themselves of this opportunity.

Special messages were brought to the teachers by Dr. Robert Martin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and James L. Patton, head of the Bureau of Vocational Education.

This conference was planned by a committee of home economics teachers guided by Miss Mary L. Williamson, State Director of Home Economics Education, and Mrs. Fannie Porter, supervisor.

Beginning teachers from this district who attended the conference were: Mary Ellen Bruce, Walton-Verona; Freda Fennix, Lloyd; Inez Toohey, Harrison County; Betty Mains, Morgan, and Shirley Dugger, Carrollton.

Hassert Wins Promotion

Ronald W. Hassert, son of Edward Hassert, Route 1, Independence, recently was promoted to specialist third class at Fort Meade, Md., where he is a member of the 98th Machine Records Unit.

Specialist Hassert is a key punch third shift supervisor in the unit. He entered the Army in March of 1955 and received basic training at Fort Carson, Colo. He graduated from Simon Kenton High School in 1953.

AUTON - McCORMICK

Miss Martha Jane Auton of Senour Road, Oak Ridge, and Mr. Ernest R. McCormick of Union, were united in marriage at the Latonia Church of Christ on Saturday, July 28. The ceremony was performed by Robert Jones of the Taylor Mill Church of Christ. A reception followed at the bride's home where a buffet supper was served to 104 guests.

The bride wore a princess style chantilly lace dress over taffeta and carried a fan-shaped white orchid bouquet. Her sister, Mrs. William McPheron, was maid of honor. Mrs. R. W. Cooke, bridesmaid, and Jennifer Lynn Cooke, flower girl, were gowned in taffeta in blue, pink, and yellow.

William McPheron was best man; R. W. Cooke was the groom's attendant and Norman Hogan and James Auton were ushers. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Fred Auton.

Mrs Nestor Honored at Tea

Among the summer parties in Boone county was the reception tea given by Mrs. Clifford Coyle at her home on Burlington Pike, Florence. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Roy G. Nestor, retiring organizing regent of the Boone County D.A.R. Chapter. Co-hostesses for this occasion were Mrs. Davis Gaines and Mrs. Clarence Wolfe of Hebron.

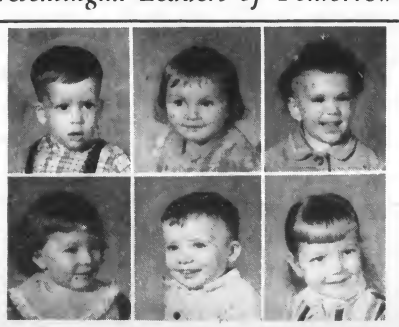
The house and tea table were attractively decorated with summer flowers from the Coyle gardens. The flower theme was repeated in the punch bowl decoration in the form of a frozen bouquet of flowers floating on the punch which was served from a beautiful antique glass bowl. Mrs. Wolfe served.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Samuel Denham, Sr., presented Mrs. Nestor with a Past Regent's D.A.R. pin on behalf of the chapter. The guest list included all members of the Boone County Chapter.

CAROLYN SHARPE

Miss Carolyn Sharpe, age 56, was born August 16, 1899, and died an August 12, 1956. She was the daughter of the late James and Lula Sharpe, and the sister of Mrs. C. F. Rogers, Walton; Mrs. Braaddus Hiles, South Ft. Mitchell, and George W. Sharpe, Cincinnati.

Funeral services were conducted last Tuesday afternoon at the Smith-Rees funeral chapel by Rev. Dinsmore Nesbit and Rev. Clement Ritter of the Cynthiana Christian Church. Burial was in Battle Grove Cemetery.



ICE CREAM SOCIAL

The Kenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department and the Ladies' Auxiliary will combine their efforts and give a home made ice cream and cake social on Saturday, August 25, beginning at 6:00 p. m., at the Firehouse in Kenton. The ladies will use their share to purchase new equipment for the life squad and the firemen will put theirs in the new equipment fund.

BEAVER HOMECOMING

Homecoming will be held at the Beaver Lick Baptist Church on Sunday, August 26. Services will be held in the morning and afternoon, with dinner on the grounds at noon. All are invited to attend.

Harness Racing To Open Friday Night At Florence Track

The five-eighths mile plant outside Florence, Ky., on U.S. Highway 42 will move into an inaugural 28-night meeting with a nine-race card starting at 8:30 p. m.

President and General Manager Dick Hutchison hasn't cut financial corners in construction and convenience in giving the greater Cincinnati area one of the Nation's most elaborate layouts.

Hutchison estimates that Kentucky Raceway can handle a nightly crowd in the upward of 11,500 without any strain.

There is comfort in the steel and concrete grandstand where 4,500 patrons can be seated, plus 450 dining fans in the clubhouse enclosure.

Parking appears no problem since adjacent lots behind the grandstand can handle 5,000 cars.

The track's expansive 100-pole lighting system seemingly makes for night racing an even greater visual clarity than the daytime sport.

Legion Auxiliary Installation

Installation of officers of Johnson-McElroy American Legion Auxiliary Unit, No. 272, will be held on Monday, August 27, at Jonodo Restaurant, on the Dixie Highway, one mile south of Walton.

Mrs. John Hurley, Sixth District President, from Norma Barnes Unit, Covington, will preside as installing officer.

A dinner will precede the installation at 8:00 p. m. All reservations must be made not later than Aug. 23.

KENTON 4-H MEET

The Kenton County 4-H Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lawler. Before the business session members went swimming, and afterwards enjoyed a wiener roast. During the business meeting each member discussed how for along he was on his project. Seventeen members were present.

Thompson-Robinson Reunion

The 25th annual Thompson and Robinson reunion will be held on Sunday, August 26 at the Stringtown Christian Church on State Highway 36, between Cynthiana and Williamstown, it was announced by Rev. Anson Doud of Corinth. A special invitation is extended to all descendents of these two large families to be present.

Evans-Lawrence Wedding Solemnized At Bride's Home On Alta Vista, August 11th

The wedding of Miss Vada Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans of Walton, and Mr. Alvin L. Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lawrence of Corinth, was solemnized August 11 at 4 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents. The living room was changed into a chapel with the fireplace serving as an alter. On the mantel was an open Bible with fern and candles on each side, and in front of the fireplace were white gladioli and tapers. A very pretty setting for a very pretty wedding. Immediately before the cememony, Mrs. Madine McSword, sister of the groom, sang "Walk Hand in Hand with Me" and "I Love You Truly". She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Irma Rector. The Rev. Joseph Tackett officiated at the double ring ceremony, which was concluded with Mrs. McSword sing "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a billowing skirt, and a finger tip veil, which was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white orchid on a white satin Bible.

Miss Betty Marie Cook was the maid of honor. Her gown was fashioned on the lines of the bride's gown in a lovely shade of delicate pink. Mr. Charles Lawrence and Donna Kaye Lawrence, brother and sister of the groom were the candle lighters.

A reception took place immediately following the ceremony in the game room of the Evans' home. A beautiful three-tier cake centered the serving table. Punch and cake were served by Mrs. James E. Falls and Mrs. C. S. Vallandingham to almost two hundred guests of the happy couple.

After a brief trip through Kentucky Mr. Lawrence and his bride are now residing at 120 South Main street, Walton, Kentucky.

RYLAND HOMEMAKERS

Members attending were: Mesdames W. P. Schwall, O. J. Williams, W. A. Damon, Harold Ward, F. B. Hermes, John Belew, G. A. Damon, Evert Wilson, J. H. Lawson, B. Barnes, J. A. Rich, and Miss Ruth Schmidt.

Houston Completes Course

Pvt. Paul A. Houston, son of Lee Houston, Route 1, Walton, Ky., recently completed the radio teletype operation course at the Army's Southeastern Signal School, Ft. Gordon, Ga.

The 15-week course trained him to operate radio transmitting and receiving sets in combination with teletypewriter equipment, using both voice and Morse code communications.

Houston entered the Army last January and received basic training at Ft. Jackson, S. C. He attended Simon Kenton High School in Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watts and daughters visited the State Capitol at Frankfort, also the "Old Fort" at Harrodsburg, Sunday, and then spent the rest of the day at Joyland Park, Lexington.

March of Dimes Chairman

Ralph G. Maurer

John O. McEvoy, Florence attorney, and Ralph G. Maurer, editor of the Northern Kentucky News, have been named co-chairmen of the Boone County March of Dimes campaign, it was announced this week by Mrs. J. R. Schwenke, county chairman.

Mr. McEvoy and Mr. Maurer said they would organize precinct workers in the county during the next few months in preparation for the January March of Dimes.

Mr. McEvoy is also treasurer of the Boone County Chapter, NFIP, and Mr. Maurer is secretary of the chapter.

The Boone County Chapter has received $7,825 from the National Foundation since January of this year to pay for patient care for Boone county polio cases, Mrs. Schwenke said. The chapter is now caring for four patients.

Many New Teachers Added to Faculty

Superintendent Robert B. Hon announces that on Tuesday morning, Sept. 4th, school bells will again ring in our community.

School will open with an assembly program, and be dismissed at noon on the first day. The remainder of the week will be a full day with lunch to be served in the cafeteria.

We are very happy to announce that we have been able to secure a very effecint faculty for both schools.

At the Verona School, Mr. Ed Chipman will serve as principal and 7th and 8th grade teacher. Mrs. Arnold Alfred Jr. will teach the 5th and 6th, Mr. Wm. Mathis the 3rd and 4th, and Mrs. Wm. Mathis the 1st and 2nd.

The following composes the faculty of the Walton School: Mrs. Lillian Acree and Anna B. Vest, health, drivers training and coach; Mr. James S. Smith, principal.

Rev. Talley To Speak

Rev. James H. Talley, pastor of the Caroline Street Methodist Church in Baltimore, Md., will be guest speaker at the Walton Methodist Church, Sunday morning at 11:00.

Rev. Talley is a former pastor of the local church, having left here in 1942. Mr. and Mrs. Talley and two sons, Jimmy and Joe, are visiting in this area. Mrs. Talley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Cornelius, live near Gardnersville.

Services will be dismissed Sunday evening in order that members may be free to visit the Christian Church and hear the new pastor, Rev. George Fiske.

Rev. G. W. Hoffman Retires from Ministry To Live In Wilmore

Rev. Geo. W. Hoffman, pastor of the Warsaw Methodist Church, is retiring from the ministry at the close of this conference year, and he and Mrs. Hoffman will reside in Wilmore, Ky. Mr. Hoffman, who is 69 years old, was born in Covington.

He entered the ministry at the age of 19 and has been a member of the Kentucky conference for 44 years. He attended the Presbyterian Semintary in Louisville, and received his A.B. degree from Asbury College, Wilmore.

Rev. Hoffman began his ministry in the mountains of Kentucky and his first partorate was at Morehead. Since then he has served as pastor of the following Kentucky churches: Walton, London, Williamstown, Chaplin, North Main in Winchester, Pleasureville, Vanceburg, and Warsaw.

Rev. and Mrs. Hoffman, the former Jessie Gaugh, of Lexington, moved to Warsaw from Walton in 1954. Mr. Hoffman served as pastor of the local Methodist church twice, and as a boy attended school here when his father was minister for the local congregation. The Hoffmans came to Walton just after their marriage and were the first residents of the present parsonage. His last stay here was for almost seven years.

The Hofmans have four children, George, of Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. W. A. Dealy of Miami, Fla., Roger, of Washington Court House, Ohio, and Mrs. Paul Beighle of Walton.

His final sermon was preached at Warsaw, Sunday, at which time he and his wife were honored by the congre-

OAK RIDGE

Donnie and Orel Jones of Lipscomb Road, returned home Saturday following a three weeks visit with their uncle, Warren Dorman, and family. Warren drove them home and spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orel Dorman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Free and son, Jimmy and Harvey, have been visiting friends and neighbors the past two weeks. The Frees now live in Florida but they lived in our community for many years when Ted ran the service station at the corner of Lipscomb Rd. and Taylor Mill and he was the first chief of the Taylor Mill Volunteer Fire Department. Jimmy Free graduated from Simon Kenton High School in 1952 and he will enter medical school at the University of Florida in Sept.

Everyone in the community is busy canning these days. The cool, wet summer caused the tomatoes to ripen slowly but they are the nicest in years. They don't have the blight they had the last few years. Beans have been lovely, field corn is tender and juicy. Watermelons are cheap just now and the ones we have had have been sweet.

Mrs. Chester Tallent and children, Terry, Carol and Kevin, have gone to London, Ky., to visit her sister, Mrs. Ernest Meyers. They were accompanied by Miss Linda Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin bought a new car last week. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Yates are also sporting a new car.

One of Paul Fortner's sons ran thru a glass door without opening the door and had to have seven stitches put in his shoulder.

We were glad to hear that Mrs. Kenneth Galloway is out of the hospital and recuperating at her home.

Mrs. Paul Newsom has gone to Tennessee to visit her mother.

Mr. Ethel Frigel is still not able to be out and would enjoy visits from his friends.

The G. A. rally at Bethel Grove, Aug. 18 was well attended. We were glad to have Linda Yates, one of the girls from Oak Ridge Baptist Church, elected vice president of the North Bend Associational G. A.'s.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson and children spent the weekend in Lexington, visiting Mr. Thompson's mother, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carter and children of Melbourne, Fla., spent two weeks visiting Mrs. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Richardson.

Mrs. Gene Kelly of Hands Road, entertained the Annie Allen Circle of the Oak Ridge Baptist Church, August 14.

We are happy to welcome Ed Lightner back to our community. He moved to Covington for several months, but recently returned to his home on Taylor Mill Pike.

Look Magazine Features Kentucky's State Parks

The issue of Look Magazine for July 24 carries a feature story on Kentucky's State Parks. Titled Backyard Vacation, the six-page, ten-picture article takes a trip with a young couple from Hopkinsville, Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Anderson.

The story points out the Andersons could have gone almost anywhere on their vacation, "but their favorite places lie almost in their own back yard—in Kentucky's State parks—among the Nation's finest."

Among the nearly 30 parks, shrines and monuments throughout the State visited by the Andersons were Cumberland Falls, Kentucky Dam Village, Kentucky Lake State Park and Mammoth Cave.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for the cards, flowers, and gifts, also the blood donors, Dr. Boyd, Dr. Lee, Allison & Rose, and everyone at Booth Hospital who helped me. God bless all.

VERONA

Rev and Mrs Kelly Kennedy and family were entertained in the home of Mr and Mrs James Burchett, Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Harvey Caldwell of Newport, visited his father, Mr and Mrs Sidney Caldwell.

Mr and Mrs Bernard Wilson and Mr and Mrs Charles Wilson left Monday for Cleveland, Ohio, and Detroit, Mich. to visit some old friends. They will return home Thursday.

Mrs Susie Glore returned Sunday from New Liberty, where she had been visiting Mrs Lucy Donnelly and son, Herbert, since Thursday.

Mrs Mary Porter was calling on Mrs Flonnie Edrington, Friday evening. Mr Porter was attending the Men's Bible Class of the church.

Mr and Mrs Louis Elliott and Mr and Mrs Ed Chapman went to Herrington Lake, on a fishing trip Friday and stayed until Sunday afternoon.

Mrs Arsilia Hayden spent Thursday with Mrs Lucy Donnelly of New Liberty.

Mr and Mrs Prentice Burden are rejoicing over the arrival of a new son, born Sunday, August 12.

Miss Nola Yates was visiting Miss Carolyn Hayden, Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Robert Orr spent from Thursday until Saturday with his brother Mr and Mrs Edgar Orr, Portland, Indiana.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mr and Mrs Ronald Losey and J B Losey spent Saturday in Lexington.

Mrs and Mrs Ray Martin and children have returned from a week's vacation in Michigan and are spending several days with her parents, Mr and Mrs J B Barnett.

Mr and Mrs L J Rapp and Mr and Mrs C S Rapp and children returned Saturday evening from a visit with Mr and Mrs Jesse Rapp of Magee, Ark.

We regret very much the accident wherein Ronald Rice received a rather serious head wound when a barn door was pushed over on him. An operation seems necessary and we wish him a speedy recovery. He was missed at church and Sunday school on Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. W E. Hanna had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children.

Mr and Mrs J A Keeney had as guests Sunday, Mr and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children of Dayton, Ohio.

The meeting of the WSCS at the home of Mrs Leslie Damon was quite well attended, though a few were unavoidably absent. Mrs. Opal Shaw conducted the program, which was participated in by several members. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to 14 members. The next meeting will be with Mrs Dewey Parsons.

We are quite proud of the showing made by our ball teams this season. All who took any part are to be congratulated, since good attendance at both practice and games is necessary to come out on top, and that requires sometimes to forego other things we would like to do.

Miss Minnie Rapp spent the past week with Mr and Mrs Denver Binder.

Ordinance 256

An ordinance fixing the several tax levies of the City of Walton, Kentucky for the year 1956.

The City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, does ordain as follows:

Section 1 That an ad valorem tax of seventy-five 75c) cents on each one hundred dollars worth of property subject to taxation by the City of Walton, Kentucky, (except unmanufactured agricultural products, and shares of stock of state banks and trust companies incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth), is hereby levied for the use of the general expense fund of said City of Walton, Kentucky, for the year of 1956.

Section 2 That a tax of twenty (20c) cents on each one hundred dollars of the fair cash value, be and it is hereby levied and imposed upon all shares of stock of State Banks and Trust Companies incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth and located in the City of Walton, Kentucky, for the use and benefit of the general expense fund of the City for the year 1956.

Section 3 That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from its passage and publication as by law required.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Walton Kentucky, by the vote of five members of the Council on the 20th day of August, 1956

R M HALL, Mayor,
City of Walton, Kentucky

Attest
HAROLD L CAMPBELL, Clerk,
City of Walton, Kentucky

Cattle accounted for 16.7 percent of farmers' receipts in 1955, milk, 12.2 percent, hogs, 9.9 percent, cotton, 9 percent, and wheat, 5.7 percent.

Milk is in the diet of most of the earth's population. In addition to cow, milk is taken from camels, reindeer and caribou, water buffalo, zebra, yak, llama, sheep, goats, and mares.

WHITES TOWER

Garcia Darrell of Bethel, Ohio is here in a visit to his brother Ray Darrell and other relatives and friends.

Mrs H A Merrill of Fowler Creek Road is home from the hospital after a heart attack recently.

Bud Ryle and wife left Saturday for Chicago on a business trip. Ella Mae will do some shopping in the Windy City for the week they will be there.

This coming weekend the writer will have some of the finest beans, corn and tomatoes on display that we have seen in the thirteen years we have been on the farm.

Tobacco in this vicinity is the largest and best quality we have ever seen. The quality is excellent tha the yield may be down due to the hail, and the light texture of this years crop. But the price is bound to be up as there is a shortage of several million pounds in this Burley district.

The deep freezers are being packed with the finest vegetables and fruits as this is an exceptional year for farm products, which are the best in years, and reasonable in price, too.

The electric and plumbing work has been inspected in the Dorsey home and the plasterers are on the job this (Monday morning), so it won't be long now until we will have some very popular and welcome neighbors in our little colony.

Mr Casey will be back from his vacation and he will take over this column and you can expect an entire change, and probably a welcome one as Hugh is a retired reporter who thinks there is no place like Kentucky for neighborliness and hospitality. He would not agree to write the column as he says I don't think the editor would be able to read my writing—was anyone ever able to read a bank president's signature?

Better get your order in for those pears as they are going to be the "buy of the year" at one dollar per bushel. These pears really make better preserves than the high priced ones that are shipped here. If you don't believe it, stop and we will give you a sample.

Several from here attended the Falmouth fair last week, but reported that it was not up to the former high standard of farmer years. I'll make you a bet that next year's fair will be the best ever.

Saturday night's game at Crosley Field couldn't help but make us wonder what would happen if the Reds could scatter that bunch of home runs they made against Milwaukee through the next two games. Its just the luck of the Reds to pop up and strike out now for about three games. We hope we're wrong but we are writing this Sunday morning, August 19, so we will see how it turns out. Na one hopes I am wrong more than I do.

Several Cincinnatians were injured early Sunday morning, none seriously, on the curve at Stroer's Cafe when their car failed to make the curve and turned over.

Jess Webster and wife had as a guest over the weekend her cousin from California, who is here on vacation.

Mr. Fagely and wife of Latonia, Chas. Dorsey and wife, and the writer and wife attended the Owensville, Ohio fair last Wednesday.—EJR

Hickory Grove W. M. S.

The W. M. S. met at the Hickory Grove Baptist Church Tuesday night at 8 o'clock with eight members present. They were Mrs. Violet Lipscomb, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Martha Maddox, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Forest Popp, Mrs. Anna Wienel, Mrs. Janetta Neuspickle and Mrs. Hilda Jump.

The officers were re-elected for coming year: Mrs. Lipscomb, president; Mrs. Maddox, vice president; Mrs. Popp, secretary and Mrs. Jump, treasurer; Mrs. Taylor, youth director.

The program "Ye Christian Heralds, Go Preaching" was studied, also how the Carver School, hospitals and other missionary places were established. It was very interesting. We are to study a Mission Study Book in September, possibly a book on Stewardship and Prayer. Everyone invited to attend. Our next meeting will be September 4th at eight o'clock at the church.

Cecilion 4-Hers Enjoy Tour

On Monday, August 13, the Cecilion 4-H Club of Independence, took a tour of the Procter & Gamble plant at Ivorydale, Cincinnati. A bus was secured and a fine time was had by the following members, leaders and guests:

KENTUCKY ATTRACTS 47 NEW INDUSTRIES

Forty-seven manufacturing plants began operations or announced plans to locate in Kentucky for the first six months of the year, an official report has announced.

Issued by the Department of Economic Development and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, the report said the new plants will create more than 6,500 new jobs and have annual payrolls estimated to reach 23 million dollars. New factory employees for the entire year of 1955 totaled approximately 8,000, according to the report.

The new factories located in 22 counties, will have a plant investment of nearly 40 million dollars, compared with plant expenditures of 70 million dollars during the entire year of 1955.

The report said Kentucky reported a monthly average of 164,000 manufacturing jobs in 1559, about 9 percent more than the previous year which was the highest rate increase in 11 southeastern states.

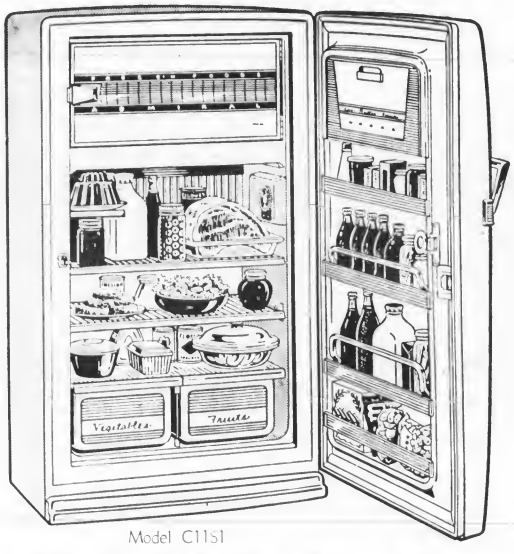
SUFFERING IS A RESULT

By Dr G C Donohoo



When Robert Ingersoll said, "Suffering is not a punishment, it is a result" he was merely stating a well known fact. And because many of our readers are Chiropractic Laymen, we would merely be stating a fact well known to you, should we say that suffering that comes with disease is a subluxated (slipped) vertebrae and a violation of hygienic rules. You have learned that fact in the school of your own personal experiences. Now many of you, at the first sign of physical suffering, get relief in Chiropractic care. Many of you avoid such suffering by having periodic Chiropractic examinations and whatever care such examination proves to be necessary.

How much less suffering there would be if all people knew that while suffering is a result, health is also a result—the result of Chiropractic Care, combined with hygienic living.

Strength—How?

Lesson for August 26, 1956

THE nine short letters which have been the subject of the Bible studies throughout the Protestant churches of America these past two months are as different among themselves as their writers were different. The 3 letters of John were written by a "mystic" one for whom the things that are unseen are more real than anything the bodily eye can see. The letter of James was written by a man who would probably find himself very much at home in the typical American go-getting, practical-minded church. He deals with many problems in a short-spoken blunt fashion; and the problems are exactly those that an American pastor would run into most often in talking with his people.

Dr. Foreman

Why Must This Happen to ME?

One question preachers are asked pretty often is something like this: "Why must this happen to me? I have been a good citizen, I try to be a good Christian, I do all the good I can . . . and now this has happened." "This" may mean a disappointment, disaster, sickness, trouble of almost any kind. James has a surprising answer. "Count it all joy," he says, when such things happen to you. The reason why trials ought to make us happy instead of sad is that trials make us strong. Of course there are always a few abnormal people who don't want to be strong, or don't care, but it is perfectly normal and right to want to be strong in every possible way. No sensible Christian will want to be healthy in body and mind, and yet be content with being a spiritual weakling.—This does not mean that troubles and trials don't hurt; indeed they do. There's no telling ourselves that we like being hurt.—we don't like it. Pain is real, death is real, disappointment and frustration are real. But —James would tell us—let's not whine about such things. Nobody loves to sit in a dentist's chair but all the same, sitting there the patient may well be thankful for dentists. Lying on a bed of pain one may not like the pain but if it is from an operation one may be thankful for the surgeon. So we have every right to thank God for the pains he sends us.

How Does Strength Come?

How does a coach build up a powerful football team? Not by taking the boys out to the field every afternoon in Cadillacs and letting them watch somebody else scrimmage. No strong team ever took a game yet, that had not had a full share of aching muscles, perhaps even broken bones, before hand. How does a recruit in the army put his muscles into shape? Not by tender words from a sergeant who wouldn't for the world hurt these poor young boys committed to his care. No, the sergeant is tough, and his job is to make the boys tough (this does not in the least mean that they have to be profane or mean or cruel), and you don't toughen up by sitting around. You do it by taking long hikes, hikes a little too long, in fact, lifting loads you'd rather not lift, carrying a pack that you think should have been meant for two men. How do students strengthen their minds? Not by letting the teacher do the work. The most effective teachers are those that make the students live hard. So it is in all walks of life. A strong bank is one that can come through years of depression, any bank can make it on a wave of prosperity. A strong farmer is a farmer who can keep on through drought and grasshoppers and boll weevils and what have you, a man who sticks with it while his weaker neighbors pick up and head for the end of the rainbow. Troubles make strength, without trial there will be no strength.

God Knows What He Is Doing

Some people think,—Yes, this is all very true. But there is such a thing as an overload. What if I am so overloaded I break down? The answer to that should be simple for the thoughtful Christian. One who believes in Providence will believe that no trial comes to any man without God's knowledge, indeed not without God's sending. He knows where we need strength; he knows what it will take to make us strong. One who trusts his life to the true God will be assured that God knows what he is doing. He knows what too much would be, and he does not send it.

HOW RESOURCEFUL ARE YOU?

Puppies are generally more resourceful than people! They never take fences seriously. They find a way to get over or under the obstacle.

People take fences seriously. They usually have more respect for their limitations than for their abilities. That's why so many of us live in a narrow, discouraging world without promise or hope.

And even as we speak thrilling words like freedom and opportunity and ideals, some of us wonder secretly just what these are and how they may be attained.

There are spiritual resources in life which can enable any man to achieve ideals. They are the simple, commonplace commodities of religion — things like prayer and faith — but they are the keys to all attainment.

God gave us these resources to use. And He gave us churches to teach us how to use them. Forget your fences — discover your resources in Church next Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Expectant Mothers Should Receive Polio Vaccine

"The importance of vaccinating pregnant women against polio must be emphasized," Dr. Russell E. Teague, commissioner, Kentucky State Health Department stated friday. "Kentucky's first polio death of the year, that of a young expectant mother, reminds us that too many mothers, thinking first of their children, neglect to protect themselves."

Dr. Teague was referring to a Lexington mother who, with her unborn child, died of polio July 2. Although her 18-month-old daughter had been vaccinated the mother had not taken vaccine.

"Enough vaccine is available in the state to protect all pregnant women, as well as persons under 20 years of age. Expectant mothers should begin the series of injections early in their pregnancy, as three doses give the most effective protection against polio, in the majority of cases," Dr. Teague said.

Expectant mothers are urged to consult their physicians and to follow the plan adopted by the medical profession in their localities for administration of the vaccine.

A record crop of turkeys will come to market in August, and there will be sizes to suit all needs, from 4-pounders to large birds for community picnics.

Convention Time

I suppose most of you have been watching the 1956 Democratic Convention in Chicago, over television. I never saw so much maneuvering on the sidelines—everyone agreeing or disagreeing with everyone else. All were talking but Harry Truman—he was listening and watching, ready to pull the right cord at the right time. It takes a lot of doing to run this country, either by the Democrats or by the Republicans. Watch your television and you will see how politicians do their politicing. It takes a lot of politics to get anything done in this great country of ours. The better politician you are the more you can get done.

The great questions at the convention are the Civil Rights and the Farm Program. This week we will see what the Republican Convention has to say. The Democrats have really worked over the Republicans at this convention. Now we are hearing what the Republicans think about the Democrats. They could both be right or wrong as no two people see politics alike.

[illegible] you saw the Sunbeam appliances [illegible] the Democratic Convention program. Sunbeam is the greatest name in appliances [illegible] lawn mower [illegible] We [illegible] with hardly no trouble at all. [illegible] will trade for your old [illegible] Mr. [illegible] on U. S. 42 was inquiring about an oil heater for his home. He now heats with a Warm Morning coal heater. It would take a large oil heater to heat the space the Warm Morning coal heater keeps warm.

[illegible] Clifton and her granddaughter came after Armstrong linoleum. Murrell Caldwell, her brother, bought several gallons of paint. Their father, Kenneth Caldwell, has been on the sick list since April; he worked too long and too hard and now has to take it easy for awhile. Oscar Chandler was here twice after material to install that Dayton water system and electric water heater I sold him. My Dayton pump man, Ed Hanson, brought down a truck load of water systems—we sell a lot of Dayton water systems every month and for $89.50 this is the best buy in a water system I have ever seen.

We sell plastic pipe for suction lines, pressure lines, and drain lines. We carry most all the fittings for ¾, 1, 1¼ and 1½ inch plastic pipe. The squirrel season opened the 15th of August—most everyone was too busy to go squirrel hunting. Stoney Coyle bought Bill's license but Bill didn't have time to go hunting—he may get some Saturday. Kyle Nicholson and his crew, for whom Bill works, are trying to build Delaney Johnson a barn before tobacco housing time.

John Wood and Jess Callen are building one for Mr. Carey. Both of these barns were blown away in the tornado. Raymond Beach is helping them for several days; when they get through with him he is going to work for me. We need another man every day as we do so much repair work. Brewster has lots of outside work and we try to keep at least two of us in the store all the time because most everyone is in a hurry and does not like to wait.

My good neighbor and barber, T. O. Ballard, has Scott and Bobby Lancaster painting his house. Arthur Doggett bought his wife a G. E. steam iron and bought [illegible] he was telling me he planted 38 pounds of potatoes and dug nine bushels [illegible] I don't know how the tobacco crop will turn out but tobacco that has only been set six weeks [illegible] We [illegible] we also have a large supply of Ferguson [illegible] tobacco [illegible] [illegible] there is lots of sap.

For several years I had a hard time to get [illegible] pipe and fittings. About three months ago I put in a stock of 4" soil pipe and fittings, so if you need soil pipe and fittings we have most of them in stock. We also have fiber Orangeburg plastic pipe and fittings which are fine for all drains. Now is the time to use Sta-Dri on your basement walls to keep that water out this winter. It takes about $14.00 to coat the average basement two coats. This cleans it up as well as waterproof the walls.

Today, Brewster put in a big glass for Floyd Sebree in the Model Food Store. Chick put a glass in a window for Roger Eckler, then put new mower sections on Bill Johnson's lawn mower blade. Brewster cleaned and put in new wicks in Mrs. Lula Hudson's oil cook stove. Today we received a shipment of the new Big Ben alarm clock. First change in several years and they are beauties. Get one of these for your home—they make a nice gift for these brides and grooms. One bride, Mrs. Alvin Lawrence, bought one of my best iron boards; she is ready to go to work.

Many Valuable Records Available From Test Farm

We are keeping records on costs and time involved in nearly every operation we have on the farm. Already we can give an accurate comparison on costs in the different methods of clearing land," D. D. Hawkins, farm manager of the University of Kentucky's Eden Hill Test Demonstration Farm, told members of the Kenton Utopia Club Sunday, August 26.

Members of the Utopia Club toured the farm as a part of their planned educational program. The farm, purchased by the University of Kentucky with funds raised by farm people and business concerns in the Eden Hill Area, is located in Owen County. Experimental work is already underway on tobacco varieties, soil fertility levels for tobacco, methods of land clearing, alfalfa grass mixtures, strawberries, raspberries, tomatoes and peaches. Work is planned to start this fall with the dairy cattle beef and sheep programs.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. John Hetterman and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Walsing Jr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and family and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Riley.

A tour through the Kraft cheese plant in Owenton was also made by the club before going to the farm.

As a sergeant, Cline takes over as First Commander of the State Police Post at Dry Ridge, after having been the Assistant Post Commander.

A native of Allen county, Cline is a graduate of Allen County High School and attended Bowling Green Business University. He has been with the State Police since 1951, and is a Navy veteran.

Greater Benefits To Farmers Available Under ACP, Report

Farmers in Kenton county who have soil and water conservation problems are now afforded greater opportunities for benefits under the Agricultural Conservation Program, according to Russell Rector, chairman of the local ASC committee. Announcement has been made that enrollment under terms of the 1957 program may begin this fall. All farmers have an opportunity to request cost-sharing under the new program as well as receiving benefits for conservation measures completed under the 1956 program. Information and requests for assistance may be made at the county ASC office, Mr. Rector said.

Many conservation measures require more than one year to complete. The early announcement of the new program will make it possible to approve cost-sharing for practices begun this fall and completed next year. Mr. Rector emphasized that a farmer must make the request for cost-sharing before beginning the practice in order to be eligible for cost-sharing. Early requests should be made for practices involving establishment of vegetative cover for which a land preparation is begun in the fall and complete establishment measures finished in 1957.

Practices on which cost-sharing is offered under the 1957 ACP will be essentially the same as for the 1956 ACP, Mr. Rector said. These fall into four general categories, (1) establishing permanent protective cover, (2) improving or protecting established cover for better pasture management, (3) conservation in and disposal of water, and (4) establishing temporary protective cover crops.

Greater emphasis will be given to developing permanent vegetative cover under both the ACP and Soil Bank Programs. Assistance will be made available to farmers for the establishment of vegetative cover on cropland taken out of production under either the ACP or Soil Bank.

Local Legion Post Plans to Be In New Home In October

Johnson-McElroy Post, 277, of the American Legion, wishes to take this opportunity to say "thanks" to the people of Walton and surrounding area for the support given to them at their annual picnic.

The American Legion gave away $230 in cash to the following: Lee Dixon, Walton; George Fisk, Nicholson; Cecil Dean, Verona, and Mrs. Edna Maxwell, Walton, $20.00 each. Herman Simmons, Walton, $50, and Ed Walton, Crittenden, got the grand prize of $100.

The two Lee tires, compliments of Cluster's Texaco Service, for the benefit of the tornado fund, went to John Guth, Walton.

Ernest Finney and Mrs. Maude Caldwell, Walton, were winners of the Westinghouse electric roaster and the bedspread, sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary.

"All proceeds from this picnic go to our Building fund for our new post home located at the end of High Street in the Conrad subdivision. We plan to be in our new post by the first of October, at which time we shall hold dedication services.

LABOR'S CONTRIBUTION TO AMERICA'S GREATNESS

America's greatness was wrought by the toil of humble millions; by the axe of the pioneer, the plough of the farmer, the sledge of the worker, the blue-prints of the employer — all laborers and builders of our civilization.

Tomorrow's goal should be closer cooperation and a keener awareness of our mutual problems and common destiny.

What happens when a NEW PAYROLL comes to town?

MORE SPENDING MONEY isn't the only thing a new factory payroll brings to town. A survey made by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce shows that 100 new factory workers also meant this to a community:

296 more people
112 more households
51 more school children
107 more passenger car registrations
174 more workers employed
4 more retail establishments
$590,000 more personal income per year
$270,000 more bank deposits
$360,000 more retail sales per year

Here's convincing proof, we think, that whatever helps the Southland to develop industrially is a real contribution to the long-range growth and prosperity of the South. The Southern helps in many ways.

Our own Industrial Development Department aggressively seeks new industries for every available plant site. Our nation-wide advertising program continually invites business enterprises of all kinds to "Look Ahead — Look South!" for greater opportunity. Our modern rail service helps provide the economical and efficient mass transportation so indispensable to industrial progress and growth.

New payrolls—and all they mean to a community — are "coming to town" all over the South. Last year 23,000 new jobs were created by industrial expansion along the Southern Railway System alone. Many in the South helped bring this about. All in the South benefit!

WHITES TOWER

Suckers on tobacco are making the heaviest growth ever known around here. No one can explain it and at the present rate it will be October before tobacco will be ready to cut.

Tom Brumback left last week for a visit with his father in Cleveland, Ohio.

The two new homes going up in the Tower will be ready for occupancy at about the same time as the plasterers, plumbers and electricians have completed their work — it won't be long now.

Ride A Wee has the finest tomatoes we have seen anywhere, and they are selling for only $1.25 a bushel.

Don Webster and family from Louisville were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Webster, of the Tower.

Red-mangels are splendid in Tower gardens this year, which means a lot of that good relish will be put up for winter.

The best way to keep down rat population on farms is to destroy their living places, such as trash heaps, and to cut off their food supply by storing grains and feeds where rats cannot reach them.

"Casey" Jones' inspiration for the famous railroading ballad was a native of Cayce, Fulton County.

Junior GA Wiener Roast

Miss Sherry Marlene Stephenson entertained on Thursday afternoon of last week with a wiener roast for the Junior G. A.'s of the local Baptist church at her home on Veronia Road.

Those present were Misses Marilyn Watt, Sandra Thomas, Charlotte Rosen, Gail Joyce Burchett, Lulu Mae Coyle, Rowena Richardson, Darlene Cook, Anna Rose Chapman, a visitor, Tina Toner, Counselor Mrs. Dora Burchett, and the hostess, Miss Stephenson. A good time was had by all.

Morgans Enjoy Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Morgan, Don and Sandy, spent five days sight seeing in the Alleghany and Blue Ridge Mountains in West Virginia and Virginia. The Skyline Drive across the Blue Ridge Mountains was beautiful. They also enjoyed their visits to Natural Bridge, Va.; Luray Caverns, Va.; Jefferson's Home at Monticello, Va.; as well as to numerous relatives at South Charleston, Marlinton, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., and Gallipolis, Ohio. They recently spent a delightful weekend up at Catauba Island, Lakeside, Sandusky and Castalia, Ohio, where they saw Lake Erie and The Blue Hide.

Bacteria multiply rapidly, even at 50 degrees F., in frozen foods that have thawed accidently, especially vegetables, shellfish and foods cooked before freezing.

GLENCOE

Cecil Deen Chapman of the U. S. Navy, and wife and daughter, have been visiting his father, C. W. Chapman of Warsaw, and brothers and families, the past ten days. Cecil has enlisted for six more years and is giving the best part of his life for his country.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Poland have been on a vacation the past week.

The revival is going on now at the Glencoe Church of Christ. Brother Joe Johnson of Louisville, is preaching. Come out and hear him.

The new school building was dedicated Sunday. A large crowd attended.

Mr. C. C. Higgins who has been in Christ Hospital for eight weeks, will have another operation Tuesday. Remember him in your prayers.

Farmers are busy housing their tobacco now.

Verona News

Mrs. Pattie Walter, who accompanied her sister, Mrs. Frank White, and daughter, Mary Ethelene White, and Don Frederick to their home in Alton, Ill., some time ago, returned to her home at 47 South Main St., Walton last Friday.

Mrs. Mary E. Johnson is doing as well as can be expected at Booth Hospital, Covington.

Mrs. Joe Loomis of Fort Mitchell and Mrs. Tilly Bannister were callers in Walton, Saturday night.

Billy Mac and Marion Arch Waller were in Louisville Sunday. They plan to move there in the near future.

Mrs. Lizzie Noel returned home on Saturday after spending a week with M. A. and B. M. Waller.

4-H'ers Enjoy Wiener Roast

On Monday evening, August 27, the Carrollton 4-H Club, Independence, held a wiener roast at Foltz's Wal-Nic farm on Walton-Nicholson Pike.

The following members and guests attended: Mary, Marilyn, Teresa and Rose Foltz, Johnny Sonderman, Dennis and Yvonne Friedman, Ronald Garman, Carolyn and Judy Hayes, Margaret Rose and George Hoffman, Kathleen, Bobby, Paul, Ricky and Jane Kunkel, Betty and Elise Meyerschlager, Peggy, Paul, Kathleen, John, Mike and Johnny Ryan, Marilyn, Jimmy and Tommy Strain, Mrs. A. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. M. Strain, Mr. and Mrs. R. Kunkel, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. R. Folt, and M. Foltz.

Walton News

Mrs. J. W. Abernathy has returned home after having been called to Brooksville, Ky., due to the death of her sister, Mrs. Grace Bradford, on August 18.

All officers of the Walton Homemakers Club are requested to meet with the president, Mrs. Stanley Allen, on High Street, Sept. 6 at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Hubert Griffith and son, Ovie, Jack Smith, Tony and Bob Poole spent the weekend in different parts of Tennessee, and enjoyed the Grand Ole Opry Saturday night on their way home.

Nancy Jones is visiting Kathleen Flynn.

Rev. Tackett of the Baptist church, and Rev. Fiske of the Christian church, recently called on Harve Webster, who has been ill for several months. He is at the home of his son, James H. Webster. Mr. Webster would appreciate receiving cards.

R. B. Cole and David Francis were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Griffith and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Verona, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter last Thursday, named Karen Kay. This is the first girl born in the Hamilton family in over one hundred years.

Mrs. Nolan Cole and little son, Gary Nolan, were the Thursday dinner guests of Mrs. J. H. Griffith and son, Ovie.

Medical Students Agree to Practice In Rural Areas

Agreements to practice medicine in rural Kentucky have been made by 16 medical students during 1956 as a result of their approval for loans from the Rural Kentucky Medical Scholarship Fund, according to C. C. Howard, M. D., Glasgow, fund chairman.

In 1956 loan approvals brought to 35 the number of current medical students being aided by the fund. Thirty-five loan recipients are now in rural practice in Kentucky, an additional 25 are interning or discharging their obligation as physicians in the armed forces and will shortly be available to rural communities.

BACK INJURIES

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Thousands of working men know what Chiropractic can do for back injuries. They know that when other methods fail to give them relief, Chiropractic was successful.

It is important for employes and compensation carriers, and the public in general to recognize this fact. Actual studies have been made of injured workers cared for by different systems of therapy. Chiropractic brings the worker through with less chance of the charge of malingering, less cost to the insurance company, less cost for insurance coverage to the employer, as well as less interruption in the production line.

Several large industrial firms are now employing chiropractors on a full time basis to care for their injured workers.

To the chiropractor, the spine represents the keyboard, as it were that locks up and unlocks the inherent curative powers of nature.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, whose office is located at 7628 Dixie Highway, Florence, Ky. Phone ATlantic 3-5371.)

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Royal Law

Lesson for September 2, 1956

"LOVE your neighbor" is called the "Royal Law" once in the Bible. It becomes and is the royal law only when all of it is meant. Love your neighbor as yourself. Everybody loves his neighbor a tiny bit. At least you don't want to see his house burn down, and if you heard that his children had been eaten by an alligator, you would have cut in hoped-it some tinge of regret. But loving your neighbor as yourself—ah that is something quite a lot harder to do.

Dr. Foreman

But the Royal Law demands that we love our neighbor, any neighbor, all neighbors. This is a Royal Law as James called it because it is the law by which the King of the Universe operates. To be sure, we cannot say that God has "neighbors" just as we have. But when God was here on earth, focused you might say in one person, this Son of God, truly royal if ever a man was, lived by the Royal Law.

No Exceptions!

James writes that keeping the law means keeping all of it. To fail in one point means failing, period. We can apply this to the Royal Law. If we are (as Jesus called us) sons and daughters of the Most High, then we are under a kind of regal obligation to live as befits our high privileges. The more truly we live as children of God, the less we can afford to make exceptions on our own, to the royal law of love. But most of us do make exceptions. Jesus knew what they are, so did James. Jesus mentions people who love those who love them in return. We all know the type—maybe we are the type!—the person who treats his friends like princes and other people like dirt, the family who are very warm-hearted and devoted to one another but whom the minister has a very hard time enlisting in any project for community betterment; the college student who is a very loyal fraternity brother but who baldly knows, and doesn't care to know, the student without money to spend. Jesus' parable of the good Samaritan showed up two men who made exceptions to the Royal Law. The priest must have loved his neighbor priests; but the beaten stranger was no priest, so this priest didn't bother with him. The Levite must have had friends he belonged to a class of professional philanthropists. But samaritans were not on the Levite's list of Worthy Causes. So he wasn't bothered. As for the Samaritan, there was every reason to cross off that battered stranger by the road side. By every Samaritan standard he didn't "belong." But the Samaritan kept the Royal Law without making exceptions.

For Whom Do We Pray

One way the reader can test how well he himself keeps this Royal Law is to reflect on his own prayers. We get around to more people in prayer than in actual visits. It is true that on a given day we probably don't pray definitely for every sort and condition of men; but the question which really probes us is not, "Do you pray for every one," but, "Are there any kinds of people for whom you would not pray?" If you are a democrat do you ever pray for a republican? If you are a white person, do you ever pray for negroes? If you are Protestant, do you pray for Roman Catholics? For the Pope? If you are an American, do you pray for Russians? For Chinese? If you are a business man, do you pray for your competitors? As a law abiding citizen, do you ever pray for the men and women in the state penitentiary? You see how it is. The Royal Law is the hardest law there is.

With Whom Do You Pray

James draws a sarcastic little picture of some church ushers he had very likely seen,—polishing the apple of the well-dressed visitor to their church, and shoving the poor man around so that he would be almost sure never to come back. How is it in your church? You may have hanging on the wall somewhere a copy of the Royal Law; but does the church itself keep it? Are there people, Negroes perhaps, who if they risked showing themselves at your church, and wanted to worship with you, would be shoved into a corner or perhaps refused admission entirely? Does your church set the example for its members, the example of love without exceptions?

New Officers Named At Meeting of Boone County Sheep Ass'n

The annual meeting of the Boone County Sheep Protective Association was held Saturday, Sept. 1, in the County Agent's office in Burlington.

At the meeting a change was made in the cost of insuring sheep. The change states that all grade sheep, including lambs until December 31 following their birth, will be fifty cents per head, also the payment on sheep losses will be $12.00 for all grade sheep and $9.00 for lambs. Registered sheep will be insured for $1.00 per head.

Claims will be paid only on sheep killed—sheep badly injured may be killed in the presence of the appraiser or the farm and counted as sheep killed by dogs. Sheep injured that die within fifteen days may be appraised as killed, provided approval is given by the appraiser.

The following officers were elected: Russell Sparks, president; Beckham Shields, vice president, and Robert Maurer, secretary-treasurer. Directors named were: A. L. Stephens, Petersburg; Clifford Gatewood, Union; Cloyd Kannady, Verona; Herman Ryle, Carlton; and Beckham Shields, Walton.

Mr. Sparks urged all sheepmen of the county to insure their flocks at once as all insurance will be due on October 1. Contact the directors or officers in the communities of the county or the County Agent's office.

To Speak at Flangsville

Carrie Bauer and Irene Mayer, missionaries from Africa, will speak at the Flingsville church Monday night, Sept. 10. They have been on the field five years and can tell many truths about the Mission school, orphanage and clinic work over there. They were Bro. Fielding T. Howard's Bible students before going across.

The annual sermon will be preached by Rev. Frank Kuriger, pastor of the Kenton Baptist Church. His alternate is Rev. Charles Garringer, pastor of Southside Baptist Church, Covington.

The afternoon session today begins at 1:30. Rev. Robert Wallace will lead the devotional. After brief reports from various institutions, Dr. A. M. Vollmer, executive secretary-treasurer of the Kentucky Baptist Foundation, Louisville, will be the principal speaker, representing all phases of state work. Rev. T. H. Shelton will report on public morals and civic righteousness.

The evening session will begin at 7:30. Rev. J. R. Tackett will bring the Sunday School report, followed by an address by Prof. Ernest Loessner, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville.

Friday's session will begin with a song service, led by Rev. Jan Fields, at 10 a. m. Rev. Kelly C. Kennedy will bring the devotional. The report of the Woman's Missionary Union will be given by Mrs. Arthur Ammon, superintendent of the North Bend Woman's Missionary Union.

Rev. Carl Hunker, missionary to Formosa, will bring the missionary address. The Brotherhood report will be given by William Stewart. The doctrinal sermon will be preached by Rev. Jack Lowndes, pastor of the Erlanger Baptist Church. His alternate is Rev. Robert Wilson, pastor of Piner Baptist Church.

Ab Ryan Appointed Drive Vice Chairman

R. S. Hensley, Boone Circuit Court Clerk, has been appointed Boone county chairman of the United Appeal for $5,077,266, which begins October 1 throughout the five-county Cincinnati area.

The appeal is designed to raise funds for 114 Community Chest agencies and 16 services of the Red Cross. Counties included in the drive are Boone, Kenton, Campbell, and Hamilton and Clermont counties in Ohio.

Mr. Hensley has a wide acquaintance throughout Boone county, having been operator of a general store in Belleview on the Ohio River for 23 years. He has been Circuit Court Clerk for the past five years.

Mr. Hensley's father, the Rev. H. B. Hensley, who has been pastor of the Lakeview Baptist Church, Fort Worth, Texas, for 37 years, formerly was pastor of Belleview Baptist Church.

Mr. Hensley's son, Howell R. Hensley, is president of the Fort Thomas Bank in Campbell county. He has a daughter, Mrs. Espy Ligon, who resides in Florence.

Active in affairs of the Florence Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Hensley also reside in Florence.

Mr. Hensley said he had appointed George W. (Ab) Ryan, Walton department store owner, as vice chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan have a son, Gary, and a daughter, Deborah. The Ryans are members of All Saints Church in Walton. Mr. Ryan is a member of American Legion Post, 277, and of Father Bealer Council, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Hensley said that names of area chairmen are to be announced within a few days.

Publishers of the three Boone county newspapers have been appointed members of the publicity committee by Mr. Hensley. These are: A. E. Stephens, Boone County Recorder; Mark Meadows, Walton Advertiser, and Ralph Maurer, Northern Kentucky News. W. Robert Ellis, who writes Boone county news items for The Cincinnati Enquirer, has been appointed chairman of the publicity committee, Mr. Hensley added.

G. MESSINGSCHLAGER

Mrs. Gertrude Messingschlager, a resident of Kenton Station, died Friday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. She was 71 years old.

She leaves her husband, William Messingschlager; two sons, William G. of Independence, and Thomas Messingschlager of Kenton; a daughter, Mrs. Ann Newman, of Bond Hill, Cincinnati; nine grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Quick Facts about

HOUSEPOWER

Today, the average home uses 3 times as much electricity as it did 15 years ago. That's why 4 out of 5 homes now suffer from low HOUSEPOWER. This is true even of brand new homes. Here are the conditions that cause you to have low HOUSEPOWER:

1. Inadequate electrical service entrance. To overcome this basic cause of low HOUSEPOWER, you should have service entrance capacity of at least 100 amperes. This requires 3-wire service from the street.

2. Overloaded circuits. Too many appliances on one circuit overload it and none of them get enough power. Motors may even burn out. If the overload is too great, the fuse will blow or circuit-breaker trip. You should have enough branch circuits to distribute enough electricity to all appliances.

3. Insufficient outlets. Some homeowners use extension cords and "octopus" outlets (2- and 3-way plugs), or plug into lighting outlets. Such practices are unsightly, inconvenient, and may be dangerous. Rearranging furniture doesn't help. The only safe solution is to add more circuits and outlets.

These are the symptoms of low HOUSEPOWER: lights dimming when appliances are turned on; blown fuses or tripped circuit-breakers; TV picture shrinking when other appliances are turned on; appliances working inefficiently or taking too long to heat up.

If any of these symptoms are present in your home call your electric company, electrician or electrical contractor for a wiring check-up. If added wiring is necessary, your electrician or electrical contractor will do the job quickly, neatly, economically. It often takes less than a day. Remember, full HOUSEPOWER increases the value of your home.

Don't delay — enter this easy contest today. Nothing to buy. Just answer a few easy questions. Most of the answers you'll find right here in Quick Facts about HOUSEPOWER.

Coleman

Blend-Air SYSTEM

* WARM Comfort In Winter! COOL Comfort In Summer!

Here's more than just a furnace or just an air conditioner. It's a whole new system for distributing comfortably warmed or cooled air in your home. You can set the thermostat at your comfort level with this Blend-Air installation, and have same temperature all year round. Most even temperature, floor to ceiling, in your experience. No "cold spots" in winter, even by windows; no hot spots in summer. No drafts any season! And, actually, you'll pay less for this all-over-the-home comfort system than for an ordinary furnace plus "half-way" spot coolers for 2 or 3 rooms!

So Easy To Install!—With Coleman's 3½-Inch Round Ducts

They fit inside your walls; hook up to "blenders" (see below) and carry heated or cooled air. Save costly hours of installation time; avoid messy "tearing up the house." Compact furnaces go in basement, utility room, attic, closet, alcove. Convenient, space-saving air conditioners can be installed either with furnace or separately!

Guarantees Comfort with $1000 BOND

Only Furnace That Guarantees Comfort with $1000 Bond!

Coleman guarantees you get exactly the heating comfort you want, backed by $1000 Bond.

Use Concealed "Blender" (above) Or Any Of These Models:

Ceiling Perimeter Blender: Mixes room air with freshly-heated (or cooled) air; puts curtain of comfort between outer wall and the rest of the room.

RUN DOWN

By Dr. G. C. Donahoo

We often unconsciously compare our own body mechanisms to that of a watch. You'll hear people say: "I'm run down. Why not carry the analogy one step further? When a watch is run down and doesn't work right we have it adjusted. We can do the same for the body through chiropractic adjustment.

The result in both cases is the same. The watch and the body are both made up of hundreds of tiny parts, all of which must be meshed together in perfect coordination and balance, and with nothing to impede the flow of vital energy. The mainspring of the watch is its "brain." With human beings the brain is the mainspring of all our actions, conscious and unconscious. Our system of interlocking gears, to transmit vital impulses from the brain is our spinal cord.

Shock, fatigue, a fall, any one of a hundred causes can "throw the spine off balance, interfere with proper channeling of nerve impulses from the brain to the other organs of the body. When we're "run down," its a symptom that, like our watches, we need "adjusting." The chiropractor corrects the distortion that has altered or obstructed the proper channeling of nervous impulses and restores the body to the desired equilibrium.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Why Men Fight

Lesson for September 9, 1956

IF SOME angel who had never heard of this earth, or some man from outer space living on some planet never invaded by sin, should get acquainted with the human race for the first time, probably the thing that would astonish them most would be the human hankering for a fight. Here we are, clinging to the surface of a tiny planet, with every reason to hang together, and yet to us who are born here and live here, fights are so common they seem quite natural. People quarrel at home, they get into arguments on the street, congressmen have to be restrained from fist-fights, business men are always at one another's throats, labor and management are on opposite sides, and there is even talk about the "battle of the sexes." As for nations, a man the other day refused flatly to pay a cent of income tax, on the ground that he did not believe in war and he knew that most of his tax would be spent for war, past or prospective. Nobody wants the next war, but who really thinks it will not come?

Dr. Foreman

The Tongue Is a Fire

Why do men fight? Let us admit that there may be times when it is good to give battle. There have been evils, and there still are evils, which are not going to fold up and go away without a fight. But all the same, everybody with sense admits that a vast amount of the fighting we do, whether in our homes or in politics or business or in the mighty struggles between nations, simply gets nobody anywhere. Most fights are a sheer waste of energy no matter who wins; and many fights (like our present and future wars) are such that nobody wins. What starts all this mess? One reason is, people talk too much. James, the salty saint who wrote the letter in the New Testament which bears his name, put his finger right on it. The tongue, he says, is a little thing, but it's wild. Nobody has ever quite tamed it. The tongue is a fire, it can set the world on fire. It is a flame from hell. Of course James does not mean that that all talk is wrong. He recognizes happily the good the tongue can do. But the tongue does start fights. How many family quarrels would have died a-borning if only he and she had done one single simple thing: shut up! How many quarrels had started, and how many made worse, just by people who can't keep their mouths shut! When Hitler was about to set the world on fire, he started by talking, long before his armies took the field.

Wanting Too Much

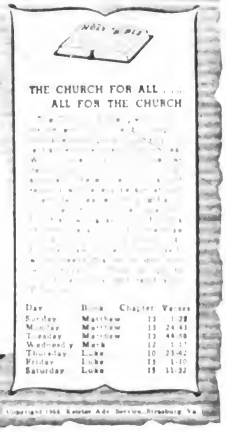
Plain-spoken Admiral Sims once told a feminine audience in Boston that they were the chief cause of war. You have no limits to your wants, he said. Your husbands have to keep working harder to satisfy you, manufacturers have to keep looking farther and further for the raw materials to make the things you want, and presently we get into quarrels with other nations that either want the same things or don't want us to have them, and then you have the makings of a war. Admiral Sims might have been reading the letter of James. Wanting what we don't have, wanting what we actually don't need, he says is a major reason for quarrels and fights among men. Even among Christians, because he is writing to Christians. Was the Admiral right? The reader who feels like arguing with him will have to argue with the writer James no less.

Cure for Quarrels

James no doubt knew as well as the Apostle Paul did that it is not always possible to live at peace with all men. But it is possible to cut down the quarrels. The secret is to see things as G d sees them. Let no one say this is impossible. We not only can, but if we are to survive we must have what James calls "wisdom from above." What he means is nothing weird, out-of-this-world, impractical. "The wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, forbearing, conciliatory, full of mercy and wholesome fruit, unambiguous, straightforward." (Moffatt's translation.) If Christians would begin by settling the example, both in our homes and in our nations, of clamping down on our quarrelsome tongues and typewriters, and living by God's wisdom, the reign of peace would be at least much nearer.

THE PARABLE

Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.



(St. Matthew 13:13)

THE PARABLE is the basis of all religious education. From infancy through adult life we learn spiritual truths only as they are interpreted for us in terms of everyday experience.

OUR CHURCHES follow the example of the Greatest Teacher. Simple precepts or more complex doctrines are brought to us in vivid illustration. Lessons, sermons, hymns — even church architecture and ritual — are full of human narrative, word pictures or traditional symbolism to help us grasp and apply God's truth.

SPIRITUAL MATURITY must come to us through the effective teaching and practical guidance our churches provide. Our souls cannot grow simply by seeing a church on the corner, or hearing folks talk about religion. Worshipping and learning every Sunday, we will understand Christian truth in living terms and use our understanding to serve God and man.

OAK RIDGE

Mrs. Paul Newsum had an automobile accident while on her way to Tennessee to visit her mother. Her new car was badly damaged but fortunately she was not seriously injured.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gaines were married Sunday night when their car ran in an embankment on Highway 42. They were returning from a visit and return home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bowers and son Mike, Lexington were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson.

Harry Vallandingham of the Taylor Mill section suffered a severe arm while answering an accident call with the fire squad.

We were sorry to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Arthur Bowling of Sunny Acres, when she fell down her basement steps recently. She received a broken leg, hip, arm and shoulder in the fall.

We want to welcome the Bryce Schulkers to our community. Mr. Schulker is a barber and has opened the barber shop across from the Taylor Mill Fire House.

The Taylor Mill Pharmacy has moved from Oak Ridge to the new building at the corner of Taylor Mill and Ridge View Drive and we want to wish Mr. Lambert every success in his new location.

The Oak Ridge Baptist Church had a revival meeting at Bethel Grove Labor Day. There was a large attendance every night and delicious food, and ideal weather.

Mrs. O. J. Berman surprised Mrs. John Penick, the former Alberta Sims, with a shower of baby gifts from her many friends in this community.

Mrs. Bill Jaeger and daughter, Mary Lou are spending a two weeks vacation with friends in Florida.

The Lassing family held their annual family reunion at Spring Lake Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lassing and family from Philadelphia, Pa. who came to visit the relatives.

We were sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. J. E. Thompson last week. Mrs. Thompson is a former Lassing lass and has a host of friends in this community. We hope she will be well soon.

Taylor Mill and Walt Road, died Saturday at St. Elizabeth Hospital from a lingering illness. Our sympathy is extended to their families.

Bro. Frank Wilkerson, pastor of Oak Ridge Baptist Church, spent last week visiting his family in Chattanooga, Tenn. His parents returned to Oak Ridge with his Sunday and attended the church picnic at Bethel Grove on Labor Day. They returned to their home in Chattanooga by plane, Tuesday.

We are sorry we will be unable to write a column next week as we will be attending the Commonwealth Life Insurance Co. convention in Washington, D. C.

A. M. Rouse Named Chairman of United Appeal In Local Area

R. [illegible] Hensley, Boone Circuit Court Clerk who has accepted the chairmanship of the United Appeal Fund Drive for Boone County, Monday announced the appointment of six area chairmen for the event.

Mr. Hensley has divided the county into fifteen geographical areas. The appointment of the six chairmen for the more densely populated areas leaves the appointment of nine more area chairmen yet to be made, he said.

Asa M. Rouse

Asa M. Rouse, widely known Boone County attorney, has been named chairman of the Walton Area, Mr. Hensley also announced.

Mr. Rouse, a member of Phi Delta Phi international legal fraternity, is now a special attorney for the town of Crittenden, Grant County, and is the Treasurer of the Board of Education of the Walton-Verona Independent School District. He is a graduate of the University of Kentucky, College of Law.

Mr. and Mrs. Rouse reside at 9 Plum Avenue and have a son, Asa M. Rouse Jr.

Carroll Baker, 15 Beverly Place, Kenton, will be chairman of the Florence area. Mr. Baker is recognized civic leader having been president of the Kenton Lions Club for the past five years. He is a member of the Florence Planning and Zoning Commission, and is treasurer of the Florence Boat Club. A delegate to the Fifth District Sports meet in Tennessee, he is manager of the Florence Ball Company team in the fast-pitch league.

Mr. Baker is married to the former Geneva Enoch. The Bakers have a son, Lionel Lee, a senior in Boone County High School. Mr. Baker was in the U.S. Navy from 1944 to 1946 serving in the South Pacific area. He is service manager for the Rural Natural Gas Company, Ludlow.

Chairman of the Hebron area will be Howard Acra, a postal clerk in the Cincinnati Post Office.

The Burlington area will be represented by Nelson Applegate, retired Cincinnati banker, a comparative newcomer to Burlington.

Mrs. A. A. Liggett, Union, has been appointed chairman of the Union area. Mrs. Liggett, who lives on a farm near Union, is a member of Mary Inglis Chapter D. A. R.

Mrs. Rosalie Pope, who operates two Belleview bottoms farms comprising a total of 312 acres, is chairman of the Belleview area.

Mr. Hensley said he expected to announce names of the remaining area chairmen by next week.

In East Bend Revival

Rev. Joseph Tackett, pastor of the Walton Baptist Church is now engaged in a revival at the East Bend Baptist Church. Rev. O. J. Steger, prominent Baptist minister of this area, will preach both Sunday morning and evening at the local church.

Kenton Elementary PTA

The following officers and chairman of Kenton Elementary P.T.A. attended "The Sixth District Congress of Parent Teachers School of Instruction" held at Erlanger Baptist Church, Friday, Sept. 7: Mrs. George Dawkins, Mrs. Harold Schneider, Mrs. Donald Meyers, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Leslie Fields, Mrs. Russell Kiser and Mrs. George Fink. The very interesting program was enjoyed by all.

MRS. HATTIE McNAY

Mrs. Hattie C. McNay, owner of a goat milk dairy on Wolf Road, Kenton County, died Monday at her home. She was 80 years old.

Mrs. McNay drove a horse and buggy throughout Covington for many years in the course of her activities in serving her milk customers. She retired only five years ago.

Her survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Clara B. Rush of Taylor Mill, herself, Mrs. Willie L. Prell and Mrs. Norma Treat, both of Covington; eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Rev. Thomas Shelton, Latonia Baptist District minister, at services Wednesday afternoon at Allison & Rose funeral home, Covington. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

World Religions Is Topic at Meeting Of Wa-Na Club

The Wa-Na Woman's Club held its first meeting of the 1956-57 year on Monday, September 10 at the Phoenix Restaurant, with Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Mrs. Clifford Ryan, Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer and Mrs. Donald Rice serving as hostesses.

The meeting was begun with the pledge to the flag and the club collect. The roll call consisted of members recalling their favorite Bible character. The business of the meeting consisted of a discussion of kindergarten registration and managerial plans for the library in the coming year. Guests and members alike introduced themselves in a mass introduction.

Following the business session, Mrs. Joseph Tackett drew a most attractive picture in chalk of the "Church in the Wildwood," which was followed by a reading of the history of this well known church by Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr. Mrs. Tackett then resumed the program with a talk on "World Religions." Her presentation of the subject was most interesting and educational.

At the close of the program an attractive salad plate was served to all present.

Members present were: Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Tom Conner, Mrs. Leon Cook, Jr., Mrs. James E. Falls, Mrs. Wallace S. Grubbs, Mrs. Charles Hafer, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. D. L. Maddox, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Mrs. Martha Morton, Mrs. Robert Osei, Miss Elizabeth Palmer, Mrs. Charles Prather, Mrs. Donald Rice, Mrs. Ward Rice, Mrs. Asa Rouse, Mrs. George Ryan, Mrs. Clifford Ryan, Mrs. Chester Stuart, Mrs. James Webster, and Mrs. Jessie Whitten.

Club members were most happy to welcome these ten guests: Mrs. Joseph Tackett, Mrs. Carolyn Arnold, Mrs. Shirley Montague, Mrs. Pearl Leathers, Mrs. Frances Stephens, Mrs. John May, Hugh Mrs. Ethaline Fisk, Miss Mary Ellen Bruce, Mrs. Paul Beighle, and Mrs. Lewis Webster.

Baptist Brotherhood to Meet

The Men's Brotherhood of the Walton Baptist Church will meet Monday, September 17, at 8:00 p. m., in the church. Rev. Kelly Kennedy, pastor of New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, is to be the guest speaker.

Farm Bureau Plans Series of Meetings Throughout County

Farm Bureau members throughout the county, now vitally concerned with policy development for their organization, have scheduled a number of meetings at strategic points during the week of September 17. Beckham Shield, Walton, president, has announced.

Mr. Shields said schedules have been set up as follows:

September 17. Union Presbyterian Church.

September 17: Farm Bureau office in Burlington.

September 18: Florence, home of Mr. Grant Maddox.

September 18: Hebron, Hebron school (for Hebron, Petersburg and Constance precincts).

September 20: Walton-Verona at the Walton Town Hall.

All meetings will start at 8 p. m. Mr. Shields urges all Farm Bureau members to attend these meetings known, in order that their views on the agricultural situation may be aired.

Advisory Council Of Kenton Homemakers Meets In Covington

The Advisory Council of the Kenton County Homemakers Association completed plans for the annual meeting of the organization and for resuming program activities at their session held on Wednesday, Sept. 5, in the Federal Building, Covington. Mrs. Bernard Gramm, County president, presided.

It was announced that the Kentucky State Fair Board had designated Sept. 10 for recognition of Homemakers throughout the state.

The installation of the officers and chairmen is scheduled for the September meetings of Kenton County Homemakers. The clothing leaders will present information on fall fabrics and fashions.

Miss Zelma F. Byerly, county home extension agent, said the annual meeting of the association would be held October 16 at the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington, and that the national Home Demonstration Council would meet Sept. 18-22, in San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. R. P. Matchett, Lakeside Park, and member of the Arcadia club, will attend this meeting as national chairman of the International Relations committee.

The training session for leaders of the home lighting project is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 27 at the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company, with Dale Bee conducting the class.

Picnic Luncheon Is Enjoyed by Members Of Local Literary Club

A picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. D. Scroggin featured the September meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club. Mrs. J. C. Bedinger gave the prayer of thanks.

Mrs. F. S. Thompson conducted the meeting. Other incoming officers, serving with Mrs. Thompson are: Vice president, Mrs. W. W. Rouse; secretary, Mrs. Nicholas Welsh, treasurer, Mrs. G. C. Ransom.

The meeting opened with the pledge to the flag, followed by the club collect, which was read by Mrs. Ransom.

Mrs. A. E. Atkinson led in group singing, "America the Beautiful." Mrs. Atkinson also gave the spiritual guidance, closing with prayer.

Mrs. Luke Jamison, whose home was wrecked in the recent tornado, was pleasantly surprised with a shower of gifts from the members.

Club members were much pleased to have as a guest for the day, the District Governor, Mrs. W. E. Snook, of Park Hills, who gave an interesting talk on "Federation." Mrs. Snook referred to the clubs and their presidents of an earlier date and of the federation at the present time. The speaker was introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. E. B. Wallace.

Members present were: Mrs. A. E. Atkinson, Mrs. J. C. Bedinger, Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Mrs. J. R. Conrad, Mrs. B. W. Franks, Mrs. A. H. Gaines, Mrs. W. K. Grubbs, Mrs. Luke Jamieson, Mrs. A. R. Johnson, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Mrs. Marvin Kendall, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. J. E. McCabe, Mrs. C. W. Ransier, Mrs. G. C. Ransom, Mrs. J. A. Rouse, Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Mrs. W. W. Rouse, Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Mrs. S. B. Sleet, Mrs. A. P. Stephens, Mrs. F. S. Thompson, Mrs. D. H. Vest, Mrs. E. B. Wallace, Mrs. J. S. Webster, and Mrs. Nicholas Welsh.

Guests in attendance were: Mrs. Clarence Hoffman, Mrs. Jasper Williams, Mrs. Walter Robinson, Mrs. Jesse Callen, Mrs. W. H. Campbell, Mrs. W. H. Wesler, and Mrs. W. E. Snook.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Racey spent last week visiting his sister, Mrs. John Cumberworth of Holton, Ind. and while there they attended the Indiana State Fair.

Walton Homemakers to Meet

The Walton Homemakers Club will meet on Friday, Sept. 14 at 10 a. m., with Mrs. Wendell Rouse and Mrs. Carrie Rouse, hostesses, at Rouse's camp near Dry Ridge. Everyone is asked to meet at the drug store at 10 a. m., and those who have cars please call some of the members who do not have a way to go. Members are also asked to take a covered dish and a gift for their "silent friend." The president, Mrs. Stanley Allen, requests all members to be present as this is the beginning of a new year, and she would like to have all officers and members present.

Sells Fine Yearlings

John Adams, well known cattle raiser of near Walton, sold 13 800-lb. yearlings with Norris Brick Co. at the Cincinnati Stock Yards, recently, and received 19 cents per pound. Bob Crass handled the transaction.

Mr. Adams, along with Everett Jones and Clarence Hoffman, attended the state fair last week—John out celebrating the sale of those yearlings.

Kenton County Garden Club Holds August Meet On Harris Road

The August meeting of the Kenton County Garden Club was held in the attractive country home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Pitcher on Harris Road.

Delegates named to represent the club at the silver anniversary meeting of the Garden Club of Kentucky, Inc., in Lexington, September 17-18-19, are Mrs. Henry L. Pitcher and Mrs. S. C. Fisk. Several members of the club plan to attend the tea at Ashland, home of Henry Clay, and the banquet at the Lafayette Hotel, Tuesday, Sept. 18.

Mrs. Forest Popp, secretary of the club, read the club's report for the state meeting.

Ten garden clubs, including Kenton county, are hostesses for the anniversary luncheon September 18. Plans for the luncheon decorations were completed. Club members will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Goodenough, Ryland, at 7:00 p. m. Sept. 11, to make table favors for the luncheon.

The president, Miss Elma Tavlin, announced the next regular meeting for 8:00 p. m., September 27, at the home of Miss Margaret Stephens, Main St., Independence.

Miss Stephens, program chairman, introduced the meeting speaker, Mrs. Kenneth Sharp, president of Kenwick Garden Club, Lexington. She gave a most instructive talk on "Junior Garden Clubs in the Elementary School."

Guests welcomed at the club session were: Mrs. E. J. Holbrook and Mrs. B. C. Cotton, Carlsbad Club, Dry Ridge; Mrs. Paul Chaney, Mrs. Roy C. Lutes, and Mrs. W. H. Wesler, Boone County Garden Club, Florence, and Mrs. Edwin Damon, Covington.

Members present were: Mrs. Clifford Northcutt, Mrs. Ellery Vallandingham, Mrs. Forest Popp, Mrs. E. J. Goodenough, Mrs. S. C. Fisk, Mrs. Clara Cook, Miss Lena Mills, Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Miss Margaret Stephens, Miss Elma Taylor, and the hostess, Mrs. Pitcher.

Following adjournment, the hostess served delightful refreshments.

ARMY CLERK IN EUROPE

William H. McKibben

Specialist Third Class William H. McKibben, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. McKibben, Florence, is a clerk in the Headquarters, U. S. Army, Europe. He entered the Army in October of 1954, completed basic training at Fort Knox, and arrived in Europe in March, 1955. The 24-year-old soldier attended the University of Kentucky.

Unusual Birth of Calves

Joe Northcutt, who lives just east of town, came in last Thursday with an unusual story about the birth of twin calves. Here's the story, as told by Mr. Northcutt: On August 19, a Jersey-Ayrshire cow gave birth to a bull calf, a strong, sturdy fellow, which was sold at the Walton Sales Barn, September 4—on Wednesday, Sept. 5, this same cow gave birth to another bull calf. An elapse of 16 days between births is something we haven't heard about before.

Judge Yager Visits Court

Judge Ward Yager, who presides over the Fifteenth Judicial District, comprising the counties of Boone, Gallatin, Grant, Carroll and Owen, was a welcome visitor Monday in Boone Circuit Court.

Judge Yager, who was stricken with a heart attack on January 23, has been convalescing at his home in Warsaw for a number of months. Thirty pounds lighter, he appeared to be the picture of health.

Monday court was held by Judge J. Wirt Turner, Sr., a retired circuit court judge from New Castle, Henry County.

Judge Yager said he was just making a good will tour before resuming active duties October 1.

New Program To Be Explained Says Rector

A meeting will be held at the Independence Court House, Monday, Sept. 17th at 8:00 P. M. to explain the new Soil Bank program.

The Conservation Reserve part of the Soil Bank Program provides for cost-sharing for establishing certain conservation practices on crop-land set aside for the contracted period, Mr. Russell Rector, Chairman of the Kenton County ASC Committee announced today.

The practices which will qualify under this phase of the Soil Bank Program are similar to the regular Agricultural Conservation Program practices for establishing land cover, planting trees or shrubs, building ponds or dams for irrigation or livestock water, Mr. Rector said. In all cases, the practices are to be for conservation practices.

Although the specifications for the conservation reserve practices will be quite similar to the ACP practices, there are restrictions on their use. For instance grazing will not be permitted on land set aside for the conservation reserve, except in emergencies declared by the Secretary of Agriculture. Also, a crop may not be harvested from land in the conservation reserve. There are other restrictions.

Farmers are encouraged to use seedings, materials and methods which will also benefit wildlife food and habitat and equally solve the farm conservation problem.

The cost-sharing rate for practices under the conservation reserve may be as high as 80 percent of the cost. Rates of cost-sharing have been established on the basis of average costs in the county or, in some instances, an individual farms. The cost-share rate for ACP conservation practices have, in the past, usually run about half of the cost to the farmer.

As in the case of ACP practices, the ASC county committee adapts the conservation measures which are most suitable for their locality consistent with the State and national program.

Mr. Rector said that farmers are encouraged to file applications for cost-sharing under the ACP or the Conservation Reserve contracts in the County ASC Office at Independence, Ky.

R. E. Kirtley Named Democratic Chairman For Boone County

The appointment of Ruben E. Kirtley, Union, as Boone county chairman for the Democratic campaign was announced this week by William A. Young, State Campaign Chairman.

As the county chairman, he will direct campaign activities in behalf of the entire Democratic ticket, including Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver, the Democratic nominees for President and Vice President; Senator Earle C. Clements and former Governor Lawrence W. Wetherby, the Democratic nominees for the U. S. Senate, and Congressman Brent Spence, the nominee for re-election in the Fifth District.

"Under the leadership of the county chairman, immediate steps will be taken to perfect a working organization that will carry the full Democratic ticket to a sweeping victory on November 6," Mr. Young said.

The state chairman added that he has been assured that the county will send a large delegation to the opening of the State Democratic Campaign, which will be held Tuesday, Sept. 18, at 8 p. m. (Central Daylight Time) at Shelbyville.

Early September Seeding Recommended for Lawns

For a luxuriant bluegrass lawn, sow the seed early in September, says Prof. N. R. Elliott, Extension field agent in horticulture at the University of Kentucky. He recommends using from one-fourth to a half-pound of the best seed possible on 1,000 square feet of lawn area. If the lawn is very new or old, he would increase the amount of seed to one pound.

While a good stand of bluegrass has a tendency to control crabgrass, additional control is possible by cutting the grass short at this time, even to a half-inch in order to keep it from seeding.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Revelation

Lesson for September 16, 1956

Dr. Foreman

THE book of Revelation was several hundred years old before the whole Christian church accepted it into the Bible. Even after it became an official part of the New Testament, there were Christian scholars who questioned it. Saint James places it somewhere between the "canonical" and "apocryphal" books—that is, between Bible and not-Bible. Luther's first preface to his German translation of the New Testament said of Revelation that it did not seem to be either apostolic or prophetic. He came to think better of it, but he never did print Revelation except as an appendix to the New Testament. Zwingli, the Swiss reformer, considered Revelation "not Biblical", and John Calvin, who wrote commentaries on almost every other book of the Bible, never undertook to write on Revelation.

A Strange Book

One of the reasons why so many distinguished Christians have had difficulty with the book of Revelation is the simple one: it is extremely hard to understand. Its pages swarm with weird monsters; fire and blood flow through its scenes; it is loud with the agonies of a crashing universe. Literally hundreds of persons, fascinated by the puzzles here, have written out their answers in books and commentaries; but the very fact that these commentators do not agree among themselves is eloquent testimony to the fact that no one yet has found the key that gives an answer the whole church accepts. What makes the book so strange is that it is written in the language of symbols. As one eminent conservative scholar, Dr. Warfield, said (with some exaggeration), everything in the book means something else. The author as it were puts us on notice when he tells us himself that his "stars" mean angels, and "lampstands" mean churches, and "incense" means prayers. Even the numbers in this book are symbolic—that is, not to count with but to express ideas. Readers who wish to pursue the study of Revelation more fully should write to their denominational headquarters and inquire whether their church has authorized some particular interpretation of this book. So wide are the disagreements that this writer could not recommend any one book without raising objections from some part of the church or other.

Some Things Are Clear

Sunday school lesson planners seldom select from Revelation, but those who planned our current series, used in more than 80 denominations, wisely selected three studies based on parts of Revelation about which there can be little dispute. For some things in this obscure book are clear as day, and it is probably in gratitude for these things, rather than in hope of unraveling all the knots, that the church, in spite of its uncertainties, has kept this book at the end of the Bible all these centuries. One of the clearer and best-loved sections is in the first three chapters, where we have seven letters to seven churches of Asia Minor. There is obscurity here too; but also much light. Those seven churches have gone the way of all flesh, long since. But in those sharply etched pen-pictures the modern reader can see portraits, amazingly modern, which come close to describing churches we all have seen.

Christ in His Churches

The warnings and the promises to those far-off and long-gone churches are good today for us. One thing stands out in every one of these short piercing messages to the "seven churches": Every true church—then, now always—is a true one only when and so long as it keeps faithful to Christ, so long as he can be satisfied with it. What are the points of a church Christ approves? The reader of Revelation can make his own list and should not skip the first two in the very first letter: "hard work and patient endurance" (to follow Moffatt's translation). It should be noted too that even in the church most praised (Ephesus) the thing that comes in for blame is their let-down of love. For of all things that make a church weak and unChristian, loss of love is the most serious. Even Christ's severest judgments are judgments of love. To the weakest and worst church of the seven, the word is, "As many as I love, I rebuke."

The writer and wife attended the Ryle reunion at the Boone County fairgrounds last week. A wonderful meal was served and there is nothing in the eating line you could mention that was not on the tables at noon, for the big meal. About 90 were present and the present representatives of the Ryle farm in living were David Ryle of Cincinnati, Talbot B. Ryle of Rising Sun, Ind., Arnold Ryle of New Jersey, and the writer of Independence, Route 1. The oldest line of the children of John P. Ryle, former superintendent of schools in Boone county. To say that a good time was had by all would be putting it mildly, and the family wishes to thank the fair people for their wonderful cooperation in making the event a success.

Mrs. Floyd Smith, who has been having a bad time with poison ivy, we are glad to say is much better at this time.

Apples, pears and late tomatoes are plentiful in the Tower area and if you like an apple sauce lover, you had better get busy.

Members of Amity Baptist Church held their annual Sunday School picnic at Ride A Wee lake last Saturday, and quite a crowd enjoyed the day with a basket dinner at noon. Horseshoe pitching and other sports were enjoyed by all.

Labor Day Auto Accidents Kill Seven Kentuckians

Seven persons were killed on Kentucky highways during the long Labor Day weekend. Paul Smith, director of State Police, said credit for safe driving must be given to state motorists.

During the peak traffic periods, the Kentucky State Police had 194 enforcement officers on duty, Smith said. The number included members of the State Police Headquarters staff and license commissioners in addition to State Troopers. The patrol investigated 195 accidents in which 114 persons were involved. It issued 1,522 traffic arrests during the three day period, Smith said.

For the year there is a six percent increase in fatalities. After Labor Day 1955, a total of 502 persons had been killed. The year's total was 473.

Mailing Packages

You'll soon be relieved of the chore of writing "may be opened for Postal Inspection" on sealed parcels you mail at third and fourth class rates. The Post Office Department plans to ease this regulation in early autumn—in time for Christmas mailing. Sealed parcels, in the past, have had to be mailed at the higher class rate unless they bore the inspection notation. Now the Post Office is taking the view that, by mailing your package third class or parcel post, you implicitly authorize its opening.

Back To School

What's that you're saying? Jimmy's old enough to know better? Sure he is, and he probably does, too. Practically all kids are the same way. But in their zest and enthusiasm for life they're sometimes apt to be a little careless or forgetful. So, don't be too tough on 'em. Just watch out for 'em!

September is back-to-school time, so be extra cautious when you're driving near schools. Keep a sharp eye peeled for the over-eager youngster who might dart from between parked cars. And remember that any youngster in or near a street is a Human Caution Sign. Also, to freshen your driving law is this: you must stop do not pass, a School Bus when it is loading or unloading children.

Just A Thought

Some wives leave their husbands and take everything. Others take everything but don't leave.

American Legion Auxiliary

Officers of Mirion Bro. Post 275, of American Legion Auxiliary, were installed at recent ceremonies conducted at the Legion Hall in Independence. Inducted into office at that time by Mrs. John Hurley, 16th District President, were: Mrs. Dan Hacker, president; Mrs. Jack Rhodes, first vice president; Mrs. Ralph Barhorst, second vice president; Mrs. Elmer Rethring, secretary; Mrs. John Mains, treasurer; Mrs. James Barhorst, chaplain; Mrs. Lillian Sharp, sgt. at arms; and Mrs. John Schoborg, junior past president.

Regular business meeting will be held Tuesday, September 11 at 8 p. m. at the Post.

Sandfordtown Auxiliary Meets

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Sandfordtown and Community Volunteer Fire Department met recently at Hunter's Club House on Madison Pike. Plans were discussed for a social to be held on September 30, 2:00 p. m., at Club Rio Rita, Madison Pike.

After the business session, refreshments were served the following members: Mesdames Milton Hunter, Paul Schneider, William Bishop, Lawrence Meiman, Homer Reed, John Mueller, Thomas Kitch, Frank Hellman, Wayne Wilson, and Goebel House.

TAGGED FOR YOU? Esteron 99 spray program can wipe out wild onion and garlic—increase your milk check.

Big cut in returned milk expected as Esteron 99 goes after wild onion and garlic

Wild onion and garlic have been cutting into the milk checks of local dairy farmers for a long time. Now, thanks to Esteron 99*, something can be done about this. A lot of our customers will be getting bigger milk checks because they are starting their Dow spray program now.

THREE-STAGE PROGRAM

The big news is that wild onion and garlic can be controlled by three sprayings of Esteron 99 . . . spring . . . fall . . . spring. It's work, but it sure is worth it! No more garlicky milk, rejected milk. No more drop in milk production by moving cows from pasture to dry lot to prevent garlicky odor.

$2.00 MORE PER CWT.

The program quickly pays for itself. Milk rejected as Grade A and sold to an open market takes a $2.00 to $2.50 loss per hundredweight. It costs roughly $12.00 per acre for the three-stage program. Just 600 pounds of milk "not rejected" can pay for an acre of clean dairy pasture.

HIGH-POWERED WEED KILLER

The killing power of Esteron 99 makes this program possible. In addition to strength, Esteron 99 has low volatility . . . stays where it's put.

See us today for assistance on beginning your own wild onion and garlic control program.

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

SIGNS OF THE TIMES. A few days ago I was again impressed with the change that's taking place in Kentucky's agriculture and the impact it is having on the family sized farm. I stopped by to chat with a farmer friend in Todd county and found him getting in readiness to harvest corn.

He had a self-propelled machine that picks two rows of corn at a time, shucks and shells it, and puts it in a large bin from which it is mechanically loaded on to a truck in a matter of seconds. With this machine a man can harvest and shell around 20 acres of corn a day. He does mechanically in minutes the equivalent of many days hard labor of cutting, shocking, shucking, loading and shelling.

The same machine can be quickly converted to harvest small grain with the same efficiency as it harvests corn.

Three things impressed me with this change from man-powered to machine powered farming—first, the large amount of capital now required to farm efficiently, second, the large number of small farmers and farm laborers being displaced with machinery, and third, the difficulty that the small farmers will have in competing with large farmers in enterprises that can be done with mechanical power. Thus it seems that if he is to survive, the small Kentucky farmer will have to specialize in crops and livestock enterprises which are not highly mechanized, such as tobacco, small fruit and vegetables, poultry, sheep and the like.

FROM TREES TO FINISHED PRODUCTS. The U. S. Forest Products Laboratory at Madison, Wis., is the only one of its kind in the United States and the most modern in the world. The main building has five stories with almost 4 acres of floor space. Its personnel numbers about 370. The institution is to wood processors what the Agricultural Experiment Stations are to farmers. From it has come much of the technical knowledge of wood that has resulted in many of the new uses for forest products.

Because forests are so important to the state, 45 percent of the state's area is classed as forest land! Kentucky bankers, wood processors and foresters plan to visit the laboratory in early October to see what new developments can be applied to the industry here. Each year much of the timber cut in Kentucky is sent to other states for processing and finishing. Cheap labor and low property taxes often Kentucky's wood, while skilled labor and high taxes benefit other states.

KABA GROUPS PLAN 10th ANNUAL MEET

The Kentucky Artificial Breeding Association established in 1946 observes its tenth anniversary September 27 at the bull stud at St. Matthews, outside Louisville. Ferdyce Ely, former UK dairy specialist now Ohio State University Experiment Station dairyman, will be the principal speaker.

More than a half million cows have been bred by the group since 1946, and at out 75,200 more in 1956. There are 94 local KABA groups and about 80 technicians handling breeding chores. About 12 percent of Kentucky's dairy cows are in the breeding program.

Annual production of KABA cows runs from 7,000 to 10,000 pounds of milk annually, depending on the dairy breed. Holsteins, Guernseys, Jerseys and Brown Swiss are the breeds handled by KABA, plus bulls for Hereford and polled Hereford beef breeds. The statewide milk production average is about 4,200 pounds annually.

WHAT MOVES THE BOWELS?

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

The average person believes that laxatives or cathartics, Epsom Salts for instance, is capable of moving the bowels. This is a fallacy. Epsom Salts does not move the bowels. It never did move any body's bowels. The simple truth is that cathartics are irritating substances which are irritating to the body. The reserve vitality of the patient is called upon to remove the obnoxious substance. It does so by pouring into the intestines and bowels quantities of water from the blood stream, speeding up the peristaltic action of the muscles so as to eliminate rapidly the irritating substance and most everything else that may be present. In other words the bowels move the cathartic. The cathartic does not move the bowels.

Tobacco Harvesting

Tobacco harvesting time is here and a large percentage of the tobacco has been cut in Boone county. This is a critical period in the production of burley tobacco and the best methods of harvesting and curing should be carried out, says Joe Claxon, County Agent.

Do not cut tobacco too green. At this time of year it ripens in the field very rapidly following the first recommended date. Cutting too early will result in lower yields and poor quality. Tobacco cut when it is ripe will cure better, bring more money and be easier to handle during curing time in the barn.

Cut plants in the afternoon and house them the next morning. Plants are somewhat wilted in the afternoon and less breakage occurs. Flyings (bottom leaves) are in case in the morning and many can be saved during piling and hauling.

Curing conditions are best in the top of the barn, if the barn space is limited, more sticks can be hung per rail in the top run of the barn. Hang the barn solid, for e., put all one day's cutting from the bottom in the barn, don't place tobacco harvested days later under tobacco cut and housed earlier.

Open the ventilators in the morning as soon as the dew is off of the outside of the barn than put inside the barn. Close ventilators about 4:00 p. m. before it does begins to come into case.

Proper Topping, Suckering Help Improve Burley Crop

Proper topping and suckering practices do much to improve the quality of burley, both from the physical and chemical standpoints, say U. K. Agricultural Experiment Station scientists.

To produce the type of burley desired today several practices in topping and suckering are recommended.

Do not top until three-quarters of the plant are in bloom and then top all the plants in the field so the field will mature evenly.

Keep suckering to a minimum when suckering is necessary to prevent damage to the leaves let the top two suckers remain. This helps keep down the production of nicotine.

Tests have shown that a properly topped and cultivated plant normally would be satisfactory in nicotine content but will contain still less if the suckers are allowed to grow. Plants that would be high in nicotine normally may be held at an acceptable level by proper topping and suckering.

A single clean suckering between topping time and cutting increases the nicotine content by about 25 percent, while multi suckering increases it still more. By taking out most of the sucker at normal size but leaving the top two until just before harvest the work load is better distributed, and a better grade of burley is also produced, provided the tobacco is allowed to ripen

IN WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsbury

Campaign Stuff:

Word that farm income in Kentucky is down 5 percent is likely to be campaign fodder during the coming contest in the Blue Grass. Both sides will, of course, attempt to place the burden of blame on the other.

Coupled with that decline in farm income are figure showing another increase in the cost of consumer items.

All of which sets the stage for some finger pointing in the next two months as the four Kentucky senatorial candidates criss and cross the state.

Discount Stories:

You can discount stories that a thirsty Democratically known Democratic and Republican leaders are coming to Kentucky to campaign this Fall for the senatorial aspirants.

President Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson, of course, are expected to visit the state and the two national committees are expected to give the Kentucky candidates a lot of help. But you won't see many big wigs in person. Kentuckians, so the reports go in Washington, resent outside interference.

New Book Out:

The Department of Agriculture's annual yearbook is about to roll off the presses. With Kentucky's growing interest in cattle production, the book should be widely received in the Blue Grass. This year, on 519 pages, it covers Animal Diseases, from A to Z.

Kentucky members of the House and Senate get a few copies to distribute but if you want to be sure to get yours better write the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. The cost is $2 and it promises to be a best seller.

Convention Final:

Thurston Morton getting up at dawn to break to airlines a telecast from San Francisco. Kentucky Emery Frazier's boxing wife on he calls the roll of states at the Democratic convention. Governor Chandler, Senator Clements and former Governor Wetherby in conference at a dinner party for Kentuckians in Chicago. Kentuckians window shopping in downtown San Francisco. Barry Bingham reading his Courier-Journal at the Cow Palace. Hal Metzger, Frankfort correspondent for the Enquirer chasing down a rumor involving the Kentucky GOP delegation and Rules K. Myers making a commanding speech on the Chandler nomination.

PLENTIFUL FOODS FOR SEPTEMBER

Turkeys that range in size from 4 pounds to the large size suitable for family gatherings and community affairs will be on the list of plentiful foods in Kentucky in September, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The 1956 crop is expected to exceed last year's crop by at least 10 million birds.

Rice is also plentiful, with almost a year's supply in storage as the new crop approaches harvest.

Kentucky ranks low in the total acre yield of vegetables in comparison with neighboring states, according to the UK Department of Horticulture.

Preventing Excess Weight

Prevention seems the best answer to one of the nation's health problems—excess weight, concludes Dr. Charlotte Young of the New York State Experiment Station at Cornell, as a result of studies with 168 obese patients. The patients, referred to the clinic by physicians, had free guidance on diets, medical supervision and counseling. The large majority came regularly each week even those from rural areas who had difficulty getting to the clinic. Their general health seemed to improve, at least a variety of symptoms they complained of at the first visit disappeared. Most learned not only that the cause of their excess weight was excessive eating, but also the reasons for excessive eating.

However, only about a tenth of the group reached their ideal weight, about a fourth were reasonably successful, half had some success, but others failed in reducing and holding down their weight.

Commented Dr. Young: "Success in weight reduction seemed to be related to the age at which a person becomes overweight. Those who became obese as children seem to have more difficulty losing weight than those who gained weight as adults. The age at which overweight begins is the important consideration in how long it is carried.

The clinic studies suggest, therefore, that early prevention of excess fat is a better way to deal with the problem than the more difficult reducing by dieting—a point parents might consider for the future health and well being of their children.

BLACK SHOES IN ARMY

According to M Sgt Harold Kilgour Covington recruiting sergeant, the black shoes and socks are a part of the new grey-green Army uniform scheduled for issue in 1957. The decision to begin wear of the black shoes and socks this fall came as a result of the depletion of stocks of the old brown shoes. Rather than procure a new stock of brown shoes which become obsolete next year, the Army decided to go into the new black shoes and socks this fall.

Instructions issued by Department of the Army are that in the future, all new men entering the Army will be issued black shoes and socks, and that all brown shoes now in the hands of troops are to be dyed black by the September 1 deadline.

GREEN JUNE BEETLE IS DAMAGING FRUIT

The green June beetle, the adult of the insect larvae that attacks burley tobacco beds, is doing considerable damage to fruit in Kentucky.

Richard Thurston, Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station entomologist, says the bugs are feeding principally on ripe grapes and peaches. The beetles root in the ripe fruit and then suck the released juices. This causes surface damage of the fruits.

Thurston said the problem is serious because use of insecticides poses a residue problem. Ordinarily fruits cannot be used for 60 days after insecticides are sprayed on. Two materials are being used experimentally now, he said, and results look encouraging.

Thurston noted that the bug is as big as a human's thumb nail, is irridescent green in color, and is known popularly as the "June bug."

HEATERS

September is the heater month and we have most all kinds We have Perfection portable oil heaters Martin gas heaters electric heaters wood heaters and coal heaters Most all Perfection fuel oil heaters and Warm Morning coal heaters Of course we have lots of other brands of heaters We have all sizes in stove pipe and furnace pipe with all the fittings We carry a few Warm Morning stove repairs and can get all of them in a few days We have a few 275-gallon fuel oil tanks—let us put one of these up and quit using those 50 gallon drums

Mr and Mrs R L A[illegible] and their daughter [illegible] Fiskburg way bought a large size Perfection oil heater, installed with a 275 gallon fuel oil tank These are the folks who had the terrible auto wreck last year the mother and daughter are recovering slowly, but [illegible] These wrecks are terrible and generally [illegible] fast driving and carelessness Mr and Mrs L M Collins also some of my good Kenton County customers bought a new Perfection oil heater complete with blower and pilot light They [illegible] Norge which will be a good used stove [illegible]

Mike Rex [illegible] way bought a new Perfection oil heater installed with a 275 gallon fuel oil tank Mr [illegible] who lives between Nicholson and Independence bought a large rotary ricer and a Little Ben alarm clock James Messmer was just telling me what [illegible] he has to sell He lives south of Verona at the [illegible] Hudson farm Brewster and Beach put in a new 275 gallon tank for Sam Hudson at the [illegible] he had been using two 50 gallon drums on [illegible] but they fell over

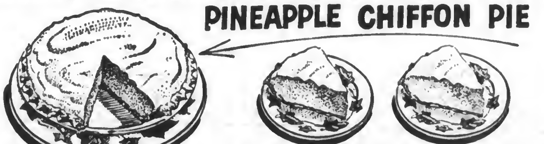
[illegible] at the job these fellows [illegible] installing [illegible] and at Bill Florence's on Verona and Crittenden Road Brewster and Beach set up a new Perfection oil heater for L M Collins over on [illegible] Road Kenton county They also set up a new Perfection oil heater for Miss [illegible] Anderson down on Tower Mill Road Then Brewster put in a new window glass for Mrs Robt Blackwell on High Street We do so many jobs of this kind it is hard to keep up here at the store waiting on customers

Joe Northcutt just came in and sat down he said he had a true story to tell me He had a nice young cow [illegible] several days ago she gave birth to a nice [illegible] at the stock sales last Tuesday [illegible] she gave birth to another calf [illegible] the first one We have some used coal and oil heaters cheap Of course we have to put on a new [illegible] needed, and most of them [illegible] good condition it is very hard to find a good used stove

We have [illegible] fruit jars this year also deep freeze containers paper and tape We have most everything in the canning and freezer line National pressure canners cold pack canners in all sizes Beach and Brewster moved the oil drums and rack for Mrs Mary [illegible] who now lives with Mr and Mrs Hub Fisher They set up her oil heater and piped the oil in from [illegible] think this is not much of a job but it takes a lot of time to do it right and that's the way Brewster will do it [illegible]

Albert [illegible] from Parkers Grove neighborhood came in for a grate for his Warm Morning coal heater which [illegible] [illegible]

We have sold [illegible] wood heaters and [illegible] Perfection portable oil heaters today Several were buying stove pipe and some were looking at grate baskets Brewster went up and put up a new furnace pipe for Mabel [illegible] Then he went over and made Mrs Ethel [illegible] furnace ready for winter Now is the time to get all ready for winter your heating system your roofs your gutters waterproof your basement walls [illegible]



[illegible] Warm Morning coal heaters [illegible] good used wood heater [illegible] $35 [illegible] oil heaters for $35 each [illegible] in good condition We have [illegible] to trade [illegible] for a new Perfection oil heater

A fellow just told me he had a good heater but it [illegible] Perfection [illegible] the best [illegible]

WETHERBY TO SPEAK

Lawrence W. Wetherby, former governor of Kentucky and now candidate for the U. S. Senate, will speak to the voters of Boone county, Friday evening, September 21, at 8:00 p. m., in the Court House in Burlington.

Everyone who is interested is cordially invited to attend, according to a spokesman for the County Democratic Campaign Committee.

LARRY RYAN

Larry Ryan, 60-year-old farmer of the Verona community, died Tuesday, September 18, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. He had been in ill health for some time.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hattie Ryan; a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Brooks, a grandchild; a brother, Chas. Ryan, all of Verona and a host of other relatives.

Services are tentatively set for Friday at 10:00 a. m. at St. Patrick Church, Verona. Interment will be in St. Patrick Cemetery, with Hamilton funeral home in charge.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 3:00 p. m., Thursday.

Kenton PTA Speaker

The monthly P.T.A. meeting of the Kenton Elementary school will come to order September 20, at 8:00 p. m. in the school building, near Independence.

F. D. Caton, principal, will speak on "Community Action for Community Cooperation and Better Schools," and will also introduce the teachers and members of the lunch room staff.

There will be group singing, under the direction of Mrs. Dawson Hightower and Mrs. Helen Collins. All parents are invited to attend and get acquainted.

Social at Independence

The Ladies of St. Cecilia Parish, Independence, will hold their monthly social at the church on Wednesday afternoon, September 26, from 1:30 to 4:00.

That galvanized bucket with a leak in it may be nailed through the bottom to the garage wall and used for storing coiled garden hose.

MRS. CYNTHIA POWERS

Mrs. Cynthia Hudson Powers, lifelong resident of Kenton county, died last Thursday at her home on U. S. Highway 25, south of Walton. She was 80 years old.

She was the widow of Thomas Powers, well known Kenton county hog raiser. Mrs. Powers was a member of the Crittenden Christian Church.

Her survivors include a niece, Mrs. Thomas Stephenson, of near Crittenden; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Nellie Hudson of Crittenden, and Mrs. Eva Hall, of near Crittenden, and a half-sister, Mrs. Irene Brell, Miami, Fla.

Services were held Saturday morning, Sept. 15, at 10:30, in the Chambers and Stubbs funeral home, Walton. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Boone County 4-H Club Members Do Well at State Fair

Boone county 4-H club members did well at the greatest 4-H dairy show in the history of the Kentucky State Fair. G. J. McKenney, 4-H Field Agent from the University of Kentucky, stated that there was more competition than he had seen in all 4-H dairy shows in the past.

The following 4-H members showed dairy animals: Johnny and Arlene Akins, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Akins, Burlington; Susan Graves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Graves, Hebron; Jimmy Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graves, Hebron; and Nick Domaschko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Domaschko, Erlanger Road.

Johnny Akins led he group with his Jersey heifer, winning second in the blue class. He is only 11 years old and topped many 4-H'ers who had much experience and age over him.

The Boone county 4-H dairy judging team judged in State Fair competition with 45 other county dairy judging teams. Those on the local team were: Mary Jo Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Dixon, Donnie Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Maddox, and Nick Domaschko.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zuroske, 3724 Gordon St., Omaha, Neb., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lou, to Emery E. Cotton, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Cotton, Walton. The couple is planning a winter wedding.

In Booth Hospital

Mrs. Lenora Dorn of Fiskburg, is in Booth Hospital, Covington, recovering from heart attacks last week. No visitors are allowed to see her at present.

Final Arrangements For "United Appeal"

ACTIVE FHA MEMBER

Donna Richardson

Donna Richardson, an active member of the Simon Kenton High School FHA, who has received both her Junior and Chapter degrees, is president of the local chapter this year.

Last year she held the offices of secretary of her chapter and historian in the district. She attended the spring and fall district meetings, the state meeting, and the Hardinsburg Leadership Training camp.

In other school activities this year, she is a member of the Math Club, Beta Club, and Y-Teens. Last year she was secretary of the Y-Teens, a member of Tri-Hi-Y, Garden Club, Math Club, and Beta Club.

Local Methodists to Observe Christian Education Week

Rev. A. E. Atkinson, pastor of the local Methodist Church, reports that the Official Board of the Church adopted a program for the observance of Christian Education Week recommended by its Commission on Christian Education. The week of September 23-30 will be observed with messages on the 23rd, "Church School Trains Heralds for Christ," and on the 26th at 7:30 p. m., "Evangelism In the Church School." On Friday, a parent-teacher dinner is planned for all parents whose children are enrolled in the children's and youth division of the church school with an address by a trained worker with youth or children. Sunday, 30th, will be Church School Rally Day with every member present in church and Sunday school, with special recognition being given to all teachers and workers in the church educational program.

Drive to Get Under Way On October 1

R. S. Hensley, Boone Circuit Court Clerk, who is chairman of the United Appeal Drive, which gets under way in Boone county, October 1, yesterday reported that his slate of area chairmen in the county has been virtually completed.

Mr. Hensley explained that fourteen appointments had been made and that he expected to announce filling of the chairmanship for the fifteenth area in a day or two.

Mrs. J. W. Dolwick, Jr., Mineola Road, near the Greater Cincinnati Airport, has accepted chairmanship of the airport area, Mr. Hensley said. Active in the Hebron Lutheran Church, Mrs. Dolwick is vice president of the Lutheran Church Women in the Kentucky-Tennessee Synod. A Sunday school teacher, she also has been active in the various Boone county civic enterprises over a period of several years.

J. H. Huey, cashier of Farmers Bank, Petersburg, for the past 13 years, has accepted the chairmanship of the Petersburg area. Mr. Huey has the distinction of being the first and only graduate in Burlington High School's first graduating class in 1912. A member of the Hebron Lions Club, Mr. Huey is also active in fraternal circles, holding membership in Petersburg Lodge No. 926, F&AM, and Indra Consistory, Scottish Rite, Covington.

Chairman of the Bullitsville area will be Mrs. A. Stanley Kasper, the former Mary Yates, a life-long resident of the county. Mrs. Kasper, a graduate of Georgetown College, holds a Master's Degree from the University of Kentucky. She is widely known throughout the county by reason of her diversified interests in education and aviation.

Mrs. Reba Ellis will be chairman of the Constance area. Active in Red Cross and Eastern Star circles, Mrs. Ellis is a member of the Constance PTA and the Constance Christian Church.

Vaughn Hempfling, widely known in Northern Kentucky agricultural circles for his work in both Holstein-Friesian cattle breeding and peach and apple growing, has accepted chairmanship of the Taylorsport area. A director of the Hebron Deposit Bank, Mr. Hempfling is also a director of the Boone County Farm Bureau. A past master of Hebron Lodge No. 757, F&AM, Mr. Hempfling holds membership in Indra Consistory, Scottish Rite, Covington, and Syrian Temple Shrine, Cincinnati.

The Rabbit Hash area will be represented by Mrs. Bessie Black. The Blacks are engaged in farming and are members of the East Bend Baptist Church. Mrs. Black, a Sunday school teacher, has had previous experience in fund raising campaigns.

Everett Jones will be chairman of the Big Bone are. Mr. Jones, a rural letter carrier on the star route from Walton to Hamilton, also operates a general store in Hamilton. He is a member of Big Bone Baptist Church.

The Verona area will have as its chairman Mrs. Jay Webster, whose husband operates a farm near Verona. A member of the New Bethel Baptist Church, Mrs. Webster is no stranger to fund-raising campaigns in Boone county.

CLIFFORD T. RAWLINGS

Services for Clifford T. Rawlings, 50, of Lloyd Avenue, Florence, who was stricken with a heart attack while driving his auto on the Dixie Highway in Erlanger, last Saturday, were held on Wednesday morning at the Middendorf funeral home, Covington. Burial was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Erlanger.

Patrolman Joseph Goodrich, Erlanger, said Mr. Rawlings pulled to the curb at Rosebud avenue after becoming ill. He was taken by the Elsmere life squad to St. Elizabeth Hospitgl, where he was pronounced dead. He had been under care of a physician for a heart ailment.

Mr. Rawlings had been a salesman with the Royal Typewriter Co., Cincinnati, for the past 25 years.

He leaves his widow, Lucille; a son, Gerald, Cincinnati, two daughters, Mrs. Patricia Haven and Mrs. Jacqueline Lane, Erlanger, a brother, Melvin Rawlings of Constance; a sister, Mrs. Helen Hans of Albuquerque, N. M., and seven grandchildren.

Boone county, for the past several years, has placed second in the State Beauty Contest and 1956 was no exception. Miss Diana Snider (first in line in the above picture) of Taylorsport, age 17, placed second in a very close contest. Diana is a junior at Boone County High School, Florence, and is the daughter of Mrs. John Ochs. She was sent to the state contest by winning the Owen County Rural Electric contest at Carrollton.

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

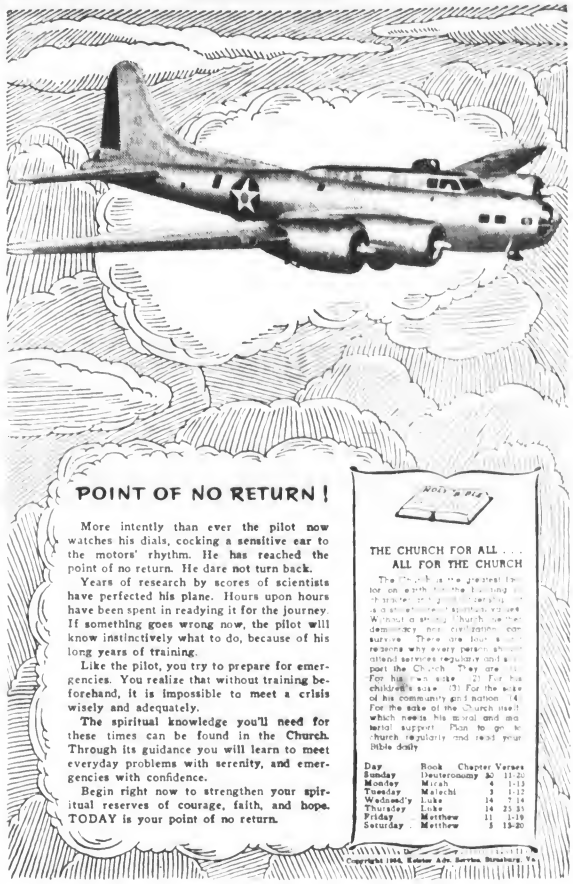
Vision of Victory

Lesson for September 23, 1956

Dr. Foreman

AFTER the battle, as Homer's poem tells it, the Greeks and Trojans who had been killed went right on fighting. Whoever won the flesh-and-blood war, the ghost-war went on and would go on forever. That was primitive Greek religion. But the same kind of notion is to be found in other religions. In the Zend-Avesta, sacred book of the ancient Persian religion, there is the picture of the good God Ahura-Mazda and the evil God Ahriman, in perpetual never-ending war with each other. Strangely enough, this same idea floats around in people's heads who have been Christian long enough to know better. They pray, "Thy Kingdom come", but nothing would surprise them more than if the Kingdom of God really came!

Desperate Battle



The ancient Persians were not entirely wrong. Life is a battle, a desperate age-long war, between good and evil. God, and the friends of God, do not run over all opposition. The cause of God has had defeats. As a modern writer puts it, "Victory has many wounds." There are those who cannot see this. All things are good, some wish us to believe. But it is truer to the facts to see that not all things are good, but there are persons and forces going all-out to destroy what is good. No matter how good a man is, no matter how good a cause is, if it prevails in this world there has to be a fight first. The book of Revelation in our Bible is a book of battles. Its pages are red with flame and blood. The white-robed saints in light have come through "great tribulation." The young Christian who finds the going rough, the veteran Christian who becomes discouraged over the defeat of some cause that surely ought to have won,—all need to read the Bible again. Victory for God and the right there will be, but not easily and probably not today.

Personal Victory

In all the wars of this world some on the winning side have never struck a blow or got into the fight at all. The armed forces do the fighting, the stay-at-homes celebrate the victory when it comes. It is different in the world-wide, age-long struggle between God and all that is anti-God. If the Bible teaches anything plainly it is that no one will share the victory of God who has not taken part in the struggle on God's side. Many Christian hymns express this idea, such as "Am I a soldier of the cross?" and "The Son of God goes forth to war." First the war, then the victory. Now there are many religions that teach something like this. Valhalla, Paradise, Nirvana, heaven, whatever it is called—most religions look forward to a time and place where everyone is, so to speak, a veteran of a successful war. But what do they do with their victory? Here the Christian religion stands out alone. "His servants shall serve Him," the Bible says. So John Sutherland Bonnell says in his little book, "Heaven and Hell," (Abingdon Press, $1.00): "The rest which is promised us in heaven is not the rest of passivity or indolence. There will be constant opportunities for spiritual development and service."

Christ Will Reign

But the church is sure that the Christian can look forward to final victory only because he is fighting in the cause and army of Christ. It is his victory after all, not ours. If he lost, we would lose. There is a great future tense our faith in Christ. There is a past tense first: He has conquered death and evil, by the cross and resurrection he struck the forces of evil the fatal blow. But not the final one. For there is the present tense. In the lives of Christians, in his church, he wins victories today. But the future tense is equally important. Christian people have never been agreed on the details, but all Christians everywhere are one in affirming: CHRIST WILL REIGN! Not only in heaven but on earth. A Christianity that does not look forward to Christ's final triumph, complete and world-wide, is not only untrue to the Bible but is like that old Persian belief, courageous to be sure, but dismal,—that our look on an eternal future just as uncertain and mixed with evil as is this present age. No,—the How and When are God's secret, but it is no secret that Christ will be

Business Activity Seen Reaching 1955's Levels

Business activity for the remainder of 1956 is expected to be at or near the record levels reached last year, says the U. K. Agriculture Experiment Station's agricultural economics department.

Consumer resistance to higher prices may result in curtailed price rises, the economists say, despite wage increases in steel and other industries.

Prices paid by farmers have increased slowly this year, but probably will level off in late 1956.

Here are a few notes on expected conditions:

Broiler prices may go somewhat above current level, by mid-October, the economists say, as chick starts have fallen off recently. Some seasonal price rise is anticipated in the months just ahead, especially for top grades of eggs. Prospects for the 1956 tobacco crop are good. In beef cattle, a wider spread than noted in the past several years is expected to occur between top grade slaughter cattle and the lower grades. Grass fat calf producers with beef breeding should consider carrying their stock further into next year, if a drop in prices of grass fat cattle develops this fall. Feeder-calf raisers may want to consider selling their calves late this fall. Hog prices through the 15th of September are expected to hold their present level.

CHIROPRACTOR CITES METHODS OF KEEPING FIT

By Dr. C. P. Strother

Chiropractic adjustments will release the vital nerve forces that are required to keep your resistance up to par. You have within you all the resisting power you need but that power is of no service to you so long as it does not reach every part of your body.

As long as there is nerve interference the flow of vital force will be impeded and your health will suffer.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Higher Education

[illegible] which [illegible] support the Northern Center of the University of Kentucky at Lexington will be [illegible] the progress of the University of Virginia's Northern Center.

It was located right across the river from Washington in Arlington, Va. Last year it had 1800 students and it expects to have 2000 by the end of the present term this month. Several northern Virginia counties are offering the University land for a new location.

Educators here in the Capitol say that extension centers such as the one in Covington are springing up in all parts of the nation to accommodate the expanding college population.

The Big Story:

The segregation-integration story in Kentucky got large headlines in Washington newspapers. Along with the story went a roundup of segregation integration across the nation.

One expert picked out the areas in the South where integration could come shortly and without difficulty. Most of those sections were in the mountains of Tennessee, western Virginia, and western North Carolina. Other areas, the survey said, would find problems large and small. Nine states as yet have no integration whatsoever.

Mail Call:

Reply to Moson countian: No, a Supreme Court justice need not be an attorney. But they always are.—Answer to Grant county student: For teaching jobs with the Indians, write Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Washington 25, D. C.

To Carroll county political observer: The last Democratic congressman from Maine was elected in 1934.—Reply to Harrison county writer: The Third District (Louisville) cast the largest vote in the 1954 election, 143,000. The Fifth District was next with 104,000.

A Little Politics:

The announcement of Vice-President [illegible]'s visit to Kentucky next week (Lexington and London), was made at the same time that plans were revealed for the inauguration come next January.

Kentuckians who believe Adlai Stevenson will win should send their ticket requests to Melvin Hildreth, the District of Columbia Democratic chairman. Those who feel like will be re-elected should get in touch with Chairman Geo. Hort, Jr., of the D. C. Republican Committee. Both sides predict 5000 guest rooms will be needed to house the visiting firemen.

Research workers have discovered that adding small amounts of oil to fertilizers makes them less corrosive, less likely to cake in storage, and less dusty.

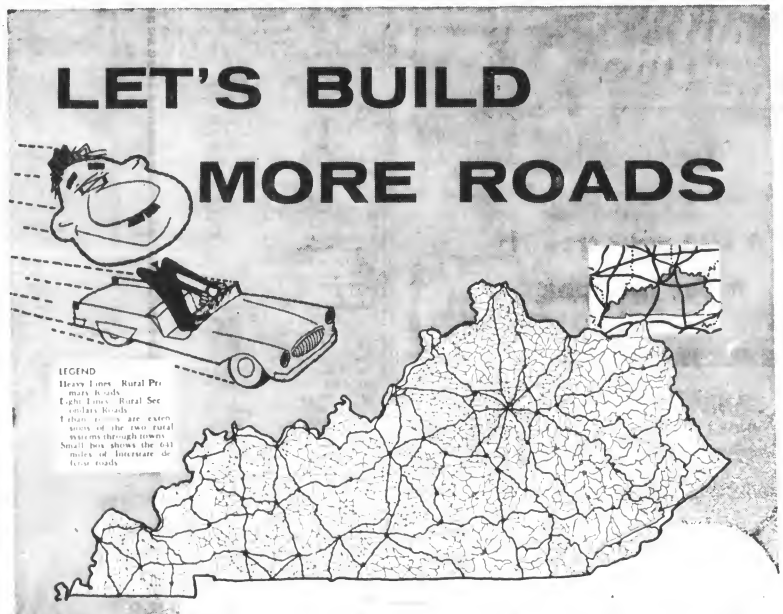
LOOKING AHEAD

Now is the time for farmers to make plans for the coming year, according to Joe Claxon, County Agent.

There is much to be done on the farm in the fall that will make farming easier and more profitable in 1957. Have soil tested for more profitable use of fertilizer and lime. It has been found a good practice to lime alfalfa land six months to a year, before seeding.

The grain drill and seeder should be in top-notch shape; plan for cultipacking in fall seeding work; buy only certified seed; think ahead on what you'll do if next summer is dry; cull out animals that are not producing. Good pasture management means more meat and plenty of milk.

Take one prescription "improved HOME LIGHTING"... use generously in every room, and then watch results! Furnishings and decorations take on a new beauty... housework and home study no longer loom up as dismal tasks!



There's something about good lighting that's bound to perk up the spirits... and you'll notice it especially on dreary fall and winter days. Let your home smile with you, when you greet your family and friends at the door... by the simple method of "LIGHTS ON!"

Of course, you'll want to make sure your home is adequately wired when you make those HOME LIGHTING improvements... so talk it over with your neighborhood electrical dealer.

LIVE BETTER ELECTRICALLY

The Union Light, Heat and Power Company

LET'S BUILD MORE ROADS

...without increasing taxes!

87% of the total bond and state-released funds available during the 3 years will go on the over 18,000 miles of primary, secondary and urban roads.

13% will be spent on the 641-mile interstate system.

RURAL ROADS would continue to receive the $19 million annually earmarked by Kentucky law, for the rural road program.

The new Federal Aid Highway Act, passed by Congress, makes available to Kentucky over $137 million to build roads in the next three years, if Kentucky puts up its share. These are farm-to-market roads . . . secondary roads . . . main highways . . . interstate routes . . . and streets connecting highways through the cities.

Shown on the map above are 18,672 road miles . . . in all sections of Kentucky . . . that could share this federal aid. However, to get these federal funds, Kentucky must put up more than $57 million in the next three years. Of this amount, $12 million is needed for the national interstate routes. On this system of highways, the Federal government pays $9 for $1 paid by Kentucky.

But our big problem is to match the $45 million for the 18,672 road miles shown on the large map. These are the roads that serve all sections of the state. Here the Federal government pays $1 for each $1 paid by Kentucky.

BOND ISSUE

Early this year the Legislature adopted a measure to submit a $100 million road bond issue to the people of Kentucky. This will be voted upon at the Nov. 6th election. If passed, the law requires that bond money may be used ONLY to match federal aid.

The Highway Department plans to use $57 million of the bond money to match federal aid during the first three years of the program, as prescribed by the 1956 Federal Highway Act. The remainder of the bond money would be used for matching federal money in future years.

NO NEW TAXES NECESSARY

The Legislature also adopted taxes chiefly on heavy trucks. These taxes are now being paid and are enough to retire the bonds.

If Kentucky FAILS to match federal aid (which is your money, being paid day-by-day, mainly in federal gasoline taxes), then these funds would be kept by the government to be given to other states.

BENEFITS FOR ALL

Kentucky has fallen behind in building its roads. By voting "YES" for the Highway Bond Issue we can start on a program for better roads which will benefit every county and community in the Commonwealth. And, this can be done without more taxes being necessary.

We are paying for BETTER ROADS...let's have them!

Springtime Comfort... winter and summer with Coleman Blend-Air®
You Set The Thermostat At Your Comfort Level And Forget It... Whether It's 10 Below or 110 Above, Outside!

Winter heating, with such even heat, warm floors, freedom from drafts that it's guaranteed by $1000 Comfort Bond. In summer the same installation gives you delightful air-conditioned cool comfort. Coleman's "Comfort-Guaranteed" furnaces and "Drier-Air" conditioners are only half the answer. The real secret is in Coleman's matchless "Blend-Air" System!
Any Home Can Have It...Thanks To Exclusive Coleman Comfort Blenders

Coleman Baseboard Perimeter Blender—Installed on outside wall, usually under a window. Makes air curtain—stops summer heat, winter cold.
Ceiling Perimeter Blender: Sets in ceiling, near outer wall; draws air in on one side, tempers it, drops curtain of tempered air down wall, thru room
Concealed Wall Blender: Sets between studs. Works with basement, attic, utility room, alcove installations. Draws room air in through one register, tempers it, floods it out through other and Universal Blender: Covers old register opening; installs without extra cutting.
These "blenders" do what no ordinary register or radiator can do! They work a new way. They (not just the furnace or air conditioner) draw air in and cool or warm it, under control so precise room air won't vary more than 3 or 4 degrees from floor to ceiling. That's why air (summer or winter) is so uniformly comfortable; why you'll never get such satisfying heating or cooling with any other method.

What happens when a NEW PAYROLL comes to town?
MORE SPENDING MONEY isn't the only thing a new factory payroll brings to town. A survey made by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce shows that 100 new factory workers also meant this to a community:
296 more people
112 more households
51 more school children
107 more passenger car registrations
174 more workers employed
4 more retail establishments
$590,000 more personal income per year
$270,000 more bank deposits
$360,000 more retail sales per year
Here's convincing proof, we think, that whatever helps the Southland to develop industrially is a real contribution to the long-range growth and prosperity of the South. The Southern helps in many ways.
Our own Industrial Development Department aggressively seeks new industries for every available plant site. Our nation-wide advertising program continually invites business enterprises of all kinds to "Look Ahead — Look South!" for greater opportunity. Our modern rail service helps provide the economical and efficient mass transportation so indispensable to industrial progress and growth.
New payrolls—and all they mean to a community — are "coming to town" all over the South. Last year 23,000 new jobs were created by industrial expansion along the Southern Railway System alone. Many in the South helped bring this about. All in the South benefit!

Home Loans

Veterans of World War II now have an extra year in which to apply for the Government insured loans to buy home, farm or business. A law just signed by the President extends the deadline to July 25, 1958 but applications filed by then get time in which they can be processed.

Buying Homes

You'll be needing less money now to swing the down payment on an older home bought with FHA Financing. The Federal Housing Administration changes its rules, makes the down payment requirement on used houses the same as on new ones. The aim, says FHA Commissioner Norman P. Mason, is to make older houses easier to sell, thus encouraging builders and real estate men to take them in as trades for new ones.

Are Proud Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Lybran Richardson of Harris Pike, Independence are the proud parents of a baby boy born August 28th at Booth Memorial hospital. John Klein Richardson is the name chosen for their new son.

The Richardsons have three other children: Larry Ray, Donna Marie and Chela G. E.

Bradford O. E. S. Chapter 493

The members of Bradford Eastern Star Chapter 493 held their regularly stated meeting Tuesday evening, September 11 at 8 p. m. at the Independence Bank building.

This meeting consisted of initiating two new members into the Order who were Robert C. Carr and J. Paul Robinson, both of Route 1, South Fort Mitchell. These new members were very pleased with the work performed by the Initiating Officers and commented on their good work and efficiency.

The electing of new officers to fill the chairs for the ensuing year was made ritually and the selection composed of many members who have been interested in the Order for some time. The following have been selected to serve as the officers for the year 1956-57.

The above persons having been selected or appointed by the members of the Chapter will be installed on Saturday evening, Sept. 29th with the following members of the Order being the Installing Officers. Mrs. Helen West, Past Matron, assisted by Robert West, Past Patron, Mildred Schenck, Past Matron and Joan Gibson, Mrs. Betty Carr as Installing Marshalls, Mrs. Edith Coleman, Past Matron, as Installing Secretary; Mrs. Lois Rubbe, Past Matron, as Installing Chaplain, Helen Walosin, Installing Organist, Mrs. Carrie McDannold, Installing Warder, Dawson McDannold, Installing Sentinel.

At the business portion of this meeting the Worthy Matron, Helen West, read her Yearly Report and was favorably received by the members. From this report, it was learned that eleven members were initiated and one member died in the past year, leaving a total of 156 members at Bradford Star Chapter 493, in Independence.

A petition was read by the Secretary and members for the investigation committee was selected by the Worthy Matron.

Other business, having been transacted at this meeting was for the good of the Order and one item was brought out, sincerely. It is important to all newly appointed officers for then ensuing year, the old officers of 1955-56 and the Installing Officers. These persons must be present at the practice for installation on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 18 at 1:30 p.m. New items and ideas will be presented that day and all of the above members must be on hand to practice for a very successful installation, which will be Sat. evening, Sept. 29 at 8 p. m. at the Independence Bank building.

To Hold Saturday Clinic

Beginning September 22, there will be a clinic for the purpose of giving immunizations at the Boone County Health Department, Florence. This Saturday clinic is in addition to the regular Wednesday clinic. Hours for both clinics are 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon. It is urged that all parents have their children immunized against polio, diphtheria, whooping cought, tetanus, and smallpox. Either contact your family physician or the Health Dept.

Bake Sale, Saturday

The sophimore class of Walton-Verona High School, will hold a bake sale on Saturday, September 22 beginning at 9:30 a. m., at Ryan Hardware & Dry Goods, Walton, and also at Hayden's Store at Verona. Your patronage will be appreciated.

Florence Woman's Club Meets In Conner Home, September 6

The Florence Woman's Club held its first meeting of the current season at the home of Mrs. Reuben Conner, in Florence, on Thursday, September 6. Luncheon was served at 12:00 noon.

Thurston B. Morton, former assistant to John Foster Dulles, spoke on "United States Leadership in World Affairs." He stated that wars are started through miscalculation, and that the United States had a cloak of leadership thrust on its shoulders, which the American people must assume, and that a major conflict is bound to involve the United States because the world has grown so small. Mr. Morton said that we cannot undertake to settle all problems of the world, but that we must determine the importance of all incidents wherever they occur. In his reference to Russia, Mr. Morton said that though their methods have changed their basic objectives remain the same. A question and answer period closed this most interesting discourse.

A brief business meeting was held following the social period. Chairmen and their committees for the year were announced by Mrs. F. D. Catron, president.

Co-hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames F. D. Catron, H. R. Daugherty, J. Robert West, Paul Chaney, R. R. Ragland, Sam Denham, Sr., Sam Denham, Jr., Fanny Scott, and Wilson Fullerton. Members attending were Mesdames Luther Bach, W. H. Campbell, Harold Cinner, T. C. Crume, J. F. Daugherty, W. R. Davis, W. F. Foote, Howard Dresman, Fred Hammersmith, Juanita Hightower, A. A. Liggett, Wallace Lucas, Roy Lutes, Herbert Riehl, Ralph Stith, William Scroggin, G. R. Tanner, W. H. Wesler, and Jay Utz.

Guests present were Mesdames H. B. Snook, Robert Miles, Dan Ejor, Wm. Kwazalla, George Sieve, M. T. Kendall, W. W. Rouse, Julia A. Rouse, Blanche C. Ransom, Bruce Wallace, W. K. Grubbs, C. S. Chambers, Robert Howard, Floyd Kells, Lucille Turner, and Ray Youell.

Ford tandem axle BIG JOBS are rated to carry more payload than comparable tandems of any of the leading manufacturers. T-800 model has max. GVW of 45,000 lb.—GCW is 65,000 lb.

Ford's F-100 Custom panel is one of the top-load carriers in its class. It provides 155.8 cu. ft. of cargo space in a smooth, fully lined interior and hauls up to 1,535 lb. of payload.

The hardest-working, biggest-saving [illegible] of them all is the Ford F-[illegible] Duty Bird offers a Short Stroke Six and three [illegible] Stroke V-8s in this field. Max. GVW is 19,000 lb.

FOR BIG JOBS... SMALL JOBS... ALL JOBS

Ford Trucks cost less

Ford's F-100 pickup with 8-ft. box is the biggest in the half-ton field—up to 19 cu. ft. more loadspace than the others. Regular 6½ ft. box with a full 45 cu. ft. capacity also available.

COME IN TODAY!

And low first cost is only your first saving

● Before you buy your next truck, look at both sides of Ford's story of value. Check what you get and what it costs. You'll like what you see.

Look at the costs. Ford's first cost is low. Resale value is high. Modern Short Stroke engines—V-8 or Six—are designed for less friction, less wear, lower running costs. Maintenance costs are lower, too, because Ford trucks are built stronger for rugged long life. And a 10-million truck study proves Ford trucks last longer.

Look at what you get and you'll see you get more in a Ford. For example, more horsepower per dollar—proved by a comparison of factory-suggested list prices and net horsepower of all truck lines. You get more comfort and safety in Ford's Driverized Cab with exclusive Lifeguard features.

Look carefully . . . consider everything. You'll agree Ford trucks cost less, give you more. If you want a great deal—a great deal more for your money—see your Ford Dealer.

FORD TRUCKS LAST LONGER
Using latest registration data on 10,502,351 trucks, insurance experts prove Ford trucks last up to 9.9% longer.

FALL WEATHER

The 21st day is the first day of fall and I think the best season of the year. Some don't like it, they say winter is too close, but we don't have too bad winters any more. Now is the time to get your roofs, gutters and better check your heating systems, and have everything ready for those chilly days. We have all sizes of furnace pipe and stove pipe. We have a very good selection of wood, oil and coal heaters, also for coal, chips, dogs, we have small gas heaters, oil Perfection portable and electric heaters. We have wood heaters in 6-inch nd 26-inch sizes.

I took Lucille Heizer, down at Beaver, a lot of fence, nails and brace wire. We sold a lot of fruit jars to dozens, we have a very good supply of canning supplies and also deep freeze and locker supplies. I have a few syrup buckets for sorghum this fall—better get them early as they are hard to get. Mrs. Robert Black well brought in a few picture frames for new glass to put in them. I have that used coal range that so many have been asking for, it is a good one for a wood or coal range and a hundred dollars less than new. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gabriel bought a lot of Behr-Manning liquid satin paint today. The Walton Baptist Church is painting the parsonage with Behr-Manning paint—look at the gloss and finish—it really shines. Brewster and Beach went down to Beaver this morning and put a new stove pipe in Ed Kennedy's coal heater, then up to Beaver Christian Church and put new pipe on that coal heater. This afternoon they took a middle-size Perfection fuel-oil heater over to Mike Rex and installed it with a 275-gallon oil tank—this makes a real heating system for any home.

Today, Brewster and Beach put in several window glass for Wesley Burgess, up on Edwards Avenue. This afternoon they installed the new Perfection oil heater for Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Alsip, over at Fiskburg. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Guard were in buying rug border and some other hardware items. We spent most of the day getting ready for winter. Brewster and Beach checked all the furnaces and roofs for me, then this afternoon they painted the gutters on the store roof; also gave the warehouse roof a coat of black roof coating and Brewster repaired all the sky lights.

Also, today Howard Fredericks and his black topping crew, who are repairing the streets here in Walton, covered about half of our driveway and parking lot. Talk is the hotel must all of this belongs to the hotel property, but we all use it and they use ours. It is nice to have good neighbors. Chick did a lot of small repair jobs and took care of a lot of customers. My big, fat salesman Mayon Hughes from Louisville was here but he is not big and fat anymore—since Feb. 1st he has lost 120 pounds—he weighed 328 when he had to go to the hospital, but now he weighs 208 pounds and feels so much better.

This was sure a busy day. Chick overhauled a deep well lift pump for Ernest Dearborn. He lowered the cylinder and put a longer foot pipe on it. Mrs. Sharon, daughter and son were in, they bought a Warm Morning coal heater. Mr. and Mr. Raven Glass came after a Dayton combination water pump and water heater. Brewster took it over between Mt. Zion and Verona. Hiles and Charles Trinkner bought a Warm Morning coal heater and Brewster delivered it on the way to Mt. Zion. Wilbur Snow bought a used Duo-Therm oil heater to tie set up later.

Bright Below was here today. We had made a mistake and gave him the wrong spell boxes for wiring his house. We gave him the boxes with the ends cut off and the inspector would not pass them, they will pass on REA but not on U.E.&P. which we learned later. Joe Richardson was over after 4:00 of plastic water pipe—he is getting ready for those turkeys. Edgar Schuiker also was here getting wiring material. Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Weiter dropped in and bought a big Bell alarm clock and looked over my coal heaters.

Lewis Huffman was here in a hurry as usual, and bought some poultry medicine, hurried off and left it here. We had several more visitors today. Burt and Annie Powell bought a new oil heater. It took in their used one, it will be a good used heater for someone. Henry Catlett, who operates Catlett's Boat dock at Bullock Pen Lake was here getting a lot of pipe threaded. Jim Brewer bought Burt and Annie Powell stove, also with them was Mr. Duke Wilson, who lives over on Stephenson Mill Road. Jim has been over to fence in that new woodland pasture of his.

Charlie Schuiker brought in a pump to have it repaired today. Clyde Mattox from the top of Mount Hill on Verona Mud Lick Road, and a good customer of mine was in today. Clarence Johnson was over after some shelf brackets—he left with me a little arrowhead that was found over on the Johnson farm by a tornado—this belonged to Lloyd McCallister's family and Clarence lives at Atwood. Brewster went over to C. C. Northcutt's and put up new furnace pipe. Those Kenton and Boone county people really keep us busy.

Geo. Fisk, a fireman for R. C. Durr, just came in for me to put up 105 ft. 2 pipe, cut 18 pieces. Arthur Ingram just bought $69 worth of linoleum—enough to cover four rooms, he is moving back to Walton. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Dixon were looking for some green heavy bodied roof coating. I ordered him some Liberty green and it is really heavy. very good for [illegible] with some small holes. Get your roof ready for winter.

Annual Fire Protection Plan Drive Under Way

Fire Prevention Week Oct. 7-13

The Walton-Verona Fire Department [illegible] annual fire protection drive. All are urged to attend that will [illegible] of their homes during Fire Prevention Week.

Members of the department are [illegible] at various meetings in the [illegible] Walton on the U.S. 25 highway, 4 miles east to [illegible] south to Gay Village. They went to the 25 Highway 42 between Limaburg and Hawk Hill.

For years the schedule of rates for fire protection of this area [illegible] first year three hundred or more, $15.00; there after $5.00 per year. Two buildings $15 the first year, $3.00 yearly thereafter; one building $5.00 first year, $2.00 yearly thereafter. In the event you have a fire and the Walton volunteers make a run the charge is $100 for the call and $25.00 per hour for the time on the job. Why not protect yourself at this [illegible] reasonable protection rate instead of waiting until a fire strikes your home.

Verona city limits will not be protected under the blanket coverage offered for the past several years. Any fire in the Verona city limits may have fire protection at the rate of fifteen dollars. Send in your check to W.F.D. giving location, number of buildings and location and source of water supply.

The local department is modern, exceptionally well equipped and ready to serve you at any time, twenty four hours a day and seven days a week.

In case of fire call Walton 2010. Be specific about location and type of fire whether barn, house automobile. Close all doors and isolate fire if possible. Direct firemen to nearest water supply. Don't take unnecessary chances one life is worth more than all the fire damage.

Don't forget Fire Prevention Week October 7-13, make every week fire prevention week.

Big Free Show at Verona Lake Ranch On Sunday Afternoon

Next Sunday, September 30, will mark the closing for the season of Verona Lake Ranch folk park, Verona, Ky., which has top name country music shows each Sunday through out the summer. To celebrate this last show next Sunday and to show their appreciation to all the wonderful people who have come to the park this summer the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Thorunton Moore, are giving a free show, open to everyone.

This last stage show at Verona Lake Ranch will be one of the biggest shows of the season with many top stars appearing on stage throughout the afternoon and evening. The featured star to appear in person is Grand Ole Opry star, Bill Monroe, and his Bluegrass Boys direct from Nashville.

Also appearing will be Lattie Moore, star from Indianapolis with his group, plus these headliners: Jimmie Williams and Ray Scott from WNOP, Jimmie Skinneer and Roy Lunsford, the Verona Ranch Boys, Joy Whitaker and the Southerners, King Williams' Western Swing Band, Ray Pennington and his big band, and King recording star, Bobby Grove. Incidentally, Grove will be on Red Foley's Ozark Jubilee, Saturday night and is driving back from Springfield, Mo., after the show to appear at Verona Lake Ranch, Sunday.

Many top stars in the country music field have appeared at this new famous park this season. Among them, Ernest Tubb, Webb Pierce, Jimmie Dickens, Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs, and many others. The park brags of over 100 acres of space, plenty of good parking, picnic tables, big spring fed fishing lake, refreshment stands, pony rides for the children and many other wonderful features. If you hven't visiated Verona Lake Ranch, then be sure and get together with the family and friends and come to this last show of the year—and it won't cost you one penny.

SPEAKS AT PTA MEETING

F. D. Caton

F. D. Caton, principal of the Kenton Elementary School, near Independence, spoke at the regular meeting of the P. T. A. held in the school last Thursday evening. His subject was "Community Action for Community Cooperation and Better Schools."

Republicans Plan Eisenhower Dinners In Boone County

The Boone County Republican Committee announces the following plan for the coming election. There will be three Eisenhower dinners held in Boone County and to close its campaign the Committee will sponsor a free fish fry at the fire house in Florence.

The first dinner will be held at the Florence Christian Church on October 4. The women of the church will serve the meal at 7 p. m. in the basement. Edwin Freshney will act as master of ceremonies. LaRon Schram and Jeanette Kells are co-chairman of this dinner and tickets can be obtained from either of them or by contacting Mr. Russell McClure, campaign manager or Mr. Norman Herbstreit, Secretary-Treasurer of the committee. Tickets must be limited for this dinner due to the fact that table space is only available for a certain amount. If tickets are desired I would advise an early request. October 1, is the closing date for ticket requests for this dinner.

The second dinner will be held at the Phoenix Hotel, Walton, on October 13 at 7 p. m. The speaker for this dinner will be Mr. James Parks, prominent attorney of Lexington, Ky.

Mr. Otis Readnour is chairman of this dinner and tickets, which are also limited due to lack of space, can be obtained from him or from the campaign chairman or secretary of the committee. Again I suggest on early request if the tickets are desired. Further plans for this dinner will be announced next week.

LOCAL DAIRYMEN WIN AT KY. STATE FAIR

Boone county dairy breeders did well at the Kentucky State Fair dairy show. Brantwood Farm, Burlington, won the Junior Champion Holstein Kentucky Maid bull. This bull will be shown in the Mid Southern Regional Dairy Show in Tennessee. In the Junior Heifer Holstein class there were two heifers entered winning third and fourth prizes. Wilfred Scott is manager.

The Kentucky Artificial Breeding Association annual meeting will be held at the Bull Stud, 10:00 a. m., Thursday, September 27.

New Chairmen Named

Mrs. A. B. Smoot, county president of the Boone County Homemakers Association announces the appointment of three new county Federation chairmen. They are Mrs. James S. Webster, Walton, citizenship, Mrs. Burman Roberts, Bullittsville, publicity, Mrs. John Scram, Florence, membership. These succeed Mrs. Joseph Hogan, citizenship, Mrs. Robert Paul, publicity, and Mrs. Joseph Domaschko, membership.

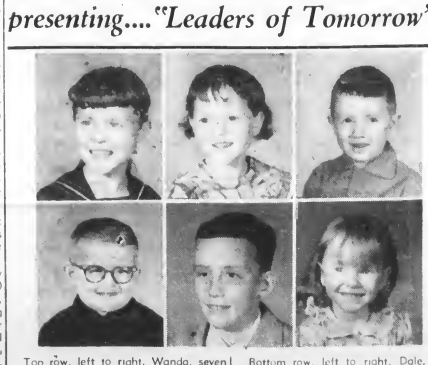
September 18, at 1:00 p. m., the new county chairmen will train all of the club chairmen at the Florence Christian Church.

Walton Baptist Revival Starts Sundy

The Walton Baptist Church will start an eight-day revival this coming Sunday morning (September 30) and continue each evening through Sunday, October 7, according to Rev. Joseph Tackett, pastor.

Rev. Darty Stowe, a missionary with the Home Mission Board, Columbus, Ohio, will be the evangelist, and Rev. Buford Sloan, State Training Union Secretary, will direct the music and provide special music each evening.

Rev. Darty Stowe



Rev. Buford Sloan

Rev. Tackett invites everyone to attend and merely states that "An evening with us is not spent, it is an investment."

Simon Kenton PTA to Meet

The regular meeting of the Simon Kenton P. T. A. will be held Monday, October 1, at 8:00 p. m. in the school. A program and social hour will follow the business meeting, according to the president, Mrs. H. J. Holthill.

Kickoff Meet For United Appeal Scheduled For Monday, Oct. 1st

R. S. Hensley, County Chairman

"Ab" Ryan, County Co-chairman

Literary Club to Meet

The regular meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club will be held in the Phoenix Restaurant, on Wednesday, October 3, beginning at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Julia A. Rouse will speak on "The Constitution." Mrs. F. S. Thompson will preside and Mrs. J. S. Webster and Mrs. J. R. Conrad will serve as hostesses.

"Al Martin Night" To Be Observed at Race Bowl, Friday

"Al Martin Night" will be celebrated at 8:00 p. m., Friday at Hilltop Race Bowl, Taylor Mill Pike, Kenton county.

Mr. Martin, 32, of Covington, was critically injured in a race September 9 at the racing oval. Proceeds from the benefit event will be given to his wife, Peggy, and children, to defray medical expenses.

Martin suffered a basal skull fracture and possible internal injuries when his machine went out of control on a curve and crashed into a retaining wall. The car overturned four times, propelling him to the rear of the machine. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he remained unconscious for four days.

He is employed as an auto worker at Michael Welding Co., Covington, and is the father of three children, Timmy, 11; Cindy, eight, and Tony, four. Doctors say that he will be unable to work for some time due to the length of time required for the fracture to heal.

All racing friends immediately asked permission to use the race bowl Friday night. Officials of the track approved the gesture and said all proceeds would be given the Martin family.

Stock car races will be the same as on Sundays. Five races, including a semi-feature and feature race, will be presented. Prizes from the Taylor Mill Pike merchants will be given winners.

Some of the participants and originators of the benefit are Les Marsh of Ft. Mitchell, Gordon Landrum of South Ft. Mitchell, Harry Holtkamp and Chester Morsh, both of Covington, and Russell Roberts and Gene Gibson, both of Independence.

WHO'S WHO IN THE SIMON KENTON FHA

Jean Elliott

Jean Elliott, an active FHA member, is first vice president of the Simon Kenton F. H. A. Chapter and recreation leader of the Covington District F. H. A. She has completed both her Junior and Chapter degrees, and is now working on her State Degree. She attended both the Spring and Fall District meetings and the Leadership Training Camp at Hardinsburg.

In other club activities, Miss Elliott is treasurer of the Y-Teens at Simon Kenton.

County Homemakers To Meet at Hebron, Monday, Oct. 1st

Mrs. John Scott, Cincinnati, will be the principal speaker at the 21st annual meeting of the Boone County Homemakers Association on Monday, October 1, according to Miss Nancy Guilfoil, Home Agent.

Her subject will be, "Hats Through the Ages, from Eve to Atom." Mrs. Scott, who has collected hats as her hobby illustrates with her talk how the hats were worn through the ages.

The theme for the day will be, "Lets Broaden Our Horizons." Reports of last year's work will be summarized by the following out-going county chairmen:

Citizenship—Mrs. Joseph Hogan
Membership—Mrs. Joe Domaschko
Publicity—Mrs. Robert Paul
Reading—Mrs. R. R. Ragland
Handicraft—Mrs. Roy Lutes
Music—Mrs. Stanley Aylor
4-H—Mrs. Earl Morehead
Educational—Mrs. Sterling Dickey

Farm and Home Week—Mrs. Ed Peel

Mrs. A. B. Smoot, county president, will call the meeting to order at 10:00 a. m., in the Hebron Lutheran Church. Registration will begin at 9:30, and lunch will be served at the church.

Approximately 6,000 acres of strawberries were grown in 60 Kentucky counties this year.

United Appeal Sunday Set For October 14th

The United Appeal was organized because local residents were of the opinion that one big campaign to cover many needs would put an end to the confusion of month after month campaigns. Its success can be measured by the fact that last year the United Appeal raised 87 per cent of the money collected in community-wide campaigns for health and welfare services.

That's the story being told by R. S. Hensley, Boone Circuit Court Clerk, Chairman of the United Appeal in Boone County. The five-county goal, Mr. Hensley explained, is $5,077,266. The other counties, in addition to Boone, are Kenton, Campbell, and in Ohio, Hamilton and Clermont.

This year's slogan ,Mr. Hensley said, is "Help The Happy Way," pointing up the fact that folks are happier when they can help many agencies with one gift—happier to be able to pledge an amount and pay as they are paid—happier because they can pledge and designate the agencies they want to help the most.

Mr. Hensley said the area-wide kick-off meeting will be held at 12:15 p. m., on Moday, October, in the Hall of Mirrors at the Hotel Netherland Hilton. T. Spencer Shore, chairman of the 1956-57 United Appeal, and president of the Eagle-Pitcher Co., will preside, and there will be a dramatic presentation of people helped through the United Appeal.

Solicitation also is scheduled to get under way at industries where employees will be urged to give twelve minutes' pay every week through payroll deductions to help 115 agencies. In this way local residents may pay as they are paid and thus provide help every day of the year for the thousands who are helped daily through funds contributed to the United Appeal.

Also on October 1, Mr. Hensley said, residential division volunteers will begin calling on special gifts contributors and neighborhood businesses in every community in the five counties.

And then, on United Appeal Sunday, October 14, Mr. Hensley concluded, the volunteers will begin their door-to-door calls on local residents who have not had the opportunity to give at work. Mr. Hensley emphasized that these who give at work this year will be given a window sticker which they will be asked to display so that neighborhood United Appeal volunteers will know that they gave at work.

Y-Teen Conference At Simon Kenton High, October 5-6

The Fall Conference of the Northern Area Y-Teen Clubs will be held at Simon Kenton High School, Independence, on Friday and Saturday, October 5 and 6.

Officers of the Senior Y-Teen Clubs of Morgan High School, Butler High School, Carrollton High School, Bracken County High School, Deming High School, and Boone County High School will meet with the Simon Kenton Y-Teens on Friday evening, October 5 for a banquet and officers' workshop.

The conference program on Saturday will be attended by delegates from the Senior and Junior Clubs of the above schools. Jo Ann Heideman of Simon Kenton is conference president.

Officers of the hostess club are: President, Edwina Miller; first vice-president, Carol Winburn; secretary, Norma Elliott; treasurer, Jean Elliott, and song leader, Wanda Brautigan.

Wa-Na Club to Meet

The Wa-Na Woman's Club will meet Monday, October 1, at 8:00 p. m., at Janodo, with Mrs. Eldred Steinhauser and Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., hostesses.

The topic of the meeting will be "Federation," and the guest speaker will be Mrs. Howard Bary, Kenton Hills, Covington. Mrs. Bary was recently appointed hostess to speakers at the General Federation of Women's Clubs Convention.

It is hoped all members will be present to hear this most interesting talk.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Back to Politics

We've been asked by some Kentuckians: What happened in Maine?

Here you'll recall, the Democrats made history by re-electing a governor and grabbing a congressional seat.

First of all, we are told that Governor Muskie turned in a good first term and his popularity helped the Democratic congressional candidate. Secondly, so the story goes, the Democrats nominated one of the strongest tickets in 20 years.

Sports Department:

We forsake politics and world affairs for a discussion of Kentuckians who are attracting attention in the Washington sports world.

The University of Kentucky Wildcats have a game scheduled with Maryland in early November. The battle will be fought at College Park, a suburb of the Capital City. It looks today as though Uncle Sam is going to help the Big Blue. The draft board has put the finger on Frank Tamburello, the Maryland star quarterback. He has been called to duty within the next ten days.

The Redskins:

Remember Harry Ulinski who played a whale of a game at center for UK?

Well, he's in his sixth year as a Washington Redskin, the pro team in the Capitol. It looks as though he'll play this year again—as regular. But the old man—as pro footballers go—is being hard pressed by some newcomers.

All those military camps around Washington like their football, too, and each one has a service team.

Ron Beagle, the Covington boy who was all-American end at Navy, is stationed at Quantico and the Marines are hoping for a great season.

How They Campaigned:

In what issues did the two parties campaign in Maine? That was the second question from Kentuckians.

Well, the Democrats campaigned for help for the farmer and the small businessman. They also urged that Maine expand its trade with its neighbors in Canada. The Republicans sought votes supporting the Eisenhower record, praised the tax reduction program and came out for another tax cut.

That, in essence, is the Maine story. Kentuckians will have to draw their own conclusions.

CRITTENDEN

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Waller have been guests of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waller and daughter of Jackson, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve McAllister have bought the house of Ralph Brown in North Crittenden. They will move there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Allphin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allphin spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. R. F. DeMoisey of Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dance and son of Walton, Mr. and Mrs. William Dance and family of Dayton, Ohio, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Lorena Hutsell, and daughter, Virginia Dell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Reed and two children and Miss Mary Reed and John Reed spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reed at Lyndon, Ky.

Mrs. Nannie Cooke was the Sunday guest of Mrs. Ethel Webster and children of Williamstown.

Elmer Showers is spending some time with his sister, Mrs. Whitson, and his niece, Mrs. Graver Ransom, of Verona.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Hisel and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hisel of Richmond, Ky.

Piner Homemakers

Mrs. Marvin Martin was hostess to the Piner Homemakers at the March meeting. New officers elected were: Mrs. J. C. Cave, president; Mrs. Willie Streine, vice president; Mrs. John Frank, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ray Tomlin, program chairman; Mr. Martin Oliver, reading chairman; Mrs. John Dwyer, citizenship chairman; and Mrs. Elmer Spaulding, publicity chairman.

A special workshop was planned for September 20. Members reported having aged 4,819 quarts fruits and vegetables, 1809 pounds meat and poultry.

Mrs. Anna Lunsford gave the lesson on "Clothing Guideposts for the fall and winter."

The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Chester Mullins.

CLEANING LAMP SHADES

Dusty and lampshades may need special attention now that days are better spent in study, reading and sewing under the electric light. As much as 20 to 50 percent more light is possible when reflector bowls bulbs and lampshades are clean.

For washing parchment and paper or plastic lampshades, Gladys Morris, Extension home management specialist at the University of Kentucky, recommends the use of dry suds.

Dissolve 1/2 cup of neutral soap flakes, beads or chips of bar soap in 4 cups of hot soft water. Let the mixture cool. Then it gets. Remove the shade and beat with rotary beater until it looks like frosting.

Apply the suds liberally and quickly to the lampshade with a regular motion, supporting the area with the left hand. Remove soiled suds with a rub of soft cotton flannel. Rinse with a cloth wrung from clean lukewarm water then dry thoroughly. An electric fan may be used. To restore the luster polish the shade with liquid wax.

Pheasant Hunts To Be Conducted Near Ky. Dam Village Park

A controlled hunt for pheasants and other upland game in which shooters will be assured of the opportunity to bag a limit of birds will be conducted near Kentucky Dam Village State Park Conservation Commissioner Laban Jackson announced this week.

In the hunt tentatively set to open October 1, sportsmen will be charged for each bird they kill on the 1500 acre controlled range. A "package" deal including consisted, officials said which a hunter pays a sum for a number of birds lodging and meals at the park.

The pheasants, raised in captivity will be released at the start of hunting periods, officials said. Hunting parties will be accompanied by guides. Bird dogs and kennels will be available if needed, but huntsmen may bring their own dogs.

Jackson said the hunting lodge will be a club house at Kentucky Dam Village Airport. The club house, electrically heated, has all modern conveniences and a snack bar. Overnight lodge, cottage and dining facilities are available at the park.

As hunting will be restricted to a predetermined number of hunters in the field at one time, reservations should be made for the shoot, Jackson said. Prospective participants were advised to call Supt. B. J. Clear at the park. C. R. Jones will be in charge of the hunting. He is from Paducah.

Game officials said hunters will be obligated to abide by all State and Federal hunting laws and relulations.

Hunters who get their limits early have the "choice of turning from the field to the stream and enjoying some of America's finest fishing in Kentucky Lake," Jackson said.

The controlled hunting will continue as long as feasible, possibly until March 1, officials said.

Test Soils Prior to The Fall Planting

Supplying plant foods in which soils are deficient will help bring on successful establishment of fall seedings, says Harold Miller, Extension soils specialist at the University of Kentucky. For that reason, soils should be tested. Such tests are available to every farmer in Kentucky and are the best guides to determine available and needed plant foods in a particular soil.

STOMACH WEAKNESS

By Dr. G. C. Donahoo

Diseases of the stomach are divided into many classes and called various names but back of all these is a cause that is common to all nerve weakness. We have seen many types of stomach weaknesses and have never found one without some interference to the nerves leading to the stomach.

Nerve interference lowers the vitality to any organ. Hundreds of people are enjoying stomach health today because of the scientific removal of nerve interference, after other methods have failed.

When we realize that severing the nerves leading to the stomach would cause the stomach to be paralized then it is easy to understand that any interference to the nerves would cause weakness in proportion to the interference. For this reason stomach weakness should be benefitted by Chiropractic.

The responsibility of the Chiropractor to the public health is to prevent, correct or control those conditions of the spine which, by interfering with normal nerve function cause disease.

(One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, by Dr. G. C. Donahoo, whose office is located at 76-8 Dixie Highway, Florence, Ky. Phone ATlantic 3-5371.)

Beechgrove Homemakers

With the Lord's Prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, the Beechgrove Homemakers opened their club season of 1956-57 at the home of Mrs. Gus Schadler, Wright Road, with Mrs. Raymond McHale as cohostess. A report on the Advisory Council was given by Mrs. William Endres, president.

Installation of new officers was made by Mrs. Howard Clark. President, Mrs. William Endres, vice president, Mrs. R. Robinson, treasurer, Mrs. Roy Krumler, secretary, Mrs. Fay Powers; publicity, Mrs. Raymond McHale; program, Mrs. Verner Stephens, exterior beautification, Mrs. F. Atterkirk, citizenship, Mrs. George Finnell, ways and means, Mrs. Grace Bromlage, reading, Mrs. Vera Ott; progress report, Mrs. Gus Schadler; cards and gifts, Mrs. E. P. Sterling. The Homemakers' song concluded the installation ceremony.

A lesson on "Clothing Guideposts," was given by Mrs. F. P. wers. Members appreciated her many delightful suggestions as to new style. A complete report was given on the cooperative work done by the members during the 1955-56 year.

The October meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Vera Ott, assisted by Mrs. Roger Robinson.

As advertised in Life, Saturday Evening Post, Time and Newsweek

I still can't believe it!

(An Actual Case Based on Company Files)

When my brakes suddenly gave way I went through a traffic light and crashed another car broadside.

I was arrested—held in $10,000 bail—actually locked up. The charges: Criminal negligence; Failure to observe a traffic signal; Operating a defective vehicle!

It was like a bad dream. But the police let me call my Hartford Agent in my home community 40 miles away. Things started to look better right away!

Even though it was Sunday my agent notified the nearest Hartford Claim Office. Arranged to meet the claim man at the Police Station. Then drove my wife over to see me.

The Hartford Claim Man and my agent helped me get a bail bond. I was quickly released.

Later a Hartford checkup proved my brake failure was something I couldn't have prevented. The criminal charges against me were dismissed.

Last but not least, my Hartford Auto Property Damage Insurance paid for the damages to the car I'd hit — and under my Hartford Collision Insurance I received $401.30 for repairs to my own car.

This same sort of service comes with every Hartford Automobile Policy. We're always available locally when our policyholders need help. So are over 15,000 other Hartford Agents and 200 Claim Offices coast to coast. Before you renew your present Automobile Insurance let us show you the many advantages of having it in the Hartford through our agency.

B-4 Homemakers Meet

The first fall meeting of the Bullittsville-Idlewild Homemakers was held on September 12 at the Bullittsville Christian Church. Mrs. Henry Hudson, president, presided. Members must have their dues paid during September and October.

Mrs. Terry Brown gave the lesson on "style trends" and 4-H leaders were elected.

Those attending were Mrs. Henry Hudson, Mrs. Robert V. Grant, Mrs. Robert E. Grant, Mrs. Harry Matthews, Mrs. Robert Culver, Mrs. Gilbert Furnish, Mrs. Mario W. Green, Mrs. Henry Siekman, Mrs. Lee Marshall, Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mrs. Nick Mikkelsen, Mrs. C. V. Anderson, Mrs. Carl Souther, Mrs. Burman Roberts, Mrs. C. W. Meiners, Mrs. Hugo Aylor, Mrs. Ralph Pfalzgraf, Mrs. Chester Grant, and Mrs. John Randall. Guests were Mrs. John Schira and Mrs. Terry Brown.

An officers planning meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Henry Hudson September 7, to plan the year's program.

The annual Homemakers meeting will be held October 1 at the Hebron Lutheran Church, Hebron. The theme will be "Let's Broaden Our Horizons." Mrs. John Scott, Cincinnati, will speak on "Hats Through the Ages."

Bake Sale On Saturday

The junior class of Walton-Verona High School will hold a bake sale in the Phoenix Restaurant Walton on Saturday, September 29, from 10:00 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Orders will be received by calling Elizabeth Grubbs, Walton 352, or Bonita Messmer at Verona, Walton 797. Donations will be welcomed.

Kenton Garden Club to Meet

Miss Mary M. Stephens, Main Street, Independence, will be hostess to the regular meeting of the Kenton County Garden Club, Thursday, September 27, at 7:45 p. m.

Mrs. S. E. Fisk and Mrs. H. L. Pitcher, delegates to the state meeting of Kentucky Garden Clubs, in Lexington, September 17, 18 and 19, will report on the convention. Mrs. Edna Rich, who enjoyed a spring tour of Europe, will speak on "Gardens I Visited."

Oyster Supper October 5

The Crusaders Sunday School class of the Walton Christian Church will have their annual oyster supper Friday, Oct. 5, from 5:30 to 8:30 p. m., in the church basement. There will also be old fashion bean soup, sandwiches, pie and coffee. A continuous movie will be showing throughout the evening.

For sixty cents you can enjoy a home cooked meal and a movie. So men, give the cooks at home a night out and come to the Christian Church and eat with the Crusaders.

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETS

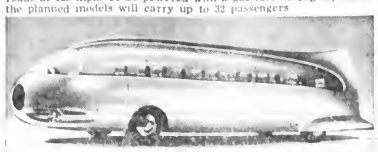
A meeting of the Boone County Board of Health was held September 11 at the Health Department office in Florence.

A milk regulation was adopted by the Board. Also a State Plumbing Code was discussed and adopted. A copy of which is on file in the office of the Health Department. A copy of the State Plumbing Law and Code is available at the office for all plumbers and contractors in this county.

REFUNDS ARE DUE

Claims must be filed not later than October 1, 1956 by farmers seeking refunds of the federal excise tax on gasoline the U. K. Extension Service notes.

Two cents a gallon refund may be claimed on any gasoline purchased and used in the farm for farming purposes during the period January 1, 1956 through June 30, 1956. Farmers also may obtain refunds of the tax on gasoline used on his farm in agricultural work by a custom operator or neighbor.



Faulkner at Ft. Campbell

Sgt. Allen C. Faulkner, 29, son of Mrs. Cecil Faulkner, Independence, R-1, participated in Organizational Day activities for the new 101st Airborne Division at Fort Campbell, Ky., Sept. 21.

The 101st has been reorganized along concepts of modern atomic-age warfare and is now a streamlined, completely air-transportable unit packed with firepower. An ammunition clerk in the division's 425th Quartermaster Company, he has been in the Army since 1947.

Travel Shifts Into High Gear

HERE COMES TOMORROW—Italian designers have come up with this sleek plastic bus creation which they claim will cruise over the roads at 125 mph. To be powered with a gas turbine engine, one of the planned models will carry up to 32 passengers.

LONGEST ROAD IN THE WORLD—The Kansas Turnpike, terminating in this wheatfield on the Oklahoma-Kansas border is, at present, a road with no end, but not for long. Just as soon as Oklahoma allocates the necessary funds, the new four-lane superhighway will knife its way through the farmer's field and he'll have a new, faster road to get his grain to market.

MAN BEFORE THE HORSE?—Transportation shades of the past are recorded here, but otherwise, as a London dock worker acts as the beast of burden, to a valuable judo pupil. The animal appears to be enjoying the novelty of watching the man do the work. (United Press Photos)

THIS IS WHERE TOMORROW STARTS

A new "inner car" gives you a NEW KIND of FORD for 1957!

Coming October 3rd.

On Wednesday, October 3rd, Ford Dealers throughout the United States will unveil a new kind of automobile!

Cars are involved in every American's life. News of a new kind of car is the biggest kind of news to millions of Americans.

The Big New Kind of Ford is that kind of news . . . a car totally new in design from crest to trunk lock.

This makes possible a new high standard of such honest-to-goodness value that it actually increases the purchasing power of your automobile dollar.

When you see it, other cars will look out of date, because . . :

This is Where Tomorrow Starts . . . with a Big New Kind of Ford!

The New Kind of Ford is the fullest, most eloquent expression of Ford's special personality—the youthful grace, the whiplash action—and the reputation for durability known wherever there's a road.

To all this we have added true elegance—a kind of elegance never before seen in the low price field. To make a car truly elegant, you must start deep down inside.

The New Inner Ford

The Inner Ford—the car you cannot see—is a very remarkable structure. Its frame is actually a cradle. Side members extend almost the full body width; they serve not only as supporting members but as concealed side bumpers of immense strength.

The New Ford Body

The new Ford body is a triumph of engineering in steel. The doors close with the solid finality of a bank vault. Even the door-lock button has been moved up front—easier for you to reach, but out of the children's reach.

All these features were engineered to give you a solid new kind of comfort.

The New Ford Ride

The New Kind of Ford sits six people as no other low-priced car has ever sat them—six elbows wide in each seat, with deep space around each one of six knees. And above all that space, there's hat room to spare for all six passengers.

The 1957 Ford rides low, solid, with a firm, deep road-holding feel. Yet it's a light-hearted, flight-hearted ride—this car is responsive, nimble, agile, with a proud easy movement.

The New Ford Choice

Ford offers not only one, but two sizes of cars . . . each on its own extended wheelbase . . . each with its own body shell . . . each with its own styling.

First, the two Fairlane Series on a 118-inch wheelbase. The Fairlane 500's come in 5 body types, a four-door sedan, a two-door sedan, a two- and four-door Victoria with no center pillars, and a convertible coupe. The same body types (except for the convertible) are available in the Fairlane Series.

Second, two Custom Series mounted on the 116-inch wheelbase chassis. In the Custom 300 Series, a four-door and a two-door sedan are distinguished from the Custom models by more luxurious interiors and elaborate trim. The Custom Series also includes a Business Sedan.

Beyond all these you have your choice of five Station Wagons, the finest, glamour cruisers that are the champions in this field!

The New Ford Look

That low, low cradle span frame makes a low, low car. The Fairlane 500's over four feet eight inches from road to roof. The Custom is just over four feet nine inches!

The new Ford is not only low. Amazing, Ford gives you more than 17 inches of elegant length in the Fairlane Series, a little less in the Custom. It's a new kind of Ford just to look at it. It's high-priced in every way except price.

The New Ford Performance

You can have up to 245 wonderful Thunderbird horsepower in any Ford you build. There's a moderate and really moderate—extra charge for this engine of 312 cubic inches with its 4 barrel carburetor.

For "Six" lovers, we've got the 144 hp Mileage Maker Six. Whether you choose Six or V-8, the going is great!

Here is where your own tomorrow starts

It starts at your Ford Dealer's showroom!

The cars will be there on Wednesday, October 3.

These are the best Fords of our lives.

They are the first symbols out of Detroit of the new automotive age that is beginning for you.

This is when your tomorrow starts—October 3rd.

Come in and see us for the Big New Kind of Ford!

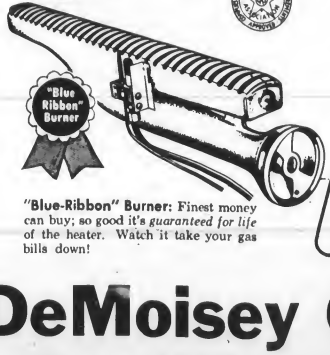
More Heat From Fuel... More Warmth For YOU

with Coleman GAS



HEATER

Coleman's exclusive "Blue-Ribbon" Burner and Coleman's Super-Circulation not only give you more heat — they give you more comfort from every cubic foot of gas. It's "warm-all-over" comfort—not "spot" heating.

"Safe-Cool" Cabinet Proves It: All the heat goes to warm you — instead of being wasted up the flue.

Your Feet Tell The Comfort Story: Make this test: Stand on the bare floor. You'll find your feet are warm. Coleman Super-Circulation moves air so fast it doesn't have a chance to get cold on the floor.

Choice of Lovely Finishes: Beautiful mahogany porcelain hard-baked enamel sizes for 1 room or entire home. Come in and see!

"Blue-Ribbon" Burner: Finest money can buy; so good it's guaranteed for life of the heater. Watch it take your gas bills down!

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

'Come!'

Lesson for September 30, 1956

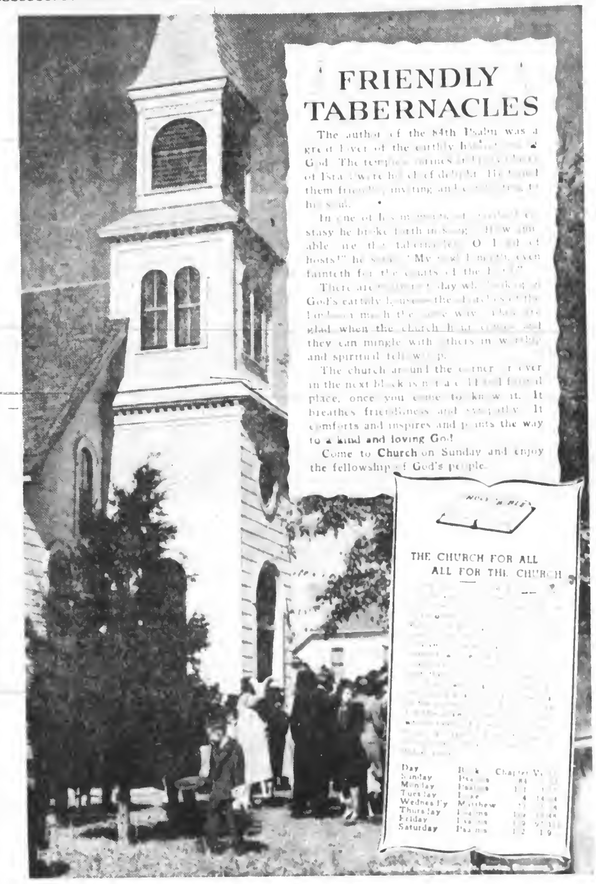
T[illegible] has a way of [illegible] the Bible [illegible] and to [illegible] as the simplest [illegible] "Come!" is a word [illegible] and even a child [illegible] what it means. But as [illegible] in the book of Revelation [illegible] a great deal is tied up in it and expressed by it.

Dr. Foreman

Journey to God

This word, as a command suggests first of all that man is not where he ought to be. He ought to be close to God. Some are not even turned toward him and are moving farther away every day. But even those whose faces are Godward are never as close to him as is possible to be. God is everywhere in one sense. That is, one does not have to travel to some distant shrine, some Holy City, to find God. And yet even among human beings we often feel how far we are from those sitting in the same room with us. And though God is all about us, we are blind to him. Spiritually we are feeding swine in a far country when we ought to be at home with God and in God. There are diseases in which the patient shivers with cold even in hot sunshine. So the diseased soul shivers with cold even in the flood of God's radiant love. A patient with mind diseased looks unseeingly into the eyes of loved ones. How near—and yet how terribly far away! In our coldness of heart, our estrangement of mind, we hear—or can we hear?—the Voice say "Come!"

Who Says "Come"?



What voice is this? Two strange words appear: The Spirit and the Bride. Who are these? Spirit is God; the Bride is the Church. The Spirit is the New Testament word for God-close-at-hand, God-in-the-heart, God moving in heart and mind of dedicated men. The voice of the Spirit is the "still small voice" the prophet heard. It is the Spirit of God and the Spirit of Jesus. Would it not be enough for the Spirit to say "Come"? No, because God graciously chooses to speak also with human voices. The Bride is the Church; and the Church too says "Come." In all her services of worship and of teaching, in all her proclaiming of the eternal Word, in all her service to mankind, the Church says "Come." A church that does not have the atmosphere of welcome is no true church. A church that puts back bars that our Lord has taken down, a church that says "Come" to a select few and says nothing at all to the masses of men,—this is not true "Bride" of Christ. "The doors of this church are as wide open as the gates of heaven," say some church bulletins. If that is not true, whose fault is it?

Is Your Name Here?

Jesus once wept over a beloved city. "How often I would have gathered you . . . but you would not!" Christ can say, "I would, but you would not." But such is the graciousness of God that no man dare say, "I would; but God would not." The invitation of God has on it, so to speak, the name of every man who wants to write his name there: "Whosoever will" includes everybody who wants to be included. There is no sense in saying, "I never have wanted to come to God, therefore the invitation is not to me." It is to you—but only if you will. Here in Revelation it is an invitation; in some other parts of the Word it is a command (e.g. "God commands all men everywhere to repent" (Acts 17:30).

The Choice Is Your Own

God can do all things. But he has not done all the things he could have done. He could, no doubt, have made men in such a way and of such a nature that not one person could ever possibly commit a sin, not one person could turn away a hair's-breadth from God. But he did not make such men. He could have made men such that if they ever strayed away from God all he would have to say was simply "Come" and they would come back every one. But he did not make men so. God would rather be loved by men who do not have to love him than by creatures who would love him automatically and could not help it. God gave man the power to accept; but at the same time he gave man the power to refuse. "Let him come!" God does much for you; but he will not decide for you. God made the road home; he holds the door wide open; he sends the word, "Come!" but he leaves the coming to you, to each man.

—1:30 P. M. (CST)—

To settle the estate of John Snell, deceased, I will sell at absolute auction to the highest bidder the farm of 100 acres located 12 miles North of Owenton, Ky., in Owen county, on Ky. Highway 16 at Poplar Grove—

Improvements: Two-story dwelling, five rooms and bath on first floor, two bedrooms upstairs; 2 barns, a tobacco barn, 3000 tier capacity, and feed barn; new milk house; 2 car concrete block garage, stripping room, meat and poultry houses.

Farm: This farm has 27 acres tobacco allotment, approximately, 60 acres ridge land, 40 acres rolling land. It is divided into five fields. Fence is in excellent condition, all woven wire, most having been recently built. It has three ponds and two everlasting springs. Is all in grass except seven acres, which are in cultivation.

Terms: 20% on day of sale, balance on or about March 1, 1957, when the deed will be made.

This property may be seen any time from now until sale time.

HEATERS

I don't know if I should head this article like this as all we have heard for the past week is: can you come and set up my heater? Can you come and clean my oil heater and light it? Also: can you put up my furnace pipe or do you have all size furnace pipe? Do you carry all sizes of Perfection oil heaters, and what is the price? The large size Perfection, 78,000 B.T.U. heater, installed, with automatic blower and a 275 gallon fuel oil tank, ready to light, only $247.50. The next size Perfection, 63,000 B.T.U. is $199.50 and the next size is 55,000 B.T.U. $179.50.

Today we put up a lot of 2 pipe for R. C. Durr. Brewster made two service calls at Fiskburg and at Verona. This afternoon he went to Mrs. Eva Hall's to clean and set up her oil heater. Chick sold Robert [illegible] of Florence a Perfection oil heater [illegible] with a 275 gallon fuel oil tank. It is [illegible]

Don't you see on [illegible] metal [illegible] came from CONRAD'S [illegible] we sell four kinds of aluminum paint [illegible] depends on the condition of your roof.

That heavy bodied black asbestos fiber roof coating for only 50c per gallon in 5 gallon cans. A lady from Illinois was here today and took home two cans of Presto stove polish, they don't have it in her town. Four ladies from Burlington bought several balls of paper wood twine to put bottoms in chairs, this makes a very nice seat. They said I was the only place that carried these balls of paper twine that they could find. I buy this mostly to tie up wool but we sell more for chair seats than anything else.

National Letter Writing Week To Be Observed Oct. 7-13

National Letter Writing Week will again be observed during the week of October 7-13, Postmaster E. Schadler, Morning View, has announced.

Commenting on the significance of National Letter Writing Week, Mr. Schadler pointed out that each year since 1938 this event has been observed as a reminder of the real meaning of a personal letter.

Emphasizing the traditional sanctity of the letter mail, Mr. Schadler reminded Morning View residents that one of the basic American Freedoms is the uncensored transmission of first class mail. It is the most valuable possession of the citizens of a free country.

"We all know the human importance of letter writing," Mr. Schadler said, "the way in which it holds scattered families together, of giving comfort and love and news to all the people of the land. But its value is immeasurably greater than that. Its implications are almost infinite.

We in America have the privilege of uncensored and unlimited means of communication. With this in mind, I urge all citizens of Morning View, Ky., to join me in this national celebration. Let's make National Letter Writing Week for 1956 the greatest ever."

DISTRICT FHA MEETING

The Covington District of Future Homemakers of America will meet at Carrollton High School on October 16. This Fall meeting will be a Leadership Conference for all officers, chapter mothers and one additional member from each chapter. The theme of the meeting will be "You Can Play Ball with F.H.A."

Each officer will be in group for discussion and there will be a quiz in each group to determine which group knows the most about F. H. A. A report of the National meeting which was held at Chicago in July will also be given.

Oyster Supper, Friday

An oyster supper will be given by the Crusaders class of the Walton Christian Church Friday evening, 5:30 to 8:00 p. m., in the church basement. The public is invited to attend and enjoy oyster stew, bean soup, sandwiches, pie and coffee.

Bring the entire family for a good meal and see a free movie throughout the evening.

Y-Teen Conference At Simon Kenton High, October 5-6

The Fall conference of the Northern Area Y-Teen Clubs will be held at Simon Kenton High School, near Independence, October 5-6. There will be a style show of fall hats also as entertainment at the banquet. About two hundred girls are expected Saturday for the group singing, worship, business and election of officers for the Spring Conference.

There will be six discussion groups: "Youth and Your God," Edna Bell, consultant, Butler Y-Teens; "You and Yourself," Patty Browning, consultant, Morgan Teens; "Youth and Your Nation," Carolyn Smith, consultant, Boone County Y-Teens; "Youth and Your World," Janet Pollett, consultant, Boone County Y-Teens; "Youth and Your Family," Jo Anne Heideman, consultant, Simon Kenton Y-Teens; "Youth and Your Community," Norma Elliott, consultant, Simon Kenton Y-Teens. The theme of the discussions is, "Youth Is the Answer."

MRS. ROSA MARY AYLOR

Services for Mrs. Rosa Mary Aylor, who died Saturday at her home, 256 Main street, Florence, were held at 3 p. m. Tuesday at the Taliaferro funeral home, Erlanger. Burial was in Hopeful Cemetery, Florence.

Mrs. Aylor, who was 85, was the widow of a Boone county farmer.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Kleemeier, Florence; six sons, Shelby, Stanley, Guy, Robert and Harold Aylor of Florence, Lewellyn, Elsmere; 18 grand children and 15 great-grand children.

PINER SCHOOL PTA

The executive officers of Piner P. T. A. met on September 24. Plans were made for the coming year. The regular P.T.A. meeting will be held October 11. A speaker will give a talk on United Appeal campaign and a movie will be shown. Plans are being made for a Halloween Party later this month.

The officers of Piner PTA for this year are: Mrs. John Carlisle, president; Mrs. Charles Praither, vice president; Mrs. Richard McKinley, secretary; Mrs. James Cummins, treasurer; Mrs. Willis Streine, publicity.

To Wed Saturday

The marriage of Gail Nunemeker and Harold Lee Marsh will take place in the Walton Christian Church, Saturday, October 6, at 3:30 p. m., with the Rev. George Fiske officiating. Friends are invited to attend.

A reception will be held in Fellowship Hall in the church basement following the ceremony.

Turkey Dinner at Union

A turkey dinner will be given at the Union Presbyterian Church, Saturday, October 20, from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m. Tickets may be purchased from any of the women of the church or at the door. Adults, $1.25; children, 75 cents. Everyone invited.

MRS. ALLINE JONES

Services for Mrs. Alline Ryle Jones, Florence, victim of an automobile accident September 8, will be held at 2:30 Friday afternoon in the Union Baptist Church. Burial in Big Bone Cemetery.

Mrs. Jones, who was 56 years old, died Monday at the home of a son, Eston Ryle, Burlington, where she had been convalescing from the accident. Dr. M. A. Yelton, Burlington, said death resulted from a heart attack.

Her husband, Arthur J. Jones, whom she married a year ago, is recovering from injuries at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He and Mrs. Jones were both injured in the accident which occurred on the Burlington Pike. They resided at 264 Main St., Florence.

Besides her husband and her son Eston, she leaves two other sons, Robert Ryle of Erlanger, and Floyd Ryle of Torrence, Calif.; two brothers, Clyde Clements of Peoria, Ill., and Neal Clements of Latonia; an aunt, Mrs. Grace [illegible], Florence, and seven grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Stith funeral home, Florence, this afternoon after two o'clock.

ANNUAL HOG MEETING

The Boone County Annual Hog meeting will be held Tuesday, October 9th at 1:30 on the farm of Woodford Crigler, according to Joe Claxon, County Agent.

Mr. Grady Sellers, Specialist in swine, University of Kentucky, will be the speaker and will bring the last year's experimental work done in hog raising at the Experiment Station.

Mr. Crigler's farm is located on the Limaburg-Hebron Road. Everyone is invited.

Filmstrip of Local Interest To Be Shown At Crittenden Church

The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has recently released a new filmstrip entitled, "Taking Church to People," in which is emphasized the opportunity of the local church in establishing missions in unchurched areas. This filmstrip is being shown throughout the Southern Baptist Convention. The basis upon which this film is built is the work being done by the First Baptist Church of Mount Vernon, Ky., and its pastor, Rev. Raymond Lawrence, who is pictured in the filmstrip. Rev. Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawrence, was raised near Mount Zion, Ky., and for a number of years was pastor of the Crittenden Baptist Church.

Another individual shown in the filmstrip is Rev. Wendell Belew, who was pastor of the Mount Vernon church when the work being recognized was conceived and started. Rev. Belew left the pastorate of this church to accept a position with the Kentucky Baptist State Mission Board and has since accepted a position with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga. Rev. Belew is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Belew of Crittenden.

This filmstrip will be shown at the Crittenden Baptist Church on Wednesday, October 10, at 8:00 p. m., according to the pastor, John Durham. The public is invited to attend this program. No offering will be taken.

ADOPT PLUMBING CODE

At the regular Board meeting held on September 11, 1956, the Boone County Board of Health passed a regulation, adopting the State plumbing code. Mr. Charles Haynes was appointed state plumbing inspector. He will be at the Boone County Health Department daily from the hours of 10:30 a.m. to noon. A plumbing permit must be secured at the Health Department before any plumbing or sewage disposal system is approved. For any information concerning plumbing code contact the Health Department.

A meeting will be held at the Community Center October 8 at 8 p. m. at Florence for the purpose of discussing the State Plumbing Code so that all builders and plumbers will become familiar with the rules and regulations and for any questions or problems which may arise.

W.S.C.S. Meets Today

The W.S.C.S. of Hughes Chapel Methodist Church will meet with Mrs. Kate B. Wilson, near Cleek Lane on U. S. Highway 42 on October 4. Visitors are welcome.

Boundaries for Local Area Are Announced

Area chairman for the United Appeal, Asa M. Rouse, has announced the appointment of his co-leaders, the men and women who are to manage the all-important area-section work for the big drive. The Walton area covers a territory of many square miles and extends Northward past Richwood to Fragtown Road, and Southward to Bullock Pen Creek in the South end of Boone county. This large area is divided into eight sections and the men and women named as section leaders are widely known business and social leaders in the community, and are as follows:

Miss Barbara Brakefield, a recent graduate of the University of Cincinnati College of Pharmacy, now associated with her father in the Brakefield Drug Store.

Franklin Butler, associated with the Commonwealth Life Insurance Co., and debit boss for that company, working out of the Covington South Branch, in which he is one of the top insurance consultants.

Miss Louise Conrad, a teacher at Holmes High School, Covington, and no stranger to philanthropic endeavors in our town, she being an unselfish and willing workers for many worthwhile causes.

Mrs. Charles Holder, likewise no stranger to efforts in behalf of community affairs. With her many other accomplishments she will be long thanked for her work in the Walton School Alumni Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ryan are well known in our town in business and social circles. Mrs. Ryan is very active in Wa-Na Club activities, being chairman of the Community Betterment Committee, and Mr. Ryan, who played basketball on one of Walton's fine teams in the early 1940's, is in business with George W. (Ab) Ryan in Ryan Hardware and Dry Goods.

Mrs. Eugene Sizemore, having helped or captained many fine charity drives in the past, needs no introduction to the folks in and around our community. She is executive manager of the Walton Manufacturing Co., and always finds time to aid when needed.

Mrs. Donald Stephenson has given her time, energy and managing ability to some of the leading causes in our town and county. A tireless worker in many organizations, she too always finds time to give unselfishly to worthwhile endeavors.

Mrs. Chester Sturgeon, along with her faithful work in the Wa-Na Club and other organizations, is a person who always is on the scene when help is needed. In spite of the ever present demand on her time from working in the office of Sturgeon Electric & Appliances, she finds time to serve many worthwhile projects.

McCormack Is New Assistant County Agent In Boone

Glen McCormick was appointed assistant to Joe Claxon, Boone County Farm Agent, by the Boone County Fiscal Court on Tuesday, October 2.

Mr. McCormack is 24 and has lived on a farm in Lincoln county until entering the University of Kentucky. He will be working with the 4-H boys and girls in this county.

Mr. McCormack graduated from the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture in 1954 with a BS degree, where he served as president of the U. K. 4-H Club, vice president of the Block and Bridle, vice president of the Agriculture Council, and member of the Alpha Gamma Rho social fraternity. He was recently discharged from the Army where he served two years as a Lieutenant.

He is married to the former Miss Mary Ann Rankin of Boyle county, who is serving as County Home Demonstration Extension Agent in Spencer county.

Judy Brumback of Independence came over to the Tower Saturday to see the new homes and visit her grandparents. She said the Tower is looking up with a new look.

The writer and Bob Mathis of Camp Hungry went fishing Friday and Friday night to Big Eagle near the Ohio, at Carrollton. Bob had a couple of his nephews from Erlanger who have all the equipment for a fishing trip. These boys know all the answers in regard to fishing and as usual they caught the fish and we just couldn't get a bit on pole-line fishing. Maybe if you are younger and got patience you can enjoy that kind of fishing.

This writer has the finest crop of pears we have seen in the last ten years. If you bring a basket you can have them for the cost of picking, one dollar per bushel.

A mill of wood is being sawed in Shawsville as he has the biggest forest of large trees in this vicinity. By the way Mr. Shaw has been losing a lot of pigs lately. The writer has, from some unknown cause. We have picked up about seven dozen in the last month, cause unknown.

The Gibson family next door to the writer have been quite ill over the week-end, hitting serious we hope.

Persimmons and wild cherries are in abundance here and if you want to make wild cherry wine and have a lot of patience to pick the cherries, we will show you where to get them.

Our sympathy goes out to the family of William Gower, of Erlanger, who departed this life last week. Here was a fine man and a former neighbor of the writer, and he was always ready with a helping hand to those who needed it most.

Two big draft horses were in front of the writers home at daylight Sunday. They had probably gotten out on the owners, who were frantically searching for them. They left the Tower shortly heading for Nicholson, as their home is probably in that vicinity.

This is the first year in the writers memory when the finest tomatoes were on the vines at this time of year. People in town are already buying them in tubes at fifteen cents, when we cannot find a buyer at ten cents per pound. Mangos are plentiful also but no one seems to want them anymore.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Creation

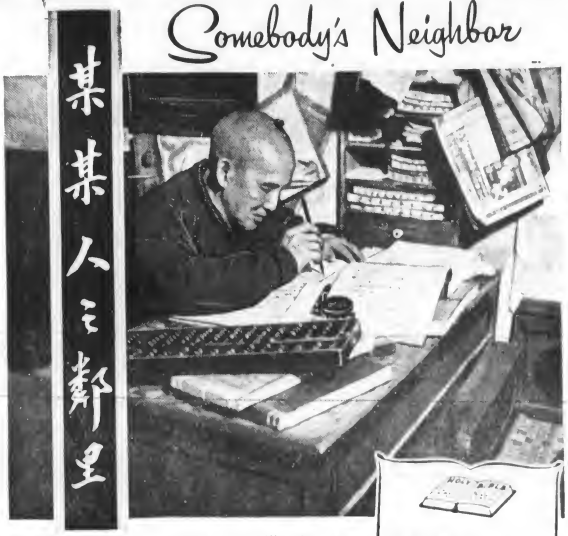
Lesson for October 7, 1956

IT IS one of the tragedies of Christian history that the first book of the Bible, as well as the last, has been fought over, bitterly from generation to generation. In spite of all the quarrels, however (and there seems to be no hope of all Christians agree here), there are certain great truths in this magnificent prose-poem with which the Bible begins, which are agreed on by all Christians. Let us pick out three of these

Dr. Foreman

"In the Beginning, God—"

The first truth is that this vast universe did not merely happen. It was intended. It is intended. God (so to speak) invented it. Why should anything be? Is a thought that has occurred to countless people. Why is there something instead of nothing, anything at all instead of nothing? Is it just a happen-so? Did the universe make itself, as it were, like a dust-storm building up in the desert or an icicle dripping itself longer day by day? Was there some blind necessity at the beginning of all things? Or maybe did the earth and all the universe exist forever without any beginning? Not at all. That the universe is here at all is because of God who planned it and brought it into being. How long ago this started, or how many changes have taken place since the first instant of time, makes no difference with the main point: namely that the universe does not explain itself, did not cause itself, but is what it is and as it is because God willed it. Furthermore, if God created it, including ourselves, he had a reason. We cannot conceive of God working blindly or at random or for no reason.



Order and Law

The more men study the universe, whether the great and immeasurable universe around us, in which our sun is no more than a mediocre star nowhere near the center of things, or the marvelous tiny universe discovered by the microscope—the more men study all this the more they discover that it is a universe of law. If the sun rises at all tomorrow, astronomers know precisely when it will rise. They can know it years beforehand. Men used to be surprised by eclipses. Now we can calculate the time of every eclipse that will take place, or that has taken place since before the time of man. Even that most unpredictable of things the wind, can be forecast better than once it could. Men once had to take hurricanes as they came. Now they can be warned of them and their tracks are mostly known. Man in discovering such things is simply "thinking God's thoughts after him." As one astronomer remarked, the universe seems more like a great Thought than a great Machine. In these universal laws, in their regularity and dependability, we can read the will of God. This does not mean that we understand everything—far from it. Mystery surrounds us still. But no science at all would be possible if we could not count on a world that "makes sense" from the smallest atom to the mightiest star.

God Created No Evil

The story-poem of Creation in Genesis ends with the joyful note—God saw all he had made, and it was very good. If anything God has created seems bad, it is either because we do not know how to use it, or we have barged in where we do not belong, or because we ourselves have made it bad. St. Thomas Aquinas once compared this world to a tool-shop full of well-sharpened tools. It is not safe to turn a child or lunatic loose in there; but a master-workman will not get hurt. So as men are learning about the universe they are finding out how to use the materials that the Creator has set at our disposal. But much that is evil in the world is of our own making. Most dust storms, for example, are made by man's greed and stupidity to begin with, in digging up soil that was never meant for cultivation. The whole race of man now stands in terror of death, for though we have discovered how to harness the power in the atom—power our fathers knew was there but had no idea how to reach—we have put more effective thought into using it for destruction than for man's help. But all man's misuses of God's creation must not make us forget that when God first looked it over, he saw that it was good.

Somebody's Neighbor

He probably doesn't look much like the man next door. He does his arithmetic with the aid of a centuries-old gadget called the abacus, and he writes the results in characters that would be quite undecipherable to you . . . yet you probably have far more in common with him than you'd ever dream.

Like you, he wants peace. Like you, he wants a good future for his children, and he wants them to have more than he has had. Like you, he has experienced happiness and sorrow, love and disillusionment. Like you, he prays.

On World Wide Communion Sunday, he will be going to Church and, though this may seem a bit odd to you, he will be praying for you. Yes . . . for you, and for everyone else in the world, friend or enemy.

Why not join him? Why not, on World Wide Communion Sunday, go to your own church and include him . . . him and everyone else . . . in your prayers.

Pray for peace, too. Remember, the power of prayer is a wonderful thing . . . especially when it is given many voices.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a group effort of people who . . . Without a strong Church no free democracy can long endure or survive. There are four good reasons why every person should attend services each day: (1) It is the duty of the Church. They exist. For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Here Today!

came the magic that made possible so wonderfully different a Ford. In the toughest on-the-road tests ever given to a car, this "Inner Ford" demonstrated that a '57 Ford rides you sweet and low . . . that it takes the bumps without a bobble, the curves without the pitch . . . and, that in power, it "takes nothing from nobody!" Nothing on wheels hurries, handles or holds up like a Ford!

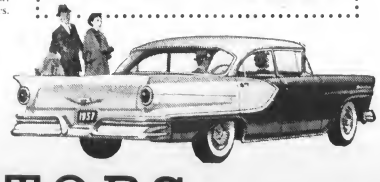
A new kind of FORD with the mark of tomorrow

The Fairlane 500, finest Ford series, features five of the 19 longer, lower, better Fords for '57.

You're in for a thrill when you see this new knock-out named Ford! But save your superlatives till you drive it! That's where the fun really starts.

It's fun just knowing that others who see you wish they were you. For you're commanding the longest, lowest, heaviest, biggest car ever to sport such a low price tag. There's head room to spare for a new tall bonnet . . . stretch-out space for a "Daddy Longlegs."

You'll find that the tough and ready new "Inner Ford" is built to take the toughest road you'll care to travel. New outboard rear springs and ball joint front suspension let Ford take the turns without the tilt. New swept back control arms help take bounce out of bumps.



Best of all, Fords library like quiet is built in. And the new "Inner Ford" is why. For never before in Ford's field has there been a body with so much extra bracing so firmly anchored to its foundation. And you can choose from three big Silver Anniversary V-8's with up to 245 horsepower. There's also a new Mileage Maker Six with 144 horsepower, the most modern Six in the industry.

You can pick your Ford tailored to your desires and your budget, too! Choose from nine Fairlane or Fairlane 500 models or from five Custom or Custom 300 models. Or take your pick from Ford's five longer, lower, new station wagons. Whichever model you select, you'll get a car that's been re-invented from the wheels up!

So there's the new kind of Ford. Big! Gracious! Spacious! A luxury car true—but one that any new-car buyer can easily afford. Come in! See what wonder cars you can buy now at low Ford prices.

IN TWO NEW SUPER SIZES
OVER 18 FT. LONG On a New 118" Wheelbase — 3 Custom Models, 2 Custom 300 Models
OVER 17 FT. LONG On a New 115" Wheelbase — 4 Fairlane Models, 5 Fairlane 500 Models
PLUS 5 NEW MODELS IN THE STATION WAGON SERIES

The Fairlane Fords for '57, like the Fairlane 500 models, have no equal . . . no counterpart, in the low price field.

OAK RIDGE

We are happy to report that Kenneth Galloway is improving following an operation at St. Elizabeth hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dameron are confined to their home with very bad colds.

Mrs. William Tomlin and children have been visiting her mother near Carrollton the past week.

September 30 was Promotion Sunday at Oak Ridge Baptist Church. The enrollment and average attendance has increased by about 35 the past year and made it necessary to organize a new beginners class, a new primary class, a new junior girls class and two new young people classes, one for boys and one for girls.

Mrs. Lewis Collins, Mrs. T. C. Richardson, Mrs. E. C. Harris, Mrs. W. C. Tallent and Mrs. Francis Richardson attended the Mission Study Institute at Erlanger Baptist Church on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Shaler Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Halberstadt, Judy Fran and Connie Thompson, Layne Ellen Marshall, Gary and Linda Halberstadt drove to Hillsboro, Ohio Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Straight and family. The Straights lived on Hands Pike last year and Mrs. Straight taught at Taylor Mill School. They all reported having a lovely time. The Straights live in a huge old house in Hillsboro with a lovely view. Mr. Straight is teaching third and fourth grades at New Market, Ohio.

Phyllis Hutchins returned to her home in Miami, N. Y. Saturday after visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hutchins at Lipscomb Road.

Calvin Perry has been called as pastor of Beaver Lick Baptist Church. He started his pastorate there Sept. 30. Calvin is a senior at Georgetown College.

Tim Brogan has returned home much improved in health following his stay at Jewish Hospital. He expects to return to work in the near future.

Taylor Mill Community Civic Assn. will hold its regular meeting at Taylor Mill School at 8 p. m. October 4.

Mrs. Ida Schaefer in Waycross, Ga., gave a surprise baby shower for her daughter, Mrs. Ronald Young, at Crescent Springs last week. Those attending the shower were: Mrs. Kethell Schwaller and her mother, Mrs. Gene Casson, Mrs. Howard Mullins, Mrs. Patrick Harrison, Mrs. Joseph Trenkamp, Mrs. Don Flintham, Mrs. Joseph Appling, Mrs. Gene Young, Mrs. David Schaefer, Mrs. Robert Scott, Mrs. James Gaines, Mrs. Charles Flige, Mrs. Clarence Issemann, Mrs. Owen Berninger and Mrs. Paul Lehr.

Why buy three policies when you can get Hartford's 1-Policy Package?

Once you had to buy separate fire, theft, personal liability policies . . . pay 3 premiums. But Hartford's "1-Policy Package" conveniently combines all the vital insurance protection you need for your home — in ONE policy.

You save as much as 20% of what you would have to pay for separate policies giving you the same broad and dependable protection. And you receive credit for existing insurance.

Whether you own your home or rent, see us today for details before you pay another premium.

PTA Executive Board to Meet

Kenton Elementary P.T.A. Executive Board will meet Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. at the school with Mrs. Carl Wicklund presiding. All board members are urged to attend.

Kenton Elementary PTA Meets

Kenton Elementary P. T. A. met recently in the school auditorium with Mrs. Carl Wicklund presiding. Mrs. Charles Adams, program chairman, introduced Mr. Calvin, principal, who spoke briefly on cooperation between community and school. He brought to the attention of those present many stories that were very entertaining and interesting. He then introduced the teachers and the lunchroom staff.

Mrs. Bates' first grade class was given the attendance award for September.

Following the meeting, all enjoyed a social hour in the cafeteria, and refreshments were served by Mrs. E. B. Lock and Mrs. D. B. Vandandingham assisted by members of their committee.

Fertilizer Should Be Used On Lawns In Month of October

Grass will be resuming Spring October and they will check the growth of weeds in the lawn. As soon as this happens, grass cutting should stop to allow the bluegrass to go up to go winter. This extra growth is good [illegible] the bluegrass that [illegible] grow [illegible] to encourage a good [illegible] for the spring growth that will be coming from the seed that was sown in September. [illegible] Joe Clayton Coates, Agent.

After two or three killing frosts have [illegible] the weeds and wild grasses in the lawn should be fed with a good high grade complete fertilizer. Fertilizers having a ratio of 6-8-4, 9-7-4 or 10-6-4 are adequate to use for feeding the lawn. Fifteen pounds should be scattered on each 1000 square feet of surface. This feeding of the lawn is highly important and it will mean much towards having a better lawn next year. The fertilizer may be applied from a bucket or pan, and to keep from missing any spots, one half can be broadcast in one direction and the other half at right angles to it. Any lumps of fertilizer should be crushed to prevent burning of the grass where the lump would fall to the ground.

October and early November is the latest date to plant bulbs such as tulips, narcissus and crocus. Every home should have some of these early blooming spring flowers and now is the time to prepare for them.

The location for bulbs should provide full sun most of the day, and the soil must be well drained and above average in fertility. Of course, the tulips and narcissus may be grown partially under the shade of a tree because they will have bloomed before the tree comes out in leaf. However, the tree roots will drain so much fertility and moisture from the soil that the bulbs will never do as well as when they can be located away from tree and hedge roots.

Animal manure should not be mixed with soil when the bulbs are set, but if it is available it can be applied to the top of the ground after the bulbs are set.

The one fertilizer that bulbs enjoy is bone meal. This material can now be bought in small quantities, 5-pound boxes, and each bulb should have about a tablespoonful mixed with the soil around it. This bone meal will supply phosphate principally and it will last a long time.

In selecting the kinds of bulbs to plant, the personal preference for colors should prevail. The important thing is to buy the very best bulbs available and not be satisfied with some that neighbors or friends are discarding. Each bulb should be allowed a spacing of at least 12 inches because in two or three years the bulbs will have increased so that they will be almost touching each other.

In planting, the top of the bulb should be four inches below the surface of the ground. This may mean they will be a few days later in blooming, but as a rule they do not start to grow early and be injured by frost.

Basket Dinner at Mt. Zion

Relatives and friends are invited to a basket dinner in honor of Mrs. Emma Beatty Collins, at 1:10 North Main St., Walton, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elsey Baker of Mount Zion, Ky., on Sunday, October 7.

James Lee Verona, entered the hospital again Monday, six times in the last two years—for another operation.

The USDA estimates that the pack of frozen fruits, vegetables and juices will be up 4 percent over last year.

Florence Paint Center

These people are thoroughly familiar with the manufacturing, wholesale and retail conditions of the business in the paint trade of the country. In this edition we desire to compliment them upon the standing of this store in the business world of this part of the state.

The matter of paints and wallpaper is a most important one. They have left nothing to chance. The paints and wall paper offered by them have been scientifically tested and found to be the best possible. The prices are also the lowest possible and the service is rendered under direction of a management thoroughly conversant with every feature of the business. We might sum it all up by saying that it is quite appropriate to give this establishment the title of "paint and wallpaper headquarters."

The management and the establishment are important features of the life of the community, and no matter what may be your needs in this line, when you call at their location, you will find them courteous and accommodating, efficient and capable. Stop in at the Center today!

Warm Morning and Perfection

Two of the greatest names in heating stoves are Warm Morning coal heaters and Peerfection oil heaters. This is the time of year to get your heating stoves ready for winter. We have a complete line of Warm Morning coal heaters and a full selection of Perfection oil heaters. So do not wait until it gets cold and every one runs out of heaters, then you decide to buy one. We have already sold and put up over 500 joints of 6-inch stove pipe. We carry all sizes of pipe and fittings, also in furnace pipe. We have a new shipment of 275-gallon fuel oil tanks.

We sure have the jobs since those few cold days—setting up stoves, putting up new furnace pipe, and setting up the new Perfection oil heaters, also the Warm Morning coal heaters we have sold. Mr. Waynian, down on Richardson Road, bought 5 gallons of red roof and barn paint. Hughes is still working on his new house. He was here after plumbing supplies. And Mr. Oscar Chandler up on Shady Lane Road a new Dayton water system about two weeks ago. He said the pump would run during the night and during the day when they were not using any water.

We thought maybe it was a leak in the pump, so all I had to do was to let my Dayton pump man know, and he sent his service man down here to check the pump. All there was wrong was a defective check valve, which we had put on a new one but little were defective as you see it pays to buy a Dayton water system for the service you get. Brewster and Beach setup a new coal heater for Mr. and Mrs. Burt Powell over at Verona. That afternoon they went down Rich Hill way and put up furnace pipe, set up coal heat, cleaned coal heaters, and put a cord on a washing machine.

Lloyd Howard and Earl Moore a rubber tired wagon for their farm. These must be an extra good wagon as we have not had any trouble with them and we have sold several every year. Chick sold Jack Caldwell, up at Crittenden, a Perfection fuel oil heater, to be installed next week. We received a shipment of Mastag washers today, as we sold out the first of the week. Mr. A. R. Bradshaw, over at Brooksville, Ky., wrote a letter that he had bought a Perfection kerosene water heater here about 5 years ago and he needed a wick for it, so I sent him one by mail.

Beach is working right in helping Brewster set up all types of stoves, Maytag washers and helping to put away stock and waiting on trade. Omer Kite was in today buying some more Black paint and linseed oil. I also believe he bought some fishing poles. Joe Richardson bought 44 of linewall for his kitchen, also several fish poles. He said he drive his turkeys with. Joe said he has the best flock of turkeys this year he ever raised. Brewster set up a coal heater for Red Sheets in Big Bone Road, now he is working on the setting up of a big coal heater at Model Food Store.

Mrs. Retta Haddix and her youngest daughter with her her new son-in-law were in buying a list of new items for their new home in Verona. The new son-in-law, named Lavon Arnett and wife bought a new Perfection fuel-oil heater to be installed in a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Glenn are moving to the Doc West house on High Street and have been buying pots, pans, a lot of gadgets, and two new linoleum rugs. We sold several pieces of fishing tackle the fishing is really good now or that is what the fishermen tell me.

We sold Sta-Dri to paint the walls of several basements this week. Now is the time to put it in while the walls are dry. We are still busy at plumbing supplies, pipe, pipe threading, and installing pipe with the fittings. We expect a carload of furnace pipe soon and ready to deliver when needed. Don't put off buying your heater until the weather gets cold, then everyone will call at once. Mrs. Lelia Harris was in today and wanted to know when we would be out to her house to get her heating stove ready for the winter.

We just finished Carpet Alfred Hughes' place, then went Mr. Bennett Howard Brannock to service her oil heater. Several customers who have Perfection oil heaters have Brewster come every fall to clean and light them. They never really do, it turn it up or down and put on the spring. Perfection is the right name because they are perfect. Every fall you get the best stove money could ever buy—a heater. If you have a good furnace with 5-point draft, you have no trouble with a Perfection heater.

Brewster went up to Bracht and put up new furnace pipe at Schulte's store. We needed some 50-gallon oil drums to install some fuel oil heaters. Henry Lipscomb down at Lipscomb Farm Supply, on the old gymnasium lot, we have all he had. Henry is a good competitor, same as Al and Ed Bogan, but if we don't have what our customers need first we send them to Henry or Ryans. I like all my competitors and I send them customers every day. Mrs. Retta Haddix and her son-in-law, Lavon Arnett, were in today. Mrs. Haddix bought dishes and Mr. Arnett bought several gallons of Bone paint to paint their home inside.

Brewster and Beach installed a new Perfection fuel oil heater for Jack Caldwell at Crittenden, then stopped at Oscar Chandler's and checked his Dayton jet water system. Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell was in on the side deal and said she needed a design electric water heater to heat wash water. Mrs. Bailey who lives at the old W. H. Logan farm in Verona Road, was in looking over our Warm Morning coal heaters. See CONRAD for heaters.

Charles L. Foley Is Ordained Minister at Kenton Baptist Church

A council was called at Kenton Baptist Church, Kenton, for the purpose of examining Brother Charles L. Foley as to his fitness for the Gospel ministry. The ordained pastors and deacons elected Brother Frank Kuriger, pastor of Kenton Baptist Church, as moderator and interrogator. Brother Lloyd Birch of Virgilia Baptist Church was named clerk.

After extensive questioning, Brother Thornton H. Shelton made motion that the candidate be ordained. Second was made. Vote taken. Brother Foley was unanimously recommended for ordination.

The ordination service was started with the Doxology. The invocation was by Brother Chase Jennings. The request for ordination of Brother Foley from the Mt. Hebron Baptist Church of Owenton, was read. The Kenton church voted to proceed with the recommendation of the council. The charge to the candidate was offered by Brother Lloyd Birch. Brother T. H. Shelton of Latonia, preached the ordaining sermon. His subject was, "Be A Preacher."

Brother Hollingsworth of the Belleview Baptist Church, Grant, presented the Bible. After the laying on of hands and the ordaining prayer, Brother Foley led the dismissal prayer.

According to Report Given Monday Night

Victims of the July tornado in Walton received a total of $22,500 in aid in its disaster assistance operation from the Cincinnati Area Chapter, American Red Cross.

Nelson Schwab, Jr., chapter chairman, reported at a meeting Monday night at organization headquarters in Cincinnati, attended by chapter board of directors and chairmen from Boone, Campbell, Clermont and Kenton counties.

Commenting, he said, "Each family who applied for Red Cross aid was given individual consideration by the chapter and by the advisory committee composed of nine representative citizens of Walton.

"All Red Cross assistance was given on the basis of family need, not loss. Every dollar was given as an outright gift, not a loan from the American people through the Red Cross.

"This covered emergency help such as food, clothing, shelter, medical care and rehabilitation assistance involving building and repair of homes, household furnishings, occupational supplies, and equipment.

"Many of the families affected by the tornado had insurance to cover disaster losses or partially met them which reduced the amount of Red Cross aid needed.

"The tornado struck in Walton only 20 hours after the Boone County Red Crosas Chapter voted to merge with and become a branch of the Cincinnati Area chapter, supported by the United Appeal. As a result, resources of the entire five-county Cincinnati Area Red Cross were at the disposal of the disaster-stricken community."

Workers Plan United Appeal Sunday Drive At Meeting Held Here

A meeting of volunteer campaigners for the United Appeal, Community Chest-Red Cross, was held at the Phoenix Restaurant in Walton, at 6:30 p. m., October 4. The meeting, for all campaign workers and captains from Big Bone, Walton, Verona, Beaver and vicinity, was called by R. S. Hensley, Boone County United Appeal chairman.

Campaign plans were discussed and volunteers were asked to be out in full force on United Appeal Sunday, October 14, to begin their door-to-door calls. Mr. Hensley appealed to all volunteers to call at every home in the area.

The campaign for 16 Red Cross services and 114 Community Chest agencies continues through November 1. The goal for Boone, Campbell, Clermont, Kenton and Hamilton counties is $5,077,266.

At the Walton meeting, the United Appeal color movie, "Love Story," was shown. It gave local campaigners a close look at the kind of help being provided through Red Feather and Red Cross services throughout the five-county area.

Gordon Hines, a representative of the Northern Kentucky United Appeal, pointed out that Chest agencies and Red Cross services supported by the United Appeal are serving many Boone county residents. Northern Kentucky hospitals, the Scouts and the Red Cross are just three of the many organizations providing services, he said.

Asa M. Rouse, United Appeal area chairman for Walton, emceed the meeting. The Reverend A. E. Atkinson presented the blessing.

Alpha Class to Meet

The Alpha Sunday School Class of the Walton Baptist Church will meet on Thursday (tonite) at 8 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Marie Maxwell. Guests are welcome.

SEED BARE LAND TO CUT EROSION

Seed to small grains this fall any land without a grass sod or perennial legume, says Harold Miller, UK Extension Service soils specialist.

This will prevent soil erosion and loss of plant nutrients by leaching during winter months. Fertilization of the plantings is needed to get sufficient growth before winter.

Miller recommends a fall application of 15 to 30 pounds of nitrogen per acre on small grains following corn. Nitrogen may be supplied by a complete fertilizer, or a mixed one containing nitrogen. If the latter is used be sure there is plenty of available phosphorus and potassium in the soil.

THE NEW MAYTAG No-Vent AUTOMATIC DRYER

All dryers save you this... MAYTAG saves you this...

NO LIFTING OR LUGGING HEAVY WET WASH!
The average woman without a dryer walks 40 miles and carries a ton of wet wash a year! And she wastes two weeks' time a year line-drying!

NO WAITING ON THE WEATHER!
Rain or snow mean nothing to a woman with a Maytag Automatic Dryer! And clothes come out even softer, fluffier and sweeter smelling than line-dried!

NO HEAT, MOISTURE OR LINT IN THE ROOM!
Exclusive new Maytag No-Vent Dryer is completely sealed, nothing goes in or comes out but your clothes. No heat, moisture or lint escape into laundry room to make it uncomfortable.

NO UGLY VENT-PIPE OUT WINDOW OR WALL!
Maytag's new method of drying sends all moisture down the drain, catches lint in a super-efficient lint trap. Put this Maytag Dryer any place you have a washer. Runs on either 115 or 230 volts.

Why God Says No!

Lesson for October 14, 1956

A QUESTION often asked about the Ten Commandments is this: Why are they all in the negative? It all seems to be "Don't, don't." Does God hang chains on us to hamper our freedom? Is God more interested in stopping us from what we want to do than in showing us what to do? Why the emphasis on the negative? Isn't Christian morality right living before God, a positive thing? Can a set of prohibitions be a solid base for life today?

Dr. Foreman

"Don't" Is a Useful Word

Let's look at this a little. For one thing, it must be remembered that the Ten Commandments, as they are called, were not invented by Moses or first revealed to him. We know that centuries before Moses, wise men were saying it already, and it is pretty safe to suppose that most people knew it,—namely that stealing and killing and adultery are wrong. The reason Moses gave the Ten Commandments was not that either he or God had just discovered them. These Commandments came out in their present form (or possibly a shorter form, enlarged later) for the benefit and guidance of a very primitive people, just out of slavery where they and their forefathers had been for generations. For people like that "Don't" is easier to understand than "Do." A little child can be saved from being hurt or killed just by learning the meaning of the little word NO. "Don't" is a useful word. It is simpler, too, to say "Don't" than "Do." Learning to do well takes time, and brains too. You don't have to learn to stop. You don't have to be a "brain" to stop doing wrong. So the Ten Commandments begin at the right end, the simple end. "Thou shalt not" or "Don't," in other words, is not the whole of what goodness means, but it is a good place to begin.

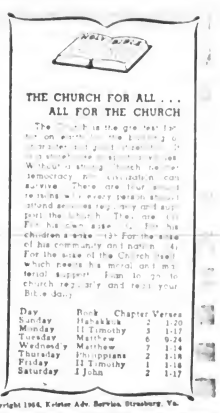
Under Control

Nowadays it is not popular to mention such words or ideas as discipline, self-control, temperance, or restraint, but these are good things in their place, and no life is good that ignores them. Doing what you want to do when you feel like doing it without asking anybody is a small boy's dream, but it is no way for a grown man or woman to live. This is another reason why so many of the Ten Commandments begin with "Don't." Brakes say "No" to a car, and a car without brakes isn't safe for a minute. Stakes say "No" to sprawling vines, but the vines are the better for being tied up. Pruning shears say, "No" to grape-vines, but unpruned grapevines soon run down. Rails say "No" to train wheels; and when the wheels (so to speak) decide to go where they please, you have a wreck. "Doing what comes naturally" may be silly, sinful, even criminal. Impulses can be harmful and hateful. Instincts may be warped or exaggerated. The disciplined, self-controlled life is not a life of mere repression, but if there is no repression anywhere, if there is no response and obedience when God says "No," then life becomes a tangle like an untrimmed grape vine, a smash-up like a train that tries to cross a field without rails.

Every Don't Has a Do!

Every "don't" has a matching "do" of some kind. Thou shalt not steal means also, Thou shalt not waste properly. Thou shalt conserve the earth's resources. Thou shalt respect property. When you see a farmer using intelligent methods to prevent or cure soil erosion, you may think about it, and he may not; but he is trying to prevent stealing or wasting the land on which future generations may depend. He is obeying the Eighth Commandment. But such a farmer shows that right living consists not merely in refusing to commit a certain small list of selected crimes; right living is not only not stealing land (for example) from the rising generation, right living includes also doing all one can to pass on to those who shall come after, land that shall have become—because wisely used—more fertile and fruitful than it was before. In the same way with all other commandments, every Don't! has a Do! Thou shalt not kill means not only committing no murder, shortening no life; it means contributing to life and health all we can, wherever we can. "Temperance" is not mere restriction, it is not life-denying; it is life-building.

THEY WON'T BE LATE!



Maybe they were slow in dressing . . . probably they dawdled a bit over breakfast . . . but if you know the gait of those little legs you can be sure they won't be late.

This is one of the fascinating paradoxes of youth. A child may have to be prodded to get to school on time—yet he doesn't want to be late!

And the paradox has implication for parents as they plan the religious education of their children. Jimmy may seem reluctant about his first trip to Church School . . . and Susan may shed a tear when Mother "leaves" her in the Beginners' Department. But wise parents never delay their youngsters' religious training. It is unfair to handicap a child with a late start in the vital process of moral and spiritual growth.

Inquire at the church of your choice, and bring your child to Church School as soon as he is of age.

And, remember, parents need religious training too! If you do not now attend Church regularly, start with Jimmy and Susan.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the one institution on earth that has the power to transform individuals into a brotherhood of Christian citizens. Without strong churches democracy cannot survive. There are four simple things every person should do to support the church. The first is for his own sake . . . for his children's sake . . . for the sake of his community and nation . . . and for the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Learn to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mrs. Daisy Richardson who has been ill for several days is slowly improving. She can be thankful for a good neighbor Mrs. Earl Hanna who stayed with her the past week.

Glad to have . J. B. Lasey and Lee Giles who are students at U. K. at church today.

We are glad to know that Henry Hawkins who was recently a patient in Booth Hospital is able to be at home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney visited Mrs. Minnie Armstrong of Covington on Sunday afternoon.

While her husband was away on a business trip Mrs. Winfard Riley of Covington and little daughter Sandra spent several days visiting relatives here.

The officers and chairmen of the Homemakers Club along with others from over the county attended training school in Covington the past week.

The fellowship supper at the church the last largely attended was much enjoyed by all who came. Hope we can have a larger attendance next time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brannock visited relatives here during the past week and then went on to Cincinnati to visit their son Ralph and wife.

Mrs. Stella Richardson spent several days the past week with her daughter in Mt. Olivet. Her son-in-law is recovering from an operation.

DESTRUCTIVE FORCE OF WORRY EXPLAINED

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Worry is a predominant emotion today. People worry about death, illness, poverty, war, inflation, disease, etc. Disease is one worry that you can help dispute. It has been said that when once the cause of a disease is known you are half way to the cure.

In conversation with a successful business executive several days ago, he suggested that we write an article on "worry" because of his own experience. For years he devoted himself so completely to his business that suddenly and without warning, his health began to break. In fact that he began to worry constantly, and a complete collapse. He spent several months at the beach, by orders of specialists, all of whom prescribed rest. But rest alone could not restore him and he returned home. Although he knew nothing of Chiropractic, he decided to consult a Chiropractor through the insistence of a neighbor.

When thorough examination was completed explanation of the cause of his breakdown so completely allayed his worrying that half of the battle for health was won. Following his first adjustment he felt a change taking place in his body. The tension in his previous system began to relax, his peace of mind was restored and he is now gaining strength daily.

The modern Chiropractor finds that many patients are worried and nervous mainly because they have been unable to find anyone who can locate the cause of their sickness. Usually a simple explanation of the cause of their sickness and scientific adjustments administered to correct the cause dissipated their fears and health returns in a natural manner.

(One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, whose office is located at 7628 Dixie Highway, Florence, Ky. Telephone ATlantic 3-5371).

State Police Head Speaks at October Meet of Boone DAR

The October meeting of the Boone County Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the lovely old intresting home of Mrs. Louis Braun on the Dixie Highway, Florence with Mrs. John Lockwood as co-hostess. There were sixteen members and seven guests present.

The meeting was opened and conducted by the Regent, Mrs. Samuel Denham Sr.

Mrs. H. G. Hans read an enlightening article on the principles and also of the advocates of World Government of which the Daughters of the American Revolution, very much oppose.

Mrs. Wm. Conrad read an interesting article on the development of Duncan Tavern the Kentucky D. A. R. Shrine.

Mrs. Davis Gains gave the plans for the annual luncheon quilt and hobby show which will be held at the Boone County High School on Saturday, Oct. 20th beginning at 12 noon.

Mrs. Roy Nester and Mrs. Proctor Erithers gave reports on the District Convention held at Natural Bridge, Ky.

Mrs. Ray Nestor introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Captain David A. Espie of the Kentucky State Police, Frankfort, Ky. Mrs. Nestor told of the wonderful service the State Police rendered in the three major disasters in Boone County during the past year; the air-plane crash at Hebron; the washout of the bridge at Camp Ernst, leaving two hundred children marooned and the hurricane at Walton.

Captain Espie explained how suitable men are selected for the State Police, then the schooling for the office. He told of the duties and the various services make our Sate and County a safer and better place to live.

The foreign-born guests for the evening were Mrs. A. A. Saalfeld, a native of Germany, Mrs. Brooke Ranson from Scotland, Mrs. Allen Berkshire from Japan and Mr. Bernardo Recamiers of Mexico City.

Miss Margaret Goodridge, chairman in American-ism gave a warm and inspiring welcome to these new Americans and introduced each of them.

Mrs. Saalfeld brought some exquisite china and crystal from her former home. Mrs. Ransom a kilt made of beautiful Scotch plaid wool. Mrs. Berkshire had some beautiful things from Japan. One interesting feature she demonstrated how they dress in Japan. The American way is much more simple and does not take one fourth the time.

Mr. Racamier is an artist and is studying art in Cincinnati.

These new Americans are very talented and gracious and we are glad to welcome them to our United States, Kentucky and Boone County.

After the meeting, the hostesses served delicious refreshments and a delightful social hour was spent.

Turkey Dinner October 20

Steaming hot turkey and piquant dressing, crowned with cranberry delight will make a perfect target that hit for the evening of Saturday, Oct. 20 from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m. when the turkey dinner bell will be ringing at the Union Presbyterian Church at Union.

Nibble a bit that noon and come prepared to gress down for the evening and make your face shine with good fellowship and hot hot coffee. For a small appetite a child's plate may be ordered. Tickets may be bought from any of the women of the church or at the door.

Homemakers' Classes Held In Covington For Officers and Chairmen

One hundred and fifty-two officers and federation chairmen of the Kenton County Homemakers Association attended a series of classes conducted by Zylma E. Byerly, Home Demonstration Agent, on Monday, October 2-5 in room 17, Federal Bldg., Covington.

Instructions on Parliamentary procedure, duties of officers and chairmen, were presented. Goals were formulated by the groups under the guidance of the county chairmen: citizenship, Mrs. Gordon McNeil; publicity, Mrs. Robert Conley; membership, Mrs. Fred Ficke; and reading, Mrs. Donald Riddell. The programs are under the direct supervision of the Extension Service of the College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

In preparation for the program on Home Lighting, fifty-two leaders attended training sessions sponsored by the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Co. Classes will be continued October 30-31 at which time leaders will have an opportunity to make a table lamp.

The annual meeting of the Kenton County Homemakers Association is set for October 16, in the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington.

DEMOCRATS NAME FARM CHAIRMAN

Ruben Kirtley, Boone County Democratic Campaign Chairman, recently announced the appointment of Bruce Ferguson, Union, as Farm Chairman for the coming campaign.

Mr. Ferguson is a Supervisor of the Boone County Soil Conservation District, president of the Boone County Utopia Club, and a member of the County Board of Education.

Also appointed as co-chairmen were Mrs. Pat Morgan, chairwoman, Florence, Charley Carpenter, Florence; Bruce Campbell, Burlington; Joe Drangenburg, Florence, and Dick Ryan, Walton.

After talking with a number of Democratic leaders in Boone county, he is well pleased with the results pertaining to cooperation in the party, Mr. Kirtley said.

Oyster Supper at Kenton

The Kenton Community Volunteer Fire Department will combine an oyster soup supper with a euchre party Saturday, October 13. Chairman Roy Hammond announced there would be home made cakes and pies, also coney island sandwiches, along with the oyster soup. Mr. Hammond said serving would start at 6:30 p. m. and continue until 11:00 p. m. Those who wish to stay for an enjoyable evening of euchre with their friends may do so. Prizes will be awarded for high score so drop in for a neighborly evening with your friends and make some new ones while you are there.

Sole Is Well Attended

The sale on Bracht-Piner Road, Saturday, for Robert Bell, was well attended. Seventeen dairy cows averaged $222.50 per head, with the top sale being $322.50.

The sale was conducted by the Florence & Walton Real Estate & Auction Co. Watch this paper for other sales.

Democratic Fish Fry

The Democratic Club of Kenton County will hold their third annual Democratic Rally and Fish Fry on Friday evening, October 19th at 5:00 p. m. at the combined homes of CAC Chateau and World War II Vets, West Elm St., Ludlow.

The rally is for all Democratic and independent voters from the entire 5th Congressional District. Lt. Governor Harry Lee Waterfield, together with all the Circuit and some of the County Judges in the District will be on the speaking program.

Brotherhood to Meet

The Brotherhood of the Walton Baptist Church will meet Monday night, October 15, at 7:30, in the church, with Stanley Kacaba showing pictures of Alaska and giving descriptions of the life and country there. Visitors are cordially invited.

Stitching on plastics should be done with mercerized thread, a long stitch and a fine needle. Nylon thread should not be used for this purpose.

This is where Tomorrow starts!

After today, American cars will never be the same again. For the Big New Kind of Ford is a brilliant new automotive package—the one fine car in the low-price field!

We've unwrapped the 1957 Fords!

They're the best Fords of our lives.

The power is new—with Silver Anniversary V-8's to fit every horsepower need.

The style is new—a revolutionary, sharp, brilliant, clear-cut design that will stand out in traffic.

The comfort is new—a rock-solid velvet-road ride.

The braking is positive — silky smooth when your toe says "whoa." The steering is light and firm.

This is a great automobile, from the large honest dial faces on the instrument panel to the effortless loafing way it cruises.

The new Ford begins with the "Inner Ford." Its new elegance comes from within, from the way its automotive muscles are put together. All the changes are toward more rugged endurance, toward increased power, toward smoother operation. These are the bases for its "Mark of Tomorrow" elegance. This is the one fine car in the low-price field.

There are actually 19 different new kinds of Ford—and no matter which one you choose, it's yours at low Ford prices!

How does it look? It's only fourteen hands high—as tall as a child's pony. You can stand beside it and lean your elbows on its roof. And it's over seventeen feet long . . . 21 inches wider than it is high!

This big new Ford looks like the fun on a travel poster. It's the kind of car that looks sunshiny in the rain.

It looks as fresh as morning.

It looks like tomorrow—like the first thing out of Detroit that symbolizes the new Age of Movement.

See it at your Ford Dealer's. Give it your own Action Test. But you'd better leave a deposit . . . for you won't want to bring it back.

The Big New Kind of Ford Comes In 19 Models

In all models you have your choice of engines, either the great Mileage Maker Six or one of the new Silver Anniversary Ford V-8's.* You'll have no trouble choosing Ford—but you'll have trouble choosing which Ford! Six or V-8, the going is great!

A special 270-hp Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 engine available at extra cost. Also, extra-high performance Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 delivering up to 285 hp.*

STATE TAX FIGURES VIEWED BY UK PROF

More than one-fourth of all income received by Kentucky residents is paid out in federal, state and local taxes, Dr. John H. Johnson, acting director of the University of Kentucky Bureau of Business Research, told delegates attending the Kentucky Real Estate Association last week in Ashland.

Total state taxes during the year ending June 30, 1956, amounted to nearly $170 million—an increase of $63 million since 1950, Dr. Johnson explained. "State taxes during this fiscal year will approach the $200 million mark."

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Retirement Act:

Kentuckians who have been employed by Uncle Sam would do well to look into the new federal retirement act. Here, in the nation's capitol, officials are expecting 50,000 civil service workers to quit at the end of the year.

For example, a Kentuckian who is 55 and has worked for Uncle Sam for 30 years at an average salary of about $3000, could get a pension of more than $1600 a year. If your average salary has been higher, then your pension would be higher. Of course, to be eligible you must have been a contributor to the pension fund.

No Penalty, He Says:

From Ezra Taft Benson, the Secretary of Agriculture comes an announcement of interest to Kentucky tobacco farmers and others.

There will be no soil bank penalty if through a misunderstanding, you failed to plow under your crop, as per agreement.

One lawyer in the Department of Agriculture said that some farmers agreed to plow under and then decided not to. Under the soil bank program that farmer could be penalized 50 per cent of his payments. But, under this Benson announcement, the mistake may be forgiven for this year.

Integration:

Figures are out on the progress of integration and it shows that 105 Kentucky counties have integration in some form or another. In West Virginia the schools are 75 percent integrated, and in Missouri the program is about 88 percent complete.

Texas has about 100 schools, mostly junior and senior high schools with mixed classes. Eight states—Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, the two Carolinas and Virginia—have no integration.

This and That:

One of the best story tellers on Capitol Hill is Representative Noble Gregory of Kentucky, followed closely by Frank Chelf, the young congressman from the Fourth District. . . . Giltner Donaldson, chief aide to Brent Spence, is a story-house of information regarding legislative history. . . . Choicest office location on the Hill belongs to Senator Earle Clements. . . . Our first choice for the most efficient secretary goes to Miss Prudence Kelly of Springfield, in the office of Mr. Chelf. . . . Best time to drive to Washington for a visit is right now!

Statement required by the act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the acts of March 3, 1933, and July 2, 1946 (Title 39, United States Code, Section 233) showing the ownership, management, and circulation of Walton Advertiser, published weekly, at Walton, Kentucky, for October 1, 1956

About 216 insect species inhabit alfalfa fields for food and housing purposes.

Green and yellow vegetable crops averaged 68 pounds of fertilizer an acre in 1956, but hay fields and pasture fields got one pound or less fertilizer per acre in the U. S.

A new combination treatment, using aureomycin and sulfamethazine, controls cecal coccidiosis in chickens.

Mixing low-cost molasses with low-value roughages such as corncobs, straw, etc., has proved valuable in cattle feeding, reducing feed costs considerably.

All meats, fresh or frozen, should be cooked at moderately low temperatures, 350 degrees or lower.

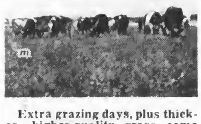
Fall-Fed Pastures Give More Grass, Extra Proteins



CATTLE can have extra days of grazing this fall and an earlier start on fields next spring when permanent pastures are top-dressed with fertilizer this fall, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Fertilized pastures get off to a quicker start in the spring and usually produce more grass per acre and more protein per pound of grass, according to studies by Midwestern agronomists.

Some agronomists say that fall application of fertilizer are preferable to spring applications in many respects, because of the firmer footing for trucks and spreaders.

Bluegrass stays palatable later in the summer when it is well fertilized and it recovers earlier in the fall for precious extra days of grazing.

Extra grazing days, plus thicker, higher-quality grass come from fall-fertilized permanent pastures.

In tests on 58 farm pastures in Wisconsin, the use of fall-applied fertilizer returned $63 per acre after deducting the cost of fertilizer, according to C. J. Chapman, extension soils specialist.

The pastures received a fall application of 500 pounds per acre of 10-10-10 fertilizer, containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash. Each of the plots yielded an average of 3,562 extra pounds of dry matter per acre from two clippings. Chapman says this increased yield represented a return of $3.50 for every dollar invested in fertilizer.

Your Heating System

We have so many different items to sell but this time of year most of our time is spent on heating systems and heating problems of all kinds, oil heaters, coal heaters, gas heaters, electric heaters, and wood heaters, parts for them, and service on the old ones now in use, furnace pipe and stove pipe in all sizes. Stove repairs are very hard to get as so many stove companies have quit business and no repairs for the ones they did make. I have stove repair books but the [illegible] have also gone out of business.
